3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

BPY intends to finance the cash portion of the Offer (as defined below) through an acquisition facility with a syndicate of banks. On February 4, 2014, BPY received a debt commitment letter (the Debt Commitment Letter) from The Toronto-Dominion Bank, as agent, and The Toronto-Dominion Bank, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Citibank N.A., Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch, HSBC Bank Canada and Royal Bank of Canada (collectively, the Lenders) to provide, severally and not jointly, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Debt Commitment Letter, for unsecured credit facilities of up to $2.5 billion in the aggregate consisting of a $1.5 billion term acquisition credit facility to fund the Offer and any compulsory acquisition or subsequent acquisition transaction and a $1 billion revolving facility to be used to replace the existing revolving credit facilities of BPY, to fund a portion of the additional cash required to complete the Offer and any compulsory acquisition or subsequent acquisition transaction up to a limit of $365,508,000 and for general corporate and operating purposes. The Debt Commitment Letter is filed with this Schedule 13D as Exhibit 9 and is incorporated herein by reference. In order to refinance the facility, BPY will consider a number of alternatives, including asset sales, asset level debt financings and issuances of corporate debt, preferred stock and/or equity. Based on market conditions, BPY's current plan is to sell certain non-core assets and mature assets with a stabilized cash flow profile. In conjunction with the transaction, BAM and its affiliates have agreed to forego any equity enhancement distributions in respect of the acquisition facility.

See also Item 4 and Item 5.

4. Purpose of Transaction.

On February 12, 2014, BPY commenced an exchange offer to acquire any or all of the Common Shares of BPO that it does not currently own (the Offer). Under the terms of the Offer, each BPO shareholder can elect to receive consideration per BPO Common Share of either 1.0 limited partnership unit of BPY or $20.34 in cash, subject in each case to pro-rata based on a maximum number of BPY limited partnership units and maximum cash consideration equating to 67% and 33%, respectively, of the total number of BPO Common Shares subject to the Offer. BPO shareholders who receive limited partnership units should be able to do so on a tax-deferred basis. The board of directors of BPO (excluding interested directors) has unanimously recommended that BPO shareholders accept the Offer. The Offer is being made pursuant to an offer to purchase (the Offer to Purchase) contained in a registration statement on Form F-4 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) in connection with the Offer, and the registration statement has been declared effective by the SEC. The Offer to Purchase is filed with this Schedule 13D as Exhibit 2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

BPY currently beneficially owns 55.0% of the Common Shares, and together with its ownership of BPO preferred shares, owns a 57.7% voting interest in BPO. If sufficient Common Shares are tendered, BPY intends to acquire any Common Shares which remain outstanding following the tender offer through a compulsory acquisition or other statutory transaction on the same basis as the Offer. In this event, BPO public shareholders would own approximately 27% of the outstanding limited partnership units of BPY (including BAM's redeemable partnership units on a fully-exchanged basis).

Edgar Filing: Brookfield Office Properties Inc - Form SC 13D

The Offer is subject to customary conditions including, among other things, that BPY has determined, acting reasonably, that no material adverse effect exists or has occurred. The Offer does not include a minimum condition with respect to the number of Common Shares tendered, and BPY will acquire any or all of the Common Shares that are tendered to the Offer.

Under applicable Toronto Stock Exchange (the TSX ) rules, BPY is required to obtain majority unitholder approval for the Offer as the maximum number of units to be issued will exceed 25% of the total number of outstanding units. As BAM and its subsidiaries, which support the transaction, own an approximate 92% interest in BPY, on a fully exchanged basis, the TSX has accepted a written consent of BAM to satisfy this requirement and not require BPY to hold a unitholder meeting.

BPO's $330 million of senior unsecured notes and $2.2 billion of preferred stock will remain outstanding. If BPY acquires 100% of the Common Shares, BPY may consider (i) making an offer to the holders of BPO's outstanding Class AAA, Series G, H, J and K preferred shares that are convertible into Common Shares to exchange their shares for equivalent shares of another subsidiary of BPY, which would be exchangeable for units of BPY under certain conditions, (ii) redeeming such preferred shares or (iii) pursuing other alternatives.

If permitted by applicable laws, subsequent to the completion of the Offer, BPY intends to delist the Common Shares from the TSX and the New York Stock Exchange and to cause BPO to terminate its public reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Each of BAM, Partners, PVF, BPY and the BPY General Partner will review its investment in BPO on a regular basis and, as a result thereof, may at any time and from time to time determine to take any available course of action and may take any steps to implement any such course of action, which may involve one or more of the types of transaction specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Schedule 13D, each of BAM, Partners, PVF, BPY and the BPY General Partner specifically reserves the right to change its intentions with respect to any or all of such matters.

Other than as described or contemplated above, none of the Reporting Persons and, to the Reporting Persons' knowledge, the Scheduled Persons, has any current plans or proposals that relate to or would result in:

- (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of BPO, or the disposition of securities of BPO;
- (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving BPO or any of its subsidiaries;
- (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of BPO or any of its subsidiaries;
- (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of BPO, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board;
- (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of BPO;
- (f) any other material change in BPO's business or corporate structure;

(g) changes in BPO's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of BPO by any person;

(h) causing a class of securities of BPO to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association;

(i) a class of equity securities of BPO becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or

(j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

See Item 3 and Item 5. The information set forth in response to this Item 4 is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Offer to Purchase.
