The Annual Meeting will be held at the Company's corporate and principal executive offices located at 12425 Race Track Road, Tampa, Florida. These proxy solicitation materials were mailed on or about April 3, 2003, together with the Company's 2002 Annual Report to Shareholders, to all shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Voting and Solicitation

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 19, 2003 (the "Record Date") are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. The Company has one class of outstanding voting securities, its Common Stock. As of the Record Date, 6,268,877 shares of the Company's Common Stock were outstanding. For information regarding security ownership by management and by the beneficial owners of 5% or more of the Company's Common Stock, see "Share Ownership by Principal Shareholders and Management."

Each shareholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock on all matters presented at the Annual Meeting. The holders of Common Stock will vote together as one group in the election of directors and other matters presented at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition, the Company may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Certain of the Company's directors, officers, and regular employees, without additional compensation, may also solicit proxies personally or by telephone, telegram, letter or facsimile.

Revocability of Proxies

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before its use by delivering to the Secretary of the Company a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Quorum; Abstentions; Broker Non-Votes

The required quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting is a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date. Abstentions are counted in determining whether a quorum is present, but are not counted in determining the number of shares voted for or against any nominee for director or any proposal. Broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present or the number of shares for or against any nominee for election as a director or any proposal.

SEC Investigation

The Company is cooperating with a previously disclosed investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") that is focused primarily on the Company's accounting for transactions underlying a restatement of its financial results for the third quarter of 2001. The Company announced the restatement on November 27, 2001, shortly after it initially reported the results on October 25, 2001.

The Company has preliminarily agreed with the staff of the SEC to a settlement with respect to this investigation. In the proposed settlement, without admitting or denying the SEC's findings, the Company and two of its directors, Wayne R. Peterson and James T. Boosales, would consent to an administrative cease and desist order regarding books and records, internal controls, and reporting provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. No penalties or other monetary fines would be assessed. The SEC would not make any finding of fraud by the Company or any of the named individuals. Mr. Peterson and Mr. Boosales each retired from his position as an Executive Vice President of the Company in December 2002. Each remains a director of the Company; Mr. Boosales is a nominee for election as director for a term expiring in 2006. The settlement would not require any further restatement of the Company's financial results for any period. The settlement covers only the Company and Messrs. Peterson and Boosales and remains subject to the completion of settlement documentation and SEC authorization.

Required Vote

The two nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares of Common Stock present or represented and entitled to be voted for them shall be elected as directors. Votes withheld from any director are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, but have no further legal effect under Florida law.

Board Meetings and Committees

The Board of Directors of the Company held a total of five meetings and took action by written consent seven times during the 2002 fiscal year. Each director who served as such during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, attended all of the meetings of the Board and the committees of the Board on which he served during that year. The Board of Directors has a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee. The Board of Directors does not have a Nominating Committee.

The Compensation Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Kemberling, Simmons and Emanuel, reviews specific compensation plans, salaries, bonuses, and other benefits payable to the Company's executive officers and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to those matters. During 2002, the Compensation Committee held two meetings.

The Audit Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Emanuel, Kemberling, and Simmons, reviews and evaluates the results and scope of the audit and other services provided by the Company's independent auditors. The Company anticipates that Mr. Emanuel (chair) and Mr. Simmons will qualify and be designated by the Board of Directors as financial experts under Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The three members of the Audit Committee are independent directors of the Company, as the term independent director is defined in National Association of Securities Dealers Rule 4200(a)(15).

The Board of Directors of the Company has a written charter for the Audit Committee, which it reviews annually and updates as appropriate. During 2002, the Audit Committee held four meetings.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee reviews the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal controls.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent auditors. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication With Audit Committees).

In addition, the Audit Committee received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and the letter relating to the independent auditors' independence, as required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions With Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from the Company and its management.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plan for their audit. The Audit Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, the evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board has approved, that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee and the Board also have recommended, subject to shareholder approval, the selection of the Company's independent auditors.

By the Audit Committee:

James M. Emanuel (chair)

Lee R. Kemberling

N. John Simmons, Jr.

Compensation of Directors

Boosales and Peterson have waived these fees for 2003 in connection with their consulting agreements with the Company.

In addition, for each year of any term to which he is elected, each non-employee director receives options to purchase 4,000 shares of Common Stock under the Company's Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan. All options become exercisable ratably over the director's term and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant.

All transactions between the Company and its officers, directors, principal shareholders, and their affiliates will continue to be approved by a majority of the Board of Directors, including a majority of the independent and disinterested outside directors on the Board of Directors, and will continue to be on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") has furnished the following report on the Company's executive compensation program. The Committee, which consists of the three outside directors listed at the end of this report, reviews and establishes specific compensation plans, salaries, option grants, and other benefits payable to the Company's executive officers. Following review and approval by the Committee, all issues pertaining to executive compensation are submitted to the entire Board of Directors for its review and approval.

The Committee's primary objective with respect to executive compensation is to establish programs that attract and retain executive officers and align their compensation with the Company's overall business strategies, values, and performance. For executive officers and key managers, the Company grants stock options as a component of total consideration to closely align their interests with the shareholders' long-term interests. Further, in evaluating annual compensation of executive and key managers, the Committee places a relatively heavy emphasis on stock options as a percentage of total compensation, consistent with its philosophy that stock incentives more closely align the interests of company managers with the long-term interests of shareholders.

The two components of the Company's total compensation program for executive officers have been:

1. Salary: Base salary paid to executives is intended to be competitive with that paid to comparable executives and is also intended to reflect consideration of an officer's experience, business judgment, and role in developing and implementing overall business strategy for the Company. Base salaries are based on qualitative and subjective factors, and no specific formula is applied to determine the weight of each factor.

2. Bonuses: Bonuses for executive officers are intended to reflect the Company's belief that a significant portion of annual compensation of the executive should be contingent on the performance of the Company, as well as the individual's contribution. Bonuses are paid on an annual basis and are based on qualitative and subjective factors.

3. Long-Term Stock Incentives: The Company's 1995 Stock Option Plan and 1998 Stock Option Plan provide for the grant to employees of incentive or nonqualified stock options. Grants to executives are designed to align a significant portion of the executive compensation package with the long-term interests of the Company's shareholders by providing an incentive that focuses attention on managing the Company from the perspective of an owner with an equity stake in the business.

Grants of stock options generally are limited to the senior executives and other key employees and managers of the Company who are in a position to contribute substantially to the growth and success of the Company. Incentive stock options and nonqualified stock options are granted for terms up to ten years and are designed to reward exceptional performance with a long-term benefit, facilitate stock ownership, and deter recruitment of key Company personnel by competitors and others. Vesting requirements encourage loyalty to the Company.

Pursuant to stock option grants, the Named Officers appearing in the Summary Compensation Table held a total of 225,000 shares, representing 3.5% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock on February 14, 2003. Messrs. Largey and Pope were granted 150,000 and 75,000 options, respectively, to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock in 2002.

In conclusion, the Company's executive officers' stock ownership closely aligns their interests with the Company's shareholders' long-term interests, consistent with the compensation philosophies set forth above. This close alignment has existed since the Company's inception and has contributed significantly to the Company's growth and profitability.
