Employment Contracts

On November 1, 1997, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Jay Mealey, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, President and Treasurer. Mr. Mealey's employment agreement was originally set to expire on December 31, 2000. However, the Board has approved an amendment of Mr. Mealey's employment agreement extending its term until December 31, 2003. The employment agreement provided for an initial base salary of $150,000, which amount was increased by $180,000 on November 1, 1998 and was further increased to $210,000 on November 21, 1999. Thereafter, under the agreement his base salary increases each subsequent year by 20% per annum effective as of January 1 of each successive year beginning January 1, 2001. In addition to the base salary, Mr. Mealey is entitled to compensation bonuses based on (1) the Company's earnings per share and (2) the price of the Company's Common Stock. Mr. Mealey is also eligible to receive a discretionary bonus each fiscal year during the term or renewed terms of the agreement in amounts determined by the Board of Directors of the Company at its sole discretion. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Mealey was also issued options pursuant to the Plan to purchase 450,000 shares. As described below, the foregoing options were repriced during the 2000 fiscal year at an exercise price of $.125 per share. The options vest in three equal tranches. The first tranche of options to purchase 150,000 shares vested on November 1, 1997, the second tranche of 150,000 options vested on November 1, 1998 and the final tranche vested on November 1, 1999. None of the options, however, can be exercised until the offer price of the Company's Common Stock, for thirty days, equals or exceeds $0.16 per share with respect to the first tranche of options, $0.23 per share with respect to the second tranche and $0.31 per share with respect to the final tranche.

Edgar Filing: CROWN ENERGY CORP - Form 10-K/A

Jay Mealey's employment agreement was amended in 1999 to extend the term of his employment until December 31, 2003. Additionally, the amendment provided that the compensation bonus payable to Mr. Mealey, based upon increases in the average share price of the Company's common stock over the preceding year's base price (and, for purposes of such calculation, the base price automatically increases each year). Additionally, the amendment granted Mr. Mealey additional options to acquire 450,000 shares of Company common stock. The exercise price for 50,000 options is $0.125 and $0.38 for the remaining 400,000 options. The options vest in three tranches: (1) options to acquire 150,000 shares will vest on May 1, 2001 provided that Mr. Mealey is employed by the Company, but will not be exercisable until the average ask price of the Company's Common Stock equals or exceeds $1.00 per share for thirty days; (2) options to acquire the second tranche of 150,000 shares will vest on May 1, 2002 provided that Mr. Mealey is employed by the Company, but will not be exercisable until the average ask price of the Company's Common Stock equals or exceeds $1.30 per share for thirty days; and (3) options to acquire the third tranche of 150,000 shares will vest on May 1, 2003 provided that Mr. Mealey is employed by the Company, but will not be exercisable until the average ask price of the Company's Common Stock equals or exceeds $1.69 per share for thirty days.

Mr. Mealey's employment agreement is terminable upon his death or disability, terminable for cause and terminable by Mr. Mealey for Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement) following a Change of Control (as defined in the Employment Agreement). If terminated for "cause" as defined in the Employment Agreement, Mr. Mealey is not entitled to receive compensation or benefits beyond that which has been earned or has vested on the date of termination. If terminated by Mr. Mealey's death or disability, Mr. Mealey's legal representatives or beneficiaries are entitled to receive continued payments in an amount equal to 70% of his base salary in effect at the time of his death or disability until the end of the term of the Employment Agreement or for a period of twelve months, whichever is longer, plus a prorated amount of any bonus payable under the Employment Agreement. In the event of the termination of Mr. Mealey's employment without cause or upon termination of employment by Mr. Mealey for Good Reason following a Change of Control, Mr. Mealey is entitled to payment of his unpaid base salary, plus a lump sum payment equal to three times the sum of his base salary and bonuses. Further, all options granted to Mr. Mealey vest and become fully exercisable and, at Mr. Mealey's option, can be surrendered to the Company for cash in an amount equal to the fair market value of the share of the Company's common stock minus the exercise price of the option times the number of options surrendered. Mr. Mealey is also entitled to receive any and all fringe benefits offered to employees of the Company for a certain period of time. In addition, if the benefit payments are subject to excise taxes, the Company is required to pay Mr. Mealey an amount sufficient to cover such taxes.

Change of Control Contracts

In November 1997, the Company entered into an Employment Agreement with Jay Mealey which contains "change of control" provisions providing for the payment of compensation and benefits upon the Company's termination of Mr. Mealey's employment without cause or termination by Mr. Mealey for Good Reason (as defined in that agreement). The change of control terms of Mr. Mealey's contract is more fully discussed above in Item 11. "Executive Compensation - Employment Contracts." The Plan also contains "change of control" provisions. Specifically, the Plan provides that upon a change of control as defined in the Plan, that all options issued pursuant to the Plan will automatically vest and all periods or conditions of restriction will be deemed to have been completed or fulfilled, as the case may be.

In addition, Jay Mealey, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President, has entered into a Right to Co-Sale Agreement (the "Co-Sale Agreement") with Enron Capital and Trade Resources Corp. ("ECT"), a subsidiary of Enron Corp.,

which is affiliated with and controls Sundance, the holder of the Company's Preferred Stock. Under the Co-Sale Agreement, Mr. Mealey agreed not to sell any securities of the Company which he owns, or any interests in such securities, to any person for a period of five years except in accordance with the terms of the Co-Sale Agreement which generally requires that upon receipt of a bona fide offer to purchase more than 50% of the shares of the Company's stock held by Mr. Mealey or more than 50% of the outstanding securities of the Company, Mr. Mealey shall give ECT notice of the offer and an opportunity to sell all or a pro-rata portion of the shares of the Company's stock held by ECT. The sale of 50% or more of the shares held by Mr. Mealey together with the sale of a similar number of the shares held by ECT could result in a change in control of the Company. In November 2001, Manhattan Goose, L.L.C. acquired all of the Preferred Stock held by Sundance and its interest in the related agreement.

Effective as of January 2, 1998, the Chief Executive Officer, President and Treasurer of the Company, Jay Mealey, who is also a director of the Company, executed a non-recourse promissory note in the amount of $319,583, as consideration for the purchase of shares of Common Stock of the Company through the exercise of options previously granted to him. The note is payable on a pro rata basis upon the sale of the underlying stock securing repayment thereof or January 2, 2003, whichever occurs first. The note is secured by a stock pledge agreement granting the Company a security interest in the shares of stock purchased upon the exercise of the options.

The Company owns a minority interest in Crown Asphalt Ridge, L.L.C., a Utah limited liability company ("Crown Ridge"), which is developing an asphalt oil-sand production facility at Asphalt Ridge near Vernal, Utah.
