Item 5. Other Events

On August 21, 2002, the company entered into a Second Amendment to Credit Agreement with Bank of America, N.A. The amendment changes the terms of an earlier credit agreement, as amended, implementing changes requested by the company. The prior agreement made available a revolving line of credit in the amount of $12,500,000 and a term loan to the company in the amount of $10,000,000.

Under the amended credit agreement, the company requested that the revolving line amount be reduced to $10,000,000. The interest rate is computed at the bank's Prime Rate or the London Inter-bank Offer Rate (LIBOR) adjusted by features specified in the credit facilities. The company may choose to borrow at the bank's publicly announced Prime Rate plus a margin per annum as specified in the credit facilities or, at the option of the company, loans within the approved commitment may be available in minimum amounts of $100,000 or more for specific periods ranging from one to six months, at LIBOR plus a margin specified in the credit facilities.

Edgar Filing: USANA HEALTH SCIENCES INC - Form 8-K

The amended credit agreement prohibits the purchase, retirement or redemption of the company's stock, except that from September 1, 2002 through December 31, 2003, the company may purchase, retire, or redeem up to $5,000,000 of its capital stock and thereafter the company may purchase, retire, or redeem capital stock in an aggregate amount not to exceed the sum of (1) 25% of the cumulative net income of the company for all fiscal quarters after December 31, 2003, less (2) the cumulative amount of cash dividends paid on the company's stock after December 31, 2003. This is expected to permit the company to continue its previously announced and ongoing stock repurchase program by making purchases in the open market within the limitation contained in the amendment to the credit agreement.

The company may not declare or pay any cash dividends without the prior written consent of Bank of America, except that after December 31, 2003, the company may declare and pay cash dividends in an aggregate amount not to exceed the sum of (1) 25% of the cumulative net income of the company less (2) the cumulative amount of the company's common stock purchased, retired, or redeemed after December 31, 2003. The amended credit agreement also contains restrictive covenants requiring the company to maintain a minimum tangible net worth according to ratios contained in the agreement.

The amended agreement expires September 1, 2004, unless terminated earlier in accordance with its terms. Unmodified sections of the original amended credit agreement remain in effect and unchanged by the second amendment. A copy of the second amendment is filed with this report as an exhibit hereto.
