You should consider the areas of risk described in connection with any forward-looking statements that may be made herein, which address additional factors that could cause our actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements and readers should carefully review this registration statement in its entirety. Except for our ongoing obligations to disclose material information under the Federal securities laws, we undertake no obligation to release publicly any revisions to any forward-looking statements, to report events or to report the occurrence of unanticipated events. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this registration statement, and you should not rely on these statements without also considering the risks and uncertainties associated with these statements and our business.

Forward Looking Statements

There are statements in this Registration Statement that are not historical facts. These "forward-looking statements" can be identified by use of terminology such as "believe," "hope," "may," "anticipate," "should," "intend," "plan," "will," "expect," "estimate," "project," "positioned," "strategy" and similar expressions. You should be aware that these forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that are beyond our control. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements, including those regarding future operations, are reasonable, we can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and they involve various risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements contained in this document include statements regarding our proposed products, market opportunities and acceptance, expectations for revenues, cash flows and financial performance, and intentions for the future. Such forward-looking statements are included under Item 1. "Business" and Item 2. "Financial Information - Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation." All forward-looking statements included in this document are made as of the date hereof, based on information available to us as of such date, and we assume no obligation to update any forward-looking statement. It is important to note that such statements may not prove to be accurate and that our actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations are those described under Item 1. "Business" and Item 2. "Financial Information - Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations." All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to us or persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by this section and other factors included elsewhere in this document. You should assume that the information contained in this document is accurate as of the date of this Form 10 only.

Item 1. Business.

General

Pacific Entertainment Corporation ("we", "us", "our" or the "Company") was formed and commenced operations in January 2006. The primary business focus of the Company is the development and production of family and children's DVDs and CD music products under the "Baby Genius" and related brands, including "Kid Genius," "Wee Worship," "123 Favorite Music," "Child Genius" and "Little Genius". We also have third party licensing agreements under which we developed musical products under other brands, such as "Guess How Much I Love You," "The Snowman," and "Precious Moments". The Company also licensed eight DVDs created by Precious Moments Inc., for which we pay royalties based on the net sales of the products.

In addition to the distribution of our CD and DVD products, we have developed and will continue to develop multiple revenue streams which include worldwide licensing and merchandising opportunities for toys, books, shoes, socks, infant and toddler layette items, and other customer products that have been inspired by our brands or which we feel we can market and sell through our distribution channels. The Company is committed to providing the very best in children's education and developmental entertainment, as well as quality items based on our brand and licensed characters. Following is a summary of our revenues, assets and net losses for our two most recent fiscal years and the three month periods ended March 31, 2011 and 2010:

	Years Ended December 31,
Total Revenue	$ 3,972,663	$ 3,303,038
Net Loss	$ (692,883)	$ (1,850,891)
Total Assets	$ 2,299,748	$ 2,374,133
Total Liabilities	$ 3,590,964	$ 3,286,123
Accumulated Deficit	$ (6,768,156)	$ (6,075,273)
	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2011	2010
Total Revenue	$ 1,307,177	$ 975,598
Net Loss	$ (172,806)	$ (316,252)
Total Assets	$ 2,000,740	$ 2,299,748
Total Liabilities	$ 3,231,745	$ 3,590,964
Accumulated Deficit	$ (6,940,962)	$ (6,768,156)

We anticipate a reduction in royalty revenue during the remaining quarters of 2011 and the first and second quarters of 2012 from 2010 levels due to the termination of one license agreement for toys and the anticipated commencement of sales of a new licensed toy line in Fall 2012. See "Products" below. We are unable to predict the amount of the overall reduction as we cannot know how many toys would have been sold under the old agreement or predict sales of the new line.

Our management team continues to evaluate new opportunities and revenue streams for the Company and, in 2010, we launched a line of DVDs containing classic movies and television programs (films or shows that were made during the Hollywood studio system era (pre-1970s) or which have received significant recognition, either at the time they were released or subsequently), under the brand "Pacific Entertainment Presents". We also occasionally provide remainder sales services to entertainment studios and select retailers seeking to sell overstocked or discontinued merchandise such as DVD, CDs, electronic games and other merchandise, for which we receive commissions.

The Company does not have written agreements with either the studios or its distributors for overstocked inventory purchased from studios and resold and cannot predict revenue from these remainder sales with any certainty. The purchase and resale of these items depends on variables such as the availability of overstocked inventory from the studios, the appeal of the overstocked items to our customers, the prices at which the merchandise can be purchased and the terms offered to the Company by the studios, and the price at which the customer will purchase the items available from the studio. Prices and terms vary from studio to studio and among customers.

Of course, all of our products will need to be accepted by our target audience, the licensees and the retailers.

Distribution

The “Baby Genius,” “Kid Genius,” “Wee Worship,” “123 Favorite Music,” “Child Genius” and “Little Genius” brands acquired by the Company in January 2006 when it assumed all of the rights and obligations of its Chief Executive Officer, Klaus Moeller, under an asset purchase agreement between Mr. Moeller and Genius Products, Inc. (“Genius Products”) for the purchase of all rights, copyrights and trademarks to the brands as well as all then existing DVD and CD releases under these titles, rights to original music, and DVD footage. The purchase price of $3,000,000 for the assets was payable over a term of five years subject to two 4.5% full-recourse, secured promissory notes. At the same time, the Company was required to execute an exclusive distribution agreement with Genius Products for a distribution fee equal to 20% of net sales until the full purchase price had been paid.

In 2008, the Company and Genius Products entered into certain settlement agreements for the early satisfaction of the notes through the extinguishment of all monetary obligations between the parties and the relinquishment of existing inventory to the Company, as well as for the early termination of the distribution agreement. Since that time, these DVD and CD products have been primarily self-distributed by the Company through direct relationships with customers. However, we also continue to utilize third party distributors for U.S. and international sales of these products. Total aggregate sales of these products through third party distributors for the twelve month period ended December 31, 2010 was approximately 11%.

Where we have licensed our brands for production of additional product lines, such as toys, books and clothing products, the products are primarily distributed by the licensee through the licensee’s marketing channels, although we may have opportunities for direct distribution through our website at www.babygenius.com.

We also have third party licensing agreements under which we developed musical products under other brands and receive revenue and pay a royalty for distributing those products through our distribution channels.

Most of our CDs and DVDs are self distributed and we experience a significant risk of concentration of customers on our self-distributed products because two of our customers each represented in excess of 10% of sales during our last fiscal year. In the event we were to lose one of these accounts, it could have an adverse impact on our results of operations or financial condition to the extent we could not replace sales through distribution to other customers, new or existing. CD and DVD products are also distributed through third party distributors, the largest of which represented 3.9% of gross sales in 2010.

To the extent we enter into license agreements that are exclusive as to particular products or territories or both, it creates a risk of concentration because we will have only one licensor distributing their products in those territories and will be substantially dependent upon their marketing efforts to increase sales. The loss of an exclusive licensee, or the failure of an exclusive licensee to adequately market and sell products produced by them in those exclusive territories, could adversely impact our revenue and, consequently, have an adverse impact on our results of operations and financial condition. We currently have only one exclusive license agreement, which is with Jakks Pacific. See “Products” below. That license gives Jakks Pacific the sole right to manufacture, market and distribute certain products, including learning and developmental toys based on our brand and characters, on a world-wide basis for a period of five years. To the extent it does not successfully sell the toys in each market, we will experience less royalty income from the license of our brand for those products and will be unable to offset the reduced royalties through licenses of such products to other parties or by directly manufacturing and distributing competing products.

Products

Our products consist primarily of family and children’s DVD and CD music products. These products are manufactured and sold under brand names such as “Baby Genius”, “Kid Genius”, “Wee Worship”, “123 Favorite Music” and “Pacific Entertainment Presents”. The Company released two new music products, “50 Classic Lullabies & Soothing Songs” and “Favorite Guitar and Piano Melodies” for pre-order in June 2010. We released another new music title, “Best of Baby Genius” in January 2011. We also began production of a new DVD based on the concept of shapes and colors, scheduled for release in 2011. The entire library of Baby Genius DVD and CD music products includes both English and Spanish versions.

We also license our Baby Genius brand for various product lines including toys, books, games and puzzles, clothing and layette items, sippy cups, and early learning aids, as well as others, and receive royalties based on sales of these products.

On December 17, 2009, we signed an agreement with Battat Incorporated whereby our brand was licensed to Battat for development and introduction to retail stores of a line of 24 toys in August 2009. The license granted Battat an exclusive license for the manufacture, marketing and distribution of a toy line based on the Baby Genius brand in the United States and Canada, and non-exclusive rights of distribution in other parts of the world. When it became clear that minimum sales requirements for 2011 would not be met, this license was terminated according to its terms in December 2010. At that time, we extended the sell-off period to allow Battat the right to continue to distribute the existing line of toys through late Spring 2011, although there is no guarantee that there will be additional sales of the products during the second quarter of 2011.

On January 11, 2011, the Company signed a five-year, world-wide license agreement with Jakks Pacific’s Tollytots® division for a new toy line to be distributed world-wide. As a result of the agreement, Tollytots® immediately began development on a comprehensive line of musical and early learning toys, incorporating the music, characters and themes associated with our Baby Genius series of videos and music CDs. As described above under “Distribution”, the new toy line will cover a broad range of exclusive categories including learning and developmental toys, most plush toys, and musical toys which Jakks Pacific has the sole right to manufacture, market and distribute on a world-wide basis. It also allows Jakks Pacific a non-exclusive right to manufacture, market and distribute products in several non-exclusive categories, including board games, puzzles, electronic learning aids and amusement plush toys, where we may already have other licenses who produce similar products or may grant licenses for such products to new parties in addition to Jakks Pacific. We will receive quarterly royalties from sales of products developed under the agreement by Tollytots. The Company will have rights to sell product developed under the license agreement directly via its website subject to availability of inventory from Tollytots. The agreement provides for certain guaranteed minimum payments to the Company for each contract year. The agreement is subject to early termination by the Company in specified territories in the event minimum sales requirements in those territories have not been met in any contract year. Currently, Tollytots has several toys in development for the line, including musical and early learning toys, and we anticipate that these toys will be ready for retail sales in the third quarter of 2012.

We anticipate a reduction in revenues during the remaining quarters of 2011 and the first and second quarters of 2012 from 2010 levels due to the gap between the cessation of sales by Battat in Spring 2011 and the anticipated commencement of sales of the Tollytot line in Fall 2012. We are unable to predict the amount of the reduction in revenue with certainty as we could not predict the amount of sales that would have been made by Battat during the period had the line had not been cancelled and cannot predict with certainty the degree to which the loss in sales of the Battat line will be offset by other royalty income.

We will continue to explore the potential for derivative products under the Baby Genius brand to expand brand awareness and sales. For instance, we have created custom products using the Baby Genius brand for several book and music premiums, including Taco Bell and Gerber. For example, through an agreement with a third party licensee, we created small books based on our characters specifically for Taco Bell which could be inserted as a gift in kids meals purchased at Taco Bell locations.

During June 2010, the Company introduced a line of DVDs including classic movies and television programs (films or shows that were made during the Hollywood studio system era (pre-1970s) or which have received significant recognition, either at the time they were released or subsequently), "Pacific Entertainment Presents". Initially consisting of seven titles, each focusing on a specific genre such as Horror, Western, SciFi, Action, Mystery, War, and Gangster, an additional six titles were added in late 2010 expanding the line with the Super Hero's collection as well as Family Favorites. Some of the titles included in our Pacific Entertainment Presents line are licensed from a third party, Global Access Entertainment, Inc. ("Global Access"), pursuant to a distribution agreement dated November 17, 2009. The distribution agreement has an initial three-year term and requires us to make quarterly royalty payments to Global Access. After three years, the agreement will continue but may be canceled by either party on ninety days written notice. The agreement grants the Company exclusive rights to design, manufacture, produce and distribute the titles in the United States and Canada for digital and non-digital formats and worldwide in digital formats.

On September 20, 2010, the Company entered into a joint venture agreement between the Company and Dr. Shulamit Ritblatt to form Circle of Education, LLC (COE), a California limited liability company, for the purpose of creation and distribution of a curriculum to promote school readiness for children ages 0-5 years. The Company commissioned research into the use of music-based curriculum through San Diego State University over the past two to two and a half years based on certain unregistered copyrights and trademarks, confidential information, designs, ideas, discoveries, inventions, processes, research results and work product it had developed. Dr. Ritblatt, who holds a Doctorate of Philosophy in Child Development and Family Relations has conducted research into child development and has experience developing early learning curriculum for children. To date, COE continues to develop its product concept and has not introduced any products to market. We currently anticipate that the initial product will be ready for presentation to retailers in the third quarter of 2011 and be available for sale in the fourth quarter of 2011. Because the concept is still in development, we are not able to provide a description of what the final product will look like, nor can we guarantee a schedule for introduction. The product will be marketed to retailers through our established distribution channels and through marketing efforts similar to what we use for our current product lines and will be sold directly to consumers via our website. For more information regarding the terms of the joint venture agreement between the Company and Dr. Ritblatt, see the sub-heading "Circle of Education Joint Venture Agreement" below.

We have third party licensing agreements under which we developed musical products under other brands, such as "Guess How Much I Love You," "The Snowman" and "Precious Moments". The Company also licensed the rights to eight DVDs previously created by Precious Moments in exchange for royalty payments on net sales of the DVD products. Through an exclusive licensing agreement with the San Diego Zoological Society, we created a series of Baby Genius DVD's featuring footage from the San Diego Zoo and San Diego Wild Animal Park. We will continue to investigate partnerships which may lead to valuable additions to our product lines.

Circle of Education Joint Venture Agreement

Circle of Education, LLC (“COE”) was formed pursuant to the joint venture agreement between the Company and Dr. Shulamit Ritblatt referenced above. Although the agreement provides the Company with a 75% voting interest in the Company, with the remaining 25% being held by Dr. Ritblatt, the Company holds only 10,000,000 of the 15,000,000 currently issued and outstanding units of COE. The Company agreed to allow COE to hold 5,000,000 of the units which would otherwise have been issued to it in reserve and to allow the sale of those units to raise additional capital for COE if needed. On the two-year anniversary of the agreement, any remaining portion of the reserved units will be issued to the Company. To the extent the reserved units are issued to any third party, the Company’s voting interest in COE will be adjusted accordingly.

To date, none of the reserved units has been sold and COE has no current plans to conduct a private offering to raise additional funds. The Company has continued to fund product development and operations for COE and anticipates that it will continue to do so at least until COE generates sufficient cash flow from operations to fund future cash requirements for its general operations and additional product development. The Company cannot estimate the amount of cash expenditures or the duration of its continued support at this time. The Company provided approximately $53,008 in funding to COE during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010, and an additional $22,700 during the first quarter of 2011.

Until the combined ownership interest of the Company and Dr. Ritblatt in COE is reduced to 50% or less of all outstanding units, certain actions require a supermajority vote of the members of COE equal to 90%. These actions include the merger, consolidation or other business combination of COE, material changes in the business of COE, amendment of the charter documents, removal of managers or an action that would result in reclassification of COE for tax purposes.

Pursuant to the joint venture agreement, COE was established with a board of managers consisting of three managers appointed by the Company and one manager appointed by Dr. Ritblatt. In the event any of the reserved units or any additional units are sold to third parties, an additional manager will be appointed to the board. Each member of the board of managers may only be replaced by the party who appointed that member. Pursuant to the agreement, each of the Company and Dr. Ritblatt have agreed to vote their units in favor of the appointment of the other partner's nominees to the board of managers.

The agreement provided for the initial appointment of Mr. Larry Balaban as the Chief Executive Officer of COE. In April 2011, Mr. Balaban resigned that position and was replaced by Mr. David Ritblatt, who is also the husband of Dr. Shulamitt Ritblatt. The agreement includes buy-sell provisions between the partners (including rights of first refusal, tag-along rights (forcing the selling partner to include you) and drag-along rights (forcing the other partner to sell)). Drag-along rights are only triggered under the agreement in the event of receipt of an offer to purchase 90% or more of the outstanding units of COE at fair market value. All such rights will terminate in the event of a public offering by or a change of control of COE. Following the two-year anniversary of the agreement, either of the partners may convert their units in COE into shares of the Company's common stock. We are unable to determine at this time how many shares would be issued upon such a conversion since the conversion price is tied to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of conversion as well as the value of the units.

The operating agreement for COE, which will control the Company's relationship with any new investors in the limited liability company, includes rights of first refusal in favor of COE and all remaining members, including the Company, in the event any member sells an interest in the limited liability company. The operating agreement incorporates the governance terms of the joint venture agreement, including the composition of the board of managers.

Marketing

We market our products in a variety of ways, including through our website at www.babygenius.com. The website was completely redesigned and packaged with new interactive features, and launched the Baby Genius Club in Spring 2009. The club offers ways for parents and caregivers to enrich their child's Baby Genius experience with exclusive, members-only promotions, merchandise discounts, opportunities to earn points toward future purchases and a membership kit.

Other features on the website include a dedicated "Circle of Education" section, games and activities, and a room for parents to share their experience with other parents, read testimonials, get tips on parenting and link to external websites for important information.

We are developing the "Circle of Education" musical based system for early learning to help prepare children for socialization and education. The curriculum and songs are being developed in conjunction with Dr. Shulamit Ritblatt, Ph.D., Department Chair at the San Diego University Department of Child and Family Development, who is spearheading a research project that exposes young children through music to behavior and knowledge that they will need to succeed in kindergarten. We presented a live concert, featuring Grammy winner Patti Austin, to promote the introduction of the program, in addition to media appearances by Larry Balaban, our Chief Creative Officer.

During the introduction of the Baby Genius toy line in 2009, the Company conducted marketing programs that included print and online advertising, marketing programs targeting mothers with children one to five years old, DVD and CD inserts cross-promoting the product lines, on-air spots running on Comcast and Cox VOD, and a dedicated national publicity campaign, including a television media tour hosted by C.O.O., Larry Balaban. We anticipate that sales will continue to be made by Battat through Spring 2011; however, we cannot guarantee that any sales will be made by Battat in the second quarter of 2011.

We make 12-minute segments of our DVD products available “On-Demand” through Comcast and Cox Communications. We neither pay nor receive royalties for the airing of these segments, which are geared toward gaining exposure of our products.

We utilize multiple forms of media to market our brand for all products. We engage in print campaigns and our Chief Creative Officer, Larry Balaban, has made a number of appearances on television in an effort to create and expand consumer awareness of our products, including appearances on Good Morning America Now, the Today Show, Health Corner, ABC Now, Money Matters, Fox Business, Comcast Babyboost, CN8 PHIL, Dr. Lisa and NBC 4 NY. Our print advertising has reached consumers through a number of English and Spanish publications in the United States, including Today's Family Magazine, The Parent Guide, Parents Magazine, Parenting Magazine, and WomansDay.com, among others. Through distributors, promotional partners and direct marketing, we plan to market our brand worldwide. Currently, we have licensed broadcast deals in over one hundred countries around the world, audio deals in five countries, DVD deals in fourteen countries, and VOD deals in three countries.

Competition

Our Baby Genius brand competes with other brands in the 0 to 60 month age range that produce DVDs and CDs, books and other branded, licensed products, including toys. Some of our main competitors are Baby Einstein, Brainy Baby, So Smart, The Wiggles and Sesame Baby.

The main competition for our DVD and CD products comes from the major studios, such as Disney and Universal Studios that produce a large volume of children's programming, including our main competition, the "Baby Einstein" brand. The next level of competition is from other independent production companies, distributors and content producers/owners. To be competitive, we must produce high quality creative productions and must develop the reputation and contacts to meet with the principal players in this industry.

We believe that our Baby Genius brand is positioned in the market as a high quality, value brand. Each Baby Genius DVD includes all tracks in both English and Spanish. The DVDs are packaged with companion music CDs. We believe this additional music CD with no additional cost to the consumer adds value to our products and, with our broad, multi-media marketing campaign, we believe we are positioned competitively to reach both English and Spanish consumers. Although many of our competitors have more resources than we do, we have specifically designed our marketing campaign to reach consumers in the preschool entertainment and education market even if our exposure is not as broad as some of our competitors.

We also introduced a toy line in August 2009 through a licensing arrangement with toy manufacturer, Battat Incorporated, which Battat has a right to sell through Spring 2011, and have launched a series of books based on the Baby Genius brand through Meadowbrook Press and distributor Simon & Schuster. Our primary competitors for these products are Playskool, Fisher Price, Little Tykes and Leapfrog. However, we will also face intense competition for retail shelf space for these products and will compete with a variety of other toys and books offered by those retailers in addition to products produced by our primary competitors in the DVD and CD markets.

During 2010, the Company introduced a line of DVDs including classic movies and television programs, "Pacific Entertainment Presents". The primary competition for this line of products is various studios that also have lines of products considered in the public domain.

Customers and Licensees

For fiscal year 2010, the revenue from three customers or licensees comprised 27.6%, 16.3% and 14.1% of the Company's total revenue, one of which reflects royalty income from Battat Incorporated. Those three accounts made up 39.1%, 0%, and 0% of the total accounts receivable balance at December 31, 2010, respectively. For fiscal year 2009, the Company had revenue from three accounts comprised of 28.5%, 13.7% and 11.5% of the Company's total revenue, which are not necessarily the same as those reflected for 2010. Those three accounts made up 24.2%, 0%, and 0% of the total accounts receivable balance at December 31, 2009, respectively. As indicated above under "Distribution," there is significant financial risk associated with a dependence upon a small number of customers or licensees. The license agreement with Battat Incorporated was terminated when it became clear that Battat would not meet certain minimum sales requirements stated in the agreement. As a result of the loss of that revenue stream from Spring 2011 (when Battat is required to cease making sales) to the introduction of the new toy line by Tollytots in Fall 2012, we will experience a significant gap in revenue from royalties which we may not be able to offset with increased sales from our DVD and CD products or from other licensees. If we were to lose one of the customers for our DVD and CD products, the loss in revenue could also adversely impact our results of operations and financial condition to the extent we were unable to offset the loss in sales with additional sales to new or existing customers. The Company periodically assesses the financial strength of these customers and establishes allowances for any anticipated bad debt. At December 31, 2010 and 2009, no allowance for bad debt has been established for the these customers as these amounts are believed to be fully collectible.

Seasonality

Our business has reacted to seasonal influence, such as the holiday season. We generally anticipate increased sales in the third and fourth quarters principally due to sales from the holiday season. Due to the seasonality of our sales, we expect quarterly results to fluctuate. Our results of operations may also fluctuate significantly as a result of a variety of other factors, including changing consumer tastes and the marketing efforts of our distributors.

Government Regulation

We are currently subject to regulations applicable to businesses generally, including numerous federal and state laws that impose disclosure and other requirements upon the origination, servicing, enforcement and advertising of credit accounts, and limitations on the maximum amount of finance charges that may be charged by a credit provider. Although credit to our customers is provided by third parties without recourse to us based upon a customer's failure to pay, any restrictive change in the regulation of credit, including the imposition of, or changes in, interest rate ceilings, could adversely affect the cost or availability of credit to our customers and, consequently, our results of operations or financial condition.

Licensed toy products are subject to regulation under the Consumer Product Safety Act and regulations issued thereunder. These laws authorize the Consumer Product Safety Commission (the "CPSC") to protect the public from products which present a substantial risk of injury. The CPSC can require the manufacturer of defective products to repurchase or recall such products. The CPSC may also impose fines or penalties on manufacturers or retailers. Similar laws exist in some cities and other countries in which we plan to market our products. Although we do not manufacture and may not directly distribute the toy products, a recall of any of the products may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We also maintain websites, including our website located at www.babygenius.com, and are subject to laws and regulations directly applicable to Internet communications and commerce, which is a currently developing area of the law. The United States has enacted Internet laws on children's privacy, copyrights and taxation. However, laws governing the Internet remain largely unsettled. The growth of the market for Internet commerce may result in more stringent consumer protection laws, both in the United States and abroad, that place additional burdens on companies conducting business over the Internet. We cannot predict with certainty what impact such laws will have on our business in the future. In order to comply with new or existing laws regulating Internet commerce, we may need to modify the manner in which we conduct our website business, which may result in additional expense.

Because our products are manufactured by third parties and licensees, the Company is not significantly impacted by federal, state and local environmental laws and does not have significant costs associated with compliance with such laws and regulations.

Research and Development

The Company engages in the development of new products as part of its ongoing business. In accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification regarding the topics of Intangible Assets (350) and Research and Development (730), the costs of new product development and significant improvement to existing products are capitalized while routine and periodic alterations to existing products are expensed as incurred. We capitalized as intangible assets and capitalized product development in process $210,742 and $166,227 for the years ending December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009, respectively. The amount expensed for product development in the years ending December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009 are $7,796 and $46,531, representing updates to existing products which may include changes to artwork and/or content. The Company is responsible for the entire expenditure of any research and development of new products, with the exception of licensed product development costs borne by the licensee. Research and development costs are generally passed on to customers through pricing of our products.

Employees

We currently have twelve employees, all of whom are full-time employees.

Insurance

We currently maintain commercial general liability and directors and officers insurance in levels deemed to be appropriate for the size and complexity of the Company.

We currently maintain no insurance coverage against trademark and copyright infringement protection. Although there have been no claims made against the Company, there is no assurance that the Company would have sufficient insurance to cover such claims or that we would prevail against any future claim. Successful claims could have a serious adverse effect upon our financial condition and our future viability.

The Company maintains workman's compensation coverage as required by the laws of the states in which we have employees.

Intellectual Property

We strive to obtain ownership rights in the content included in our DVD and CD products, and currently own the majority of sing-a-long and instrumental (non-classical) songs included in those products. However, because there are many songs which are not available in the public domain and which we think make desirable additions to our products (for instance, classical music), we license some songs included in our products from third party licensors such as the Harry Fox Agency and NAXOS. Currently, we are licensing approximately 25 songs through these agencies under terms generally available to the market. We pay royalties on licensed songs and, should any of the songs no longer be available for licensing, we would need to make adjustments to our existing products to remove or replace them. Other songs could be used and the cost of the change would be minimal.

We own the trademarks “Baby Genius”, “Kid Genius”, “Child Genius”, “Wee Worship” and “Little Genius,” as well as trademarks on characters developed for our DVD releases and associated with our different brands. We will obtain trademarks for any additional titles. We currently hold fourteen registered trademarks in multiple classes in the United States. We hold additional trademarks in the United States that are associated with our other brands and we also have a number of registered and pending trademarks in Europe and other countries in which our products are sold.

We currently hold eleven motion picture and thirteen sound recording copyrights related to our DVD and CD products. However, we do not generally file for copyright protection for our productions, but rely on common law principles and agreements with our vendors and content providers to secure our rights in the intellectual property aspects of our products. We do not currently hold patents with respect to any of our products.

The Company had commissioned research into the use of music-based curriculum through San Diego State University and had developed certain unregistered copyrights and trademarks, confidential information, designs, ideas, discoveries, inventions, processes, research results and work product based on the research results. The Company obtained an initial voting and economic interest of seventy-five percent of the outstanding units of the newly formed limited liability company, Circle of Education, LLC, in exchange for the contribution of all of these rights and any other interests of the Company in the Circle of Education program. COE is in the process of registering trademarks associated with its name.

Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation

The following discussion and analysis of our results of operations, financial condition and liquidity and capital resources should be read in conjunction with our audited financial statements and related notes for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009 and the unaudited consolidated financial statements for the three month periods ended March 31, 2011 and 2010. In addition to historical consolidated financial information, the following discussion contains forward-looking statements that reflect our plans, estimates and beliefs. Our actual results could differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements.

Safe Harbor for Forward-Looking Statements

When used in this statement, the words “may,” “will,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “continue,” “estimate,” “project,” “intend,” and other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements regarding events, conditions, and financial trends that may affect the Company’s future plans of operations, business strategy, operating results, and financial position. Persons reviewing this report are cautioned that any forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties and those actual results may differ materially from those included within the forward looking statements as a result of various factors. Such factors include, among other things, uncertainties relating to our success in judging consumer preferences, financing our operations, entering into strategic partnerships, engaging management, seasonal and period-to-period fluctuations in sales, failure to increase market share or sales, inability to service outstanding debt obligations, dependence on a limited number of customers, increased production costs or delays in production of new products, intense competition within the industry, inability to protect intellectual property in the international market for our products, changes in market condition and other matters disclosed by us in our public filings from time to time. Forward-looking statements speak only as to the date they are made. The Company does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

Our Business

Pacific Entertainment Corporation (“we”, “us”, “our” or the “Company”) commenced operations in January 2006, assuming all of the rights and obligations of its Chief Executive Officer, Klaus Moeller, under an Asset Purchase Agreement between the Company and Genius Products, Inc., in which we obtained all rights, copyrights, and trademarks to the brands “Baby Genius”, “Little Genius”, “Kid Genius”, and “Wee Worship”, and all then existing productions under those titles. We provide family entertainment and music-based products that we believe will be entertaining, educational and beneficial to the well-being of infants and young children. We create, market and sell children’s DVDs, CD music, toy, and book products in the United States by distribution at wholesale to retail stores and outlets. We also license the use of our brands internationally to others to manufacture, market and sell the products, whereby we receive advances and royalties. This includes approximately seven active licenses to produce children’s games and puzzles, electronic learning aids, “sippy cups,” shoes, socks and infant and toddler layette items pursuant to which we receive royalties on sales made by the licensees. We will continue to explore new licensing opportunities for our brands to increase brand awareness and to develop additional revenue streams through royalties.

The Company released two new music products, “50 Classic Lullabies & Soothing Songs” and “Favorite Guitar and Piano Melodies” for pre-order in June 2010. We have released another new music title, “Best of Baby Genius” in January 2011. We also began production of a new DVD based on the concept of shapes and colors, scheduled for release in 2011.

In August 2009, the Company launched a line of Baby Genius pre-school toys. The line of 24 Baby Genius toys, manufactured by toy manufacturer, Battat Incorporated, includes musical, activity, and role-play toys that incorporate the Baby Genius principle of music as a core learning tool to engage and encourage children to communicate, connect, discover, and use their imagination. The Company cancelled the agreement in December 2010 according to the terms of the contract, permitting Battat to continue selling the current line of toys until late Spring 2011.

On January 11, 2011, the Company signed a world-wide license agreement with Jakks Pacific’s Tollytots® division for a new toy line. As a result of the five-year agreement, Tollytots® immediately began development on a comprehensive line of musical and early learning toys, incorporating the music, characters and themes from the Baby Genius series of videos and music CDs. The new toy line will cover a broad range of exclusive categories including learning and developmental toys, most plush toys and musical toys, as well as several non-exclusive categories, including board games, puzzles, electronic learning aids and amusement plush toys.

The Company, in partnership with Dr. Shulamit Ritblatt, has developed “Circle of Education,” an early childhood education curriculum using music as the basis for skills required to prepare pre-school children for Kindergarten. This product is designed to assist teachers and parents in providing their pre-school children with the skills required to succeed in their first steps of education. Circle of Education, LLC was formed on September 24, 2010, pursuant to a joint venture agreement between the Company and Dr. Ritblatt. The Company obtained an initial voting and economic interest of seventy-five percent of the outstanding units of the newly formed company in exchange for the contribution of all intellectual property rights the Company had in the Circle of Education program. As of December 31, 2010, we have recognized an investment in the new property of $53,008. There is no income or expenses consolidated in the financial statements of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2010. In 2009, research and development costs were expensed by the Company in the amount of $28,455, in accordance with FASB Codification Topic 730, Research and Development.

The Company also obtains licenses for other select brands we feel we can market and sell through our distribution channels, including “Guess How Much I Love You,” “The Snowman” and “Precious Moments”.

During 2010, the Company launched a line of DVDs including classic movies and television programs, “Pacific Entertainment Presents”. Initially consisting of seven titles, each focusing on a specific genre such as Horror, Western, SciFi, Action, Mystery, War, and Gangster, an additional six titles were added in late 2010 expanding the line with the Super Hero’s collection as well as Family Favorites.

Results of Operations

Please refer to the financial statements, including references to notes in the financial statements, which are included in this Form 10 and are incorporated herein by reference, for further information regarding the results of operations of the Company.

Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2010 Compared to December 31, 2009

Our summary results are presented below:

	2010	2009
Revenues	$ 3,972,663	$ 3,303,038
Costs and Expenses	(4,012,788)	(4,318,076)
Depreciation and Amortization	(694,698)	(659,302)
Loss from Operations	(734,823)	(1,674,340)
Other Income	46,060	20,914
Interest Expense	(70,406)	(205,302)
Gain on Settlement of Debt	66,286	2,809
Gain/Loss on Disposition of Assets	-	5,028
Total Other Income	41,940	(176,551)
Net Loss	$ (692,883)	$ (1,850,891)
Net Loss per common share	$ (0.01)	$ (0.03)
Weighted average shares outstanding	54,757,285	54,351,487

Revenues. Revenues by product segment and for the Company as a whole were as follows:

	2010	2009
Direct PEC Product Sales	$ 1,661,809	$ 2,435,116
Licensed and Distributed Products	1,278,385	158,754
Licensing & Royalties	1,032,469	709,168
Total Revenue	$ 3,972,663	$ 3,303,038

Direct product sales represent items in which the Company holds intellectual property rights such as trademarks and copyrights, whether registered or unregistered, to the characters and which are manufactured and sold by the Company directly at wholesale to retail stores and outlets. The decrease of the twelve month period ending December 31, 2010 versus the twelve month period ending December 31, 2009, was due in part to sales of approximately $558,700 during 2009 derived from inventory received from the various Genius Products settlement agreements (see Item 1. "Business - Distribution") that was sold at discounted pricing due to the age and condition of the inventory. Exclusive of these items, direct sales were approximately $1,876,000 in 2009, resulting in a decrease of $214,000 compared to 2010, or 8.8%, primarily due to the overall economic condition in the U.S. during the year as well as changes in the space allocated by retailers to DVD and CD products in general.

The licensed and distributed product sales category include items for which we license the rights from other companies to copyrights and trademarks of select brands we feel will do well within our distribution channels and remainder sales of overstocked product purchased from studios and resold through our distribution channel. In 2010, the Company launched a new line of DVDs including classic movies and television programs under the "Pacific Entertainment Presents" brand which was well received during the holiday season. This resulted in approximately $476,000 in sales growth in this category. The remaining sales increase was due to sales of DVDs from other studios acquired and sold through our distribution channels. The Company does not have written agreements with either the studios or its distributors for overstocked DVD inventory purchased from studios and resold and cannot predict revenue from these remainder sales with any certainty. The purchase and resale of these items depends on variables such as the availability of overstocked DVD inventory from the studios, the appeal of the overstocked items to our customers, the prices at which the DVDs can be purchased and the terms offered to the Company by the studios, and the price at which the customer will purchase the items available from the studio. Prices and terms vary from studio to studio and among customers.

Licensing and royalties is revenue for our brands licensed to others to manufacture and/or market, both internationally and domestically. There may be fluctuation in licensing revenue due to economic conditions in the sales territory. Gross royalty income increased approximately $323,000 due to the toy line which was introduced in August 2009.

We continue to add new direct sales outlets and distribution partners and there continue to be additional sales opportunities we are actively pursuing, although it is possible that retailers will choose not to include our product line.

Gross Profit on revenue increased $156,802, or 8.3%, in 2010 as compared to 2009.

Our direct products compete in the pre-school music and DVD categories. We believe we compare favorably in the quality of our products, as well as competitive price point. In spite of the global economic decline we exhibited a minimal decrease in 2010, with an increase in 2009. We continue to market direct to retailers, although the Company continues to be challenged with retailer department changes, such as space limitations in DVD & CD departments.

Our licensed product category is expanding and we are adding additional titles. The challenges relating to this category are retailer department changes, including space limitations, as well as competition with other studios releasing similar products. There is no guarantee that the products will be accepted by the public or that retailers will elect to carry our line.

We are exploring new domestic and international licensing opportunities and investigating additional relevant external brands to license, adding to the diversity of our product line, while maintaining the integrity of our core mission of educating and entertaining families and children.

The Company's business is subject to the effects of seasonality, causing revenues to fluctuate with consumer purchasing behavior, competition, and the timing of holiday periods.

The 2011 economic outlook is uncertain, however, we anticipate but cannot guarantee continued sales growth through our actions to improve our existing products, maintaining highly competitive price points, adding content to our product offerings and adding additional channels of distribution.

Costs. Costs and expenses, excluding depreciation and amortization, consisting primarily of cost of sales, marketing and sales expenses, and general and administrative costs, decreased $305,288 (7.1%) for the twelve month period ended December 31, 2010 compared to the twelve month period ended December 31, 2009.

Cost of Sales increased $512,823, or 36.2%, during 2010 compared to 2009. The increase was a result of increased direct material costs of $417,856, royalties on licensed product lines of $44,872, and shipping of $40,461. The primary factors for the increases of direct materials and shipping costs were increased volume of product sales in 2010 as well as a reduced cost of materials sold resulting from inventory received as part of the settlement agreements with Genius Products that was sold in 2009. Increases in royalty costs are related to the gains in the licensed product category.

Selling, General and Administrative (SG&A) expenses consist primarily of salaries, employee benefits and stock based compensation as well as other expenses associated with executive management, finance, legal, facilities, marketing, rent, and other professional services. Costs associated with these categories are detailed as follows:

General and Administrative	$ 1,397,191	$ 2,256,918
Marketing and Sales	678,188	597,837
Product Development	7,796	46,531
Total Selling, General, and Administrative	$ 2,083,175	$ 2,901,286

General and administrative costs for 2010 decreased $859,727. The decrease includes a decrease of $400,924 in stock compensation expense, a decrease of $449,209 in salaries and related costs, $52,255 of decreases for accounting services, and $22,687 decreased legal services costs. These decreased expenses were partially offset by increases of $41,251 for investor relations, $20,868 for insurance premiums, and $16,681 in rental expense. The increase in rental expense is partially offset in Other Income due to the sublease of the Del Mar, California offices.

Salary expenses for 2010 were reduced due to the Company's top four executives agreeing to a retroactive salary reduction for 2010 from a previously reduced level of $125,000 each per annum to $80,000 inclusive of car allowance. Each of these executives also receives an annual auto allowance of $11,400. Future salaries are anticipated to increase slightly in 2011, as the outside accounting services retained previously has converted to an employee position, although a corresponding decrease will occur in the accounting services cost. Future salary expense is also subject to the contractual salary increases discussed under "Item 6. Executive Compensation" below. Expenditures for SG&A are not generally seasonal and require consistent cash flow expenditures.

The stock compensation expense in 2009, for options granted at 110% of current market price to officers of the Company with a two year vesting period, was valued using the Black-Scholes model as required by Topic 718, Compensation, of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. As the Company had the obligation to grant these stock options at the beginning of 2008, and the options were to vest partially during 2008, the Company accrued stock compensation expense of $810,898 and recorded a liability to the four officers in the same amount as of December 31, 2008. The remaining $486,539 of stock compensation expense was expensed in 2009. See "Item 6. Executive Compensation" below. In addition, on December 31, 2009, Stock Option Grant Notices were issued to seven employees and service providers under the 2008 Stock Option Plan, as amended, for options to purchase 130,000 shares, fully vesting at December 31, 2009. These options were valued using the Black-Scholes model as of the date of the grant, and the full expense was recognized in 2009. In 2010, stock option grant notices were issued to various employees and consultants for the purchase of up to 840,000 shares, 540,000 vesting as of December 31, 2010 and 100,000 vesting each year thereafter in 2011, 2012 and 2013. The total expense recognized in 2010 was $117,610. There is no cash outflow associated with the granting of the options or recognition of the expense.

Accounting Services expenditures are primarily related to outside accounting firm fees for quarterly reviews and audit, as well as the annual audits performed for the years 2007 and 2008 charged in 2009 ($103,852). It is expected that the fees for future audits will remain at the reduced cost as the audits will be performed annually and improved processes have been implemented. The Company also engaged outside accounting services for support to the daily operational activities in both years.

Legal services expenditures decreases are primarily attributable to our Disclosure Statement filing with the Financial Investment Regulatory Agency (FINRA) to establish a secondary trading market on the OTC Market Group, Inc. systems, various licensing agreements, and activities caused by the bankruptcy of a licensee and subsequent recapture of inventory, all of which occurred in 2009.

Marketing and sales expenses increased 13.4% primarily due to commissions paid on the increased royalty revenue in 2010. This increase was offset by decreased expenditures in 2010 for advertising activities related to the 2009 launch of the toy line, public relations outside services, and development costs for the Circle of Education program expensed in 2009. Marketing activities include trade shows, public relations firms, and personal contact. Marketing expenses exhibit some fluctuation earlier in the year due to timing of trade shows.

Product development charges are for routine and periodic alterations to existing products. All costs for new product development and significant improvements to existing products are capitalized in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codifications Topic 350, Intangible Assets, and Topic 730, Research and Development Costs.

Interest Expense. Interest expense resulted from related party loans and debentures. A full discussion of the related party notes payable and debentures issued can be located in “Certain Relationships and Related Transactions” below.

Total interest expense decreased $137,011 for 2010 versus 2009 due to various repayments of Related Party loans and the termination of debenture interest payments with the establishment of a secondary trading market on the OTC Market Group, Inc. system.

Three Month Period Ended March 31, 2011 Compared to March 31, 2010

Our summary results of operations are presented below:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2011	2010
Revenues	$ 1,307,177	$ 975,598
Costs and expenses	(1,404,008)	(1,121,389)

Loss from Operations	(151,660)	(315,191)
Other Income	10,416	10,199
Interest Expense	(35,006)	(11,260)
Total Other Income	(24,590)	(1,061)
Net Loss	(176,250)	(316,252)
Net Loss attributable to Noncontrolling Interest	3,444	-
Net Loss attributable to Pacific Entertainment Corporation	$ (172,806)	$ (316,252)
Net Loss per common share	$ (0.00)	$ (0.01)
Weighted average shares outstanding	55,116,515	54,595,407

Revenues. Revenues by product segment and for the Company as a whole were as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2011	2010
Direct PEC Product Sales	$ 643,809	$ 373,458
Licensed and Distributed Products	249,483	370,300
Licensing & Royalties	413,885	231,840
Total Revenue	$ 1,307,177	$ 975,598

Direct product sales represent items in which the Company holds intellectual property rights such as trademarks and copyrights, whether registered or unregistered, to the characters and which are manufactured and sold by the Company directly at wholesale to retail stores and outlets. The increase of the three months ended March 31, 2011 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2010, was due to sales through a direct to consumer offering with Groupon. Management believes that the Company is on target to increase direct product sales volumes over 2010, although economic and retail conditions in the market could impact our future sales in a negative manner and we are unable to guarantee increased sales. We continue to explore additional sales opportunities with retail and distribution customers; however, there is no guarantee that our products will be accepted by these new customers.

The licensed and distributed product sales category includes items for which we license rights from other companies to copyrights and trademarks of select brands we feel will do well within our distribution channels as well as overstock inventory from other studios which we sell and from which we receive income. The Company does not have written agreements with either the studios or its distributors for overstocked DVD inventory purchased from studios and resold and cannot predict revenue from these remainder sales with any certainty. The purchase and resale of these items depends on variables such as the availability of overstocked DVD inventory from the studios, the appeal of the overstocked items to our customers, the prices at which the DVDs can be purchased and the terms offered to the Company by the studios, and the price at which the customer will purchase the items available from the studio. Prices and terms vary from studio to studio and among customers. For the three months ended March 31, 2011, the category decreased over the same period in 2010 as a result of a reduction in outside studio product acquired and sold.

Licensing and royalties is revenue for our brands licensed to others to manufacture and/or market, both internationally and domestically. New license royalty revenue, including the toy line launched in August 2009, as well as advances received on signing of license agreements, is responsible for the growth in this category. There may be fluctuation in licensing revenue due to economic conditions in the sales territory. We believe this revenue source will decrease during the remainder of 2011 due to the cancellation of the Battat toy license agreement and then increase in the subsequent years with the introduction of the new toy line currently in development with Jakks Pacific's Tollytots® division.

Our products compete in the pre-school music, books, DVDs, and toy categories. We believe we compare favorably in the quality of our products, as well as competitive price point. In spite of the global economic decline we have exhibited a growth in revenue in 2011. We continue to market directly to retailers and are exploring new domestic and international licensing opportunities. We are investigating additional relevant external brands to license, adding to the diversity of our product line, while maintaining the integrity of our core mission of educating and entertaining children.

The Company's business is subject to the effects of seasonality, causing revenues to fluctuate with consumer purchasing behavior, competition, and the timing of holiday periods.

The 2011 economic outlook remains challenging, however, we anticipate but cannot guarantee continued sales growth through our actions to improve our existing products, maintaining highly competitive price points, and adding content to our product pallet.

Costs. Costs and expenses, excluding depreciation and amortization, consisting of cost of sales, marketing and sales expenses, and general and administrative costs, increased $282,619 (25.2%) for the three months ended March 31, 2011, compared to the three months ended March 31, 2010.

Cost of Sales increased $83,538, or 17.8%, during the first quarter of 2011 compared to the same period of 2010 as a result of increased sales volumes and shipping costs.

Selling, General and Administrative ("SG&A") expenses predominately consists of salaries, employee benefits and stock based compensation as well as other expenses associated with executive management, finance, legal, facilities, marketing, rent, and other professional services. Costs associated with these categories are detailed as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2011	2010
General and Administrative	$ 480,284	$ 422,336
Marketing and Sales	364,552	228,683
Product Development	5,263	-
Total Selling, General, and Administrative	$ 850,099	$ 651,019

General and administrative costs increased $57,948 (13.7%) for the three months ended March 31, 2011 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2010. This is a result of increases in salaries and related expenses of $64,188, partially offset by a decrease in professional services expense of $32,805, due to the hiring of accounting staff previously outsourced and severance payments. The remaining increase is for investor relations expenses.

Marketing and sales expenses include trade shows, public relations firms, sales and royalty commissions and personal contact. Marketing expenses exhibit some fluctuation earlier in the year due to timing of trade shows. Increases in commission expense of $187,267 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 compared to the same period in the prior year were the result of the increase in royalty revenue associated with licensing agreements. There is also an associated reduction in expenses of $25,703 for a common marketing fund which was discontinued in January 2011.

Product development charges are for routine and periodic alterations to existing products. All costs for new product development and significant improvements to existing products are capitalized in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 350, Intangible Assets and Topic 730, Research and Development.

Expenditures for SG&A are not generally seasonal and require consistent cash outflows.

Interest Expense. Interest expense resulted from related party loans and debentures.

The Company borrowed funds from four of the Officers of the Company during the years 2007 to 2009 and issued promissory notes in favor of the Officers. The proceeds from the notes were used to pay operating obligations of the Company. Interest expense was recorded in the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010 in the amounts of $4,008 and $11,260 for these officer notes, respectively. The decrease was due to partial repayments made in February 2011 and the last half of 2010.

On February 1, 2008, Isabel Moeller, sister of our Chief Executive Officer, Klaus Moeller, loaned $310,000 to the Company at an interest rate equal to 8% per annum. The funds were borrowed from Ms. Moeller in order to reduce outstanding obligations due to Genius Products, Inc. at that time. Subsequent agreements extended the maturity date to December 31, 2010 and reduced the stated interest rate to six (6%) percent per annum. The interest expense for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010 was $5,294 and $5,412, respectively.

On September 30, 2010, four of the Officers agreed to convert accrued but unpaid salaries through September 30, 2010 to subordinated long term notes payable. In February 2011, as a result of an agreement by each of the four Officers to retroactively decrease the amount of the annual salary for 2010 from $125,000 per annum per Officer to $80,000, the amount of the notes were reduced to an aggregate of $1,620,137. The notes have a maturity of December 31, 2012 and a stated interest rate of six percent (6%) per annum, said interest accruing from October 1, 2010. For the three months ended March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010, interest expense was recorded in the amount of $24,559 and $0, respectively.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2010 Compared to December 31, 2009

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $207,880 and $247,865 at December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009, respectively. The change in cash and cash equivalents is as follows:

	Twelve Months Ending 12/31/2010	Twelve Months Ending 12/31/2009	Change
Cash provided/(used) by operations	$ 151,965	$ 199,586	$ (47,621)
Cash provided/(used) in investing activities	$ (261,636)	$ (187,876)	$ (73,760)
Cash provided/(used) in financing activities	$ 69,686	$ (311,569)	$ 381,255
Increase/(decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	$ (39,985)	$ (299,859)	$ 259,874

Our cash flow is very seasonal and a vast majority of our sales historically occurs in the last two quarters of the year as retailers expand inventories for the holiday selling season. Cash provided by operations decreased $47,621 over 2009 primarily due to increased net investment in working capital. Additional cash expenditures for capitalized product development were the result of production costs for new product designs and product masters (master recording of the DVD or CD) used to manufacture our CDs and DVDs, newly licensed product lines and the development of additional toys for the line launched in 2009. Cash was provided for financing activities by sales of common stock to accredited investors offset by repayment on a portion of the related party notes payable.

On April 6, 2010, the Company commenced a private placement offering to certain accredited investors pursuant to Rule 506 for up to 12,500,000 shares of common stock at a purchase price of $.40 per share. On July 13, 2010, the Board of Directors amended the offering to include the issuance of a warrant to purchase one additional share of common stock for each share of common stock sold through the offering. Each warrant expires three years from the date of purchase and has a stated exercise price of $0.40 per share. As of December 31, 2010, a total subscription of $188,443 had been received and 471,108 shares have been issued and warrants have been issued to purchase an addition 471,108 shares. Costs of the offering in the amount of $17,396 were offset against the common stock account through December 31, 2010.

Three Months Ended March 31, 2011 Compared to Three Months Ended March 31, 2010

Cash totaled $269,451 and $92,581 at March 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively. The change in cash is as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2011	2010	Change
Cash provided (used) by operations	$ (18,712)	$ (118,453)	$ 99,741
Cash provided (used) in investing activities	(64,717)	(36,831)	(27,886)
Cash provided (used) in financing activities	145,000	-	145,000
Increase (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	$ 61,571	$ (155,284)	$ 216,855

Our cash flow is very seasonal and a vast majority of our sales historically occur in the last two quarters of the year as retailers expand inventories for the holiday selling season. Cash used by operations in the three months ended March 31, 2011, compared to 2010, decreased by $99,741 due to an increase in the accounts payable balances mitigated by an increase in inventory and a decrease in accrued salaries. Cash used in the same periods for investing activities relates to investment in additional music and DVD products and product masters used for the manufacturing process. The cash provided by financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2011, is a result of sales of common stock pursuant to a private placement offering and repayment of related party notes.

During March and April 2011, we conducted a private placement to certain accredited investors only under Rule 506. As a result of the offering, the Company received subscriptions in the total amount of $225,000 during the three months ended March 31, 2011, which was not closed until April 2011.

Notes were issued in favor of four of the Officers for loans to the Company at various times during the years 2007 through 2009. Partial repayments were made on February 2, 2011 in the aggregate amount of $66,000. Interest expense was recorded in the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010 in the amounts of $4,008 and $11,260 for these officer notes, respectively.

On September 30, 2010, four of the Officers agreed to convert the amounts outstanding as unpaid salaries through September 30, 2010 to notes payable. The notes, in the aggregate amount of $1,870,337, have a maturity of December 31, 2012 and a stated interest rate of six percent (6%) per annum, said interest accruing from October 1, 2010 on the unpaid balance of principal and interest. There is no prepayment penalty. These loans are classified as long term liabilities and are subordinated debt. For the three months ended March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010, interest expense was recorded in the amount of $24,559 and $0, respectively.

On March 31, 2011, an additional 32,300 shares were issued in exchange for services valued at $9,690, or $0.30 per share.

Outlook

Management believes that its increasing sales and cash generated by operation, together with funds available from short-term related party advances, will be sufficient to fund planned operations for the next twelve months. However, there can be no assurance that operations and operating cash flows will continue at the current levels or improve in the near future. If the Company is unable to obtain profitable operations and positive operating cash flows sufficient to meet scheduled debt obligations, it may need to seek additional funding through equity and related party loans or be forced to scale back its development plans or to significantly reduce or terminate operations. We have no written agreement with any of the related parties who have advanced funds to the Company in the past to continue making advances should the Company require additional capital.

Our DVD and CD business is substantially dependant on two primary customers, who purchase product directly or through our distributors. The Company is continually working to increase the customer base for current products, create new product lines and open new lines of distribution to decrease the risk of concentration; however, in the event that we were to lose either of these customers or the purchase of product by them were to significantly decrease, the loss of revenue would have a material adverse impact on our results of operations and business.

With the cancellation of the licensing agreement with Battat, our current toy licensee, there could be a reduction in royalty revenue during 2011. However, the Company anticipates this potential reduction will be offset by increases in our product revenue categories, including our licensed product sales. There is no guarantee that the increases will occur, or, if they do occur, that they will equal or exceed the reductions.

The Company outsources manufacturing of our DVD and CD products. There are multiple suppliers that provide these services and we feel there would be no significant impact or delay to our business should the current supplier become unavailable.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company's accounting policies are described in the notes to the financial statements which are incorporated by reference. Below is a summary of the critical accounting policies, among others, that management believes involve significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of its financial statements.

Revenue Recognition – The Company recognizes revenue related to product sales when (i) the seller's price is substantially fixed, (ii) shipment has occurred causing the buyer to be obligated to pay for product, (iii) the buyer has economic substance apart from the seller, and (iv) there is no significant obligation for future performance to directly bring about the resale of the product by the buyer as required by Revenue Recognition Topic 605 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification.

Revenues associated with the sale of branded CDs, DVDs and other products, are recorded when shipped to customers pursuant to approved customer purchase orders resulting in the transfer of title and risk of loss. Cost of sales, rebates and discounts are recorded at the time of revenue recognition or at each financial reporting date.

The Company's licensing and royalty revenue represent variable payments based on net sales from brand licensees for exclusive content distribution rights. These license agreements are held in conjunction with third parties that are responsible for collecting fees due and remitting to the Company its share after expenses. Revenue from licensed products is recognized when realized or realizable based on royalty reporting received from licensees.

Principles of Consolidation - The consolidated financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010 include the financial statements of the Company, and its 75% owned subsidiary: Circle of Education LLC. All inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Other Estimates – The Company estimates reserves for future returns of product based on an analysis that considers historical returns, changes in customer demand and current economic trends. The Company regularly reviews the outstanding accounts receivable balances for each account and monitors delinquent accounts for collectability. The Company reviews all intangible assets periodically to determine if the value has been impaired by recent financial transactions using the discounted cash flow analysis of revenue stream for the estimated life of the assets.

Reclassifications – Certain amounts in the condensed consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2010 have been reclassified to conform to the presentation as of March 31, 2011.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations discusses the Company's financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of the revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The Company continually evaluates the policies and estimates that it uses to prepare its financial statements. In general, management's estimates and assumptions are based on historical experience, known trends or events, information from third-party professionals and other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making the judgments about carrying values of assets and liabilities. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions and conditions.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has no off balance sheet arrangements.

Item 3. Properties.

The Company owns no real property. On April 10, 2009, we entered into a lease for approximately 2,162 square feet of office space located at 5820 Oberlin Drive in San Diego, California. The lease expired on October 31, 2010, and the Company continues to lease the facilities on a month-to-month basis in accordance with all other terms of the lease. Base monthly rent for the space is $3,144, and we are responsible for 6% of operating expenses on the property (not to exceed $400 per month during the term of the lease). No security deposit was required under the lease.

We also lease approximately 1,415 square feet of office space in Del Mar, California, where our original executive business offices were located until May 2009. Our current lease for the property commenced on August 1, 2008 and expires on July 31, 2011. The lease required a security deposit of $4,150 and rent equal to $4,650 plus 35% of operating expenses for the property per month through July 31, 2011.

On March 27, 2009, the Company entered into an agreement to sublease the Del Mar space for the duration of the lease term. The sublease provides for base monthly rent of $3,396, which graduates up to $3,467 during the second year of the agreement and to $3,538 during the final year, leaving a deficiency between what we are required to pay under the original lease and what we receive under the sublease, which must be absorbed by the Company. We required a security deposit under the sublease of $3,538. Our subtenant is responsible for all operating expenses payable by us to the landlord under the original lease.

Item 4. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management.

The following table shows the beneficial ownership of shares of our common stock as of April 30, 2011 known by us through transfer agent records, held by: (i) each person who beneficially owns 5% or more of the shares of common stock then outstanding; (ii) each of our directors; (iii) each of our named executive officers; and (iv) all of our directors and executive officers as a group.

The information in this table reflects “beneficial ownership” as defined in Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act. To our knowledge and unless otherwise indicated, each stockholder has sole voting power and investment power over the shares listed as beneficially owned by such stockholder, subject to community property laws where applicable. Percentage ownership is based on 60,448,815 shares of common stock outstanding as of June 13, 2011.

(1) Where persons listed on this table have the right to obtain additional shares of our common stock through the exercise of outstanding options or warrants or the conversion of convertible securities within 60 days from June 13, 2011, these additional shares are deemed to be beneficially owned for the purpose of computing the amount and percentage of common stock owned by such persons. As indicated in Section 6. Executive Compensation, the Company granted each of Messrs. Moeller, Howard Balaban, Larry Balaban and Michael G. Meader an option to purchase up to 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock on January 20, 2009, the total shares of which were vested on December 31, 2009. On April 26, 2011, the Company signed new employment agreements which granted each of Messrs. Moeller, Meader, Howard Balaban, and Larry Balaban an additional option to purchase up to 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock, 250,000 fully vested as of April 1, 2011, with the remaining option vesting as of April 1, 2012, 2013, and 2014 in the amount of 250,000 shares each year. The Company granted James Sommers an option to purchase up to 250,000 shares on June 21, 2010, which were fully vested as of that date. The Company granted Jeanene Morgan an option to purchase up to 50,000 shares on December 31, 2009, which were fully vested as of that date. The Company granted Jeanene Morgan an option to purchase up to 450,000 shares on December 31, 2010, 150,000 were fully vested as of that date, with the remaining options vesting as of December 31, 2011, 2012, and 2013 in the amount of 100,000 shares each year. As a result, the percentage ownership interest of each such officer referenced in the table includes the 2,700,000 shares which could be purchased within 60 days of June 13, 2011. In addition, shares held by such officers as guardian for or in as trustees of trusts established for minor children are included in the table and are reflected in the aggregate number and percentage ownership for all officers and directors as a group. Each of Messrs. Moeller, Meader, Larry Balaban and Howard Balaban has the right of first refusal for shares owned by Tia Moeller (1,000,000 shares) and Shelly Moeller (3,140,000 shares). These shares were not included in the beneficial ownership calculation of the respective officers' percentages. Percentages are based on total outstanding shares on June 13, 2011 of 60,448,815.

The term of office of each person elected to our Board of Directors is one (1) year or until the next regular or annual meeting of the stockholders at which election of directors is an agenda item and until his successor is duly elected and shall qualify.

Background Information

Klaus Moeller was elected to serve on the board of directors of the Company at inception and has acted as its Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board since that time. In May 2008, he was also appointed interim Chief Financial Officer of the Company, a position he held until April 26, 2011. Mr. Moeller currently sits on the Board of Directors of Capital Art, Inc., a publicly-traded company trading on the OTC Pinks. From 2008 through 2010, he sat on the board of directors of U.K.-based Western Canon, Inc., which owned and operated an art gallery in Culver City, California. Previously, Mr. Moeller acted as a member of the Board of Directors of Pro-Stars, Inc., a position he held from April 2, 2003 until dissolution of the company in 2008 following the sale of substantially all of its assets to Dreams, Inc. Mr. Moeller also acted as Chief Financial Officer and Chairman of the Board for Pro-Stars. Mr. Moeller acted as the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of a Delaware corporation, Celebrity, Inc., a privately held company in the business of selling celebrity-related artwork from its inception in 2006 until dissolution of the company in 2008. Mr. Moeller was a Founder and the Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of the Board and a Director of Genius Products, Inc. from 1998 to 2005. Mr. Moeller served as Interim Chief Financial Officer of Genius from May 2001 until August of 2004. Mr. Moeller grew up and was educated in Germany, England, and Portugal. He worked as an auditor for Eluma S.A. in Sao Paulo Brazil for the Ted Bates Advertising Agency and BHF Bank in Frankfurt. Mr. Moeller is nominated because he has extensive experience in governance and leadership roles on the boards of the other public companies on which he has served, as well as extensive background in finance, both as an auditor and as chief executive officer and chief financial officer at Genius Products Inc.

Michael G. Meader was elected to serve on the board of directors of the Company at inception and also acted as Chief Operating Officer and Secretary of the Company upon inception. He was appointed as President of the Company on August 27, 2008 and resigned his positions as Chief Operating Officer and Secretary at that time. In his capacity as President of Pacific Entertainment Corporation, Mr. Meader is in charge of the day-to-day operations of the Company. Mr. Meader has a long history of experience in marketing and sales of entertainment products. Prior to January 2006, he acted as President (2001-2005), Executive Vice President of Distributions (1998-2000) for, and helped found, Genius Products, Inc. Prior to founding Genius Products, Inc. from 1995 to 1997, Mr. Meader acted as Executive Vice President of the Book and Music Division of ARAMARK Corporation. From 1991 through 1994, Mr. Meader acted as Secretary (1991-1992) and then Executive Vice President of the Music Division (1993-1994) for Meader Distributing. Mr. Meader has a B.S. degree in hotel administration from the University of Wisconsin, and studied international business at the University of St. Thomas. He was a member of the Scholastic Society and graduated with honors. Mr. Meader is nominated because of his expertise in entertainment and distribution organizations.

Larry Balaban is currently Chief Creative Officer and Secretary of Pacific Entertainment Corporation, positions he has held since August 27, 2008. Prior to becoming Chief Creative Officer, Mr. Balaban acted as Director and President for the Company since its inception in January 2006. Outside the production studio, Larry is a well-respected licensor who was named one of the "40 Under 40" most important people in the licensing industry by License Magazine in 2003. For the past five years, he has held a seat on the board of directors of the Coalition for Quality Children's Media, home of the Kids First!® Community-based jury that evaluates, rates and endorses children's entertainment. Larry Balaban was a founder and Head of Production of Genius Products, Inc., from 1998 to 2005. He was also the President of Mr. B Productions, a non-traditional marketing firm based in New York City, specializing in TV production, target marketing and membership programs. From 1994-1997, Larry Balaban was President of Virtual Reality Productions, where he specialized in marketing, and coordinated specialized audio productions for licensed Products including Star Trek(TM), The Simpson's and the X-Files. Mr. Balaban is nominated because of his extensive business experience in entertainment and licensing.

Howard Balaban is currently Executive Vice President of New Business Development. He is also a Director of the Company, a position he has held since April, 2006. He had served as Executive Vice President of New Business Development of Genius Products from 2001-2006. He was previously appointed Senior Vice President of Sales in January 1999-2000 after having rendered sales and marketing consulting services from 1997-2000 for Genius Products and several other companies. From 1994-1997, Mr. Balaban was Chief Executive Officer of Future Call Inc, a prepaid telephone card company that he co-founded with William Shatner and held the rights to all Star Trek properties and many others such as, The Simpsons, X Files, and major Soap Operas associated with prepaid phone cards. From 1991-1995, he was the Chief Executive Officer of 3B Telecommunications, a company he co-founded and which acted as a master agent for telecom networks reselling phone time and telecom services. Mr. Balaban is the President, director and sole owner of a privately held entertainment corporation known as Balaban Entertainment Corp., a position he has held since its inception in 2004. Mr. Balaban is nominated because of his business experience in entertainment and marketing.

Jeanene Morgan was appointed as the Company's Chief Operating and Accounting Officer in December 2010 and her title was subsequently changed to Chief Financial Officer in April 2011. Prior to such appointment, Ms. Morgan acted as the Company's Controller from February 2009, during which time she acted as a consultant through Morgan Consulting, a provider of project management and financial consulting for numerous organizations and clients, including audit support, GAAP compliance and structuring of internal financial and reporting controls. From 2004 to 2010, Ms. Morgan co-owned and operated Ascent, Inc. a media booking agency located in Oxnard, California which specialized in television placement for long and short form infomercials. As President of Ascent, Ms. Morgan was responsible for preparation of financial statements, business plans and tax reporting, including implementation of client reporting and development of new business proposals and presentations. From 2002 to 2004, Ms. Morgan acted as Plant Controller to Rexam Beverage Can Company in Chatsworth, California, where she was responsible for corporate accounting and GAAP compliance and implemented a SAP inventory management module. Ms. Morgan acted as Chief Financial Officer of Thaon Communications, Inc., a publicly traded company from February 2002 until its acquisition by Practice Xpert Services, Inc. in April 2003. In that position she was responsible for ongoing fiscal operations, including accounting and cash management for three operating units as well as the publicly traded parent organization, and SEC compliance. During her tenure at Thaon, two subsidiaries of that company, CastPro.com, LLC and PTMS filed a Chapter 7 bankruptcy in November and December of 2002, respectively. Ms. Morgan has an M.B.A. in International Management from the University of Dallas and a B.S. in Business Administration from Hawaii Pacific University.

Saul Hyatt currently acts as an independent director for the Company, a position he has held since May 29, 2008. Mr. Hyatt has served as President of DFASS USA, Inc. since 2009, and also acts as the Chief Operating Officer and a member of the Board of Directors DFASS/Retail Travel Services, Inc. a non-reporting company located in Miami, Florida, positions he has held since the year 2000. Mr. Hyatt holds no other officer or director positions with any public or private company. Mr. Hyatt is nominated because of his financial expertise and diverse domestic and international business experience.

- (1) Represents car allowances paid to each officer out of a total authorized car allowance of $11,400 for each officer for the period ended December 31, 2009 and 2010.
- (2) Authorized salaries for each officer for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 were $195,000, of which $97,500 was accrued and remains unpaid as to each officer. On April 1, 2009, each of the four officers agreed to a salary reduction to $125,000, resulting in a prorated total salary calculation of $142,500 for the year. As of September 30, 2010, this balance was converted to subordinated, long term debt.
- (3) Authorized salaries for each officer for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010 were $210,000. On April 1, 2009, each of the four officers agreed to a salary reduction to $125,000. On February 11, 2011 each of the four officers agreed to a retroactive salary reduction for 2010 to $80,000 inclusive of the car allowance, of which $19,200 remains unpaid. As of September 30, 2010, this balance was converted to subordinated, long term debt.
- (4) Authorized salary for Ms. Morgan for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010 was $130,000. Ms. Morgan began employment on December 26, 2010. Prior to her employment she acted as a consultant for the company to advise on accounting and financial procedures and reporting.
- (5) Options were granted pursuant to previous employment agreements, which provided for the grant of stock options to the respective officer to purchase up to 2,000,000 shares of common stock and vesting as to 500,000 shares on the date of the agreement, 750,000 shares on the first anniversary date and 750,000 shares on the second anniversary date. Each option is currently fully vested and exercisable as to all 2,000,000 shares and will expire on January 20, 2014. Each option was granted at an exercise price equal to 110% of fair market value (five-day average trading price) on the date of grant. The Board granted the options after having adopted the Company's 2008 Stock Option Plan on December 15, 2008 and following shareholder approval of the plan on December 29, 2008. The vesting schedule of the options was accordingly adjusted to account for the late grant date, so that each option was vested as to 1,250,000 shares on the date of grant and vested as to the remainder on December 31, 2009. Each option was fully expensed as to 1,250,000 in 2008. This figure represents the amount expensed in 2009. The aggregate fair value of the options on the date of grant was computed in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 (see

- Note 9 to the financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009).
- (6) During 2009, while acting as a consultant, options to purchase up to 50,000 shares were issued and vested as of December 31, 2009 with an expiration date of December 14, 2014. As part of the offer of employment, Ms. Morgan was granted options to purchase up to 450,000 shares on December 31, 2010, with 150,000 vesting on issuance and 100,000 vesting per annum on December 31, 2011, 2012, and 2013. The option was granted at an exercise price equal to 100% of the fair market value (five-day average trading price) of our common stock on the grant date. This option is currently vested and exercisable as to 150,000 shares and will expire on December 31, 2014. The aggregate fair value of the option on the date of grant was computed in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 (see Note 9 to the financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009).

(1) Options were granted as part of offer of employment. Options to purchase up to 450,000 shares of common stock were granted on December 31, 2010, with 150,000 vesting on issuance and 100,000 vesting per annum on December 31, 2011, 2012, and 2013.

Employment Agreements

On April 26, 2011, the Company and each of Messrs. Moeller, Meader, Larry Balaban and Howard Balaban (the "Executives") agreed to terminate all then existing employment agreements for the Executives and enter into new five-year employment agreements unless written termination is provided by either party. Each employment agreement provides for a graduated base salary beginning at $165,000 per annum retroactive to March 20, 2011 and continuing to December 31, 2011 and increasing to $195,000 for 2012, $225,000 for 2013. After 2013, the agreement provides for base salary increases at the discretion of the Board of Directors, with a minimum 5% increase. In addition to base salary, each Executive will receive an annual car allowance of $11,400, and four weeks paid vacation per annum.

Each agreement also provides for a cash incentive bonus determined at the sole discretion of our Board of Directors which shall not be less than 4.5% of the Company's EBITDA (Earnings Before Interest, Depreciation, Taxes and Amortization) if the Company is EBITDA positive nor be more than 100% of the Executive's base salary, although the Board has retained discretion to waive the 100% cap. In addition, pursuant to the agreements each Executive has been granted a non-qualified stock options to purchase up to 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock, vesting as to 250,000 shares on the grant date and 250,000 shares per year on the anniversary date of the agreements. The exercise price of options is $0.44 per share and the options will expire on the tenth anniversary of the date of grant except in the event of a termination for cause under the respective employment agreement, in which case the option will expire in its entirety ninety days after termination of employment. Each Executive has granted the Company a right of first refusal to repurchase any shares of common stock acquired by the Executive pursuant to the option in the event of a termination for cause. The purchase price on the right of first refusal would be the bid price on the date of termination. (see Item 9. "Market Price and Dividends on the Registrant's Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters – Equity Compensation Plan Information.")

The employment agreement provides for payment of severance compensation equal to eighteen months of the Executive's base salary on the date of termination of the Executive's employment by the Company other than for cause. Subject to the provisions of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, severance will be paid over the course of eighteen months following the termination date and will be made on the Company's normal payroll dates during the severance period. Severance compensation is in addition to his base salary through the date of termination, accrued vacation and bonus compensation earned but not yet paid on the date of termination.

In addition, the agreements each provide that, upon termination without cause or as a result of a change of control, the unvested portion of any options then held by the Executive will immediately vest. For purposes of these agreements, a "change of control" includes the sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, a merger or consolidation resulting in securities representing 50% of the combined voting power of the outstanding common stock being transferred to persons who are different from the holders immediately preceding the transaction, the acquisition (directly or indirectly) of 50% of the total combined voting power of the common stock pursuant to a tender or exchange offer, or a majority of the members of the Board is replaced during any 12-month period by directors whose appointment or election is not endorsed by a majority of the members of the Board before the date of the appointment or election.

Each of the employment agreements includes standard confidentiality, non-competition (including during any severance period), non-solicitation and non-disparagement provisions, provides for twenty days of vacation time per annum, and provides for indemnification of the Executive to the fullest extent allowed by the California Corporations Code and the Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. See Item 12. "Indemnification of Officers and Directors".

Our Chief Financial Officer does not have a written employment agreement with the Company. She receives an annual base salary of $130,000, which may be increased in the discretion of the Board. Ms. Morgan was issued a Stock Option Grant Notice in conjunction with her appointment as Chief Accounting and Operating Officer under the 2008 Stock Option Plan to purchase up to 450,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.336 per share vesting as to 150,000 shares on December 31, 2010 and as to 100,000 shares on each of December 31, 2001, 2012 and 2013. Ms. Morgan receives four weeks paid vacation per annum.

ITEM 7. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence.

Related Parties

Our Creative Director, Larry Balaban, and our Vice-President of New Business Development, Howard Balaban, are brothers.

On February 1, 2008, Isabel Moeller, sister of our Chief Executive Officer, Klaus Moeller, loaned $310,000 to the Company at an interest rate equal to 8% per annum. The proceeds of the loan were used to reduce outstanding obligations to Genius Products at the time (see Item 1. "Business – Distribution"). A subsequent agreement extended the maturity date to December 31, 2009. On December 31, 2009, Ms. Moeller agreed to accept a new note agreement for the balance due, including principal and unpaid interest with a maturity date of December 31, 2010 and a stated interest rate of 6% per annum. On September 30, 2010, Ms. Moeller agreed to execute a new, restated note under the same interest terms with a stated maturity date of December 31, 2012, resulting in the reclassification of the total amount outstanding, including principal and accrued interest, as long term debt. In March 2011, Ms. Moeller subscribed for 1,000,000 shares of our common stock at a purchase price of $0.20 per share pursuant to a private placement offering conducted by the Company under Rule 506. In lieu of cash payment for the shares, Ms. Moeller agreed to a $200,000 reduction in the outstanding principal balance of her note effective April 1, 2011.

Throughout 2009, 2008 and 2007, the Company borrowed funds from Messrs. Moeller, Meader, Larry Balaban and Howard Balaban in the aggregate principal amounts of $4,000, $280,000 and $444,500, respectively. The loans were made pursuant to promissory notes which require payment of 1.63% per annum for 2009 and 2008 and 6% per annum for the notes issued in 2007. Notes issued in 2007 were payable upon demand. However, the maturity date for each outstanding promissory note to these officers and directors was extended to December 31, 2009. The proceeds from all officer loans were used to pay operating obligations of the Company. On December 31, 2009, each of the Officers agreed to issue new note agreements for the outstanding balances, including principal and unpaid interest, with a maturity date of December 31, 2010 and a stated interest rate of 6% per annum. On September 30, 2010, the four Officers agreed to execute new notes with the same interest rate and a maturity on December 31, 2012 for the total outstanding amounts, including principal and accrued interest, resulting in a change in classification to long term notes payable. At December 31, 2010, there was a combined total of approximately $311,987 in principal and accrued interest outstanding under these notes.

On September 30, 2010, these same officers agreed to convert accrued but unpaid salaries through September 30, 2010 to subordinated long term notes payable. In February 2011, as a result of an agreement by each of the four Officers to retroactively decrease the amount of the annual salary for 2010 from $125,000 per annum to $80,000, the amount of the notes were reduced to an aggregate of $1,620,137. The notes have a maturity of December 31, 2012 and a stated interest rate of six percent (6%) per annum, said interest accruing from October 1, 2010 on the unpaid balance of principal and interest. The amount of interest outstanding on these loans as of December 31, 2010 is $24,090. There is no prepayment penalty.

Circle of Education, LLC (“COE”) was formed pursuant to the joint venture agreement between the Company and Dr. Shulamit Ritblatt referenced above in “Item 1. Business - Circle of Education Joint Venture Agreement.” Although the agreement provides the Company with a 75% voting interest in the Company, with the remaining 25% being held by Dr. Ritblatt, the Company holds only 10,000,000 of the 15,000,000 currently issued and outstanding units of COE. The Company agreed to allow COE to hold 5,000,000 of the units which would otherwise have been issued to it in reserve and to allow the sale of those units to raise additional capital for COE if needed. On the two-year anniversary of the agreement, any remaining portion of the reserved units will be issued to the Company. To the extent the reserved units are issued to any third party, the Company’s voting interest in COE will be adjusted accordingly.

To date, none of the reserved units has been sold and COE has no current plans to conduct a private offering to raise additional funds. The Company has continued to fund product development and operations for COE and anticipates that it will continue to do so at least until COE generates sufficient cash flow from operations to fund future cash requirements for its general operations and additional product development. The Company cannot estimate the amount of cash expenditures or the duration of its continued support at this time. The Company provided approximately $53,008 in funding to COE during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010, and an additional $22,700 during the first quarter of 2011.

Except as otherwise indicated herein, there have been no other related party transactions, or any other transactions or relationships required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404 and Item 407(a) of Regulation S-K.

Director Independence

Our Common Stock is not quoted or listed on any national exchange or interdealer quotation system with a requirement that a majority of our board of directors be independent and, therefore, the Company is not subject to any director independence requirements. Under NASDAQ Rule 5605(a)(2)(A), a director is not considered to be independent if he or she also is an executive officer or employee of the corporation. Under such definition, each of Messrs. Moeller, Meader, Howard Balaban and Larry Balaban would not be considered an independent director. Based on Rule 5605(a)(2)(A), Mr. Hyatt is the only member of the Board that can be considered an independent director because he is not an executive officer or employee of the Company, has not been an employee of the Company during the past three years and has not received compensation from the Company at any time during the past three years.

ITEM 8. Legal Proceedings.

There are presently no material pending legal proceedings to which the Company is a party or as to which any of its property is subject, and no such proceedings are known to the Company to be threatened or contemplated against it.

ITEM 9. Market Price of and Dividends on the Registrant's Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters.

Market Information

Transactions in our common stock are currently reported in the United States under the symbol "PENT" on the OTC Market Groups, Inc. quotation service that displays real-time quotes, last-sale prices, and volume information in over-the-counter equity securities. The following table sets forth the range of high and low bids reported in the over-the-counter market for our common stock. The prices shown below represent prices in the market between dealers in securities; they do not include retail markup, markdown or commissions, and do not necessarily represent actual transactions. The "OTC Market Groups, Inc." is neither a stock exchange nor a self-regulatory organization and is not regulated by either Financial Industry Regulatory Authority or the SEC.

Outstanding Shares and Number of Stockholders

As of June 13, 2011, the number of shares of common stock outstanding was 60,448,815. As of June 13, 2011, approximately 52,620,624 of the outstanding shares are eligible for resale pursuant to Rule 144, including approximately 29,515,275 shares held by officers of the Company. As of June 13, 2011, there were approximately 150 record holders of our shares of issued and outstanding common stock. This figure does not include holders of shares held in securities position listings.

As of June 13, 2011, we have outstanding warrants to purchase 471,108 shares of common stock. We currently have outstanding options to purchase up to 13,955,000, 9,695,000 of which are vested and can be exercised at this time. As indicated under "Item 1. Business - Circle of Education Joint Venture Agreement" above, we have granted Dr. Shulamit Ritblatt the right to convert her units in Circle of Education, LLC into shares of our common stock on or after the two-year anniversary of the joint venture agreement. We are unable to determine the number of shares subject to this right of conversion since the conversion ratio would be determined at that time based on the value of the units in COE and the fair market value of our common stock on the conversion date. The Company has a similar right to convert its own interests in COE.

The Company currently has no plans to sell additional shares in private or public offerings. The Company has not agreed to register any restricted shares of common stock previously issued by the Company for resale.

Dividends

We have never declared or paid dividends on our common stock. Moreover, we currently intend to retain any future earnings for use in our business and, therefore, do not anticipate paying any dividends on our common stock in the foreseeable future.

Equity Compensation Plan Information

The following table reflects, as of December 31, 2010, compensation plans pursuant to which the Company is authorized to issue options, warrants or other rights to purchase shares of its common stock, including the number of shares issuable under outstanding options, warrants and rights issued under the plans and the number of shares remaining available for issuance under the plans:

Plan category	(a) Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights	(b) Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights	(c) Number of securities remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding securities reflected in column (a))
Equity compensation plans approved by shareholders(1)	8,970,000	$0.44	7,005,000
Equity compensation plans not approved by shareholders	0	$0.00	0
Total	8,970,000	$0.44	7,005,000

(1) On April 4, 2011, the majority shareholders of the Company adopted an amendment to the Company's 2008 Stock Option Plan to increase the number of shares of common stock issuable under the plan from 11,000,000 to 16,000,000. Taking into account the amendment as well as options granted since December 31, 2010, the total number of securities to be issued as set forth in column (a) would be 13,955,000 and the number of shares remaining for issuance under the plan would be 2,005,000 as of June 13, 2011. The weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options granted under the plan would remain the same.

Item 10. Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities.

The information below lists all of our securities sold by us during the past three years, which were not registered under the Securities Act of 1933. We paid no underwriting discounts or commissions in connection with any of the following transactions.

During 2006, the issuer sold $2,500,000 in 10% convertible debentures (the "Debentures"), each of which was convertible into shares of the issuer's common stock at a rate of one (1) share per each $0.20 converted. The Debentures were sold to accredited investors only pursuant to Rule 506 of the Securities Act. We borrowed $1,361,000 from our officers and directors to pay the first of the two promissory notes to Genius Products and used $1,361,000 of those proceeds to repay such officer loans. The remaining proceeds were used to pay general operating expenses of the Company. Effective June 30, 2008, all of the outstanding Debentures were converted into 12,500,000 shares of common stock. At the time of conversion, the issuer agreed to make remaining interest payments to the Debenture holders in shares of common stock at a rate of one (1) share for each $0.40 in accrued interest due and payable provided that the recipient still met the requirements of an accredited investor. Equity interest payments were made pursuant to Rule 506 for the second and third quarters of 2008 on or about February 11, 2009, with 156,250 shares of common stock issued to the former Debenture holders for each quarter. An additional 150,000 shares were issued to the former Debenture holders on March 31, 2009 in payment of equity interest due for the first quarter of 2009, and 197,907 shares were issued on July 24, 2009 as a final payment for interest on the debentures. Proceeds of the debenture offering were used to repay amounts due to Mr. Moeller associated with the asset purchase from Genius Products and a portion of the purchase price due to Genius Products.

In September 2008, the issuer commenced a private placement of up to $10,000,000 in common stock priced at $0.40 per share to accredited investors only under Rule 506. As of December 31, 2009, the Company had sold 807,500 shares in that offering during 2008 and 2009 for total proceeds of $323,000. The offering was suspended in January 2009. The proceeds of the offering were used for general operating expenses, including general administrative expenses (including salaries, payment of existing debt obligations, rent and professional fees) and production costs, select retail placement fees, tradeshows, and marketing.

On January 1, 2008, the issuer entered into written employment agreements with four of its officers pursuant to which it agreed to grant each such officer an option to purchase up to 2,000,000 shares of the issuer's common stock at a purchase price equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the grant date, with each option vesting as to 500,000 shares on the date of the agreement and 750,000 shares on each of December 31, 2008 and 2009. The grant of the options was delayed pending adoption of a qualified stock option plan by the issuer's shareholders, and the options were finally granted on January 20, 2009, with an adjustment to the vesting schedule to reflect the late grant date. Consequently, each option was vested as to 1,250,000 shares on the date of grant and vested as to the remainder on December 31, 2009. In the event the options are exercised, the Company will likely use the proceeds from the exercise to pay general operating expenses of the Company.

On September 30, 2009, 65,000 shares were issued in payment of management consulting service contracts covering the 90 day period beginning July 1, 2009. The shares were valued at $0.40 per share, and the full amount of $26,000 was expensed in 2009.

On December 14, 2009, the Company issued Stock Option Grant Notices to seven employees and service providers, granting options to purchase 130,000 shares of common stock. The options fully vested as of December 31, 2009. In the event the options are exercised, the Company will likely use the proceeds from the exercise to pay general operating expenses of the Company.

On March 8, 2010, the Board of Directors ratified an agreement between the Company and James Sommers whereby the Company agreed to issue options to purchase 250,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.50 in exchange for consulting services for one year. The Option was issued on June 21, 2010 pursuant to Rule 701. In the event the option is exercised, the Company will likely use the proceeds from the exercise to pay general operating expenses of the Company.

On April 6, 2010, the Company commenced a private placement to certain accredited investors pursuant to Rule 506 for up to 12,500,000 shares of common stock at a purchase price of $0.40 per share. On July 13, 2010, the Board of Directors amended the offering to include the issuance of a warrant to purchase one additional share of common stock for each share of common stock sold through the offering. Each warrant expires three years from the date of purchase and has a stated exercise price of $0.40 per share. As of December 31, 2010, a total subscription of $188,443 had been received and 471,108 shares have been issued and warrants have been issued to purchase an addition 471,108 shares. Costs of the offering in the amount of $17,396 were offset against the common stock account through December 31, 2010. The proceeds of the offering were used to pay product development costs. In the event the warrants are exercised, proceeds from the exercise will likely be used to cover general operating expenses.

On September 28, 2010, 50,000 shares were issued in payment of website design services rendered. The service provider is an accredited investor and the shares were issued pursuant to Section 4(6) of the Securities Act. The shares were valued at $0.50 per share, and the full amount of $25,000 was capitalized in 2010 as an intangible asset.

In January 2011, the issuer granted an incentive stock option to purchase up to 25,000 shares of common stock to our Vice President of Sales. The option was fully vested on grant and will expire five years from the date of grant. The option was granted with an exercise price of $0.336 per share, or 100% of the preceding 5 day average market price on the date of grant. The option was granted pursuant to the exemption provided by Rule 701.

On March 31, 2011, the Company issued 32,300 shares of restricted common stock to one service provider for website design services pursuant to Section 4(6) of the Securities Act of 1933 in exchange for services valued at approximately $9,690 or $0.30 per share.

In April 2011, pursuant to new employment agreements, we granted a non-qualified stock option to purchase up to 1,000,000 shares of common stock to each of Mr. Moeller, Mr. Meader, Mr. Larry Balaban and Mr. Howard Balaban. The options were vested as to 250,000 of the shares on the date of grant and will vest as to the remaining shares at a rate of 250,000 shares on each of April 1, 2012, April 1, 2013 and April 1, 2014. The options have a term of ten years and will not expire earlier except in the event of a termination for cause, in which case they will expire as to all shares within ninety days of the date of termination. The options were granted with an exercise price of $0.44 per share, or the greater of $0.44 or 110% of the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant.

On April 1 2011, the issuer granted an incentive stock option to purchase up to 25,000 shares of common stock to our Vice President of Sales. The option was fully vested on grant and will expire five years from the date of grant. The option was granted with an exercise price of $0.50 per share. The option was granted pursuant to the exemption provided in Rule 701.

During the first two quarters of 2011, we conducted a private placement to accredited investors only under Rule 506. As a result of the offering, the Company sold 5,300,000 shares of common stock at a purchase price of $0.20 per share for an aggregate of $1,060,000. The proceeds of the offering will be primarily used to fund general operating expenses, product development and introduction for Circle of Education, LLC and to reduction of the outstanding principal balance on the note issued to Isabel Moeller. Ms. Moeller subscribed for 1,000,000 shares. In lieu of cash payment for the subscribed shares, Ms. Moeller agreed to a $200,000 reduction in the outstanding principal balance of her note effective April 1, 2011.

On June 13, 2011, the issuer granted an option to purchase up to 1,000,000 shares of restricted common stock at an exercise price of $0.44 to Alfred Kahn as part of a consulting agreement. The option, which was granted under the Company's 2008 Stock Option Plan, will vest as to 500,000 shares on May 31, 2012 with the remainder vesting on May 31, 2013 and will expire five years from the grant date. Mr. Kahn has granted the Company a right of first refusal on any shares purchased under the option in the event of early termination of the agreement. The repurchase price of the right of first refusal would be the bid price on the date of termination. The option was granted to Mr. Kahn pursuant to Rule 701 of the Securities Act of 1933, as price amended.

As of June 13, 2011, the issuer has 60,448,815 shares of common stock outstanding.

ITEM 11. Description of Registrant's Securities to be Registered.

Capital Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 100,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value per share, of which 60,448,815 were outstanding on June 13, 2011. The following summary descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Company's Articles of Incorporation. Each share of common stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. Unless one or more shareholders gives notice of an intent to cumulate votes for Directors prior to the vote to elect Directors, holders of a majority of the voting power represented at any meeting at which a quorum is present will be able to elect the entire Board of Directors and, in such event, the holders of the remaining voting power will be unable to elect any directors. The holders of common stock do not have preemptive rights or rights to convert their common stock into other securities. Holders of the common stock are entitled to receive ratably such dividends as may be declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefore. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, holders of the common stock have the right to a ratable portion of the assets remaining after payment of liabilities.

Debt Securities

None.

Warrants and Rights

Currently, the Company has warrants outstanding to purchase up to 471,108 shares of our common stock, each of which was issued with an exercise price of $0.40 and expires three years from the date of issue. All of the warrants will have expired on November 18, 2013. All common stock underlying the warrants will be restricted when issued.

Either the exercise price or the number of shares purchasable under the warrant may be adjusted in the event of any split of the common stock, reclassification, capital reorganization or change in the outstanding common stock, or declaration of a common stock dividend. In the event of any such adjustment, the Company will notify the holders of the warrants of the exercise price and number of shares purchasable under the warrant following adjustment, the facts requiring the adjustment and the method of calculation of any increase or decrease in price or purchasable shares. No adjustment will be required, however, unless the adjustment would require an increase or decrease in the exercise price of at least 1%.

Other Securities to be Registered

None.

ITEM 12. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

In accordance with provisions of the California Corporations Law, our articles of incorporation provide that the liability for monetary damages of our directors shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by California law. Further, our articles authorize us to provide indemnification to our agents (including our officers and directors). Our bylaws provide for this indemnification of our corporate agents to the maximum extent permitted by California law.

ITEM 13. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data.

The financial statements and report of independent auditors are filed as a separate part of this report on pages F-1 through F-34.

ITEM 14. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

There are not and have not been any disagreements between the Company and our accountants on any matter of accounting principles, practices or financial statement disclosure.

ITEM 15. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Pacific Entertainment Corporation
San Diego, California

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Pacific Entertainment Corporation as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity (deficit) and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express as opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. An audit includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Pacific Entertainment Corporation as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.
