INFORMATION ABOUT VOTING

Stockholders can vote in person at the annual meeting or by proxy. To vote by proxy, please mail the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed envelope. Please sign and date your proxy card before mailing.

The holders of record of a majority of the shares of common stock entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting or any adjournment thereof. II Directors.

Proposal 2

To be approved, Proposal 2 requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal.

Effect of Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Therefore, an abstention or a broker non-vote will not have any effect on the votes for Proposals 1 and 2.

All proxies received will be voted in accordance with the choices specified on such proxies. Proxies will be voted in favor of a proposal if no contrary specification is made. All valid proxies obtained will be voted at the discretion of the board of directors with respect to any other business that may come before the annual meeting.

Meetings and Committees of the Board of Directors

The board of directors met four times during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2001. In addition to meetings of the full board, directors also attended meetings of board committees. No incumbent director attended fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings held by the board of directors and the meetings of any committee on which the director served. The board of directors has the following committees: the audit committee, the compensation committee and the stock incentive committee.

Audit Committee

General. The audit committee of the board of directors is responsible for making recommendations to the board concerning the engagement of independent public accountants, monitoring and reviewing the quality and activities of ePlus' internal and external audit functions and monitoring the adequacy of ePlus' operating and internal controls as reported by management and the external or internal auditors. The members of the audit committee are C. Thomas Faulders, III, Terrence O'Donnell and Thomas L. Hewitt. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2001, two meetings of the audit committee were held.

Audit Committee Report. The audit committee is composed of three directors who are independent as defined under the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers. The committee operates under a written charter approved by the board of directors which is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement.

The committee reviews ePlus' financial reporting process on behalf of the board of directors. In fulfilling its responsibilities, the committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2001 with ePlus' management and the independent accountants. Management is responsible for our financial statements and the financial reporting process, including internal controls. The independent accountants are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The audit committee has discussed with the independent accountants the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended. In addition, the committee has discussed with the independent accountants the accountants' independence from ePlus and its management including the matters in the written disclosures provided to the committee as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. The committee has also considered whether the provision of non-audit services by the independent accountants to ePlus is compatible with maintaining auditors' independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the committee recommended to the board of directors, and the board of directors approved, that the audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2001, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Compensation Committee

Edgar Filing: EPLUS INC - Form DEFR14A

General. The compensation committee of the board of directors is responsible for reviewing the salaries, benefits and other compensation, including stock-based compensation, of Mr. Norton and Mr. Bowen and making recommendations to the board of directors based on its review. The members of the compensation committee are Terrence O'Donnell, C. Thomas Faulders, III and Thomas L. Hewitt, all of whom are non-employee directors. Mr. Norton and Mr. Bowen, as directors, do not vote on any matters affecting their personal compensation. Mr. Bowen and Mr. Norton are responsible for reviewing and establishing salaries, benefits and other compensation, excluding stock-based compensation, for all other employees. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2001, one meeting of the compensation committee was held.

Report Of The Compensation Committee. The compensation programs of ePlus are designed to align compensation with business objectives and performance, and to enable ePlus to attract, retain and reward executives who contribute to the long-term success of ePlus. The compensation committee believes that executive pay should be linked to performance. Therefore, ePlus provides an executive compensation program which includes base pay, potential cash bonus, and long-term incentive opportunities through the use of stock options.

The role of the compensation committee is limited to the review of the compensation, excluding stock-based compensation for Mr. Norton and Mr. Bowen, who are principal stockholders of ePlus. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a limit, with certain exceptions, on the amount that a publicly-held corporation may deduct in any year for the compensation paid with respect to its five most highly compensated executive officers. While the compensation committee cannot predict with certainty how ePlus' compensation tax deduction might be affected, the compensation committee tries to preserve the tax deductibility of all executive compensation while maintaining flexibility with respect to ePlus' compensation programs as described in this report.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

TC Plus LLC

On October 23, 1998, we sold 1,111,111 shares of common stock at a price of $9.00 per share and a warrant to acquire an additional 1,090,909 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $11.00 per share, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustment, to TC Plus, LLC, formerly named TC Leasing, LLC, for total consideration of $10 million. TC Plus, LLC is controlled by Thayer Equity Investors III, L.P., a private equity investment fund. TC Equity Partners, L.L.C. is the sole general partner of Thayer Equity Investors III, L.P.

The stock purchase agreement entered into in connection with the transaction imposed certain super-majority voting requirements on our board of directors and restricted our ability to engage in mergers or other material transactions. We also entered into a stockholders agreement with TC Plus, LLC, Phillip G. Norton, Bruce M. Bowen, J.A.P. Investment Group, L.P., Kevin M. Norton and Patrick J. Norton. The stockholders agreement as originally entered into provided for restrictions on transfers of shares, restriction on the issuance of shares, board representation, the forced sale of ePlus by TC Plus, LLC in certain circumstances and registration rights.

The warrant gave us the right to require TC Plus, LLC to exercise the warrant if our common stock closed at or above $11.00 per share for 20 consecutive trading days. On December 23, 1999, this condition was satisfied, and we gave notice to TC Plus, LLC to require exercise.

On February 25, 2000, we entered into an agreement with TC Plus, LLC, which was amended on April 11, 2000, to defer the obligation of TC Plus, LLC to exercise the warrant and to permit TC Plus, LLC to exercise the warrant simultaneously with a follow-on public offering of common stock on a cashless basis in exchange for a commitment by TC Plus, LLC to waive certain provisions of the stock purchase agreement and amend the stockholders agreement. Upon the cashless exercise of the warrant, which was completed on April 14, 2000, we issued to TC Plus, LLC 709,956 shares of our common stock.

The agreement, as amended, provides for the waiver of all super-majority voting requirements and restrictions on mergers and material transactions contained in the stock purchase agreement. The stockholders agreement, as amended, has the following provisions:

- o Our board of directors will have six members with two directors designated by TC Plus, LLC, two directors designated by the management stockholders party to the agreement and two non-employee directors designated by a nominating committee comprised of one individual designated by TC Plus, LLC and one individual designated by the management stockholders party to the agreement. Currently, TC Plus, LLC does not exercise its right to appoint directors of ePlus pursuant to the stockholders agreement. Phillip G. Norton and Bruce M. Bowen serve as the directors designated by the management stockholders.

- o TC Plus, LLC has the right to demand registration of its shares, under the Securities Act of 1933, on three separate occasions. TC Plus, LLC also has the right to include its shares in any other registration by us of our common stock. We are responsible for all of the registration expenses incurred in connection with TC Plus, LLC's exercise of these registration rights.

- o If we agree to purchase any shares of our common stock held by the management stockholders party to the agreement, we must give notice to TC Plus, LLC. If TC Plus, LLC wishes to participate, we must purchase its shares on the same terms and conditions as we purchase the shares held by the management stockholders.
- o Shares held by stockholders party to the stockholders agreement are no longer subject to the terms of the agreement when they are transferred in a registered offering or pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act.
- o All rights and obligations under the stockholders agreement terminate when TC Plus, LLC no longer holds 5% of our outstanding stock and shall remain terminated even if TC Plus, LLC later acquires 5% or more of our outstanding stock. TC Plus, LLC currently holds 1,015, 552 or approximately 10.0% of our outstanding shares of common stock.

Advances and Loans to Employees and Stockholders

ePlus has in the past provided loans and advances to employees and certain stockholders. Such balances are to be repaid from personal funds or commissions earned by the employees and/or stockholders on successful sales or financing arrangements obtained on behalf of ePlus. Loans and advances to employees and/or stockholders totaled $66,082 for the year ended March 31, 2001.

Reimbursement of Certain Expenses

ePlus leases certain office space from entities which are owned, in part, by executives of our subsidiaries. During the year ended March 31, 2001, rent expense paid to these related parties was $248,849.

Sale of Equity Investment

Edgar Filing: EPLUS INC - Form DEFR14A

On May 23, 2000, ePlus Capital, Inc., one of our wholly owned subsidiaries, exercised a warrant to purchase 3,450,000 shares of the common stock of solven.com inc. ePlus Capital, Inc. then sold those shares to Immediant Corporation in exchange for a cash payment of $344,891, a warrant to purchase 222,500 shares of unregistered common stock of Immediant at an exercise price of $10.00 per share, and 260,953 shares of unregistered common stock of Immediant Corporation. Immediant is an affiliate of Thayer Equity Investors III, L.P. which is the managing member of TC Plus, LLC.

Indemnification Agreements

We have entered into separate but identical indemnification agreements with each of our directors and executive officers, and we expect to enter into similar indemnification agreements with persons who become directors or executive officers in the future. The indemnification agreements provide that ePlus will indemnify the director or officer against any expenses or liabilities incurred in connection with any proceeding in which the director or officer may be involved as a party or otherwise, by reason of the fact that the director or officer is or was a director or officer of ePlus or by reason of any action taken by or omitted to be taken by the director or officer while acting as an officer or director of ePlus. However, ePlus is only obligated to provide indemnification under the indemnification agreements if:

- (1) the director or officer was acting in good faith and in a manner the director or officer reasonably believed to be in the best interests of ePlus, and, with respect to any criminal action, the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe the director's or officer's conduct was unlawful;
- (2) the claim was not made to recover profits made by the director or officer in violation of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, as amended, or any successor statute;
- (3) the claim was not initiated by the director or officer;
- (4) the claim was not covered by applicable insurance; or
- (5) the claim was not for an act or omission of a director of ePlus from which a director may not be relieved of liability under Section 103(b)(7) of the DGCL. Each director and officer has undertaken to repay ePlus for any costs or expenses paid by ePlus if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification under the indemnification agreements.

Future Transactions

ePlus' policy requires that all material transactions between ePlus and its officers, directors or other affiliates must be approved by a majority of the disinterested members of the board of directors of ePlus, and be on terms no less favorable to ePlus than could be obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

Further, the committee periodically should review company policies and procedures regarding compliance with applicable laws and regulations and with the code of conduct, if any.
