Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 15, 2006 the Company entered into (i) a $125 Million Senior Secured Term Loan Agreement with KeyBank National Association, as a lender and agent for the numerous other lenders named therein (the Term Loan); and (ii) $100 Million Senior Secured Revolving Credit Agreement with KeyBank National Association, as a lender and agent for the numerous other lenders named therein the Revolving Loan , (collectively with the Term Loan being defined herein as the Loans). The Term Loan matures on September 15, 2011, and the Revolving Loan matures on September 15, 2009.

The Loans contain financial covenants, including the following:

- a covenant that requires us to maintain consolidated tangible net worth for any fiscal quarter of not less than the sum of (i) $100,000,000, plus (ii) an amount equal to 100% of any net equity proceeds during such fiscal quarter, plus (iii) twenty-five percent (25%) of our net income as of each fiscal quarter test date, as earned subsequent to December 31, 2006; provided that this consolidated tangible net worth requirement at any given time shall not require us to maintain tangible net worth in excess of $125,000,000 plus the amount set forth at (ii) above;
- a leverage covenant that prohibits our total leverage ratio (i.e. total liabilities/net worth) from exceeding the following amounts: 2.75 to 1.00 prior to March 31, 2008; 2.50:1 on or after March 31, 2008 until June 30, 2008; and thereafter 2.25:1 at all times;
- a covenant for us to maintain on a rolling four quarters basis (i) commencing as of March 31, 2008, a minimum ratio of EBITDA to interest incurred equal to or greater than 1.00:1.00; (ii) commencing as of June 30, 2008 a minimum ratio at all times of EBITDA to interest incurred in an amount equal to or greater than 2.00:1; (iii) commencing as of December 31, 2008 and for each fiscal quarter thereafter, a minimum ratio at all times of EBITDA to interest incurred in an amount equal to or greater then 2.50:1.
- a covenant that requires us at all times to maintain a maximum indebtedness to project value ratio of less than 65% for the combined Term Loan and Revolving Loan and requires our Signal Landmark subsidiary to at all times maintain a Revolving Loan indebtedness to value ratio of less than 50%.

The facility also limits, among other things, the number of speculative (unsold) and model homes we can build at our Brightwater project, our investments in joint ventures, the amount of dividends we can pay and the amount of our common stock we can repurchase. These covenants, as well as a borrowing base provision, limit the amount we may borrow or keep outstanding under the Revolving Loan and from other sources.

Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information

The following unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of California Coastal Communities, Inc. (the Company) as of June 30, 2006 gives effect to the debt financing and payment of a special dividend. On September 15, 2006, the Company obtained debt financing of $225 million from a bank syndicate arranged by KeyBank. A $125 million five-year, senior secured term loan (Term Loan) was obtained to finance the distribution of a special dividend of $12.50 per share. The Term Loan is secured by a second trust deed on the 105-acre Bolsa Chica mesa and a pledge of the stock of the Company's material subsidiaries, including the subsidiary that owns the Bolsa Chica mesa. The Company also obtained a $100 million three-year, Senior Secured Revolving Credit Agreement (Revolving Loan) to finance development and construction costs for the Company's 356-home Brightwater project on the Bolsa Chica mesa. The Revolving Loan is secured by a first trust deed on the Bolsa Chica mesa and stock pledges of the Company's material subsidiaries. The Term Loan and the Revolving Loan each include financial covenants that require the Company to, among other requirements, meet compliance tests for budgeted Brightwater revenue and cost amounts, maintain an interest reserve, maintain a minimum net worth of $100 million plus 25% of future earnings, and not exceed certain leverage ratios. One of the Term Loan covenants requires that the loan-to-value of the combined Term Loan and the Revolving Loan be no more than 65% of the value of the Brightwater project. The value of the Brightwater project was determined by an independent appraisal of the project on an as-is basis, which was $302 million as of July 6, 2006. This appraisal reflects substantial value in excess of the book value of approximately $142 million as of June 30, 2006. The Term Loan bears interest at the Company's option at either Libor plus 275 basis points or Prime plus 25 basis points, and the Revolving Loan bears interest at the Company's option at either Libor plus 200 basis points or Prime minus 25 basis points. A special dividend of $12.50 per share to the holders of the Company's common stock has been declared and is payable on September 28, 2006 to holders of record on September 25, 2006.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet gives effect to the debt financing and payment of the special dividend as if they had occurred on June 30, 2006. Such unaudited pro forma financial information is based in part upon the unaudited financial statements of the Company as of June 30, 2006 included in the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the six months ended

Edgar Filing: CALIFORNIA COASTAL COMMUNITIES INC - Form 8-K

June 30, 2006. No unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the six months ended June 30, 2006 have been presented since there is no material effect on the statement of operations from the debt financing and payment of a special dividend, given that the pro forma interest incurred would have been capitalized to real estate inventories. The Company believes the presentation of unaudited pro forma consolidated income statements would provide no additional meaningful information.

The effects of options exercised by officers and employees in the third quarter 2006 to purchase 679,996 shares of common stock have not been reflected in the pro forma financial statements. These transactions increased stockholders' equity subsequent to June 30, 2006 by $9.6 million, including $3.1 million in cash and approximately $6.5 million from the tax benefit attributed to these options. The option exercises increased the Company's number of common shares issued and outstanding by 679,996 to 10,852,708.

The pro forma information presented is for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the financial position that would have been achieved if the debt financing and payment of a special dividend had occurred at the beginning of the period, nor is it indicative of future operating results or financial position. In the opinion of management, all material adjustments necessary to present fairly such unaudited pro forma financial information have been made.
