STOCKMEN'S BANCORP

PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

MERGER PROPOSED -- YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockmen's Bancorp Shareholder:

The board of directors of The Stockmen's Bancorp, Inc., which we refer to in this document as "Stockmen's," has unanimously approved the sale of Stockmen's to Zions Bancorporation. In this document, we refer to the agreement and plan of reorganization among Zions, National Bank of Arizona, Stockmen's and The Stockmen's Bank, our wholly-owned subsidiary, as the "merger agreement." Under the merger agreement, Stockmen's will merge with and into Zions, and The Stockmen's Bank will merge with and into National Bank of Arizona, Zions' wholly-owned subsidiary. Following the merger, Zions will be the surviving corporation; and following the bank merger, National Bank of Arizona will be the surviving bank. We refer to the two mergers herein collectively as the "merger." We believe that the merger is in the best interests of our shareholders and unanimously recommend that our shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement. We will hold a special meeting for our shareholders to consider and vote upon the merger agreement. Throughout this proxy statement/prospectus, we use the words "we," "our, and "us"; these words refer to Stockmen's, its board or directors and/or management, as the context demands.

After completion of the merger, Zions will issue the merger consideration, which shall consist solely of shares of Zions common stock (and cash in lieu of fractional shares), to the former Stockmen's shareholders. In exchange for his, her or its shares of Stockmen's common stock, each former Stockmen's shareholder will receive approximately 7.46 shares of Zions common stock for each share of our common stock. See "Approval of the Merger Agreement - The Merger Consideration."

Under the merger agreement and based on the number of shares of Stockmen's common stock on the record date for our special meeting, Zions expects to issue approximately 2,600,237 shares of Zions common stock to former Stockmen's shareholders upon completion of the merger. Immediately after the merger, former Stockmen's shareholders would own approximately 2.4% of the then-outstanding shares of Zions common stock (without giving effect to shares of Zions common stock held by Stockmen's shareholders prior to the merger).

Zions common stock trades under the symbol "ZION" on the Nasdaq Global Select Market. On December 5, 2006, the closing price per share of Zions common stock as reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market was $79.02. Stockmen's common stock is held by approximately 215 shareholders of record and there is no public market for our shares.

We cannot complete the merger unless the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Stockmen's common stock vote at our special meeting of shareholders to approve the merger agreement. Please complete, sign, date and promptly return the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Various of our executive officers and directors and their affiliates, including William W. Becker, our chairman of the board, Tod W. Becker, our vice chairman of the board, and Farrel Holyoak, our president and chief operating officer and president and chief executive officer of The Stockmen's Bank, own approximately 46.72% of the outstanding Stockmen's common stock. These persons have agreed with Zions that they will vote the Stockmen's common stock they own in favor of the merger agreement. No vote of Zions' shareholders is required to approve the transaction.

This proxy statement/prospectus provides you with detailed information about the merger of Zions and Stockmen's. You are encouraged to read this entire document carefully. Please pay particular attention to "Risk Factors" beginning on page 13 for a discussion of the risks related to the merger and owning Zions common stock after the merger. This document incorporates important business and financial information about Zions. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

This proxy statement/prospectus, which we sometimes refer to as "this document," provides you with detailed information about the merger agreement, the merger and related matters that we will submit for approval at the Stockmen's special meeting of shareholders. We encourage you to read this entire document carefully. This document incorporates important business and financial information about Zions that is not included in or delivered with this document. See "Documents Incorporated by Reference" on page 54. Stockmen's shareholders may obtain this information without charge by requesting in writing, by telephone or e-mail as follows:

For information regarding Zions, please contact:

Zions Bancorporation

One South Main, Suite 1134

Salt Lake City, Utah 84111

Attention: Mr. Clark B. Hinckley, Senior

Vice President - Investor Relations and

Communications

Tel: (801) 524-4787

e-mail at: clark.hinckley@zionsbancorp.com

If you would like to request documents from Zions or us, please do so by January 5, 2007 to receive them prior to the Stockmen's special meeting. See "Where You Can Find More Information" above at the beginning of this document.

Q: WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS DOCUMENT?

A: This document serves as both a proxy statement of Stockmen's and a prospectus of Zions. As a proxy statement, it's being provided to you because Stockmen's board of directors is soliciting your proxy for use at our special meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote on the proposed merger of Stockmen's and Zions. As a prospectus, it's being provided to you because Zions is offering to exchange shares of its common stock for your shares of Stockmen's common stock if the merger is completed.

Q: WHAT AM I VOTING ON?

A: Zions and Stockmen's have entered into an agreement and plan of reorganization under which Zions has agreed to acquire Stockmen's. You are being asked to vote to approve the merger agreement under which Stockmen's will merge with and into Zions, and Stockmen's Bank will merge with and into NBA; and an adjournment of our special meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of our special meeting to approve the merger agreement.

Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN IN THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION?

A: Stockmen's will merge with and into Zions, with Zions being the surviving corporation. Upon completion of this merger, the corporate existence of Stockmen's will cease. Immediately following that merger, Stockmen's Bank, Stockmen's wholly-owned subsidiary, will merge with and into NBA, Zions' wholly-owned subsidiary, and NBA will be the surviving bank, and the corporate existence of Stockmen's Bank will cease.

Q: WHY IS STOCKMEN'S PROPOSING TO MERGE?

A: Stockmen's believes that the merger with Zions presents the best opportunity for maximizing shareholder value, giving Stockmen's shareholders the opportunity to continue to participate in the growth of the combined company and to benefit from the significantly greater liquidity of the trading market for Zions' common stock.

Q: WHAT WILL I RECEIVE IN EXCHANGE FOR MY STOCKMEN'S SHARES?

A: As a shareholder of Stockmen's, you will receive approximately 7.46 shares of Zions common stock for each share of Stockmen's common stock that you own at the effective time of the merger. You will receive cash in lieu of any fraction of a share of Zions stock. See "Approval of the Merger Agreement - The Merger Consideration" on page 19 below.

Q: WILL I BE TAXED ON THE ZIONS STOCK THAT I RECEIVE IN EXCHANGE FOR MY STOCKMEN'S SHARES?

A: The transaction is intended to be tax-free to Stockmen's shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash you receive in lieu of fractional shares of Zions stock. Tax matters are very complicated and the federal, state and local tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular facts and circumstances. We urge you to consult your tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences of the merger to you. See "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 43 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of Contents

Q: WHAT IS THE REQUIRED VOTE TO APPROVE THE MERGER AGREEMENT?

A: The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Stockmen's common stock as of the close of business on November 27, 2006, the record date for our special meeting, must vote to approve the merger agreement in order for the merger to be completed. Abstentions from voting and "broker non-votes" are not considered affirmative votes and, therefore, will have the same practical effect as a vote against the merger agreement. No vote of the shareholders of Zions is required to complete the merger.

Q: WHAT DOES THE STOCKMEN'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMEND?

A: The board of directors of Stockmen's unanimously recommends that Stockmen's shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement, and in favor of an adjournment of our special meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of our special meeting to approve the merger agreement.

Q: WHEN AND WHERE WILL THE SPECIAL MEETING TAKE PLACE?

A: Our special meeting is scheduled to take place on January 12, 2007, at the time and place indicated in our notice of special meeting of shareholders at the beginning of this document. Please refer to the notice for the relevant information regarding our special meeting.

Q: WHO IS ENTITLED TO VOTE AT THE SPECIAL MEETING?

A: Holders of record of Stockmen's common stock at the close of business on November 27, 2006, which is the date our board of directors has fixed as the record date for our special meeting, are entitled to vote at our special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of our meeting.

Q: HOW DO I VOTE? WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

A: After you have carefully read this document, please indicate on your proxy card how you want your shares to be voted, then sign, date and mail the proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented and voted at our special meeting. In addition, you may attend our special meeting in person and vote, whether or not you have already signed and mailed your proxy card. If you sign and return your proxy but do not indicate how you want to vote, we will count your proxy as a vote in favor of the proposal. If you abstain from voting or do not vote, that will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Q: IF MY SHARES ARE HELD IN "STREET NAME" BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

A: Your broker will vote your shares on the merger proposal only if you provide your broker instructions on how you would like to vote. Your broker cannot vote your shares without receiving voting instructions from you. Your broker will send you directions on how you can instruct your broker to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker. If you fail to instruct your broker how to vote your shares, your shares will not be voted and the effect will be the same as a vote against the merger agreement.

Q: MAY I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE MAILED MY SIGNED PROXY CARD?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at our special meeting. If your shares are held in your own name, there are three ways for you to revoke your proxy and change your vote:

- You may send a later-dated, signed proxy card before our special meeting;
- You may attend our special meeting in person and vote at our special meeting; merely attending our special meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy; you will need to complete a ballot in order to vote in person at our special meeting; we will provide ballots for those of our shareholders who wish to vote at our special meeting; and
- You may revoke any proxy by written notice to our president, Farrel Holyoak, given prior to our special meeting.

You should send any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy to Farrel Holyoak, President, The Stockmen's Bancorp, Inc., 3825 Stockton Hill Road, Kingman, Arizona 86402-3879, or hand deliver the notice of revocation or subsequent proxy to the president at or before the taking of the vote at our special meeting.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change your vote.

Q: DO I HAVE DISSENTERS' RIGHTS?

A: Yes. Under Arizona law, you have the right to dissent from the merger and thereby to receive solely a cash payment for your shares of Stockmen's common stock. The Arizona statutory scheme is very complicated. Failure to follow the statutory provisions precisely may result in your loss of your dissenters' rights under Arizona law. See "Rights of Dissenting Shareholders," below. We present the Arizona statutory provisions in their entirety in Appendix C to this document. Please read this document and Appendix C carefully.

Q: WHEN DO YOU EXPECT TO MERGE?

A: We and Zions hope to complete the merger as quickly as possible after receipt of shareholder and regulatory approvals. We and Zions expect to complete the merger during the first quarter of 2007, shortly after receipt of shareholder approval, the expiration of applicable regulatory waiting periods and the satisfaction or waiver of all other conditions to the merger.

Q: WHY IS IT IMPORTANT FOR ME TO VOTE?

A: We and Zions cannot complete the merger without the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Stockmen's common stock as of the record date voting to approve the merger agreement. If you do not vote or do not give instructions to your broker or bank to vote on your behalf, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement.

Q: SHOULD I SEND IN MY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH MY PROXY CARD?

A: No. Please do not send your stock certificates with your proxy card. After our special meeting, together with the transmittal materials which Zions will send to Stockmen's shareholders after our special meeting, you should send your Stockmen's common stock certificates (or a properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery) to the exchange agent, Zions First National Bank, or, if your shares are held in "street name," according to your broker's instructions.

Q: IS THERE OTHER INFORMATION I SHOULD CONSIDER?

A: Yes. Much of the business and financial information about Zions that may be important to you is not included in this document. Instead, this information is incorporated by reference to documents separately filed by Zions with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). This means that Zions may satisfy its disclosure obligations to you by referring you to one or more documents separately filed by it with the SEC. See "Documents Incorporated by Reference" on page 54 for a list of documents that Zions has incorporated by reference into this document and for instructions on how to obtain copies of these documents. The documents are available to you without charge.

Q: WHAT IF THERE IS A CONFLICT BETWEEN DOCUMENTS?

A: You should rely on the later filed document. Information in this document may update information contained in one or more of the Zions documents incorporated by reference. Similarly, information in documents that Zions may file after the date of this document may update information contained in this document or information contained in previously filed documents.

Stockmen's Board Recommends that You Vote "FOR" Approval of the Plan of Merger; Stockmen's Reasons for the Merger (see page 23)

Our board has determined that the merger is advisable and in your best interests and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement, and, if necessary, any adjournments of our special meeting.

Stockmen's believes that the merger with Zions presents the best opportunity for maximizing shareholder value, giving Stockmen's shareholders the opportunity to continue to participate in the growth of the combined company and to benefit from the significantly greater liquidity of the trading market for Zions' common stock.

You should refer to the factors considered by our board of directors in making its decision to approve the merger agreement and recommend approval of the merger agreement to our shareholders.

Stockmen's Shareholder Vote Required to Approve the Merger (see page 17)

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding as of the close of business on November 27, 2006, the record date for our special meeting of shareholders. At the close of business on the record date, there were 348,713 shares of our common stock outstanding held by approximately 215 holders of record. Each holder of record of our common stock on the record date will be entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters to be voted upon at our special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of our meeting.

As of the record date, various of our executive officers and directors and their affiliates, in the aggregate, beneficially owned approximately 46.72% of our outstanding shares of common stock. Zions has entered into agreements with these individuals and entities under which they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of approval of the merger agreement.

Nature of the Merger (see page 20)

The merger will combine Zions and Stockmen's. Zions will be the surviving corporation. After the merger, Zions will issue the merger consideration consisting of shares of Zions common stock to the former shareholders of Stockmen's in exchange for their shares of Stockmen's common stock.

Immediately following the merger of Zions and Stockmen's, their banking subsidiaries, NBA and Stockmen's Bank will merge. The merger of these banks will be accomplished through the merger of Stockmen's Bank into NBA. NBA will be the surviving bank.

What Stockmen's Shareholders Will Receive as a Result of the Merger; What Is the Merger Consideration? (see page 20)

The Stockmen's shareholders will receive the merger consideration upon completion of the merger. The sole merger consideration shall be shares of Zions common stock, plus cash in lieu of any fractional shares. Zions will issue approximately 2,600,237 shares of its common stock to the former Stockmen's shareholders upon completion of the merger. Each shareholder of Stockmen's will receive approximately 7.46 shares of Zions common stock in exchange for each share of Stockmen's common stock.

Zions may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances if the average closing price of Zions stock during the pricing period, as defined in the merger agreement, is more than $93.24, unless Stockmen's agrees to accept fewer shares in the merger, and Stockmen's may terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of Zions stock during the pricing period, as defined in the merger agreement, is less than $68.92, unless Zions agrees to issue additional shares of its common stock to the Stockmen's shareholders in the merger.

Cash Dividends after the Merger (see page 34)

The current annualized rate of cash dividends on the shares of Zions common stock is $1.56 per share. For illustrative purposes only, if one assumes that Zions will issue 7.46 shares of its common stock for each share of Stockmen's common stock and if one further assumes a Zions annualized dividend rate of $1.56 per share of Zions common stock, then in these circumstances a former Stockmen's shareholder would receive as a Zions shareholder following the merger an equivalent annualized dividend of $11.64 (7.46 Zions shares times $1.56 dividend per share) with respect to each share of Stockmen's common stock surrendered in the merger. The current annualized rate of regular cash dividends on Stockmen's common stock is $6.50 per share. The payment of cash dividends by Zions in the future will depend on its financial condition, earnings, business conditions and other factors.

Material Federal Tax Consequences of the Merger (see page 43)

The merger has been structured to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. We and Zions will have no obligation to complete the merger unless we and Zions receive a legal opinion that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes. The legal opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service, which, however, could take a different view. Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization, then you generally will not recognize any gain or loss, except with respect to cash you receive in lieu of fractional shares of Zions common stock. You should read "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 43 for a more complete discussion of the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. We urge you to consult with your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

What We Need to Do Before the Merger is Complete (see page 38)

Completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met, including the following:

- approval of the merger agreement by the required majority vote of our shareholders;
- approval by or waiver from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of Utah, and the Arizona Superintendent of Financial Institutions. While we do not know of any reason why Zions would be unable to obtain these approvals or waivers in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if Zions will get these approvals or waivers; and
- receipt by us of an opinion from the law firm of Duane Morris LLP, counsel to Zions, to the effect that the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the merger to Stockmen's shareholders, Stockmen's and Zions will generally be as described in this document.

Generally, Zions and Stockmen's can waive conditions to completion of the merger. Some of these conditions, however, cannot be waived, including shareholder and regulatory approvals. We expect to complete the merger during the first quarter of 2007.

Terminating the Merger Agreement (see page 40)

Zions or Stockmen's may terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger by mutual consent, or if any of the following occurs:

- if any of the representations or warranties of the other party was incorrect when made, subject to the material adverse effect requirement, or in the event of a breach or failure in any material respect by the other party of any of that party's covenants or obligations and that breached covenant or obligation has not been or cannot be cured within thirty days, and which inaccuracy, breach, or failure, if continued to the effective date of the merger, would result in any condition precedent to completion of the merger not being satisfied;

- either Zions or Stockmen's shall have determined in good faith that the merger has become inadvisable or impracticable by reason of the institution of litigation by the federal government or the government of Arizona or Utah to restrain or invalidate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- if any required approvals of governmental authorities are denied, and such denial has become final and non-appealable;
- the shareholders of Stockmen's fail to approve the merger;
- the average closing price of Zions common stock during a defined period prior to the effective time of the merger is above or below specified prices, the party that is adversely affected by the price change elects to terminate the merger agreement, and the other party does not elect to change the exchange ratio in accordance with a formula to avoid the termination of the merger agreement;
- Stockmen's, following receipt of advice from its counsel, shall have determined that it must terminate the merger to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Stockmen's shareholders imposed by law by reason of its having received an alternative proposal, as defined in the merger agreement, provided that Zions shall have been paid the amount of liquidated damages specified in the merger agreement; or
- the merger is not completed by May 31, 2007.

The merger agreement provides for the payment of damages under certain circumstances if the merger agreement is terminated; depending upon the circumstances, these damages can range from $2,250,000 to $9,750,000. The circumstances of the termination as presented in the merger agreement will determine which party, if any, is liable for damages resulting from termination of the merger agreement. We encourage you to review the discussion of termination fees under "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Termination and Termination Fees" on page 40 below and the specific provisions of §13.03 of the merger agreement for a more comprehensive understanding of the effects of termination of the merger agreement.

Amending the Agreement

Zions and Stockmen's may amend the merger agreement at any time by mutual written agreement, except that after approval by our shareholders, no waiver or amendment is permitted which would adversely change the amount and kind of consideration or prejudice the economic interests of our shareholders.

Stockmen's Shareholders Will Have the Right to Dissent to the Merger Agreement and the Merger (see page 46)

Under Arizona law, our shareholders will have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. By following the Arizona statutory scheme, you may dissent to the merger agreement and the merger and thereby receive solely a cash payment for your shares of our common stock if the merger occurs. To assert your rights successfully, you will need to follow the statutory requirements precisely. Failure to follow the precise requirements of Arizona law may result in the loss of your dissenters' rights. In order to exercise your dissenters' rights, you must refrain from voting "FOR" the merger. For more information regarding your right to dissent from the merger and the procedures and requirements to exercise appraisal rights, please see "Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" beginning on page 46. We also have attached a copy of the relevant provisions of Arizona law as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Our Financial Advisor Believes the Merger Consideration is Fair to Our Shareholders from a Financial Point of View (see page 25)

We have received a written opinion from our financial advisor, Hovde Financial, Inc. to the effect that, as of September 7, 2006, the merger consideration was fair to our shareholders from a financial point of view. We recommend that each of our shareholders carefully read the discussion of Hovde's financial analysis of the merger under the heading "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Opinion of Stockmen's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 25, as well as Hovde's opinion in its entirety to understand the assumptions made, matters considered, and limitations on the review undertaken by our financial advisor. The full text of Hovde's opinion is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Hovde in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. Hovde urges Stockmen's shareholders to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger. Hovde's opinion speaks only as of September 7, 2006. The opinion was directed to our board of directors and is directed only to the fairness of the merger consideration to our shareholders as of September 7, 2006 from a financial point of view. It does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Stockmen's or the effect of any other transaction in which Stockmen's might engage. It is not a recommendation to any Stockmen's shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at our special meeting with respect to the merger or any other matter.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (page 34)

The combination of the two companies will be accounted for as an acquisition of Stockmen's by Zions using the purchase method of accounting.

When We Expect the Merger to Close (see page 20)

We expect completion of the merger as soon as practicable following receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals and following approval of the merger agreement by our shareholders at our special shareholders meeting and satisfaction of all other conditions to the merger. We expect that the merger will close during the first quarter of 2007.

We Unanimously Recommend That Our Shareholders Approve the Merger Agreement (see page 23)

Our board of directors believes that the merger is fair to you and is in your best interests, and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Interests of Stockmen's Officers and Directors in the Merger That Are Different from Your Interests (see page 30)

You should be aware that some of our officers and directors have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests that they have or would have as shareholders of Stockmen's. The members of our board of directors knew about these additional interests, and considered them, when they approved the merger agreement. These interests include, among other things, an employment agreement and non-competition agreements entered into (or that will be entered into) with our executive officers that take effect upon completion of the merger, and enhanced and additional payments under the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan and certain change-in-control agreements upon a change in control of Stockmen's. The aggregate amount that may be payable under these agreements with the various officers and directors is approximately $6.2 million. Of this amount, $3,412,373 is attributable to SERP payments; $1,407,192 is attributable to change in control payments; and $1,342,444 is attributable to payments under non-competition agreements (that are currently being discussed). The following represent the more salient of interests involved in the merger. For a more expansive discussion, see "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Interests of Officers and Directors in the Merger That Are Different from Your Interests," below.

Farrel Holyoak, our president and chief operating officer and who is president and CEO of Stockmen's Bank, will enter into an employment agreement with NBA effective as of the effective date of the merger. For a period of one year following the effective date of the merger, extendable by mutual agreement for an additional year, Mr. Holyoak will serve as a Regional President of NBA. In exchange for his performance under this agreement, NBA will agree to pay Mr. Holyoak a salary at an annual rate of $250,000. After the first anniversary of his commencing employment with NBA, if Mr. Holyoak continues in NBA's employ through that date, he shall be entitled to a one-time bonus of $50,000, which will be payable on or before the first March 15 following the first anniversary of his employment with NBA. Mr. Holyoak will also receive additional benefits to which an officer of NBA would be entitled.

Additional officers of Stockmen's Bank may become officers of NBA following the merger and, whether or not they become officers of NBA, it is expected that they will sign non-competition agreements with NBA for which they will be compensated. These non-competition agreements are currently being discussed, and the terms and conditions of these agreements have not yet been finalized. Mr. Holyoak will also be subject to a non-competition agreement.

Stockmen's is expected to enter into Change in Control Agreements with Messrs. Farrel Holyoak, James Walker, Jeff Duncan, William Kitchen and Gary Jay, all executives of Stockmen's Bank, under which those executives will receive payments in the event of a change of control of Stockmen's. Upon completion of the merger, it is expected that Stockmen's will be required to make change in control payments to those five executive officers of Stockmen's Bank in the aggregate amount of $1,407,192. In addition, ten directors and executive officers of Stockmen's Bank will receive payments under The Stockmen's Bank Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan upon a change of control and following completion of the merger. Those ten individuals will receive a total of $3,412,373 in payments under the SERP following completion of the merger.

We Have Not Yet Received the Required Regulatory Approvals (see page 45)

The merger and the bank merger have not yet received the required approvals from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve, the Comptroller of the Currency and the Arizona Superintendent of Financial Institutions. Zions and Stockmen's have either filed or intend to complete the filing promptly after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus of all required applications and notices with applicable regulatory authorities in connection with the merger. There can be no assurance that all requisite approvals will be obtained or that such approvals will be received on a timely basis. The U.S. Department of Justice has not yet completed its review of the effect the transaction could have on competition.

Our Shareholders' Meeting

We will hold our special meeting of shareholders at the Main Office of Stockmen's Bank, 3825 Stockton Hill Road, Kingman, Arizona on January 12, 2007 at 10:00 a. m. local time.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully read and consider the following factors in evaluating the proposals to be voted on at our special meeting of Stockmen's shareholders. Please also refer to the additional risk factors identified in the periodic reports and other documents of Zions incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and listed in "Documents Incorporated by Reference."

We may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The success of the merger will depend, in part, on the parties' ability to realize the anticipated cost savings from combining certain aspects of the businesses of Zions and Stockmen's. However, to realize the anticipated benefits from the merger, Zions must successfully combine the businesses of Zions and Stockmen's in a manner that permits those cost savings to be realized. The anticipated benefits of the merger also depend on the continued operating performance of Stockmen's business following the merger. If Zions is not able to combine the businesses of Zions and Stockmen's in a manner that permits the anticipated cost savings to be realized, or if the business of Stockmen's does not perform as anticipated following the merger, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

Zions and Stockmen's have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect each company's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The market price of the shares of Zions common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Zions currently.

Zions' current businesses and geographic markets differ in some respects from those of Stockmen's, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock will be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each company and the market price of Zions. For a discussion of the businesses of Zions and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under "Documents Incorporated by Reference" beginning on page 54.

Because the market price of Zions common stock will fluctuate, the shareholders of Stockmen's cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration they will receive.

Although it is anticipated that our shareholders will receive approximately 7.46 shares of Zions common stock for each share of Stockmen's common stock exchanged in the merger, Stockmen's shareholders cannot be sure of the precise value of the Zions common stock they will receive upon completion of the merger, because the market price of Zions common stock will fluctuate. The price of Zions common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market may vary from the closing price of Zions common stock on the date we and Zions announced the merger, on the date that this proxy statement/prospectus is being mailed to our shareholders, and on the date of our special meeting of Stockmen's shareholders. Any change in the market price of Zions common stock will affect the value of the Zions common stock in the hands of our shareholders following completion of the merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond the companies' control.

Additionally, the date that you will receive your shares of Zions common stock following completion of the merger depends on the completion date of the merger, which is uncertain. The completion date of the merger might be later than expected due to unforeseen events, such as delays in obtaining regulatory approvals.

Stockmen's will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Stockmen's and consequently on Zions. These uncertainties may impair Stockmen's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Stockmen's to seek to change existing business relationships with Stockmen's. Retention of certain employees may be challenging during the pendency of the merger, because certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Zions. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with Zions, Zions' business following the merger could be harmed. In addition, the merger agreement restricts Stockmen's from making certain acquisitions and taking other specified actions until the merger occurs. These restrictions may prevent Stockmen's from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. Please see the section entitled "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Conduct of Business Pending Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 36 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a description of some of the restrictive covenants to which Stockmen's is subject.

Table of Contents

Some of the directors and executive officers of Stockmen's have interests and arrangements that may have influenced their decisions to support or recommend that you approve the merger.

The interests of some of our directors and executive officers may be different from those of our shareholders, and our directors and officers may be participants in arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of our shareholders. These interests are described in more detail in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Interests of Officers and Directors in the Merger That Are Different from Your Interests" beginning on page 30.

The merger agreement limits Stockmen's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that make it more difficult for Stockmen's to sell its business to a party other than Zions. These provisions include (1) the general prohibition on Stockmen's soliciting any acquisition proposal or offer for a competing transaction and (2) the requirement that Stockmen's pay termination fees of up to $9.75 million in the aggregate if the merger agreement is terminated in specified circumstances. See "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Conduct of Business Pending Completion of the Merger" and "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Termination and Termination Fees" beginning on pages 36 and 40, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Zions required Stockmen's to agree to these provisions as a condition to Zions' willingness to enter into the merger agreement. These provisions, however, might discourage a third party that might have an interest in acquiring all of or a significant part of Stockmen's from considering or proposing that acquisition, even if that party were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than the current proposed merger consideration. Furthermore, the termination fee may result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire Stockmen's than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

The shares of Zions common stock to be received by Stockmen's shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from the shares of Stockmen's common stock.

The rights associated with our common stock are different from the rights associated with Zions common stock. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" on page 49 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Zions common stock.

If the merger is not consummated by May 31, 2007, either Zions or Stockmen's may choose not to proceed with the merger.

Either Zions or Stockmen's may terminate the merger agreement if the merger has not been completed by May 31, 2007, unless the failure of the merger to have been completed has resulted from the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to have performed its obligations. See "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Termination and Termination Fees," beginning at page 40 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of Contents

You should understand that the following important factors, in addition to those discussed elsewhere in this document (including the risks described above) and in the documents which are incorporated by reference, could affect the future results of Zions and Stockmen's, and of the combined company after the merger, and could cause those results or other outcomes to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements:

- changes may occur in interest rates, the quality and composition of the loan or securities portfolios, demand for loan products, deposit flows and competition;

 - there may be demand for financial services in Zions' or Stockmen's market areas;
 - inflation and deflation may occur;
- technological changes may occur and Zions' and Stockmen's implementation of new technologies might not be successful;
- Zions' and Stockmen's may not be able to develop and maintain secure and reliable information technology systems;
- legislation or regulatory changes may occur, which adversely affect the ability of Zions or Stockmen's to conduct the businesses in which they are engaged;
 - Zions' and Stockmen's may not be able to comply with applicable laws and regulations; and
- changes may occur in accounting policies, procedures or guidelines as may be required by the Financial Accounting Standards Board or regulatory agencies.

Zions disclaims any obligation to update any of these factors or to publicly announce the result of any revisions to any of the forward-looking statements included in this document to reflect future events or developments, except as required by the federal securities laws. Zions' actual results could differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements because of many reasons, including the factors listed in this section of this document. THE SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

The Stockmen's Special Meeting

When and Where the Stockmen's Special Meeting Will Be Held

We will hold a special meeting of our shareholders at the Main Office of The Stockmen's Bank, 3825 Stockton Hill Road, Kingman, Arizona on January 12, 2007 at 10:00 a.m.. local time.

What Will Be Voted on at the Stockmen's Special Meeting

Our shareholders will consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the agreement and plan of reorganization, dated as of September 8, 2006, as amended as of September 25, 2006, among Zions, NBA, Stockmen's and Stockmen's Bank, under which, among other things:

- Stockmen's will merge with Zions, with Zions being the surviving corporation;
- Zions will issue approximately 2,600,237 shares of its common stock to the former Stockmen's shareholders upon completion of the merger in exchange for all of their shares of Stockmen's common stock, or approximately 7.46 shares for each share of Stockmen's common stock; and
- Stockmen's Bank, our wholly-owned subsidiary, will merge with and into NBA, Zions' wholly-owned subsidiary, with NBA being the surviving bank.

In addition, you are being asked to vote to approve a proposal to adjourn our special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of our special meeting to approve the merger agreement.

We may take action on the above matters at our special meeting, or on any later date to which our special meeting is postponed or adjourned.

We are unaware of other matters to be voted on at our special meeting. If other matters do properly come before our special meeting, we intend that the persons named in the proxies will vote, or not vote, in their discretion the shares represented by proxies in the accompanying proxy card.

Shareholders Entitled to Vote

We have set the close of business on November 27, 2006 as the record date to determine which Stockmen's shareholders will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at our special meeting. Only those of our shareholders who held their shares of record as of the close of business on the record date will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at our special meeting. As of the record date, there were 348,713 outstanding shares of our common stock. Each Stockmen's shareholder on the record date is entitled to one vote per share. You may cast your vote either in person or by properly executed proxy. As of the same date, various of our directors, executive officers and their affiliates owned a total of 162,919 shares of our common stock, representing approximately 46.72% of the shares of our common stock then issued and outstanding. Each of those directors, executive officers and affiliated persons has agreed to vote his, her or its shares in favor of the merger agreement.

Vote Required to Approve the Merger Agreement and to Approve the Adjournment Proposal

The affirmative vote, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at our special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement.

The affirmative vote, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock entitled to vote on the adjournment proposal and represented at our special meeting, either in person or by proxy, is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

Stock exchange rules prohibit brokers who hold shares of Stockmen's common stock in nominee or "street name" from giving a proxy without specific instructions from the beneficial owners of the shares. We will count these so-called "broker non-votes," which we receive, for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists; we will not vote these shares in connection with the merger or any adjournment proposal.

Abstentions and broker non-votes on the proposal to approve the merger agreement will effectively count as votes against that proposal. Abstentions will effectively count as votes against, and broker non-votes will not count with respect to, the adjournment proposal.

Voting Your Shares

Our board is soliciting proxies from our shareholders. This will give you an opportunity to vote at our special meeting. Our board urges you to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When you deliver a valid proxy, the shares represented by that proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions by a named agent. If you do not either vote by proxy or attend the special meeting and vote in person, your vote will be counted as not present for quorum purposes and will effectively count as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement, but will be neutral regarding the adjournment proposal. If you vote by proxy, but make no specification on your proxy that you have otherwise properly executed, the named agent will vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement and approval of the adjournment proposal.

You may grant a proxy by dating, signing and mailing your proxy card. You may also attend the special meeting and cast your vote in person at the meeting.

Mail. To grant your proxy by mail, please complete your proxy card and sign, date and return it in the enclosed envelope. To be valid, a returned proxy card must be signed and dated.

In person. If you attend our special meeting in person, you may vote your shares by completing a ballot at the meeting. Attendance at our special meeting will not by itself be sufficient to vote your shares; you still must complete and submit a ballot at our special meeting to vote your shares.

DO NOT SEND IN YOUR STOCKMEN'S STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY CARD. After our special meeting, you will receive from Zions a transmittal form and other materials relating to the exchange of your Stockmen's shares for Zions shares, and you will be requested at that time to send in your Stockmen's stock certificates (or follow the procedures for guaranteed delivery) together with the properly completed transmittal form.

Establishing a Quorum of Shareholders

If a majority of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of Stockmen's common stock entitled to vote at our special meeting are present at the meeting, either in person or by proxy, our special meeting will have the quorum of shareholders required for us to transact business. Abstentions and broker non-votes (which are executed proxies returned by a broker that indicate that the broker has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and does not have discretionary authority to vote the shares) will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

Changing Your Vote

Any of our shareholders giving a proxy may revoke the proxy at any time before the vote at our special meeting in one or more of the following ways:

- delivering a written notice to our president, Farrel Holyoak, bearing a later date than the proxy previously submitted;
- giving a later-dated proxy by mail; or
- appearing in person and voting at our special meeting. Attendance at our special meeting will not by itself constitute a revocation of a proxy; to revoke your proxy, you must complete and submit a ballot at our special meeting.

You should send any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy to Farrel Holyoak, President, The Stockmen's Bancorp, Inc., 3825 Stockton Hill Road, Kingman, Arizona 86402-3879, Attention: President, or hand deliver the notice of revocation or subsequent proxy to the president at or before the taking of the vote at our special meeting.

Solicitation of Proxies and Costs

We will bear our own costs of solicitation of proxies. We will reimburse brokerage houses, fiduciaries, nominees and others for their out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding proxy materials to owners of shares of our common stock held in their names. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by use of the mails, our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies from our shareholders. We will not pay any additional compensation, except for reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, to our directors, officers and employees in connection with the solicitation. You may direct any questions or requests for assistance regarding this document and related proxy materials to Farrel Holyoak, President, by telephone at (928) 757-7171.

Regardless of the number of shares you own, your vote is important to us. Please complete, sign, date and promptly return the accompanying proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

Recommendation of the Stockmen's Board

Our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the merger and the related matters. Our board considered the fairness opinion of Hovde Financial, Inc., our financial advisor, when our board unanimously approved the merger agreement. We believe that the merger agreement, the merger and the related matters are in the best interests of Stockmen's and our shareholders, and we recommend that our shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement and "FOR" the approval of the adjournment proposal. See "Proposal 1 - Approval of the Merger Agreement - Recommendation of the Stockmen's Board and Stockmen's Reasons for the Merger."

Adjournment and Postponement

Any adjournment or postponement may be made from time to time by approval of the holders of common stock representing a majority of the votes present in person or represented by proxy at our special meeting, whether or not a quorum exists, without further notice other than by an announcement made at our special meeting. If a quorum is not present at our special meeting, our shareholders may be asked to vote on a proposal to adjourn or postpone our special meeting to solicit additional proxies. If a quorum is present at our special meeting, but there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement, our shareholders may also be asked to vote on a proposal to approve the adjournment or postponement of our special meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies.

PROPOSAL 1

APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary describes the material terms and provisions of the merger agreement and the merger. We have attached a copy of the merger agreement to this document as Appendix A and we have incorporated it into this document by reference. We urge all shareholders to read the merger agreement carefully in its entirety.

Vote Required to Approve the Merger Agreement

The affirmative vote, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Stockmen's common stock entitled to vote at our special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement.

General

Under the merger agreement,

- Stockmen's will merge with and into Zions, with Zions being the surviving corporation, and the separate corporate existence of Stockmen's will cease.
- Zions will survive and will continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Utah under its existing charter and bylaws. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of conditions set forth in the merger agreement and described in "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Conditions to Complete the Merger," the merger of Stockmen's with and into Zions will become effective on the date and at the time specified in the certificate of merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Utah and the Secretary of State of the State of Arizona.
- Immediately following the completion of the Zions and Stockmen's merger,
- Stockmen's Bank will merge with and into NBA;

- the separate corporate existence of Stockmen's Bank will cease; and
- NBA will be the surviving bank in the bank merger and will continue its existence as a national bank under the laws of the United States under its current name, charter and bylaws.
- Each share of Stockmen's common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive a pro rata portion of the merger consideration, consisting of approximately 7.46 shares of Zions common stock.
- Zions will issue an aggregate of approximately 2,600,237 shares of its common stock to the former Stockmen's shareholders at the effective time of the merger.
- We expect to complete the merger in the first quarter of 2007.

Table of Contents

The Merger Consideration

Upon completion of the merger, each former Stockmen's shareholder will receive approximately 7.46 shares of Zions common stock in exchange for each of your shares of Stockmen's common stock.

Zions will not issue fractional shares of its common stock in the merger. Rather, each of our shareholders who would be entitled to a fractional share of Zions common stock will receive an amount of cash equal to the product of the fraction times the average of the last sales price of Zions common stock as reported in the Wall Street Journal during the twenty consecutive trading days ending on and including the trading day that is the eighth business day preceding the effective time of the merger.

Zions may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances if the average closing price of Zions stock during the pricing period, as defined in the merger agreement, is more than $93.24, unless Stockmen's agrees to accept fewer shares in the merger; and Stockmen's may terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of Zions stock during the pricing period, as defined in the merger agreement, is less than $68.92, unless Zions agrees to issue additional shares of its common stock to the Stockmen's shareholders in the merger. See "Termination and Termination Fee" below.

Background of the Merger

During the normal course of its business, the management and board of directors of Stockmen's periodically reviewed and assessed the strategic options of the Company. Consistent with its fiduciary obligations to its shareholders, the board of directors of Stockmen's periodically considered strategic options including strategies to grow and enhance Stockmen's business through internal and external means. Those discussions included analyses of the financial institution merger market on a national and regional basis, the liquidity needs of Stockmen's shareholders, the potential value of the Stockmen's franchise based on current merger market fundamentals, and the potential market value of the Stockmen's stock assuming the execution of its current business plan under various scenarios. The board of directors and management of Stockmen's also routinely discussed the increasing level of competition, continuing consolidation, regulatory burden and related costs and other developments in the financial services industry.

In February 2005, Farrel Holyoak, President of Stockmen's Bank, met twice with John Gisi, Chairman of the Board of NBA, to informally discuss the prospect of a merger between the two banks. After those discussions and later in the spring of 2005, Harris Simmons, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of Zions, met with Mr. Holyoak to further express Zions' interest in acquiring Stockmen's and submit a verbal offer. Mr. Holyoak then informed the Stockmen's board of directors of the occurrence and the specifics of the offer. After considering terms of the proposed transaction and the level of consideration offered (which was substantially less than the amount ultimately agreed upon in the merger agreement), the Stockmen's board of directors determined that it was in the best interests of Stockmen's and its shareholders to remain independent at that time. Although Stockmen's board of directors then elected not pursue a partnership, Mr. Holyoak informally maintained his existing relationships with executives from NBA and continued to be familiar with the bank's operating style, culture, and reputation in the Arizona marketplace.

In light of the growing liquidity needs of Stockmen's shareholders, on April 20, 2006 Stockmen's board of directors met to discuss the increasingly attractive pricing multiples characterizing bank mergers and acquisitions and the projected growth in the Bank's operating markets. After discussion, the board of directors determined that it was in the best interests of Stockmen's and its shareholders to explore the prospect of a combination with a partner. The board of directors concluded that a partnership could provide increased liquidity to Stockmen's shareholders and provide the Bank with access to additional capital to promote future expansion efforts.

In considering a possible business combination, Stockmen's board of directors decided to retain the investment banking firm Hovde Financial to assist and advise it in exploring such a transaction and if Stockmen's located a suitable acquirer to issue a fairness opinion with respect to such a transaction. Stockmen's entered into an engagement agreement with Hovde Financial on May 23, 2006.

Hovde Financial evaluated the merger market available to Stockmen's and identified other institutions besides Zions that might be interested in pursuing a business combination with Stockmen's. Hovde Financial informed the Board of their views of the different levels of pricing that could be offered for Stockmen's by potential interested parties. After considering all the information presented, it was determined by the Board that it was in the best interest of Stockmen's and its shareholders to authorize Hovde Financial to approach various potential acquirers to determine the level of interest there may be in acquiring Stockmen's.

During June 2006, representatives from Hovde Financial worked with Stockmen's management to prepare marketing materials to provide to parties interested in evaluating the benefits of a partnership with Stockmen's. The marketing presentations, along with select Stockmen's public and private financial information, were sent out to thirteen interested parties who had previously signed Confidentiality Agreements. Hovde Financial had extensive conversations with the potential acquirers over the next several weeks and advised all potential acquirers to submit non-binding expressions of interest. Three companies, not including Zions, submitted written non-binding expressions of interest conditioned on a number of factors, including the ability to conduct due diligence. An additional company submitted a verbal indication of interest with similar conditions.

Concurrent to the process mentioned above during June 2006, Zions, which had not signed a Confidentiality Agreement, continuously reviewed the Stockmen's acquisition opportunity predominantly based on public information. On June 5, 2006, Mr. Simmons of Zions once again met with Mr. Holyoak in Kingman, Arizona to readdress the prospect of a partnership between the two organizations. During the meeting, the two parties discussed integration issues and Mr. Simmons extended a verbal offer in the amount of $205.0 million.

Hovde Financial held extensive conversations with representatives from Zions during this period of time and requested that Zions submit a written non-binding indication of interest in order to pursue the acquisition. Zions then submitted a non-binding indication of interest on June 29, 2006, executed by Mr. Simmons with an aggregate purchase price of $210.0 million in the form of Zions shares (subject to certain adjustments), conditioned upon approval by Zions' board of directors, regulatory approval, the negotiation of a binding definitive agreement, employment agreements for key personnel, and the completion of due diligence.

At a meeting held on July 7, 2006, Hovde Financial presented to Mr. Holyoak the five offers (four written and one verbal) submitted by the interested parties to Stockmen's. Keeping in mind the viable option of remaining independent, the presentation included an analysis of the amount and form of consideration offered, integration plans for the acquisition, price protection instruments proposed, board of directors representation, and an evaluation of the reinvestment opportunity for Stockmen's shareholders related to each of the proposals. The analysis also compared the offers to multiples received on comparable bank transactions. Furthermore, Hovde Financial provided additional feedback received from parties that reviewed the acquisition opportunity on topics including Stockmen's strategic value to a partner and issues limiting franchise value in a strategic partnership. On July 10, 2006, Mr. Holyoak met with Stockmen's board of directors to discuss the offers and Hovde's presentation, and after considering the information provided in the presentation, the board of directors decided to begin the due diligence process and the negotiation of an agreement exclusively with Zions.

Zions executed a Confidentiality Agreement on the afternoon of July 10, 2006 and was provided marketing material prepared by Hovde Financial which contained certain non-public information. Over the following weeks, Zions reviewed public and private information on Stockmen's, including an onsite review of the Bank's loan portfolio while Stockmen's reviewed public information available on Zions to gain comfort on the reinvestment opportunity in Zions common stock. During this period, Zions expressed a desire to retain Mr. Holyoak as a Regional President of NBA after the merger.

Stockmen's retained the law firm of Stinson Morrison Hecker LLP as legal counsel in connection with the negotiations with Zions. On August 10, 2006, Duane Morris LLP, special counsel to Zions, provided to Stockmen's and its representatives an initial draft of the merger agreement. During the following weeks, the parties and their representatives continued due diligence and negotiated the terms of the merger agreement and ancillary agreements. The terms of Mr. Holyoak's employment agreement and non-competition agreement were negotiated; additionally, the parties agreed upon the terms of the change of control agreements and structured a general framework for non-competition agreements with other officers of Stockmen's and Stockmen's Bank during this period.

On September 7, 2006, the board of directors of Stockmen's met to consider the proposed merger with Zions. Representatives of Stinson Morrison Hecker LLP and Hovde Financial participated in the meeting by telephone. Stinson Morrison Hecker LLP provided a review of its memorandum previously distributed to the directors regarding the directors' fiduciary duties in connection with a possible transaction with Zions. Stinson Morrison Hecker LLP also reviewed the proposed merger agreement and ancillary agreements with the directors, which included review of a written summary of the merger agreement previously provided to the directors. Hovde Financial presented a summary of its financial analyses relating to the proposed merger and responded to questions posed by the board of directors. Hovde Financial provided its written opinion that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the considerations described in the opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of common stock in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The board meeting included, among other things, discussions of the form of consideration to be received by the shareholders of Stockmen's, the termination fee, potential price adjustments, caps and collars, the current stock price of Zions and its dividend history, and the implications to Stockmen's shareholders, employees and customers. Stockmen's evaluated the information provided in the presentation made by Hovde Financial and its fairness opinion that was presented and approved by the board of directors as written. After due deliberations, the board of directors unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, were advisable to, fair to and in the best interests of Stockmen's and its shareholders and voted unanimously to approve the terms of the merger agreement and the merger.

The proposed merger was approved by the board of directors of Zions on July 22, 2006.

The parties entered into the agreement and plan of reorganization on September 8, 2006.

On September 11, 2006, a joint press release was issued before the open of trading of Zions' stock announcing the transaction.

On September 25, 2006, the parties entered into an amendment to the agreement and plan of reorganization to address the sale by Stockmen's Bank of much of its securities portfolio and to clarify certain matters in the agreement.

Recommendation of the Stockmen's Board and Stockmen's Reasons for the Merger

Our board believes that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Stockmen's and our shareholders. Accordingly, our board has unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends that Stockmen's shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

At a special meeting held on September 7, 2006, our board of directors determined that the terms of the merger agreement were in the best interests of Stockmen's and its shareholders and that ample consideration was to be received such that the merger was fair to Stockmen's shareholders. In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, our board of directors consulted with Hovde Financial, our financial advisor, and Stinson Morrison Hecker LLP, our legal counsel. In reaching our determination, our board of directors considered a number of factors, including, without limitation, the following:

- the total dollar amount of the consideration being paid and the terms of the consideration, including the form of the consideration and the ability of our shareholders to reinvest in Zions common stock;
- the potential adjustments to the aggregate purchase price in connection with changes in Stockmen's investment portfolio and capital levels as well as positive or negative changes in Zions' stock price;
- the likelihood of the merger being approved by applicable regulatory authorities without undue conditions or delay;
- the opinion of Hovde Financial, Inc. that the consideration to be received by Stockmen's shareholders in the merger is fair from a financial point of view;

- the financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed acquisition by Zions;
- the consideration offered by Zions compared to the standalone present value of Stockmen's using forecasted earnings growth and other market assumptions;
- the alternatives of Stockmen's continuing as an independent community bank or combining with other potential merger partners versus the determination that the merger with Zions presented the best opportunity for maximizing shareholder value;
- information concerning Zions' financial condition, results of operations and business prospects as well as Zions' demonstrated ability of completing bank acquisitions on the terms and within the timeframes initially agreed upon by the parties;
- the expectation that Stockmen's shareholders would have the opportunity to continue to participate in the growth of the combined company and would also greatly benefit from the significantly greater liquidity of the trading market for Zions' common stock;
- that Zions has historically paid cash dividends on its common stock;

Table of Contents

- Zions' operating philosophy as a community-oriented bank holding company operating in similar and nearby geographic markets, with a customer service focus that is consistent with Stockmen's philosophy;
- the potential balance sheet and earnings growth of the combined company due to Zions' successful history as a growth oriented organization with a focused presence in markets with favorable demographics;
- the opportunity to realize savings in expenses through the combination of overlapping and redundant processes through the combination of the two entities and the benefits of economies of scale realized with regard to regulatory and market pressures;
- the determination that a business combination with Zions would extend Stockmen's lending capabilities and increase the range of financial products and services available to Stockmen's customers;
- the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, the conditions to their respective obligations and the limited ability of the parties to terminate the merger agreement;
- the work that Hovde Financial had done to entertain offers from potential acquirers;
- provisions in the merger agreement permitting Stockmen's board of directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties to Stockmen's and its shareholders under applicable Arizona law, to furnish information, and enter into discussions, in connection with an alternative proposal that constitutes a superior proposal, subject to conditions specified in the merger agreement;
- provisions in the merger agreement permitting Stockmen's board of directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties to Stockmen's and its shareholders under applicable Arizona law, to terminate the merger agreement in favor of an alternative proposal, taking into account that Stockmen's would be required to pay Zions liquidated damages as a termination fee;
- the fact that the merger agreement would be subject to approval by the holders of a majority of Stockmen's issued and outstanding common stock; and
- the ability of shareholders who may not support the merger to obtain "fair value" for their shares if they properly perfect and exercise their dissenters' rights under Chapter 13 of the Arizona Business Corporation Act.

In the course of its deliberations, our board of directors also considered a variety of potentially countervailing factors in its deliberations concerning the merger, including the following:

- the fact that Stockmen's will no longer continue as an independent company owned by the shareholders;
- the risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the merger, including the impact of the merger on Stockmen's employees, customers and relationships with third parties;
- the conditions to Zions' obligation to complete the merger and the right of Zions to terminate the merger agreement in certain circumstances;
- the risk that the merger might not receive all necessary regulatory approvals and clearances to complete the merger;
- that the termination fee provisions in the merger agreement could have the effect of discouraging superior proposals for a business combination between Stockmen's and third parties; and
- the fact that, pursuant to the merger agreement, Stockmen's is subject to a number of restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to consummation of the merger.

The foregoing discussion in this section of the information and factors considered by our board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive but is believed to include all material factors that our board considered. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the transaction, our board based its recommendation on the totality of the information presented to it, and did not assign any relative or specific weights to the factors considered. In reaching that determination, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. After deliberating with respect to the merger transaction with Zions, considering, among other things, the matters discussed above and the opinion of Hovde Financial referred to above, our board of directors unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and the merger with Zions as being in the best interests of Stockmen's and its shareholders.

For the reasons cited above, our board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and believes the merger is fair to, and is in the best interests of, our shareholders. Accordingly, our board unanimously recommends that our shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement.

Zions' Reasons for the Merger

Zions considers the merger with Stockmen's to be advantageous to it for a number of reasons. The merger with Stockmen's allows Zions and NBA to expand their operations into new and developing community markets within Arizona and California. Also, the composition of Stockmen's statement of condition blends well with that of NBA because Stockmen's has more deposits than loans and NBA has more loans than deposits. Combining these balance sheets permits the surplus deposits at Stockmen's to be deployed to fund higher-earning assets, and allows NBA access to additional lower-cost deposits to fund its loan pipeline. Additionally, with the enhanced technologies and services offered through Zions and its affiliates, customers of Stockmen's will be afforded a wider variety of products and services, which Zions expects to lead to profitable opportunities for NBA. Stockmen's was built on a platform of long-term customer relationships, and the introduction of Zions' products and services is expected to help to reinforce these relationships.

Opinion of Stockmen's Financial Advisor

Hovde Financial has delivered to the Board of Directors of Stockmen's its opinion that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion dated September 7, 2006, the total transaction consideration to be paid to the shareholders of Stockmen's is fair from a financial point of view as of that date. In requesting Hovde's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by Stockmen's upon Hovde with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of Hovde's opinion, dated September 7, 2006, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached to this document as Appendix B. Stockmen's shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

Hovde Financial is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, Hovde has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. Stockmen's board of directors selected Hovde Financial to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the merger.

Hovde will receive a fee from Stockmen's for performing a financial analysis of the merger and rendering a written opinion to the Board of Directors of Stockmen's as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger to Stockmen's shareholders.

Hovde Financial's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the total transaction consideration, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any Stockmen's shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the Stockmen's shareholder meeting. The summary of the opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by Hovde in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain of these analyses were confirmed in a presentation to the Stockmen's board by Hovde Financial. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by Hovde in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by Hovde to the Stockmen's board, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by Hovde.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde Financial did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis and factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Hovde Financial may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses. Accordingly, Hovde Financial believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the Stockmen's board and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, Hovde Financial made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Stockmen's and Zions. The analyses performed by Hovde Financial are not necessarily indicative of actual value or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of Hovde Financial's analysis of the fairness of the transaction consideration, from a financial point of view, to Stockmen's shareholders. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. Hovde Financial's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which Stockmen's might engage. In addition, as described above, Hovde Financial's opinion to the Stockmen's board was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Stockmen's board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde Financial reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of Stockmen's and Zions and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

- the merger agreement;
- certain historical publicly available information concerning Stockmen's and Zions;
- the nature and terms of recent merger transactions; and
- financial and other information provided to Hovde Financial by the management of Stockmen's

Hovde Financial conducted meetings and had discussions with members of senior management of Stockmen's for purposes of reviewing the future prospects of Stockmen's. Hovde Financial also took into account its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering its opinion, Hovde Financial assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and relied upon the accuracy of the representations of the parties contained in the merger agreement. Hovde Financial also assumed that the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with Hovde Financial by Stockmen's were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of Stockmen's as to the future financial performance of Stockmen's. Hovde Financial has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of Stockmen's. Hovde Financial assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the public and non-public financial information provided to it by Stockmen's and Zions, relied upon the representations and warranties of Stockmen's and Zions made pursuant to the merger agreement, and did not independently attempt to verify any of such information.

Analysis of Selected Mergers. As part of its analysis, Hovde reviewed three groups of comparable merger transactions. The first peer group included transactions, which have occurred since January 1, 2000, that involved banks in the United States that had total assets between $700.0 million and $2.5 billion where the consideration was in the form of stock (the "United States Merger Group"). Hovde Financial calculated the medians and averages of the following relevant transaction ratios in the United States Merger Group, the Western U.S. Merger Group and the Arizona Merger Group: the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's earnings for the twelve months preceding the announcement date of the transaction; the tangible book value premium to core deposits; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's tangible book value; and the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's book value. Hovde Financial compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the merger, valuing the total consideration that would be received pursuant to the merger agreement at approximately $208.5 million, or $598.62 per Stockmen's fully diluted common share, based on Zions' trading price of $81.08, the twenty day average price per share as of August 30, 2006. In calculating the multiples for the merger, Hovde used Stockmen's earnings for the twelve months ended June 30, 2006, and Stockmen's balance sheet information as of June 30, 2006. The results of this analysis are as follows:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Hovde Financial estimated the present value of all shares of Stockmen's common stock by estimating the value of Stockmen's estimated future earnings stream beginning in 2006. Reflecting Stockmen's internal projections and Hovde Financial estimates, Hovde Financial assumed net income in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010 of $13.5 million, $16.0 million, $17.6 million, $19.3 million, and $21.3 million, respectively. The present value of these earnings was calculated based on a range of discount rates between 13.0% and 16.0%. In order to derive the terminal value of Stockmen's earnings stream beyond 2010, Hovde assumed a terminal value based on a multiple of between 13.5x and 17.5x applied to free cash flows in 2010. The present value of this terminal amount was then calculated based on the range of discount rates mentioned above. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Stockmen's common stock. This analysis and its underlying assumptions yielded a range of value for all the shares of Stockmen's stock of approximately $147.0 million (at a 16.0% discount rate and a 13.5x terminal multiple) to $213.9 million (at a 13.0% discount rate and a 17.5x terminal multiple) with a midpoint of $178.6 million (using a 14.5% discount rate and a 15.5x terminal multiple), compared to total merger consideration of approximately $208.5 million.

Contribution Analysis. Hovde Financial prepared a contribution analysis showing percentages of total assets, total net loans, total deposits, total common equity, and total tangible equity at June 30, 2006 for Stockmen's and for Zions, and actual twelve months preceding earnings that would be contributed to the combined company on a pro-forma basis by Stockmen's and Zions. The offer analysis indicated that holders of Stockmen's common stock would own approximately 2.40% of the pro forma common shares outstanding of Zions, while contributing a median of 2.32% of the financial components listed above.

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Hovde determined that the transaction consideration was fair from a financial point of view to Stockmen's shareholders.

Stockmen's and Hovde Financial have entered into an agreement relating to the services to be provided by Hovde Financial in connection with the merger. Stockmen's agreed to pay Hovde Financial fees as follows: a cash fee of $200,000 for evaluating the transaction and performing a financial analysis of the merger and rendering a written opinion to the board of directors of Stockmen's as to the fairness of the consideration to be paid in the merger to Stockmen's shareholders, from a financial point of view, and, at the time of closing, a cash fee of approximately $2.4 million. Pursuant to the Hovde Financial engagement agreement, Stockmen's has also agreed to reimburse Hovde Financial for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify it against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Interests of Officers and Directors in the Merger That Are Different from Your Interests

In considering the recommendations of our board with respect to the merger, our shareholders should be aware that our officers and directors have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of our shareholders generally. As described below, Mr. Farrel Holyoak, our President, will enter into an agreement relating to his employment with NBA that will provide employment for him following the merger. Our board was aware of these interests and considered them, among many other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the matters contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

As of the record date, various of our directors, executive officers and their affiliates owned an aggregate of approximately 162,919 shares or approximately 46.72% of our outstanding common stock. Under the terms of the merger agreement, our directors, executive officers and their affiliates will receive the same consideration for their shares of our common stock as our other shareholders will receive in the merger for their shares of common stock.

Stockmen's Shareholder Voting Agreements. When the parties signed the merger agreement, eleven shareholders of Stockmen's who hold in the aggregate approximately 46.72% of our issued and outstanding common stock entered into voting agreements with Zions. Of these eleven shareholders of Stockmen's, four are members of or associated with the Becker family, four are associated with the Lingenfelter family, and two are a member of or associated with the Holyoak family. Under the voting agreements, these shareholders agreed:

- to vote all of the shares of Stockmen's common stock they own beneficially, and over which they control the voting power, in favor of the merger agreement and the merger at any meeting of our shareholders called to consider and vote on the merger;
- not to vote in favor of any transaction or agreement that would assist or facilitate the acquisition of control of Stockmen's or its subsidiaries or any substantial portion of its or its subsidiaries' assets by any person other than Zions;
- not to sell or otherwise transfer any of their shares of our common stock to any person seeking to obtain control of Stockmen's other than to Zions or to any other transferee unless the transferee agrees to be bound by the voting agreement; and
- to refrain from soliciting or, subject to any fiduciary duty owed by these shareholders to Stockmen's shareholders, negotiating or accepting any offer of merger, consolidation or acquisition of any of the shares or all or substantially all of the assets of Stockmen's or Stockmen's Bank.

The voting agreements, however, will not prohibit or otherwise interfere with the actions of any of the signing shareholders in their capacity as directors of Stockmen's or Stockmen's Bank.

Farrel Holyoak Employment Agreement. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Farrel Holyoak, our president and chief operating officer and the president and CEO of Stockmen's Bank, will enter into an employment agreement with NBA effective at the effective time of the merger. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Holyoak will serve as a Regional President of NBA for a term ending on the first anniversary of the effective time of the merger, unless extended for an additional year by written agreement of Mr. Holyoak and NBA. Mr. Holyoak will receive a salary at an annualized rate of $250,000 and will also receive other benefits including reimbursement for travel and other expenses, and will participate in NBA's various employee benefits plans such as medical insurance plans, disability insurance plans, accidental death or dismemberment insurance plans, life insurance plans and retirement plans.

After the first anniversary of his commencing employment with NBA, if Mr. Holyoak continues in NBA's employ through that date, he shall be entitled to a one-time bonus of $50,000, which will be payable on or before the first March 15 following the first anniversary of his employment with NBA.

If Mr. Holyoak's employment is terminated by NBA without cause, as that term is defined in the employment agreement, Mr. Holyoak would be entitled to continue to receive his salary at an annualized rate of $250,000 until the first anniversary of the commencement of his employment with NBA.

Non-Competition Agreements. Mr. Holyoak, our President, will enter into a non-competition agreement with NBA at the effective time of the merger. The terms and conditions of the non-competition agreement with Mr. Holyoak have not yet been finalized, and therefore remain subject to change. However, the compensation payable to Mr. Holyoak under his non-competition agreement will not be greater than the amount disclosed below. In connection with his agreement, Mr. Holyoak will agree, for a period beginning with the termination of his employment with NBA and ending on the third anniversary following the date when Mr. Holyoak ceases to be employed by NBA for any reason, that he will be subject to a non-competition covenant:

- not to engage in the banking business within the market area, as defined in these agreements, other than for Zions, NBA or their affiliates;

Table of Contents

- not to directly or indirectly own, manage, operate, control, be employed by, or provide management or consulting services in any capacity to any entity engaged in the banking, lending or financing business within the market area other than Zions, NBA or their affiliates; and
- not to directly or indirectly solicit or hire or intentionally cause any employee, officer or director of NBA or its affiliates to engage in any of the above actions that these officers are prohibited from doing.

The non-competition agreement defines "market area" as anywhere within ten miles of any existing office or branch of Stockmen's Bank or NBA in Arizona.

The proposed non-competition agreement with Mr. Holyoak provides that if Mr. Holyoak performs his duties in conformance with the non-competition agreement, including the confidentiality provisions, then within 20 business days following each anniversary of the termination of his employment with NBA, NBA will pay Mr. Holyoak additional compensation, as established in his non-competition agreement. Under his proposed non-competition agreement, Mr. Holyoak would receive, assuming his compliance with the agreement, $622,437.

NBA is also in discussions with five other officers of Stockmen's Bank regarding non-competition agreements. Involved in the discussions are James Walker, Senior Credit Officer of Stockmen's Bank, Jeff Duncan, Chief Financial Officer of Stockmen's, William Kitchen, a regional manager of Stockmen's Bank, Vance Miller, a regional manager of Stockmen's Bank and Gary Jay, a regional manager of Stockmen's Bank. The terms and conditions of these non-competition agreements have not yet been finalized; however, the compensation which may be payable to each of these Stockmen's officers following termination of their respective employment, and assuming full compliance with the requirements of the agreements, will not be greater, and may be less, than the respective amounts presented below. As the discussions currently stand, the non-competition agreements provide that if they perform their respective duties under their respective agreements, Mr. Walker will be entitled to receive $159,740 following the termination of his employment; Mr. Duncan will be entitled to receive $198,633 following the termination of his employment; Mr. Kitchen will be entitled to receive $154,997 following the termination of his employment; Mr. Miller will be entitled to receive $164,636 following the termination of his employment; and Mr. Jay will be entitled to receive $42,000 following the termination of his employment.

Change in Control Agreements. Stockmen's is expected to enter into Change in Control Agreements with Farrel Holyoak, Director and President and Chief Operating Officer of Stockmen's, James Walker, Senior Credit Officer of Stockmen's Bank, Jeff Duncan, Chief Financial Officer of Stockmen's, William Kitchen, regional manager of Stockmen's Bank, and Gary Jay, a regional manager of Stockmen's Bank, under which those executives will receive payments in the event of a change of control of Stockmen's or Stockmen's Bank. Upon completion of the merger, it is expected that Stockmen's will be required to make change in control payments to those five executive officers of Stockmen's Bank in the aggregate amount of $1,407,192. It is expected that Mr. Holyoak will receive a payment under his Change in Control Agreement of $829,563; Mr. Walker will receive a payment of $197,260; Mr. Duncan will receive a payment of $105,367; Mr. Kitchen will receive a payment of $200,003; and Mr. Jay will receive a payment of $75,000.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. Completion of the merger, which will constitute a change in control of Stockmen's under The Stockmen's Bank Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, will trigger an acceleration and enhancement of benefits and vesting schedules for ten officers and directors of Stockmen's under the SERP. These officers and directors, Farrel Holyoak, Tod Becker, William Becker, Jeff Duncan, Tom Dobbins, Gary Jay, Colleen Kirby, William Kitchen, Vance Miller and James Walker, will receive payments under the SERP upon a change of control. Following completion of the merger, these officers of Stockmen's will receive a total of $2,303,519 in additional payments under the SERP. All ten officers and directors will receive following completion of the merger SERP benefits totaling $3,412,373 (including the $2,303,519 referenced in the previous sentence), which reflect enhanced benefits because of the change in control and amounts they would otherwise be entitled to under the SERP without a change of control. The ten individuals receiving these payments under the SERP following completion of the merger are as follows:

Individual and Title	SERP Benefit Prior to Change in Control	Additional Payment under SERP After Change in Control	Total SERP Payment

1997 Stock Option Plan. The merger agreement provides that within 60 days after the date of the merger agreement the Compensation Committee of our board of directors shall cancel, as of the day before the effective time of the merger, all of the stock options that are then outstanding under the 1997 Plan and permit each holder of stock options granted under the 1997 Plan to exercise the stock options that he or she holds for a reasonable period prior to the effective date of the cancellation. Stock options not exercised prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled. Because all stock options under the 1997 Plan have been exercised, there are no stock options outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Indemnification of Our Officers and Directors. The merger agreement provides that, after the effective time of the merger, Zions will defend and hold harmless the present and former directors and officers of Stockmen's and Stockmen's Bank against all costs or expenses, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities as incurred, in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of actions or omissions by the director or officer that occurred prior to the merger, to the same extent that these persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses under the organizational documents and indemnification agreements with Stockmen's and Stockmen's Bank that are in effect on the date of the merger agreement.

Management of NBA Following the Merger

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Mr. Holyoak, our president and chief operating officer and president and CEO of Stockmen's Bank, will enter into an employment agreement with NBA Bank. See "Interests of Officers and Directors in the Merger That Are Different from Your Interests," above. Following the merger, Mr. Holyoak will serve as a Regional President of NBA.

Accounting Treatment

Zions will account for the merger as a purchase. Zions will make a determination of the fair value of Stockmen's assets and assumed liabilities in order to allocate the purchase price of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed. To the extent that the total purchase price exceeds the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, Zions may record goodwill. After the merger, Zions will include the results of Stockmen's operations in its consolidated results of operations.

Dissenters' Rights

Under Arizona law, our shareholders are entitled to assert their dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. The Arizona Business Corporation Act permits a shareholder to dissent to a merger and to receive cash equal to the fair value for that shareholder's shares in accordance with the procedures established by Arizona law. Our shareholders will be entitled under Arizona law to exercise their dissenters' rights with respect to the merger agreement. Because exercise and preservation of dissenters' rights are conditioned on strict observance of the applicable section of the Arizona Business Corporation Act, each of our shareholders who might wish to exercise his or her dissenters' rights should consult and strictly observe the Arizona statute, a copy of which we attach as Appendix C to this document. Failure by a shareholder to follow the statutory provisions precisely may result in loss of that shareholder's dissenters' rights under Arizona law. See "Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" and Appendix C to this document, where we set forth the statutory provisions.

Inclusion of Zions' Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market

A condition to completing the merger requires that the Nasdaq shall have authorized the shares of Zions common stock to be issued in the merger to the former Stockmen's shareholders for inclusion on the Nasdaq Global Select Market. Zions has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the subject shares to be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market.

Dividends

After the merger, Zions, subject to approval and declaration by the Zions board, plans to continue its current cash dividend policy and declare regularly scheduled quarterly cash dividends on the shares of its common stock consistent with Zions' past practices. The current annualized rate of cash dividends on the shares of Zions common stock is $1.44 per share.

We have agreed not to declare or pay any cash or property dividends except for customary periodic cash dividends in accordance with our past practice and in per share amounts not in excess of the rate paid during the fiscal quarter immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement and at intervals that are not more frequent than past practice. The right of the holders of our common stock to receive dividends from us will end upon the completion of the merger when our separate corporate existence will cease. See "Price Range of Common Stock and Dividends."

The merger agreement provides that, beginning with the first quarter of 2007, Stockmen's will coordinate its dividend payments with those of Zions so that none of our shareholders receives more or less than one dividend payment in any quarter with respect to any shares of our common stock and shares of Zions common stock into which our shares are converted.

Additionally, under the merger agreement, if the effective time of the merger is after March 1, 2007, then Stockmen's may declare a special cash dividend in the aggregate amount of (1) the actual consolidated undistributed after-tax earnings of Stockmen's, determined in accordance with GAAP, for each whole calendar month between March 1, 2007 and the business day before the effective time, using an assumed effective tax rate of 33.23 percent and (2) for the period between the last whole calendar month before the effective time of the merger and the business day before the effective time, the product of such number of days in that period and 1/365th of the consolidated after-tax earnings of Stockmen's in 2006, determined in accordance with GAAP. Payment of this special dividend is not permitted under the merger agreement if the failure of the merger to occur on or before March 1, 2007 is due to delay by Stockmen's or any subsidiary of Stockmen's.

Exchange of Stockmen's Certificates; Payment of Cash for Fractional Shares

As of the effective time, Zions will deliver to the exchange agent, Zions First National Bank, certificates representing the shares of Zions common stock that are issuable in connection with the merger in exchange for shares of Stockmen's common stock. At the closing of the merger, the exchange agent will deliver shares of Zions common stock to those former shareholders of Stockmen's or their agents who duly surrender their shares of Stockmen's common stock and other transmittal materials to the exchange agent pursuant to applicable instructions.

Zions will cause the exchange agent to send transmittal materials to all other former shareholders of Stockmen's. The transmittal materials will inform these former Stockmen's shareholders of the procedures for them to exchange their certificates representing Stockmen's common stock for certificates representing shares of Zions common stock due to them in the merger. The exchange agent will deliver to the holders of Stockmen's common stock who surrender their certificates to the exchange agent, together with properly executed transmittal materials and any other required documentation, certificates representing the number of shares of Zions common stock to which these shareholders are entitled.

Zions will not issue any fractional shares. Instead, Zions will pay each holder of Stockmen's common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Zions common stock an amount in cash, without interest, calculated by multiplying such fraction by the average of the last sales price of Zions common stock as reported in the Wall Street Journal during the twenty consecutive trading days on which shares of Zions are actually traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market ending on and including the trading day that is the eighth business day preceding the effective time of the merger.

Until properly surrendering their certificates, holders of unexchanged shares of our common stock will not be entitled to receive any dividends or distributions with respect to Zions common stock. After surrender of the certificates representing our common stock, the record holder of those shares will be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions, without interest, which had previously become payable with respect to shares of Zions common stock represented by that certificate.

Conduct of Business. We have agreed that we and Stockmen's Bank will carry on our business and manage our assets and properties diligently and substantially in the same manner as prior to entering into the merger agreement and use our respective commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact our respective business organizations, to keep available the services of our respective employees, and to preserve our present relationships with customers and others having business dealings with us.

- pay or obligate ourselves to pay any bonus to any officer, director, consultant, other management official, or employee which, when combined with other bonuses paid or obligated to be paid by us on or after January 1, 2006, would exceed 220 percent of the amount accrued on our books as of June 30, 2006 for the payment of 2006 bonuses; or

We have agreed not to make any material contract or agreement, voluntarily incur or agree to incur any material liability or obligation, or make any material commitment or disbursement, acquire or dispose of any material property or asset, or pay or voluntarily become obligated to pay any material expense or engage in any material transaction, except in the ordinary course of our business or to accomplish the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and except that Stockmen's Bank may sell assets held in its securities portfolio.

Amendment of Charter. We and Stockmen's Bank have agreed not to amend our respective articles of incorporation or bylaws, except as provided in the merger agreement.

Acquisition Proposals. We have agreed not to:

- solicit or encourage any inquiries or proposals to acquire more than one percent of our common stock or any significant portion of our assets;
- afford any third party that may be considering such a transaction access to our properties, books or records;
 - enter into any discussions or negotiations for any such transaction; or
- authorize or permit any of our directors, officers, employees or agents to do or permit any of the foregoing.

However, if we receive an unsolicited bona fide alternative proposal, and our board concludes in good faith that the alternative proposal constitutes a superior proposal to the Zions proposal (that is the subject of our special meeting) we may participate in discussions and negotiations regarding the alternative proposal if our board concludes reasonably and in good faith after having received written advice from our counsel that failure to take such actions would result in a violation of our fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Regulatory Applications and Filings. We and Zions have each agreed to cooperate and use our reasonable best efforts to effect all filings and obtain all necessary government approvals to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Certain Other Covenants. The merger agreement contains other covenants of the parties relating to:

- the preparation and distribution of this document;
- our special shareholders' meeting and our reasonable best efforts to solicit from our shareholders proxies in favor of the merger agreement and to take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the vote of our shareholders to approve the merger;
 - cooperation in issuing public announcements;
 - access to information;
 - confidentiality; and
- inclusion of the Zions common stock issuable to our shareholders upon completion of the merger for trading on the Nasdaq Global Select Market.

Conditions to Complete the Merger

The obligations of Zions or Stockmen's to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver, subject to compliance with applicable law, of conditions, including:

- obtaining the vote of approval from our shareholders at our special shareholders' meeting;
- obtaining all governmental approvals required to complete the merger;

· on the effective date of the merger, our consolidated net worth, as determined in accordance with GAAP, shall not be less than the sum of

· $62,925,000 and

· the capital paid in upon the exercise of Stockmen's stock options outstanding as of the date of the merger agreement and

· the proceeds to Stockmen's of the sale of any treasury stock since June 30, 2006; minus

- the lesser of $4.9 million or the net after-tax losses, using an assumed effective tax rate of 33.23 percent, realized by Stockmen's and Stockmen's Bank on the sale of held-to-maturity securities between July 1, 2006 and the business day before the effective time of the merger and
- the lesser of $1.5 million or the tax-effected excess of the value of liabilities and obligations of Stockmen's and Stockmen's Bank at the effective time of the merger to make future payments in connection with Stockmen's Bank's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan and related agreements over the expense accrual on the books of Stockmen's and Stockmen's Bank as of June 30, 2006 for such liabilities and obligations.
- our loan loss reserve on the effective date of the merger, as determined in accordance with GAAP, being not less than $6,236,000;
- the absence of injunctions, decrees, orders, laws, statutes or regulations enjoining, preventing or making illegal the completion of the merger;
- the absence of certain types of pending or threatened proceedings against Stockmen's or relating to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
 - the absence of a material adverse effect, as defined below, on the other party;
- the absence of any adverse environmental condition or adverse structural condition, in each case as defined in the merger agreement, at any Stockmen's property that has not been cured to the reasonable satisfaction of Zions;
- the declaration of effectiveness of Zions' registration statement by the SEC and the absence of any stop order or proceedings seeking a stop order;
- the delivery of an opinion of Duane Morris LLP to Zions to the effect that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- the shares of Zions common stock issuable to the former Stockmen's shareholders upon completion of the merger shall be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market;
- shares as to which their holders have properly demanded appraisal in accordance with Arizona law shall constitute not more than six percent of the outstanding Stockmen's stock; and
 - the execution of the employment agreement by Mr. Holyoak.

The obligations of each of Zions and Stockmen's to complete the merger are further subject to satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

- the representations and warranties of the other party in the merger agreement are to be true and correct, as of the closing date of the merger, except for representations and warranties made as of an earlier date which will be true and correct as of that earlier date; subject in each case to the material adverse effect requirement, defined below, and the other party has provided a certificate to that effect;
- all of the covenants and obligations of the other party to be performed and complied with on or prior to the effective time of the merger are to have been performed and complied with in all material respects and the other party has provided a certificate to that effect; and

- all other required consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations or orders have been obtained and all required filings have been made to complete the merger.

Table of Contents

The merger agreement defines "material adverse effect" to mean, with respect to a person, a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition, or prospects of that person and its subsidiaries taken as a whole or which materially impairs or delays that person's ability to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The definition excludes any effect from certain causes, including, (i) to the extent the effect is not materially disproportionate to the person, any change in applicable law, any change in GAAP that is generally applicable to the banking industry, any change affecting the banking industry generally or any changes in general economic conditions affecting banks or their holding companies; (ii) any action or omission of us taken with the prior written consent of Zions, or of Zions or any of its subsidiaries taken with the prior written consent of us, (iii) expenses and costs reasonably incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; (iv) the announcement of the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; or (v) any action taken or not taken by the person if required to be taken or not taken, as applicable, by the merger agreement. Additionally, solely for the purpose of determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred, all representations, warranties, and covenants that are qualified by the term "material" (as a capitalized term) and its variants will be read and interpreted as if no such qualification with respect to materiality were included therein. Moreover, in the case of Stockmen's entities, any such adverse changes or effects, individually or in the aggregate, having a dollar value in excess of $5 million shall be a material adverse effect.

Termination and Termination Fees

The parties may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to the effective time, whether before or after approval by our shareholders:

- by mutual written consent of the parties;
- by either Zions or Stockmen's if any of the following occurs:
 - the merger has not occurred by May 31, 2007, unless the failure of the merger to have occurred by that date has been due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its covenants or agreements in the merger agreement; or
 - the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement determines in good faith that the merger has become inadvisable or impracticable because certain governmental litigation has been instituted to restrain or invalidate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
 - the denial of any of the government approvals required to complete the merger, and the denial has become final and nonappealable;
 - the failure of the Stockmen's shareholders to approve the merger agreement, following their vote at our special meeting;
 - by Stockmen's if any representation or warranty of Zions or NBA was incorrect when made, subject to the material adverse effect requirement, or if a breach or failure by Zions or NBA to perform in all material respects any covenant or obligation of Zions or NBA has not been, or cannot be, cured within thirty days after written notice of the breach or failure shall have been given to Zions or NBA, and which inaccuracy, breach, or failure, if continued to the effective date of the merger, would result in any condition precedent to completion of the merger not being satisfied; or
 - by Zions if any representation or warranty of Stockmen's or Stockmen's Bank was inaccurate when made, subject to the material adverse effect requirement, or if a breach or failure by Stockmen's or Stockmen's Bank to perform in all material respects any covenant or agreement of Stockmen's or Stockmen's Bank has not been, or cannot be, cured within thirty days after written notice of the breach or failure shall have been given to Stockmen's or Stockmen's Bank, and which inaccuracy, breach, or failure, if continued to the effective date of the merger, would result in any condition precedent to completion of the merger not being satisfied.

The merger agreement affords each party the ability to terminate the merger agreement unless the other party agrees to reprice the merger consideration to be paid upon completion of the merger:

- Zions may terminate the merger agreement, at any time during the three-business day period beginning on the seventh business day preceding the effective time of the merger, if the average closing price of Zions stock during the pricing period, as defined in the merger agreement, is more than $93.24, provided that Zions may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision if Zions is acquired by any other person not affiliated with it or has announced an acquisition by any other person not affiliated with it. If Zions chooses to terminate the merger agreement under these circumstances, it must furnish Stockmen's written notice of its decision; during the three business-day period commencing with its receipt of the written notice, Stockmen's will have the option to prevent the termination by accepting by formula fewer Zions shares in exchange for the outstanding Stockmen's shares upon completion of the merger. For example, under the merger agreement Zions would currently issue 2,600,237 shares as the merger consideration upon completion of the merger. If, for example during the pricing period referenced above in this paragraph, the price of Zions is either $95 or $100, then in those circumstances (assuming that Stockmen's exercises its rights to proceed with the merger under these revised circumstances) Zions would issue 2,552,116 Zions shares (approximately 7.32 Zions shares for each share of Stockmen's) or 2,424,511 Zions shares (approximately 6.95 Zions shares for each share of Stockmen's), respectively, to the former Stockmen's shareholders upon completion of the merger. In all cases, only the number of Zions shares issuable to our shareholders upon completion of the merger would change in these circumstances. At the current time, neither Zions nor Stockmen's can predict the market price of Zions during the subject pricing period.

· Stockmen's may terminate the merger agreement, at any time during the three-business day period beginning on the seventh business day preceding the effective time of the merger, the average closing price of Zions stock during the pricing period, as defined in the merger agreement, is less than $68.92. If Stockmen's chooses to terminate the merger agreement under these circumstances, it must furnish Zions written notice of its decision; during the three business-day period commencing with its receipt of the written notice, Zions will have the option to prevent the termination by agreeing to issue by formula more Zions shares in exchange for the outstanding Stockmen's shares upon completion of the merger. For example, under the merger agreement Zions would currently issue 2,600,237 shares as the merger consideration upon completion of the merger. If, for example during the pricing period referenced above in this paragraph, the price of Zions is either $65 or $60, then in those circumstances (assuming that Zions exercises its rights to proceed with the merger under these revised circumstances) Zions would issue 2,756,968 Zions shares (approximately 7.91 Zions shares for each share of Stockmen's) or 2,986,716 Zions shares (approximately 8.56 Zions shares for each share of Stockmen's), respectively, to the former Stockmen's shareholders upon completion of the merger. In all cases, only the number of Zions shares issuable to our shareholders upon completion of the merger would change in these circumstances. At the current time, neither Zions nor Stockmen's can predict the market price of Zions during the subject pricing period.

Stockmen's may terminate the merger agreement if our board, based upon the written advice of our counsel and taking into consideration the written advice of our financial advisors, determines in good faith that termination of the merger agreement is required for our board to comply with its fiduciary duties to our shareholders imposed by law by reason of Stockmen's having received an alternative proposal, as defined in the merger agreement.

If the merger agreement is terminated as a result of any representation or warranty of a party being incorrect when made, subject to the material adverse effect requirement, or as a result of the breach or the failure by a party to perform in all material respects a covenant or obligation under the merger agreement, then the party whose representations and warranties were incorrect or which breached or failed to perform its covenant or agreement shall be liable to the other party in the amount of $2,250,000.

If the merger agreement is terminated because of Stockmen's receipt of an alternative proposal, as discussed above, then Stockmen's would be liable to Zions for liquidated damages of $7,500,000. If the merger agreement is terminated by Zions because any representation or warranty of Stockmen's was incorrect when made, subject to the material adverse effect requirement, or because of a breach or failure by Stockmen's to perform in all material respects any covenant or obligation contained in the merger agreement and Stockmen's or Stockmen's Bank executes a definitive agreement respecting an alternative proposal, as defined in the merger agreement, within one year after termination of the merger agreement, then Stockmen's would be liable to Zions for liquidated damages of $7,500,000 plus $2,250,000 for incorrectness of one or more Stockmen's representations or warranties or the breach of any covenant or obligation.

Survival of Certain Provisions

If the Merger Becomes Effective. After the effective time of the merger, various provisions of the merger agreement regarding the following matters, among others, will survive and remain effective:

- procedures for the issuance of Zions common stock in exchange for our common stock;
- indemnification of our directors and officers; and
- the employment agreement with Mr. Holyoak and the non-competition agreements with various of our executives.

Table of Contents

If the Merger Agreement Terminates before the Effective Time. If the merger agreement terminates before the effective time, various provisions of the merger agreement regarding the following matters, among others, will survive and remain effective:

- confidentiality of information obtained in connection with the merger agreement;
- indemnification for information provided by each party in statements and applications to governmental authorities in connection with the merger, including this proxy statement/prospectus;
 - expenses incurred in connection with the proposed merger; and
 - effect of termination.

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

Zions has registered under the Securities Act the shares of its common stock issuable in the merger to the former Stockmen's shareholders. Holders of these securities who are not deemed to be "affiliates," as defined in the rules promulgated under the Securities Act, of Zions or Stockmen's may trade the shares of Zions common stock that they receive in the merger freely without restriction.

Following the merger and the issuance of shares of Zions common stock, any subsequent transfer of shares acquired in the merger by any person who was an affiliate of Stockmen's at the time of submission of the merger agreement to the Stockmen's shareholders for their consideration and vote or by a person who is an affiliate of Zions following the merger will, under existing law, require:

- the further registration under the Securities Act of the shares of Zions common stock that the affiliate wishes to transfer;
- compliance with Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act, which permits limited sales under certain circumstances; or
 - the availability of another exemption from registration of the shares under the Securities Act.

An "affiliate" of a person is defined as a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with that person. We expect these restrictions to apply to the directors and executive officers of Stockmen's and to the holders of 10% or more of the Stockmen's common stock. The same restrictions apply to certain relatives or the spouse of those persons and any trusts, estates, corporations or other entities in which those persons have a 10% or greater beneficial or equity interest. Zions will give stop transfer instructions to its transfer agent with respect to those shares of Zions common stock held by persons subject to these restrictions. Zions will place a legend on the certificates that it issues in the merger for those shares which will be held by former affiliates of Stockmen's or affiliates of Zions. Zions will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause its legal counsel to deliver opinions of counsel with respect to the resale ability of shares held by former affiliates of Stockmen's within one business day of receipt by Zions of notice that an affiliate wishes to sell his or her shares of Zions common stock.

Allocation of Costs and Expenses

The merger agreement provides that each party to the merger agreement will be responsible for paying its own expenses incurred in connection with the merger, including the fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, experts and consultants. Nevertheless, the merger agreement expressly allocates certain specified expenses as follows:

- the cost of printing and delivery of this proxy statement/prospectus will be deemed to be incurred by Stockmen's;
and
- the cost of registering the shares of Zions common stock issuable in the merger will be deemed to be incurred by Zions.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion is a summary description of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger applicable to Stockmen's shareholders. This discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to a Stockmen's shareholder. This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Code, existing regulations and administrative and judicial interpretations of the Code, all of which are as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion applies only to Stockmen's shareholders who hold their shares of Stockmen's common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code and does not apply to the following:

- shareholders who received their shares of Stockmen's stock from the exercise of employee stock options or similar securities or otherwise as compensation;
- shareholders who hold their shares of Stockmen's stock as part of a "straddle," "hedge," "conversion transaction," "synthetic security" or other integrated investment;
- shareholders, including, without limitation, financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, dealers or traders in securities and shareholders subject to the alternative minimum tax, who may be subject to special rules;
 - shareholders whose functional currency is not the United States dollar; or
- shareholders who, for United States federal income tax purposes, are non-resident alien individuals, foreign corporations, foreign partnerships, foreign estates or foreign trusts.

This discussion also does not consider the effect of any foreign, state or local laws or any United States federal laws other than those pertaining to the income tax.

Accordingly, you should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax effect to you of the merger, including the application and effect of foreign or United States federal, state, local or other tax laws.

Tax Opinion and Merger

Completion of the merger is contingent upon the receipt by Zions and Stockmen's of an opinion from Zions' outside counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The tax opinion of Duane Morris LLP, counsel for Zions, is included as exhibit 8 to the registration statement filed with the SEC of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part. These opinions are based upon, among other things, representations of fact contained in certificates of officers of Zions and Stockmen's. Zions will not seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger, and the opinion of counsel is not binding upon the Internal Revenue Service or any court. Accordingly, Zions can give no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will not contest the conclusions expressed in the opinions or that a court will not sustain that contest.

Assuming the merger is completed in the manner described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in accordance with the merger agreement, the merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The following discussion sets forth the United States federal income tax consequences to Stockmen's shareholders of the qualification of the merger as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

A Stockmen's shareholder who exchanges shares of Stockmen's common stock solely for Zions common stock will not recognize any gain or loss on that exchange, except to the extent the shareholder receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Zions common stock, as discussed below. The aggregate adjusted tax basis of Zions common stock received will equal the Stockmen's shareholder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of Stockmen's common stock surrendered in the merger, decreased by the amount of any tax basis allocable to any fractional share of Zions common stock for which cash is received. The holding period of the Zions common stock received in the merger will include the holding period of the Stockmen's common stock surrendered in the merger. If a Stockmen's shareholder has differing tax bases and/or holding periods in respect of the shareholder's shares of Stockmen's common stock, the shareholder should consult with a tax advisor in order to identify the tax bases and/or holding periods of the particular shares of Zions common stock that the shareholder receives.

A Stockmen's shareholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Zions common stock will be treated as having first received the fractional share of Zions common stock in the merger and then as having received cash in exchange for the fractional share interest. A Stockmen's shareholder generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share of Zions common stock and the portion of the basis in the shares of Stockmen's common stock allocable to that fractional interest.

Neither Zions nor Stockmen's will recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger.

Table of Contents

Tax Consequences If the Merger Does Not Qualify as a Reorganization under Section 368(a)

If the Internal Revenue Service determines that the merger of Stockmen's with and into Zions does not qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the Stockmen's shareholders would be required to recognize gain or loss with respect to each share of Stockmen's common stock surrendered in the merger in an amount equal to the difference between (a) the sum of the fair market value of any Zions common stock and cash received in the merger and (b) the tax basis of the shares of Stockmen's common stock surrendered in exchange therefor. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if such shareholder held the Stockmen's common stock for more than one year, and will be short-term capital gain or loss if such shareholder held the Stockmen's common stock for less than one year. The amount and character of gain or loss will be computed separately for each block of Stockmen's common stock that was purchased by the holder in the same transaction. A Stockmen's shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the Zions common stock received in the merger would in this case be equal to its fair market value at the time of the closing of the merger, and the holding period for the Zions common stock would begin the day after the closing of the merger.

Backup Withholding

Payments of cash (e.g., cash in lieu of fractional shares) in connection with the merger may be subject to "backup withholding" at a rate of 28%, unless a Stockmen's shareholder, (1) provides a correct taxpayer identification number (which, for an individual stockholder, is the shareholder's social security number) and any required information to the exchange agent, (2) provides a certification of foreign status on Form W-8, or successor form, or (3) is a corporation or comes within certain exempt categories and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A Stockmen's shareholder who does not provide a correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service. Any amount paid as backup withholding does not constitute an additional tax and will be creditable against the shareholder's United States federal income tax liability. Each Stockmen's shareholder should consult with his own tax advisor as to his qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining this exemption. You may prevent backup withholding by completing a substitute form W-9 (contained with the election form to be forwarded to you) and submitting it to the exchange agent for the merger when you submit your Stockmen's share certificates for exchange.

Cash Received by Dissenters

Cash received by a Stockmen's shareholder who has perfected dissenters' rights as to his or her Stockmen's common stock will be treated as a distribution in redemption of such shares, subject to the provision of section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Each shareholder of Stockmen's is urged to consult his or her tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences to the shareholder of the merger, including the applicability and effect of any state, local or foreign tax laws, and of changes in applicable tax laws.

REGULATORY APPROVALS

Because Zions and Stockmen's are bank holding companies registered under the Bank Holding Company Act, the merger is subject to the application and approval requirements of the Bank Holding Company Act. Because, however, the merger is part of a virtually simultaneous transaction in which NBA and Stockmen's Bank are merging, and because the merger of the banks requires the prior approval of the Comptroller of the Currency under the Bank Merger Act and certain other requirements set forth in regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System are met, the application and approval requirements of the Bank Holding Company Act are subject to waiver by the Board of Governors. Zions intends to request such a waiver.

NBA and Stockmen's Bank have filed an application with the Comptroller of the Currency requesting approval of the bank merger. Copies of this application have been provided to the U.S. Department of Justice and other governmental agencies. The application describes the terms of the merger, the parties involved, the activities to be conducted by the combined bank as a result of the merger, and provides other financial and managerial information. In evaluating the application, the Comptroller of the Currency will consider the financial and managerial resources and prospects of the existing and combined institutions and the benefits that may be expected from the bank merger. Among other things, the Comptroller of the Currency will evaluate the capital adequacy of the combined bank after completion of the bank merger. In addition, under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, the Comptroller of the Currency will take into account the record of performance of NBA and Stockmen's Bank in meeting the credit needs of their communities, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods.

Table of Contents

The Comptroller of the Currency may deny an application if he determines that the transaction would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States. The Comptroller of the Currency may also deny an application if he determines that the transaction would substantially lessen competition or would tend to create a monopoly in any section of the country, or would in any other manner result in a restraint of trade, unless the Comptroller of the Currency finds that the anticompetitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed by the probable effects of the transaction in providing benefits to the public.

Applicable federal law provides for the publication of notice and public comment on the application to be filed by NBA and Stockmen's Bank with the Comptroller of the Currency. Under current law, the merger may not be completed until the Comptroller of the Currency has approved the merger and a period of 30 days, or fewer if prescribed by the Comptroller of the Currency with the concurrence of the Attorney General of the United States, following the date of approval of the merger by the Comptroller of the Currency, has expired. The commencement of an antitrust action by the U.S. Department of Justice would stay the effectiveness of the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, unless a court specifically orders otherwise.

Zions and NBA have filed an application with the Arizona Superintendent of Financial Institutions requesting her approval of Zions' acquisition of control of Stockmen's. The application describes the terms of the merger, the parties involved, and the activities to be conducted by the combined bank as a result of the merger, and provides other financial and managerial information. In evaluating the application, the Arizona Superintendent of Financial Institutions will consider the financial and managerial resources of Zions and NBA, the moral character and integrity of their management, Zions' and NBA's plans for the operation of the business of Stockmen's, and whether the proposed transaction is contrary to law.

The approval or waiver of an application means only that the regulatory criteria for approval have been satisfied or waived. It does not mean that the approving authority has determined that the consideration to be received by Stockmen's shareholders is fair. Regulatory approval does not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the merger or the bank merger.

Zions has received the written confirmation of the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Utah that the approval of that department will not be required to consummate the merger.

Zions and Stockmen's are not aware of any governmental approvals or requirements under banking laws and regulations whose receipt or satisfaction is necessary for the merger to become effective other than those described above. Zions and Stockmen's intend to seek any other approval and to take any other action that may be required to effect the merger and the bank merger.

The merger and the bank merger cannot be completed unless all necessary regulatory approvals are granted and all statutory waiting periods thereafter have expired. There can be no assurance that any required approval can be obtained either prior to or after the special meeting or, if obtained, there can be no assurance as to the date of any of those approvals or the absence of any litigation challenging those approvals. There can likewise be no assurance that the U.S. Department of Justice, the Attorney General of the State of Arizona, or private persons will not challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, or, if a challenge is made, the result of the challenge.

RIGHTS OF DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS

A holder of shares of Stockmen's common stock is entitled to exercise the rights of a dissenting shareholder under Chapter 13 of the Arizona Business Corporation Act (the "Act") to object to the merger agreement and demand that

Zions, as the surviving corporation, pay the fair value of the shares of Stockmen's common stock held as determined in accordance with the Arizona statutory provisions. The Act defines "fair value" as the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion is inequitable. The following summarizes the material provisions of Arizona law and is qualified in its entirety by reference to those statutory provisions, which we set forth in full in Appendix C to this document.

Arizona law requires that Stockmen's shareholders must follow certain prescribed procedures in their exercise of the statutory right to dissent in connection with the merger agreement and merger. The failure to follow these procedures precisely on a timely basis, in the manner required by Chapter 13 of the Act, may result in a loss of a shareholder's dissenters' rights.

To be entitled to payment as a dissenting shareholder to the merger agreement and merger, a shareholder must (i) deliver written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment, (ii) not vote in favor of the proposed merger agreement and merger, and (iii) make a payment demand, in each case as provided below.

Any shareholder electing to exercise the right to dissent must deliver to Stockmen's, prior to the taking of the vote at our special meeting to be held on January 12, 2007, written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for such shareholder's shares if the proposed merger agreement is effectuated. Additionally, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights cannot vote in favor of the proposed merger agreement. If the shareholder does not comply with these two requirements, the shareholder will not be entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares of Stockmen's common stock. The mere filing of a proxy directing a vote against the merger agreement, or a purported objection to the merger submitted on a proxy, does not constitute written notice of a shareholder's intent to demand payment for such shareholder's shares.

If the proposed merger agreement is authorized at our special meeting, the Act requires Zions, as the surviving corporation, to send a written dissenters' notice to all dissenting shareholders no later than ten (10) days after the merger agreement is effectuated. The dissenters' notice must: (i) state where the dissenting shareholder must send the shareholder's payment demand and where and when the dissenting shareholder shall deposit the shareholder's certificates for certificated shares; (ii) inform any dissenting shareholder who holds uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the dissenting shareholder's payment demand is received; (iii) supply the dissenting shareholder with a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the merger agreement, which we refer to as the "announcement date," and that requires the dissenting shareholder to certify whether or not the dissenting shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date; (iv) set a date by which Zions must receive the dissenting shareholder's payment demand, which date shall be at least thirty (30) but not more than sixty (60) days after the date the dissenters' notice is delivered; and (v) be accompanied by a copy of Chapter 13, Article 2 of the Act.

Upon receipt of a dissenters' notice from Zions, the Act requires a dissenting shareholder to: (i) demand payment; (ii) certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the announcement date, as set forth in the dissenters' notice; and (iii) deposit the shareholder's share certificates in accordance with the terms of the dissenters' notice. A dissenting shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's share certificates retains all other rights of a shareholder until such rights are cancelled or modified by the effectuation of the merger agreement. A dissenting shareholder who does not demand payment or does not deposit the shareholder's certificates, if required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under Chapter 13, Article 2 of the Act.

Except in the case of shares acquired by a shareholder on or after the announcement date, which we refer to as "after-acquired shares," as soon as the merger agreement is effectuated, on receipt of a payment demand, the Act provides that Zions, as the surviving corporation, must pay the dissenting shareholder who has demanded payment the amount that Zions estimates to be the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares plus accrued interest, as determined in accordance with the Act. Any appreciation or depreciation in the value of dissenting shareholder's shares attributable to the merger agreement shall be excluded for determining the fair value of such shares, unless such exclusion is inequitable. The payment must be accompanied by: (i) Stockmen's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen (16) months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholder's equity for that year and the latest available interim financial statements, if any; (ii) a statement of Zions' estimate of the fair value of the shares; (iii) an explanation of how the interest was calculated; (iv) a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment if such dissenter is dissatisfied with Zions' payment; and (v) a copy of Chapter 13, Article 2 of the Act.

If Zions does not effectuate the merger agreement within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the Act requires Zions to return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares. If Zions effectuates the merger agreement after returning the deposited certificates and releasing the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares, Zions must send a new dissenters' notice and repeat the payment demand procedure.

The Act permits Zions to elect to withhold payment from a dissenting shareholder with respect to after-acquired shares. If Zions elects to withhold payment, the Act provides that Zions must estimate the fair value of the shares plus accrued interest and pay this amount to each dissenting shareholder who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the shareholder's demand for payment. The Act requires Zions to send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated and a statement of the dissenting shareholder's right to demand payment under Chapter 13 of the Act.

The Act permits a dissenting shareholder to notify Zions in writing of the dissenting shareholder's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares and amount of interest due and either demand payment for the dissenting shareholder's estimate, less any payment made by Zions, or reject Zions' offer and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares and interest due, if: (i) the dissenting shareholder believes that the amount paid by Zions or offered with respect to after-acquired shares is less than the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated; (ii) Zions fails to make payment within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment; or (iii) Zions, having failed to effectuate the merger agreement, does not return the deposited certificates or does not release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment.

A dissenting shareholder waives the right to demand payment as set forth in the proceeding paragraph unless the dissenting shareholder notifies Zions of the shareholder's demand in writing within thirty (30) days after Zions made or offered payment for the dissenting shareholder's shares.

If a dissenting shareholder's demand for payment remains unsettled, the Act requires Zions to commence a proceeding within sixty (60) days after receiving the payment demand and to petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If Zions does not commence the proceeding within the sixty (60) day period, it shall pay each dissenting shareholder whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded by each such dissenting shareholder. Zions must commence the action in the court in Mohave County, Arizona, make all dissenting shareholders, whether or not residents of Arizona, whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares, and serve all such dissenting shareholders with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by certified mail or by publication as provided by law or by the Arizona rules of civil procedure. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced is plenary and exclusive and there is no right to trial by jury.

The court in an appraisal proceeding will determine all costs of the proceeding and assess those costs against Zions, except that the court shall assess costs against all or some of the dissenting shareholders to the extent the court finds that the fair value does not materially exceed the amount offered by Zions or that the dissenting shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in demanding payment. The court may also assess the fees and expenses of attorneys and experts for the respective parties in amounts the court finds equitable to the extent set forth in Chapter 13, Article 3 of the Act. If the court determines that the services of an attorney for any dissenting shareholder were of substantial benefit to other dissenting shareholders similarly situated, that court may award to these attorneys reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenting shareholders who were benefited.

Holders of Stockmen's common stock considering seeking appraisal by exercising their dissenters' rights should be aware that the fair value of their Stockmen's common stock determined under Arizona law could be more than, the same as, or less than their pro rata share of the merger consideration that they are entitled to receive under the merger agreement if they do not seek appraisal of their Stockmen's common stock.

The foregoing discussion does not purport to be a complete statement of the procedures to be followed by holders of Stockmen's common stock desiring to exercise their dissenters' rights. Because exercise of those rights requires strict adherence to the relevant provisions of the Arizona Business Corporation Act, each shareholder who may desire to exercise his or her dissenters' rights is advised individually to consult the law (as set forth in Appendix C to this document) and comply with the provisions of the statute.

Holders of Stockmen's common stock wishing to exercise their dissenters' rights are advised to consult their own counsel to ensure that they fully and properly comply with the requirements of Arizona law.

PRICE RANGE OF COMMON STOCK AND DIVIDENDS

Zions common stock trades on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "ZION." Stockmen's common stock is held by approximately 215 shareholders of record. No established trading market exists for Stockmen's common stock, and consequently, no information on trading prices for Stockmen's common stock is provided.

The following table reflects (1) the range of high and low sales prices of Zions common stock, and (2) the amount of cash dividends declared per share by each company:

The timing and amount of future dividends will depend upon earnings, cash requirements, the financial condition of Zions and its subsidiaries (and, prior to completion of the merger, of Zions and its subsidiaries insofar as Zions dividends are concerned and Stockmen's and Stockmen's Bank insofar as Stockmen's dividends are concerned), applicable government regulations, and other factors deemed relevant by the Zions board (and by the respective boards of Zions and Stockmen's prior to completion of the merger). Because of the issuance by Zions of shares of its Preferred Stock on December 7, 2006, the ability of Zions to declare or pay dividends on, or purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, shares of its common stock will be subject to certain restrictions if Zions fails to pay dividends on its Series A Preferred Stock. See "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" below. Various federal and state laws limit the ability of affiliated banks to pay dividends to their parent corporations. The merger agreement restricts the cash dividends payable on Stockmen's common stock, pending completion of the merger. See "Approval of the Merger Agreement - Conduct of Business Pending Completion of the Merger."

On September 8, 2006, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger, the highest sales price of Zions common stock was $77.60 per share, the lowest sales price of Zions common stock was $76.72 per share and the last reported sales price of Zions common stock was $77.45 per share. On December 5, 2006, the most recent practicable date prior to the printing of this document, the last reported sales price of Zions common stock was $79.02 per share. We urge shareholders to obtain current market quotations prior to making any decisions with respect to the merger.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

Upon completion of the merger, our shareholders will become shareholders of Zions. The rights of our shareholders are presently governed by Arizona law and our articles of incorporation and bylaws. After the merger the rights of former Stockmen's shareholders will be governed by Utah law and the Zions articles of incorporation and bylaws. The following chart summarizes the material differences between the rights of holders of Stockmen's common stock prior to the merger and after completion of the merger when the former Stockmen's shareholders will be Zions shareholders. This summary does not purport to be complete and the summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Stockmen's articles of incorporation and bylaws, the Zions articles of incorporation and bylaws, and the relevant provisions of Arizona and Utah law. You can obtain copies of the governing corporate instruments of Zions and Stockmen's, without charge, by following the instructions listed under "Where You Can Find More Information."

Such business transactions include mergers, consolidations, sales of all or more than 20% of the corporation's assets, issuance of securities of the corporation, reclassifications that increase voting power of the interested shareholder, or liquidations, spin-offs or dissolution of the corporation. Zions is also subject to Utah's Control Shares Acquisitions Act, which limits the ability of persons acquiring more than 20% of Zions' voting stock to vote those shares absent approval of voting rights by the holders of a majority of all shares entitled to be cast, excluding all interested shares.

Zions' Articles further provide that amendment to Articles IX (regarding the classified board), X (regarding quorum requirements and management of Zions by the board), and XVI (regarding amendment of Zions' Articles) requires approval by two-thirds of the outstanding shares; and amendment of Article XVII (regarding business transactions with related persons) requires approval by 80% of the outstanding shares.
Amendments to bylaws	The board of Stockmen's may amend, repeal, suspend or adopt bylaws at any time. The bylaws may also be amended or repealed by the shareholders of Stockmen's.	Zions' board may amend, adopt or repeal bylaws at any time. Zions' shareholders may adopt additional bylaws and may amend or repeal any bylaw, whether or not adopted by them, at any time.

(1) On December 7, 2006, Zions issued $240 million of Series A Floating-Rate Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock. Because of this issuance, the ability of Zions to declare or pay dividends on, or purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire shares of its common stock will be subject to certain restrictions if Zions fails to pay dividends on its Series A Preferred Stock. Zions has incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus its Form 8-K filed with the SEC on December 7, 2006 which describes this transaction. See "Documents Incorporated by Reference" on page 55 below.

DESCRIPTION OF ZIONS CAPITAL STOCK

Authorized Capital Stock

The following statements are brief summaries of the material provisions of Zions' preferred stock and common stock and are qualified in their entirety by the provisions of Zions' articles of incorporation.

Preferred Stock. The articles of incorporation authorize the issuance of 3,000,000 shares of preferred stock with no par value per share. On December 7, 2006, Zions issued $240 million of Series A Floating-Rate Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock. The Zions board is authorized by the articles of incorporation to provide, without further shareholder action, for the issuance of one or more series of preferred stock. The Zions board has the power to fix various terms with respect to each series, including voting powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional and or other special rights, qualifications, limitations, restrictions and redemption, conversion or exchangeability provisions. Holders of preferred stock have no preemptive rights.

Common Stock. Zions is authorized to issue 350,000,000 shares of common stock with no par value per share. As of November 27, 2006, there are approximately 106,953,956 shares of common stock of Zions outstanding. The holders of common stock of Zions are entitled to voting rights for the election of directors and for other purposes, subject to voting rights which may in the future be granted to subsequently created series of preferred stock. Shares of Zions common stock do not have cumulative voting rights. Holders of Zions common stock are entitled to receive dividends when and if declared by the Zions board out of any funds legally available therefor, and are entitled upon liquidation, after claims of creditors and preferences of any series of preferred stock hereafter authorized, to receive pro rata the net assets of Zions. Because of the issuance by Zions of shares of its Preferred Stock, as referenced in the preceding paragraph, the ability of Zions to declare or pay dividends on, or purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, shares of its common stock will be subject to certain restrictions if Zions fails to pay dividends on its Series A Preferred Stock. Holders of Zions common stock have no preemptive or conversion rights.

Such representations shall be updated only for the purpose of making the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement true and correct in all material respects as of the date such representation is updated, and the update to a representation shall not have the effect of making any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement true and correct in all material respects as of a date prior to the date of such update. (b) use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Holding Company Merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368 of the Code and not take any action reasonably likely to cause the Holding Company Merger not to so qualify.

Section 10.02 Nasdaq Listing. Section 10.03 Subsequent Events. Until the Effective Time, Zions and NBA will immediately advise TS Bancorp in a detailed written notice of any fact or occurrence or any pending or threatened occurrence of which it obtains Knowledge and that (if existing and known at the date of the execution of this Agreement) would have been required to be set forth or disclosed by Zions or NBA in or pursuant to this Agreement which (if existing and known at any time prior to or at the Effective Time) would make the performance by Zions or NBA of a covenant contained in this Agreement impossible or make such performance Materially more difficult than in the absence of such fact or occurrence, or that (if existing and known at the time of the Effective Time) would cause a condition to any Party's obligations under this Agreement not to be fully satisfied.

Section 10.04 Trust Preferred Securities. At the Effective Time, Zions shall expressly assume all of TS Bancorp's obligations under the indentures related to the subordinated debentures issued by TS Bancorp in connection with the issuances by the Statutory Trusts of preferred securities intended to be "qualified trust preferred securities" as defined in regulatory capital guidelines of the Board of Governors or to qualify as grandfathered trust preferred securities and shall execute any documents, instruments, and agreements, including any supplemental indentures, guarantees, or declarations of trust required by such indentures, the subordinated debentures, or the trust preferred securities issued by the Statutory Trusts, or as may reasonably be requested by the applicable trustees, and thereafter shall perform all of TS Bancorp's obligations with respect to the subordinated debentures and the trust preferred securities issued by the Statutory Trusts.

As promptly as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, TS Bancorp and Zions will prepare and file with the SEC the Proxy Statement and Registration Statement relating to the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Holding Company Merger, by the stockholders of TS Bancorp and will use all reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective as soon thereafter as practicable. Each of TS Bancorp and Zions will furnish all information concerning itself and its affiliates that is required to be included in the Proxy Statement or, to the extent applicable, the other filings, or that is customarily included in Proxy Statement or other filings prepared in connection with transactions of the type contemplated by this Agreement. Each of TS Bancorp and Zions will use its reasonable best efforts to respond as promptly as practicable to any comments of the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement or the other filings and to cause the definitive Proxy Statement to be mailed to TS Bancorp's stockholders as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement. Each party will promptly notify the other party upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or its staff or any request from the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement or the other filings and will provide the other party with copies of all correspondence between it and its representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand relating to the Proxy Statement or the other filings, provided that Zions need not provide to TS Bancorp and TS Bank copies of those portions of correspondence, if any, between it and its representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand that do not relate to TS Bancorp or TS Bank or to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. If at any time prior to the Shareholder Meeting, any information relating to TS Bancorp, Zions or any of their respective affiliates, officers or directors should be discovered by TS Bancorp or Zions which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement or the other filings, so that the Proxy Statement or the other filings do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information will promptly notify the other party, and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information will be filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by applicable law, disseminated to the stockholders of TS Bancorp. Except with respect to correspondence, if any, between Zions and its representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand that do not relate to TS Bancorp or TS Bank or to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, prior to filing or mailing the Proxy Statement or filing the other filings (or, in each case, any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto, the party responsible for filing or mailing such document will provide the other party an opportunity to review and comment on that document or response.

Section 11.02 Information. Each of Zions and TS Bancorp agrees, as to itself and its subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (a) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (b) the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the time of the Shareholder Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement was made, not misleading. Each of Zions and TS Bancorp further agrees that if it becomes aware that any information furnished by it would cause any of the statements in the Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take appropriate steps to correct the Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement.

Table of Contents - Appendix A

Section 13.02 Grounds for Termination. This Agreement may be terminated by written notice of termination at any time before the Effective Time (whether before or after action by shareholders of TS Bancorp):

(a) by mutual written consent of the Parties;

(b) by Zions, upon written notice to TS Bancorp given at any time (i) if any of the representations and warranties of TS Bancorp or TS Bank contained in article 7 was incorrect when made, or (ii) in the event of a breach or failure by TS Bancorp or TS Bank of any covenant or agreement of TS Bancorp or TS Bank contained in this Agreement which has not been, or cannot be, cured within thirty days after written notice of such breach or failure is given to TS Bancorp or TS Bank and which inaccuracy, breach, or failure, if continued to the Effective Time, would result in any condition set forth in article 4 or article 5 not being satisfied;

(c) by TS Bancorp, upon written notice to Zions given at any time (i) if any of the representations and warranties of Zions or NBA contained in article 9 was incorrect when made, or (ii) in the event of a breach or failure by Zions or NBA of any covenant or agreement of Zions or NBA contained in this Agreement which has not been, or cannot be, cured within thirty days after written notice of such breach or failure is given to Zions or NBA, as the case may be, and which inaccuracy, breach, or failure, if continued to the Effective Time, would result in any condition set forth in article 4 or article 6 not being satisfied;

(d) by either Zions or TS Bancorp upon written notice given to the other if the board of directors of either Zions or TS Bancorp shall have determined in its sole judgment made in good faith, after due consideration and consultation with counsel, that the Holding Company Merger has become inadvisable or impracticable by reason of the institution of litigation by a Governmental Authority to restrain or invalidate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(e) by either Zions or TS Bancorp upon written notice given to the other if any of the approvals referred to in section 3.02, 3.03, 3.04, 3.05, or 3.06 are denied and such denial has become final and nonappealable;

(f) by either Zions or TS Bancorp upon written notice given to the other if the shareholders of TS Bancorp shall have voted on and failed to adopt this Agreement at the Shareholder Meeting;

(g) By Zions, at any time during the three-Business-Day period beginning on the seventh Business Day preceding the Effective Time, if the Average Closing Price is more than $93.24; provided that Zions will have no right to terminate this Agreement under this section 13.02(g) if Zions is acquired by any other Person not affiliated with it or has announced an acquisition by any other Person not affiliated with it after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Effective Date, whether that acquisition is through merger, stock purchase, consolidation or other business combination; and provided further that if Zions chooses to exercise its -right pursuant to this section 13.02(g), it shall give immediate written notice thereof to TS Bancorp. During the three-Business-Day period commencing with receipt of such notice, TS Bancorp shall have the option to agree that the "Zions Divisor" for purposes of the Holding Company Merger Agreement shall be the Average Closing Price divided by 1.15. If TS Bancorp so elects within such three-Business-Day period, it shall give immediate written notice thereof to Zions, whereupon no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this section 13.02(g) and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Parties will promptly amend the Holding Company Merger Agreement to provide that the "Zions Divisor" shall be the Average Closing Price divided by 1.15);

(h) by TS Bancorp, at any time during the three-Business-Day period beginning on the seventh Business Day preceding the Effective Time, if the Average Closing Price is less than $68.92; provided that if TS Bancorp chooses to exercise its -right pursuant to this section 13.02(h), it shall give immediate written notice thereof to Zions. (i) by TS Bancorp, upon written notice to Zions given at any time, if the board of directors of TS Bancorp, based upon the written advice of Stinson Morrison Hecker LLP and taking into account the written advice of its financial advisors (which shall be a nationally recognized investment banking firm), determines in good faith that such termination is required for the board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties to stockholders imposed by law by reason of an Alternative Proposal being made; provided that TS Bancorp shall have paid the amount of liquidated damages set forth in section 13.03(c).

Section 13.03 Effect of Termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

- (a) the provisions of sections 13.03, 14.01, 14.04, and 14.05 shall survive such termination;
- (b) if such termination is a result of any of the representations and warranties of a Party being incorrect when made or a result of the breach or failure by a Party of a covenant or agreement hereunder, such Party whose representations and warranties were incorrect or who breached or failed to perform its covenant or agreement shall be liable in the amount of $2,250,000 to the other Party or Parties that are not affiliated with it (it being understood and agreed for the purposes of the preceding clause that Zions and NBA are Parties that are affiliated with each other and that TS Bancorp and TS Bank are Parties that are affiliated with each other. Only one payment in the amount set forth in the previous sentence must be made, but the Parties entitled to that payment may decide how the payment is to be allocated among them and if they cannot decide, the payment may be made to either Party entitled to payment;
- (c) if such termination is pursuant to section 13.02(i) of this Agreement, or if this Agreement is terminated for any reason specified in section 13.02(b) of this Agreement and a definitive agreement with respect to an Alternative Proposal is executed by TS Bancorp or TS Bank within one year after such termination, then in either case, and in addition to any amount payable or paid under subsection (b) of this section 13.03, TS Bancorp shall be liable to Zions for liquidated damages in the further amount of $7,500,000. TS Bancorp acknowledges that the agreements contained in subsection (c) of this section 13.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and that, without these agreements, Zions would not enter into this Agreement; and
- (d) unless such termination is pursuant to section 13.02(i), and in the event that the Three-Year Swap Rate (as defined in the next sentence) shall be less than 5.37 percent, then Zions shall be liable to TS Bancorp in the amount of the present value for the period beginning on May 1, 2007 and ending on April 30, 2010 (discounted at the Three-Year Swap Rate) of the product of the aggregate face amount of the certificate or certificates of deposit issued to TS Bank pursuant to section 10.06 and the difference between 5.37 percent per annum and the Three-Year Swap Rate. The "Three-Year Swap Rate" shall be the annual percentage rate imputed from the average of the bid and asked prices as of the close of business (London time) on May 1, 2007 as displayed on page 32 of the Forward Curve Analysis (FWCV) section of the screen service of Bloomberg L.P. (or such other page as may replace page 32 on that service for the purpose of displaying actual or implied London interbank offered rates) with respect to deposits in U.S. dollars with a maturity of three years.

Section 13.04 Waiver of Terms or Conditions. Any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, to the extent legally permitted, may be waived at any time prior to the Effective Time by the Party that is, or whose shareholders are, entitled to the benefit thereof, and the other Parties may rely on the delivery of such a waiver as conclusive evidence of such judgment and the validity of the waiver.

Section 13.05 Amendment. Anything herein or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, to the extent permitted by law, this Agreement and the exhibits hereto may be amended, supplemented, or interpreted at any time prior to the Effective Time by written instrument duly authorized and executed by each of the Parties; provided, however, that (except as specifically provided herein or as may be approved by such shareholders) this Agreement may not be amended after the action by shareholders of TS Bancorp in any respect that would prejudice the economic interests of such TS Bancorp shareholders, or any of them.

Each party will supply in a timely fashion such information concerning such party as shall be necessary or appropriate for inclusion in the Registration Statement.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, the Parties shall cooperate, and shall make all reasonable efforts to cause their respective data processing service providers to cooperate, to complete all reasonable steps for an orderly transfer of all applicable data tapes and processing information, and to facilitate an electronic and systematic conversion of all applicable data regarding TS Bancorp and TS Bank to Zions' own system of electronic data processing by the next Business Day following the Effective Time. Each Party shall bear its own costs associated with the transfer of tapes and information and the conversion of data. TS Bancorp will provide, in an industry standard format, all test tapes and reports necessary to complete the transfer and will provide a test conversion tape (including detailed information on all TS Bancorp and TS Bank systems) and set of deconversion reports on or before October 1, 2006, a preliminary tape and set of deconversion reports six weeks prior to the Effective Time, and an updated preliminary tape and set of deconversion reports no more than two weeks prior to the Effective Time. TS Bancorp shall also arrange the delivery to Zions at the main office of Zions (or at such other location as has been designated in writing by Zions no later than five business days before the Effective Time) no later than 6:00 a.m. Mountain time on the day immediately following the Effective Time, two duplicate final data processing conversion file packages and deconversion reports in an industry standard format.

Zions, NBA, TS Bancorp, TS Bank, and their respective subsidiaries shall use all information that each obtains from the other pursuant to this Agreement solely for the effectuation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or for other purposes consistent with the intent of this Agreement. Neither Zions, NBA, TS Bancorp, TS Bank, nor their respective subsidiaries shall use any of such information for any other purpose, including the competitive detriment of any other Party. Zions and NBA, on the one hand, and TS Bancorp and TS Bank, on the other hand, shall maintain as strictly confidential all information each of them learns from the other and shall, at any time after termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, upon the request of the other, return promptly to it all documentation provided by it or made available to third parties. Each of the Parties may disclose such information to its respective affiliates, counsel, accountants, tax advisors, and consultants, provided that such parties are advised of the confidential nature of such information and agree to be bound by the terms of this section 14.04. The confidentiality agreement contained in this section 14.04 shall remain operative and in full force and effect, and shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 14.05 Information for Applications and Registration Statement.

(a) Each Party represents and warrants that all information concerning it that is included in any statement and application (including the Registration Statement) made to any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall not, with respect to such Party, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Party so representing and warranting will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other, each of its directors and officers, each underwriter and each Person, if any, who controls the other within the meaning of the Securities Act, for, from and against any and all losses, claims, suits, damages, expenses, or liabilities to which any of them may become subject under applicable laws (including the Securities Act and the Exchange Act) and rules and regulations thereunder and will reimburse them for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with investigating or defending any actions whether or not resulting in liability, insofar as such losses, claims, damages, expenses, liabilities, or actions arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any such application or statement or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein, or necessary in order to make the statements therein not misleading, but only insofar as any such statement or omission was made in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished in writing by the representing and warranting Party expressly for use therein. Each Party agrees at any time upon the request of the other to furnish to the other a written letter or statement confirming the accuracy of the information contained in any proxy statement, information statement, registration statement, report, or other application or statement, and confirming that the information contained in such document was furnished expressly for use therein or, if such is not the case, indicating the inaccuracies contained in such document or draft or indicating the information not furnished expressly for use therein. The indemnity agreement contained in this section 14.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect, regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of any of the other Parties, and shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

(b) In order to provide for just and equitable contribution in circumstances in which the indemnity agreement contained in section 14.05(a) of this Agreement is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable as to any or every Party, then the Parties in such circumstances shall contribute to the aggregate losses, claims, damages and liabilities (including any investigation, legal and other expenses incurred in connection with, and any amounts paid in settlement of, any action, suit or proceeding or any claims asserted) to which any Party may be subject in such proportion as the court of law determines based on the relative fault of the Parties.

Section 14.06 Changes to Transaction Structure. Zions may at any time change the method of effecting the Holding Company Merger (including by providing for the merger of TS Bancorp and a wholly owned subsidiary of Zions) or the method of effecting the Bank Merger (including by providing for the conversion of TS Bank into a national banking association and the merger of such converted association and NBA) if requested by Zions and consented to by TS Bancorp (which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld); provided, however, that no such change shall (a) change the amount or kind of merger consideration provided in this Agreement, (b) adversely affect the tax treatment of the Merger with respect to the stockholders of TS Bancorp, or (c) substantially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 14.07 Adjustments for Certain Events. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, all prices per share, share amounts, per-share amounts, and exchange ratios referred to in this Agreement shall be appropriately adjusted to account for stock dividends, for split-ups, and for reclassifications that are caused by mergers, recapitalizations, combinations, conversions, exchanges of shares or the like, but not for issuances of stock other than in connection with the foregoing and not for normal and recurring cash dividends declared or paid in a manner consistent with the established practice of the payer or for the dividend addressed in section 8.08(b).

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts each of which shall be deemed to constitute an original, but such counterparts together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument and to become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the Parties. Section 14.10 Entire Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to their commitments to one another and their undertakings vis-à-vis one another on the subject matter of this Agreement. Any previous agreements or understandings among the Parties regarding the subject matter of this Agreement are merged into and superseded by this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement express or implied is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or to give any Person, other than Zions, NBA, TS Bancorp, TS Bank, and their respective shareholders any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 14.11 Survival of Representations, Warranties, and Covenants. The respective representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements contained in this Agreement will not survive the Effective Time other than sections 2.05, 10.05, and this article 14 which shall survive the Effective Time. Each Party shall be deemed to have relied upon each and every representation and warranty of the other Parties regardless of any investigation heretofore or hereafter made by or on behalf of such Party.

Section 14.12 Notices. All notices, consents, waivers, or other communications that are required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and deemed to have been duly given if delivered personally or by messenger, transmitted by telex or telegram, by express courier, or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid. In consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained and subject to the terms and conditions of this Plan, the parties hereto hereby covenant and agree as follows:

- (e) The Surviving Corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the Constituent Corporations; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against either of the Constituent Corporations may be prosecuted as if the Merger had not taken place, or the Surviving Corporation may be substituted in its place. The Surviving Corporation expressly assumes and agrees to perform all of TS Bancorp's liabilities and obligations. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of either Constituent Corporation shall be impaired by the Merger.
- (f) Any taxes, penalties, and public accounts of the State of Utah and the State of Arizona, claimed against either of the Constituent Corporations but not settled, assessed, or determined prior to the Merger shall be settled, assessed, or determined against the Surviving Corporation and, together with interest thereon, shall be a lien against the franchises and property, both real and personal, of the Surviving Corporation.

3825 Stockton Hill Road
Kingman, Arizona 86402-3879

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that The Stockmen's Bancorp, Inc., an Arizona corporation ("Stockmen's Bancorp"), and its wholly owned subsidiary, The Stockmen's Bank, an Arizona banking corporation ("Stockmen's Bank"), on the one hand, and Zions Bancorporation, a Utah corporation ("Zions"), and its wholly owned subsidiary, National Bank of Arizona, a national banking association ("National Bank"), on the other hand, are about to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the "Plan"), to be dated on or about September 6, 2006, and certain other agreements as provided for in the Plan, including the Holding Company Merger Agreement (such other agreements are collectively, the "Transaction Agreements"; together with the Plan, the "Agreement"), pursuant to which Stockmen's Bancorp will merge with and into Zions Bancorporation (the "Merger"). In connection with the Merger, subject to certain adjustments and except as provided for in the Agreement, the shares of the authorized capital stock of Stockmen's Bancorp ("Capital Stock"), shall, in the aggregate, be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of common stock, without par value, of Zions ("Zions Common Stock") with a value (established in accordance with the Agreement) of Two Hundred Ten Million Dollars ($210,000,000) (collectively, the "Merger Consideration"). In connection with the Merger and the Agreement, you have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of Capital Stock of Stockmen's Bancorp.

Hovde Financial, Inc. ("Hovde"), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bidding, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

We were retained by Stockmen's Bancorp to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Agreement and the Merger. We will receive compensation from Stockmen's Bancorp in connection with our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Additionally, Stockmen's Bancorp has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed the Agreement and all attachments thereto;
- (ii) reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning Stockmen's Bancorp and Zions;
- (iii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Stockmen's Bancorp;

Table of Contents

(iv) held discussions with representatives of Stockmen's Bancorp and Zions for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of Stockmen's Bancorp and Zions;

(v) reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of Zions Common Stock;

(vi) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks and bank holding companies that we considered relevant;

(vii) evaluated the pro forma ownership of Zions Common Stock by the holders of Capital Stock of Stockmen's Bancorp relative to the pro forma contribution of Stockmen's Bancorp's assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the combined company;

(viii) analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and

(ix) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We also took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by Stockmen's Bancorp and Zions and in the discussions with the managements of Stockmen's Bancorp and Zions. In that regard, we have assumed that the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the Synergies and projections regarding under-performing and nonperforming assets and net charge-offs have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates of Stockmen's Bancorp and Zions and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances made by the subsidiaries Stockmen's Bancorp and Zions are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. We were not retained to and did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of Stockmen's Bancorp or Zions or their respective subsidiaries. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Stockmen's Bancorp, Zions or any of their respective subsidiaries and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have further assumed that the Merger will be accounted for as tax free reorganization under generally accepted accounting principles. We have assumed that the Merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to Stockmen's Bancorp, Zions and their subsidiaries. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger and we have further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals, no restriction will be imposed on Zions or the surviving corporations that would have a material adverse effect on the surviving corporations or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. We have also assumed that no change in applicable law or regulation would occur that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of Zions or any of the surviving corporations after the Merger.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us and the economic, market and other circumstances, as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof, except as otherwise agreed in our engagement letter.

We are not expressing any opinion herein as to the prices at which Zions Common Stock issued in the Merger may trade if and when they are issued or at any future time, nor does our opinion constitute a recommendation to any holder of Capital Stock of Stockmen's Bancorp as to how such holder should vote with respect to the Agreement at any meeting of holders of the Capital Stock of Stockmen's Bancorp.

This letter is solely for the information of the Board of Directors of Stockmen's Bancorp and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose, nor is it to be filed with, included in or referred to in whole or in part in any registration statement, proxy statement or any other document, except in each case in accordance with our prior written consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that we hereby consent to the inclusion and reference to this letter in any registration statement, proxy statement, information statement or tender offer document to be delivered to the holders of Capital Stock of Stockmen's Bancorp in connection with the Merger if and only if this letter is quoted in full or attached as an exhibit to such document and this letter has not been withdrawn prior to the date of such document.

Subject to the foregoing and based on our experience as investment bankers, our activities and assumptions as described above, and other factors we have deemed relevant, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of Capital Stock of Stockmen's Bancorp pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view.

Sincerely,

/s/ Hovde Financial, Inc.

5. "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under the circumstances.
6. "Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

3. Consummation of a sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to a court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale.

4. An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it either:

(a) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares.

(b) Creates, alters or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares.

(c) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities.

(e) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under section 10-604.

5. Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, the bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

C. This section does not apply to the holders of shares of any class or series if the shares of the class or series are redeemable securities issued by a registered investment company as defined pursuant to the investment company act of 1940 (15 United States Code section 80a-1 through 80a-64).

10-1303. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners

A. A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the record shareholder's name only if the record shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the record shareholder dissents and the record shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

B. A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if both:

1. The beneficial shareholder submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights.

ARTICLE 3: JUDICIAL APPRAISAL OF SHARES

A. If a demand for payment under section 10-1328 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty days after receiving the payment demand and shall petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. B. The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the court in the county where a corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its known place of business is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a known place of business in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the known place of business of the domestic corporation was located.

C. The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares, and all parties shall be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by certified mail or by publication as provided by law or by the Arizona rules of civil procedure.

D. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection B of this section is plenary and exclusive. There is no right to trial by jury in any proceeding brought under this section. The court may appoint a master to have the powers and authorities as are conferred on masters by law, by the Arizona rules of civil procedure or by the order of appointment. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

E. Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment either:

1. For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of his shares plus interest exceeds the amount paid by the corporation.
2. For the fair value plus accrued interest of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under section 10-1327.

10-1331. Court costs and attorney fees

A. The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section 10-1330 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of any master appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court shall assess costs against all or some of the dissenters to the extent the court finds that the fair value does not materially exceed the amount offered by the corporation pursuant to sections 10-1325 and 10-1327 or that the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in demanding payment under section 10-1328.

B. The court may also assess the fees and expenses of attorneys and experts for the respective parties in amounts the court finds equitable either:

1. Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds that the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of article 2 of this chapter.

2. Against the dissenter and in favor of the corporation if the court finds that the fair value does not materially exceed the amount offered by the corporation pursuant to sections 10-1325 and 10-1327.

3. Against either the corporation or a dissenter in favor of any other party if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

C. If the court finds that the services of an attorney for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these attorneys reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.
