Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Underwriting Agreement

On June 6, 2012, Kinder Morgan, Inc. (the Corporation) entered into an Underwriting Agreement (the Underwriting Agreement) among the Corporation, the selling stockholders listed on Schedule II to the Underwriting Agreement (the Selling Stockholders) and Barclays Capital Inc., as underwriter (the Underwriter), with respect to the sale by the Selling Stockholders of an aggregate of 63,000,000 shares of Class P common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Shares). The Shares sold pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement were registered under the Corporation's registration statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-179812), which became automatically effective on March 1, 2012. The closing of the sale of the Shares occurred on June 11, 2012.

The net proceeds to the Selling Stockholders from the sale of the Shares, after deducting the underwriting discounts, were approximately $1,998.99 million. Neither the Corporation nor the Corporation's management sold any shares of common stock in the offering, and the Corporation did not receive any of the proceeds from the offering of the Shares by the Selling Stockholders.

The Underwriting Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants by the Corporation and the Selling Stockholders. It also provides for customary indemnification by each of the Corporation, the Selling Stockholders and the Underwriter against certain liabilities arising out of or in connection with sale of the Shares and for customary contribution provisions in respect of those liabilities.

The foregoing summary of the material terms of the Underwriting Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereby is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Underwriting Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

The Underwriting Agreement has been filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Corporation. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Underwriting Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Underwriting Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Underwriting Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Underwriting Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Corporation's public disclosures.

The Underwriter and its affiliates have provided and in the future may continue to provide various financial advisory, cash management, investment banking, commercial banking and other financial services, including the provision of credit facilities, to the Corporation in the ordinary course of business for which they have received and will continue to receive customary compensation.
