Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 23, 2012, Nick Deeming resigned as Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Assistant Corporate Secretary of Transocean Ltd. (Transocean or the Company).

In connection with his separation, Mr. Deeming entered into an agreement (the Separation Agreement) with the Company pursuant to which Mr. Deeming resigned as an officer of the Company effective October 23, 2012. Mr. Deeming will receive a lump sum severance payment of CHF 644,375 and reimbursement for reasonable and documented repatriation costs for Mr. Deeming and his qualified dependents. Upon his execution of a waiver and release, (1) Mr. Deeming will also receive his target 2012 award under the Performance Award and Cash Bonus Plan, prorated for the number of days of his employment during 2012; (2) Mr. Deeming will receive the shares subject to his time-vested restricted units; (3) Mr. Deeming's option awards that are vested as of the separation date will be exercisable until October 23, 2013; (4) Mr. Deeming's contingent deferred units will be treated under the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan as if he was terminated for the convenience of the Company as of the separation date; and (5) Mr. Deeming will continue to receive his housing and car allowance through March 1, 2013.

The original terms of Mr. Deeming's employment contemplated that Mr. Deeming, a citizen of the United Kingdom (UK), would relocate to the Company's principal executive offices in Switzerland and become a Swiss resident for tax purposes and be responsible for all Swiss taxes on regular earnings from the Company (base salary, management bonus and equity compensation), with the Company being responsible for Swiss tax liability on all other income from the Company and any Swiss wealth taxes.

Following his relocation to the Company's principal executive offices, however, Mr. Deeming remained a UK resident for tax purposes and was therefore subject to taxation on his income from the Company in both Switzerland and the UK. In recognition of this increased tax burden, Mr. Deeming received modified tax reimbursement treatment for the 2010/2011 and 2011/2012 UK tax years. For the 2010/2011 UK tax year, Mr. Deeming paid his Swiss tax liability on all regular earnings and he received a credit against his UK tax liability equal to the Swiss taxes paid; the Company paid the additional UK tax liability, in excess of the credit, on all of Mr. Deeming's income from the Company. In addition, the Company reimbursed Mr. Deeming in the amount of CHF 89,352, representing a partial payment of estimated UK taxes due for the 2011/2012 UK tax year. The remaining amount of his UK taxes due for the 2011/2012 UK tax year cannot be formalized until the finalization of his 2011/2012 UK tax filing. In addition, the Separation Agreement contemplates this modified tax reimbursement treatment on all payments pursuant to the Separation Agreement.

The Separation Agreement contains non-solicitation and non-disparagement provisions and a waiver and release.

The foregoing description of the Separation Agreement is not complete and is qualified by reference to the complete document, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
