Item 8.01. Other Events

On June 30, 2011, we issued a press release announcing that the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has accepted for filing our New Drug Application (NDA) for CORLUX, a glucocorticoid receptor type II (GR-II) antagonist, for the treatment of the manifestations of Cushing's Syndrome. The FDA has indicated that this application will receive a standard review and that the Prescription Drug User Fee Act (PDUFA) goal date for completion of its review is February 17, 2012.

The full text of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Statements made in this current report on Form 8-K, including the press release incorporated herein by reference, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements, including, for example, statements relating to the potential benefit of CORLUX for patients diagnosed with Cushing's Syndrome, commercialization plans for CORLUX for the treatment of Cushing's Syndrome, the timing of completion and outcome of FDA review of our NDA, our clinical development and research programs, the timing of introduction of CORLUX and future product candidates, including CORT 108297 and CORT 113083 and the ability to create value from CORLUX or other future product candidates. Forward-looking statements are subject to a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that might cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. For example, we cannot assure you with respect to the cost, rate of spending, completion or success of our clinical trials, of the timing of completion of the FDA's review of our NDA for CORLUX in Cushing's Syndrome, that the results of FDA's review will be favorable or that we will pursue further activities with respect to the development of CORLUX, CORT 108297, CORT 113083 or any of our other selective GR-II antagonists. These and other risk factors are set forth in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010 and subsequent SEC filings. We disclaim any intention or duty to update any forward-looking statement made in this current report on Form 8-K, including the press release incorporated herein by reference.
