Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) On March 2, 2010, Adrian T. Dillon, informed Agilent Technologies, Inc. (Agilent) that he would resign from his position as Agilent s Executive Vice President, Finance and Administration, Chief Financial Officer, effective April 1, 2010.

(c) On March 3, 2010, Agilent announced that Didier Hirsch, who currently serves as Vice President, Corporate Controllershship and Tax and Chief Accounting Officer, was appointed to serve as the interim Chief Financial Officer of Agilent, effective as of April 1, 2010. As such, Mr. Hirsch will become Agilent s principal financial officer (and will continue to serve as Agilent s principal accounting officer) as of that date. Mr. Hirsch, 58, has served as our Vice President, Corporate Controllershship and Tax since November 2006 and as our chief accounting officer since November 2007. From April 2003 to October 2006, Mr. Hirsch served as Agilent s Vice President and Controller. Prior to assuming that position, Mr. Hirsch served as Agilent s Vice President and Treasurer from September 1999 to April 2003.

A copy of the press release announcing the resignation of Mr. Dillon and the appointment of Mr. Hirsch as interim Chief Financial Officer is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

(e) Separately, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Agilent previously approved, subject to shareholder approval, the Performance-Based Compensation Plan for Covered Employees (the Performance Plan), that would (1) Increase the number of performance goals available under the Performance-Based Compensation Plan, (2) Give the compensation committee greater flexibility with respect to establishing performance periods of up to a maximum of (36) months using any one or more of the performance goals instead of restricting the performance periods to six-month periods as currently provided under the Performance-Based Compensation Plan; and (3) Modify the maximum per participant award limitation from the current maximum of $1,500,000 during each 6-month performance period to a proposed maximum of $10,000,000 with respect to any 12-month performance cycle. Agilent s shareholders approved the Performance Plan at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held at 10:00 a.m. on March 2, 2010 (the Annual Meeting).

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

At the Annual Meeting, Proposals No. 1, 2 and 3 were approved by the shareholders. The proposals are described in detail in the Company s definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 19, 2010.

Proposal No.1 The proposal to elect two (2) directors for a term of three years. The individuals listed below received the highest number of affirmative votes of the outstanding shares of the Company s common stock present or represented by proxy and voting at the Annual Meeting, in each case constituting a majority of the total outstanding shares, and were elected at the Annual Meeting to serve a three-year term.
