Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

NOTE 1 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Consolidation:

The unaudited consolidated financial statements as of and for the three month period ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, include the accounts of Pelican Financial Inc. (Pelican Financial) and its wholly owned subsidiary Pelican National Bank (Pelican National). All references herein to Pelican Financial include the consolidated results of its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The Washtenaw Group (Washtenaw) is included in the 2003 financial statements as a discontinued operation (See Note 3).

Segment Information:

Pelican Financial's continuing operations include one primary segment, retail banking. The retail-banking segment involves attracting deposits from the general public and using such funds to originate and purchase existing consumer, commercial, commercial real estate, residential construction, and single-family residential mortgage loans, from its five bank branches. Pelican National's primary revenues are comprised of net interest income from loans and investments, service charges on deposit accounts and gain on sales of loans.

Stock Compensation:

Compensation expense under stock options is reported using the intrinsic value method. No stock-based compensation cost is reflected in net income, as all options granted had an exercise price equal to or greater than the market price of the underlying common stock at date of grant. The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if expense was measured using the fair value recognition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation.

Edgar Filing: PELICAN FINANCIAL INC - Form 10-Q

Due to the spin-off (see Note 3), options outstanding at December 31, 2003 included 10,735 options that were held by employees of Washtenaw. These options were cancelled during the first quarter of 2004 and replaced with options on stock of The Washtenaw Group. While employees and directors of Pelican Financial and Pelican National held the remaining options, the intrinsic value (market value per share, less option exercise price) of these options was significantly reduced by the effect of the spin-off. As a result of the spin-off, the number and exercise price of these options was modified in January 2004 to restore the options to substantially the same intrinsic value as existed at the date of the spin-off. Accordingly, the options outstanding at December 31, 2003 were replaced with 288,385 options at an exercise price of $3.45. Since the options were modified to offset the effect of the spin-off on the stock price per share, no compensation expense has been recognized for the modification.

NOTE 2 BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with instructions for Form 10-Q and, therefore, do not include information or footnotes necessary for a complete presentation of consolidated financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. However, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals, which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements have been included. The results of operations for the period ended March 31, 2004, are not necessarily indicative of the results which may be expected for the entire fiscal year or for any other period. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto for the year ended December 31, 2003 included in Pelican Financial's Form 10-K.

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current presentation.

NOTE 3 SPIN-OFF

On December 31, 2003, Pelican Financial, the former parent company of Washtenaw, distributed all of the outstanding shares of Washtenaw to the holders of Pelican Financial common stock on a share for share basis (based on Pelican Financial shareholders of record on December 22, 2003). Upon completion of the distribution on December 31, 2003, Washtenaw is no longer a subsidiary of Pelican Financial. The consolidated statements of income and consolidated statements of cash flows, include the activity of Washtenaw as a discontinued operation during 2003.

During the periods presented in the financial statements, Pelican Financial did not incur any expenses on behalf of Washtenaw and no allocation of parent company expenses has been reflected in discontinued operations.

Following the distribution certain individuals continue to serve as officers of both Washtenaw and Pelican Financial. Washtenaw pays their salaries and all other compensation, and Pelican Financial reimburses Washtenaw, as part of the transitional services agreement, for time spent on Pelican Financial matters. Prior to 2004, Pelican did not reimburse Washtenaw for these services. Beginning in 2004, officers and other employees providing services to both companies maintain records of their time spent on the affairs of each company as a basis for determining the reimbursements.

Item 2: Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Forward Looking Statements

Certain information in this Form 10-Q may constitute forward-looking information that involves risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those estimated. Persons are cautioned that such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to various factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those estimated. These factors include, but are not limited to, changes in general economic and market conditions, legislative and regulatory changes, monetary and fiscal policies of the federal government, demand for loan and deposit products and the development of an interest rate environment that adversely affects the interest rate spread or other income from Pelican Financial's investments and operations.

SPIN-OFF

On December 31, 2003, Pelican Financial distributed all of the outstanding shares of The Washtenaw Group, Inc. to the holders of Pelican Financial common stock on a share for share basis (based on Pelican Financial shareholders of record on December 22, 2003). Upon completion of the distribution on December 31, 2003, Washtenaw is no longer a subsidiary of Pelican Financial. Following the distribution certain individuals serve as officers of both Washtenaw and Pelican Financial. Washtenaw pays their salaries and all other compensation, and Pelican Financial reimburses Washtenaw, as part of a Transitional Services Agreement, for time spent on Pelican Financial matters. Prior to 2004, Pelican did not reimburse Washtenaw for these services. Beginning in 2004, officers and other employees providing services to both companies maintain records of their time spent on the affairs of each company as a basis for determining the reimbursements.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policy that has the greatest impact on the Pelican Financial's financial condition and results of operations and that requires the most judgment relates to the accounting for the allowance for loan losses. Pelican Financial's accounting policy for the allowance for loan losses has not changed since December 31, 2003 and the accounting policy is described more fully in the annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003.

EARNINGS PERFORMANCE

Pelican Financial reported a net loss from continuing operations of $160,000 for the quarter ended March 31, 2004 compared to net income of $268,000 for the quarter ended March 31, 2003. Basic and diluted earnings per share from continuing operations was $0.04 loss per share compared to $0.06 earnings per share for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003 respectively.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Net Interest Income

Net interest income was $1.5 million and $1.7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively. Net interest income decreased as a result of the decrease in the yield on interest-earning assets. This was due to the payoff of high interest rate loans being replaced with lower yielding securities. This was partially offset by a decrease in the cost of funds due to lower cost money market deposits replacing higher cost time deposits and other borrowings. In addition, the custodial deposits from Washtenaw negatively impacted net interest margin. While Pelican National was able to earn a positive spread and increase net interest income, the volatility in the balance of the accounts results in Pelican National investing these deposits primarily in federal funds sold.

Edgar Filing: PELICAN FINANCIAL INC - Form 10-Q

Interest rate spread			1.94%			2.55
Net interest income and net interest margin		$ 1,549	2.92%		$ 1,745	4.27

Net interest income represents the excess of income on interest-earning assets over interest expense on interest bearing liabilities. The principal interest-earning assets are federal funds sold, investment securities and loans receivable. Interest-bearing liabilities primarily consist of FHLB borrowings, time deposits, interest-bearing checking accounts (NOW accounts), savings, deposits and money market accounts. Funds attracted by these interest-bearing liabilities are invested in interest-earning assets. Accordingly, net interest income depends upon the volume of average interest-earning assets and average interest bearing liabilities and the interest rates earned or paid on them.

Noninterest Income

Edgar Filing: PELICAN FINANCIAL INC - Form 10-Q

Noninterest income for the three months ended March 31, 2004 was $101,000 compared to $186,000 for the same period in 2003, a decrease of $85,000 or 46%. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in gain on sale of securities of approximately $69,000; the decrease in gain on sale of loans of $15,000 and the $22,000 decrease in service charges on deposit accounts. This was offset by the increase in the net gain on foreclosed assets and other income of $21,000 that was the result of a gain on the sale of real estate owned. The decrease in the gain on sale of securities resulted from the reduction in the sale of securities for liquidity purposes. The decrease in gain on sales loans, net resulted from the reduction in the sales of marine loans during 2004. The decrease in service charges on deposit accounts resulted from a reduction in insufficient fund charges on checking accounts.

Noninterest Expense

Total noninterest expense for the three months ended March 31, 2004 was $1.8 million, compared to $1.4 million for the same period in 2003, an increase of approximately $400,000 or 29%. The increase is primarily related to the cost of employee compensation and benefits that increased $191,000; occupancy and equipment that increased $48,000; accounting and auditing that increased $39,000 and other expenses that increased $101,000. The increases were due primarily to the increase in number of employees and branches. These employees were to staff the new branch in Fort Myers, Florida and existing branches as well as to increase the loan sales and operations staff. The accounting and auditing increase was due to additional internal audit work performed as a result of the growth of the bank and external audit services provided related to the spin-off of Washtenaw.

BALANCE SHEET ANALYSIS

The following is a discussion of the consolidated balance sheet of Pelican Financial.

ASSETS

At March 31, 2004, total assets of Pelican Financial equaled $270.7 million compared to $221.5 million at December 31, 2003, an increase of $49.2 million or 22%. The increase is primarily due to the increase in cash and cash equivalents and securities available for sale.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents were $65.0 million at March 31, 2004 compared to $55.4 million at December 31, 2003. The increase of $9.6 million or 17% was primarily the result of a $26.4 million increase in deposits attributed to Washtenaw maintaining all of the investor accounts related to its servicing portfolio at Pelican National and an increase in money market account deposits resulting from a program Pelican National Bank began offering in August, 2003 that has raised the amount of core deposits at Pelican National. The balances at December 31, 2003 increased as loan payoffs from Washtenaw's servicing portfolio decreased. Due to the fluctuation in balances of these accounts, Pelican National typically invested the deposits in interest-bearing deposits and federal funds sold. These increases were partially offset by the use of cash to purchase securities available for sale.

Investment Securities

Pelican National primarily utilizes investments in securities for liquidity management and as a method of deploying excess funding not utilized for investment in loans. Pelican National has invested primarily in U. S. government and agency securities and U. S. government sponsored agency issued mortgage-backed securities. As required by SFAS No. 115, Pelican National classifies securities as held-to-maturity, available-for-sale, or trading. At March 31, 2004 and at December 31, 2003, all of the investment securities held in Pelican National's investment portfolio were classified as available for sale.

The following table contains information on the carrying value of Pelican National's investment portfolio at the dates indicated. At March 31, 2004, the market value of Pelican National's investment portfolio totaled $90.0 million. During the periods indicated and except as otherwise noted, Pelican National had no securities of a single issuer that exceeded 10% of stockholders' equity.

Loans Receivable

Total loans receivable were $109.8 million at March 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003. The consistent balance is the result of new loan production being offset by loan payoffs and principal reductions. New loan production for the three months ended March 31, 2004 was $12.1 million.

Asset Quality

Pelican Financial is exposed to certain credit risks related to the value of the collateral that secures loans held in its portfolio and the ability of borrowers to repay their loans during the term thereof. Pelican Financial's senior officers closely monitor the loan and real estate owned portfolios for potential problems on a continuing basis and report to the Board of Directors of Pelican Financial at regularly scheduled meetings. These officers regularly review the classification of loans and the allowance for losses. Pelican Financial also has a quality control department, the function of which is to provide the Board of Directors with an independent ongoing review and evaluation of the quality of the process by which lending assets are generated.

The following table sets forth certain information on nonperforming loans and other real estate owned, the ratio of such loans and other real estate owned to total loans and total assets as of the dates indicated.

Provision and Allowance for Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses as of March 31, 2004 was $1.4 million, or 1.30% of total portfolio loans, compared to $1.3 million, or 1.20% of total loans at December 31, 2003. Our allowance for loan losses is maintained at a level management considers appropriate based upon our regular, quarterly assessments of the probable estimated losses inherent in the loan portfolio. Our methodology for measuring the appropriate level of allowance relies on several key elements, which include specific allowances for identified problem loans, general allocations for graded loans, and general allocations based on historical trends for pools of similar un-graded loans.

Specific allowances are established in cases where senior credit management has identified significant conditions or circumstances related to an individual credit that we believe indicates the loan is impaired. The specific allowance is determined by methods prescribed by SFAS No. 114, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan .

A general allocation on commercial and commercial real estate loans not considered impaired is calculated by applying loss factors to outstanding loans based on the internal risk grade of such loans. Loans are assigned a loss allocation factor for each loan classification category. The lower the grading assigned to a loan category, the greater the allocation percentage that is applied. Changes in risk grade of both performing and nonperforming loans affect the amount of the allocation. Loss factors are based on our loss experience and may be adjusted for significant factors that, in management's judgment, affect the collectibility of the portfolio as of the analysis date.

Groups of homogeneous loans, such as residential real estate and consumer loans, receive an allowance allocation based on loss trends. We use historical loss trends based on our experience in determining an adequate allowance for these pools of loans. General economic and business conditions, credit quality trends, seasoning of the portfolios and recent loss experience are conditions considered in connection with allocation factors for these similar pools of loans.

During the three months ended March 31, 2004 the allowance for loan losses increased by $115,000. The increase in the allowance was deemed necessary due to an increase in non-performing loans, loans on the banks' watch list and an increase in the allowance allocation on the marine lending portfolio and second mortgage loans. Net recoveries for the three months ended March 31, 2004 totaled $40,160 as compared to charge-offs of $95,866 for the same period in 2003.

LIABILITIES

At March 31, 2004, the total liabilities of Pelican Financial were $253.6 million as compared to $204.6 million at December 31, 2003, an increase of $49.0 million or 24%. This increase was primarily due to an increase in deposits.

Deposits

Total deposits were $241.0 million at March 31, 2004 compared to $191.9 million at December 31, 2003, representing an increase of $49.1 million or 26%. The increase was the result of a focus on developing new deposit relationships with customers. This was achieved by maintaining the yield paid on its money market account to one of the highest in the local market area. This resulted in an increase in core deposits of approximately $24 million. Also, Washtenaw's deposits attributable to its servicing portfolio increased by approximately $26 million due to increased loan payoffs. The loan payoffs are remitted to Washtenaw's investors within five business days in the subsequent month. This was offset by a reduction of approximately $2 million in certificate of deposits obtained from brokers and the Internet. Pelican National is attempting to reduce the reliance on this source of funds in the future and currently is allowing all certificates of deposits obtained in this manner to mature without replacing the funds. At March 31, 2004, there were $8.1 million in deposits obtained from brokers and the Internet.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Liquidity Management

The objective of liquidity management is to ensure the availability of sufficient resources to meet all financial commitments and to capitalize on opportunities for business expansion. Liquidity management addresses the ability to meet deposit withdrawals either on demand or by contractual maturity, to repay other borrowings as they mature and to make new loans and investments as opportunities arise.

Edgar Filing: PELICAN FINANCIAL INC - Form 10-Q

Pelican Financial's source of funds is dividends paid by Pelican National. Pelican National's sources of funds include net increases in deposits, principal and interest payments on loans, proceeds from sales of loans held for sale, proceeds from maturities and sales of securities, calls of available for sale securities and Federal Home Loan Bank borrowings.

The liquidity reserve may consist of cash on hand, cash on demand deposits with other correspondent banks, and other investments and short-term marketable securities as determined by the rules of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), such as federal funds sold and United States securities and securities guaranteed by the United States. At March 31, 2004, Pelican National had a liquidity ratio of 60%. This is calculated by adding all of Pelican National's cash, unpledged securities and federal funds sold and dividing by its total liabilities. Pelican National has available to it several contingent sources of funding. These include the ability to raise funds through brokered deposits, lines of credit and the sale of loans or participations.

Capital Resources

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System's (FRB) capital adequacy guidelines mandate that minimum ratios be maintained by bank holding companies such as Pelican Financial. Pelican National is governed by capital adequacy guidelines mandated by the OCC.

Based upon their respective regulatory capital ratios at March 31, 2004 Pelican Financial and Pelican National are both well capitalized, based upon the definitions in the regulations issued by the FRB and the OCC setting forth the general capital requirements mandated by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991.

The table below indicates the regulatory capital ratios of Pelican Financial and Pelican National and the regulatory categories for a well capitalized and adequately capitalized bank under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action (all three capital ratios) at March 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, respectively:

	March 31, 2004		December 31, 2003		Required to be

Total Equity Capital to risk-weighted assets	13.17%	14.84%	13.66%	15.50%	8.00%	10.00%
Tier 1 Capital to risk-weighted assets	11.98%	13.66%	12.51%	14.36%	4.00%	6.00%
Tier 1 Capital to adjusted total assets	6.49%	7.42%	7.20%	7.96%	4.00%	5.00%

Item 3: Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure About Market Risk

For a discussion of Pelican Financial's asset/liability management policies as well as the potential impact of interest rate changes upon the market value of Pelican Financial's portfolio, see Pelican Financial's Annual Report to Shareholders and Form 10-K. Management believes that there has been no material change in Pelican Financial's asset/liability position or the market value of Pelican Financial's portfolio since December 31, 2003.

Item 4: Controls and Procedures

Pelican Financial, under the supervision and with the participation of its management, including its principal executive officer and principal financial officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of its disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on this evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that Pelican Financial's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in reaching a reasonable level of assurance that information required to be disclosed by Pelican Financial in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time period specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms.

The principal executive officer and principal financial officer also conducted an evaluation of internal control over financial reporting (Internal Control) to determine whether any changes in Internal Control occurred during the fiscal quarter that have materially affected or which are reasonably likely to materially affect Internal Control. Based on that evaluation, there has been no such change during the quarter covered by this report.

A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within Pelican Financial have been detected. Because of the inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Pelican Financial conducts periodic evaluations to enhance, where necessary its procedures and controls.
