(Name of Company)

hereby file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, pursuant to Rule 2, their statement claiming exemption as holding companies from the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and submit the following information:

ITEM 1. Name, State of organization, location, and nature of business of Claimant and every subsidiary thereof, other than any exempt wholesale generator (EWG) or foreign utility company in which Claimant directly or indirectly holds an interest.

Vectren Corporation (Vectren or Claimant), an Indiana corporation, is an energy and applied technology holding company headquartered in Evansville, Indiana. Vectren was organized on June 10, 1999, solely for the purpose of effecting the merger of Indiana Energy, Inc. (Indiana Energy) and SIGCORP, Inc. (SIGCORP). On March 31, 2000, the merger of Indiana Energy with SIGCORP and into Vectren was consummated with a tax-free exchange of shares and has been accounted for as a pooling-of-interests in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 16 "Business Combinations." Vectren is a "holding company," as such term is defined by the Public Utility Holding Act of 1935 (the Act).

Utility Group Operations

Vectren Utility Holdings, Inc. (VUHI), an Indiana corporation, is a "subsidiary company" of Vectren and a "holding company" (as such terms are defined by the Act). VUHI is the intermediate holding company for Vectren's three operating public utilities: Indiana Gas Company, Inc. (Indiana Gas), formerly a wholly owned subsidiary of Indiana Energy, Southern Indiana Gas and Electric Company (SIGECO), formerly a wholly owned subsidiary of SIGCORP, and the Ohio operations (defined hereafter). VUHI's regulated subsidiaries serve approximately one million customers in Indiana and Ohio. VUHI also holds a 33% ownership interest

Edgar Filing: VECTREN CORP - Form U-3A-2

Indiana Gas, an Indiana and Ohio corporation, is a "subsidiary company" of VUHI and is also a "gas utility company" and a "public utility company" (as such terms are defined by the Act). Indiana Gas provides natural gas distribution and transportation services to a diversified customer base in 49 of Indiana's 92 counties. Indiana Gas also holds a 47% undivided ownership interest in the assets of the Ohio operations (see below).

SIGECO, an Indiana corporation, is a "subsidiary company" of VUHI and is also an "electric utility company," a "gas utility company," and a "public utility company" (as such terms are defined by the Act). SIGECO provides electric generation, transmission and distribution services to eight counties in southwestern Indiana, including Evansville, and participates in the wholesale power market. SIGECO also provides natural gas distribution and transportation services to ten counties in southwestern Indiana, including Evansville.

Both Indiana Gas and SIGECO do business as Vectren Energy Delivery of Indiana, Inc.

The Ohio operations, owned as a tenancy in common by Vectren Energy Delivery of Ohio, Inc. (VEDO), a wholly owned subsidiary, (53% ownership) and Indiana Gas (47% ownership), provide natural gas distribution and transportation services to 17 counties in west central Ohio, including counties surrounding Dayton. VEDO, an Ohio corporation, is a "subsidiary company" of VUHI (as such term is defined by the Act) and is the operator of the assets. VEDO is therefore a "gas utility company" and "public utility company," as such terms are defined in the Act.

Community, an Indiana corporation, is an unconsolidated affiliate of VUHI, but is a "subsidiary company" of VUHI as defined by the Act.
