Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Articles of Organization of the Company provide for the Company's indemnification of directors against all expenses and liabilities reasonably incurred by or imposed upon a director in connection with any proceeding or threatened proceeding in which the director may become involved by reason of his being or having been a director of the Company, so long as the director acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company (and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, the director had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful) or he otherwise engaged in conduct for which he cannot be liable under the provisions of the Articles of Organization described below in the third paragraph of this Item 6.

The By-laws of the Company further provide for the indemnification of each director, officer and employee (the latter subject to the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors) against all expenses and liabilities reasonably incurred by or imposed on such person in connection with any proceeding or threatened proceeding in which such person may become involved by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any affiliate of the Company or any other entity at the request or direction of the Company's Board of Directors, so long as such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company (and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, such person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful). The By-laws of the Company also provide for the following: (a) if the Company is merged into or consolidated with another corporation and the Company is not the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation shall assume the indemnification obligations of the Company under the By-laws with respect to any action, suit, proceeding or investigation arising out of or relating to any actions, transactions or facts occurring at or prior to the date of such merger or consolidation; (b) if the By-laws are invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify and advance expenses to each indemnitee as to any expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, liabilities, losses, and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, including an action by or in the right of the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by any applicable portion of the By-laws that has not been invalidated and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law; and (c) if the Massachusetts General Laws are amended after adoption of the Company's By-laws to expand further the indemnification permitted to an indemnitee, the Company shall indemnify all such persons to the fullest extent permitted by the Massachusetts General Laws, as so amended.

The Articles of Organization of the Company provide that directors shall not be personally liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for any improper distributions under Massachusetts law, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Massachusetts Business Corporation Act requires that a corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, such as the Company, indemnify any director who is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any proceeding to which he was a party because he was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

(a) The Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act );

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (i) and (ii) above shall not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering; and

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the Registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the Registrant pursuant to this Registration Statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer and sell such securities to such purchaser:

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the Registrant's Articles of Organization and By-laws, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
