(the "Issuer") held by Esopus Creek Value Series Fund LP - Series A, the 366,229 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer held by Esopus Creek Value Series Fund LP - Series L, and the 92,200 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer held by Andrew L. This Statement amends the Schedule 13D initially filed by the Reporting Persons identified below on September 24, 2012, as amended on January 18, 2013, as amended on February 19, 2013, and as amended on April 2, 2013 (collectively, the "Schedule 13D"). Except as set forth herein, the Schedule 13D is unmodified.

The names of the persons filing this statement on Schedule 13D (collectively, the "Reporting Persons") are:

- Esopus Creek Value Series Fund LP - Series A,

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is being supplemented by the following:

On April 2, 2013, the Reporting Persons sent a letter to the Issuer's Board of Directors (the "Board") to express their concerns regarding the Issuer. In the letter, the Reporting Persons strongly urged the Board to remove and replace Mark Ettenger as Chief Executive Officer; fill the then-existing Board vacancy; obtain top rated real estate advice (either from the new CEO or otherwise); and stop rebuffing indications of interest from major real estate firms interested in acquiring and/or developing Issuer properties. The Board vacancy has now been filled by Alexander Matina, and the Reporting Persons endorse that appointment. A redacted copy of this letter is attached hereto as Appendix III and is incorporated herein by reference.

Re: Continuing and Growing Concerns

Dear Sirs and Madam:

We write to you as managers of Esopus Creek Value Series Fund LP – Series L and Series A, significant shareholders of Trinity Place Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”).

As you know, we have repeatedly expressed concern about the Board vacancy, the Board’s apparent lack of urgency in dealing with the liquidation/monetization of the real estate assets, and your compliance with the terms of the confirmed Plan of Reorganization. Nothing we have seen of late has allayed any of these concerns.

We have now confirmed that other shareholders (and creditors) share our views; this based upon various unsolicited calls we have received in recent weeks, not to mention the March 28, 2013 creditor correspondence directed to this Board.

We strongly urge the Board to (i) stop rebuffing indications of interest from major real estate players interested in acquiring and/or developing the Company properties; (ii) appoint a new chief executive officer who would enjoy the confidence of most shareholders; (iii) fill the Board vacancy; and (iv) unless the new CEO is a seasoned real estate expert, obtain top-rated real estate advice.

If these actions are not taken, we believe the Company's shareholders will suffer at the hands of the very fiduciaries which are supposed to protect their legal and financial interests.

Mr. Ettenger was specifically appointed as the interim CEO – is that condition being honored by the Board? We have heard story after story of prospective real estate purchasers being refused meetings with Mr. Ettenger, a complete professional failure to return phone calls and email from such purchasers, or individuals left twisting in the wind after what seem to be nothing but perfunctory meetings with Mr. Ettenger.

Also concerning has been Mr. Ettenger’s public disparagement of the confirmed plan of reorganization, a legal document painstakingly negotiated and approved by the shareholder and creditor constituencies and approved by a federal judge, and his disparagement of the Company itself. Has the Board simply abdicated its responsibilities to oversee the principal officer of this Company, who also happens to serve as its Chairperson? And what role is our "independent director" playing?

We have also seen no evidence to date of a serious attempt by the current management to properly market its properties. As you know, Lauren Krueger served as CEO until the effective date of her resignation in mid-January of this year and Andrew Sole was on the Board until early January.
