Amcor News Release
For release: Monday, May 1, 2006
CUSTOM PET EXPANSION IN NORTH AMERICA
Amcor announces that its PET Packaging operation in North America is constructing a new custom PET blowmolding plant, dedicated to the supply of PepsiCo heat set containers, primarily for the Gatorade product.
The plant will be located in Wytheville, Virginia, adjacent to a recently constructed PepsiCo facility. Amcor s new blowmolding operation is scheduled to be in production by March 2007 with an initial annual capacity in excess of one billion units. The overall project cost is US$80 million.
Amcor s Managing Director and CEO, Mr Ken MacKenzie said: This project is a strong fit with our stated strategy of investing in the custom PET sector. Amcor brings excellent technology to the fast growing hot filled beverage segment.
This is a world class, large scale plant co-located with a customer who is a leader in this market segment. The plant s profitability is underpinned by a long term agreement that reflects the value this new operation provides to both Amcor and our customer.
