NEWS RELEASE

BRIDGE FINANCING FOR IGT ACQUISITION FURTHER REDUCED TO $6.6 BILLION FROM ORIGINAL AMOUNT OF $10.7 BILLION

RESOLUTIONS WITH RESPECT TO 2018 AND 2020 GUARANTEED NOTES PASSED AT HOLDERS MEETINGS

ROME (ITALY) and PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND (U.S.) November 25, 2014 GTECH S.p.A. (GTECH) announced that in connection with the consent solicitation commenced by GTECH pursuant to the Consent Solicitation Memorandum dated October 23, 2014, the holders of the following series of guaranteed notes issued by GTECH:

1. EUR 500,000,000 5.375% Guaranteed Notes due 2018 (XS0564487568) (the 2018 Notes), and
2. EUR 500,000,000 3.500% Guaranteed Notes due 2020 (XS0860855930) (the 2020 Notes),

Edgar Filing: INTERNATIONAL GAME TECHNOLOGY - Form 425

passed, at separate meetings on November 24, 2014, the respective Extraordinary Resolution set out in the respective Notice of Meeting dated October 23, 2014, and thereby (i) approved the merger of GTECH with and into Georgia Worldwide PLC (the "Merger") as part of the acquisition of International Game Technology (NYSE: IGT) and certain steps which GTECH intends to implement in connection with the Merger (together, the "Transaction"), (ii) agreed that no put event will be deemed to occur as a result of, or in connection with, the Transaction, and (iii) waived any and all events of default, potential events of default and any other breach of the terms and conditions of the 2018 Notes and the 2020 Notes (as applicable) or the relevant trust deeds that have been, are or may be (within the period of 12 months after adoption of the Extraordinary Resolution) triggered by or in connection with the Transaction. Accordingly, the proposals referred to in the respective Extraordinary Resolution will be implemented as further described in the Notices of Meeting and the Consent Solicitation Memorandum.

Following adoption of the Extraordinary Resolutions, the commitment for GTECH's 364-day senior bridge term loan credit facility (the "Bridge Facility") for the financing of the acquisition of IGT has been further reduced by approximately $1.5 billion.

In addition, GTECH, together with Credit Suisse, Barclays and Citigroup (the joint lead arrangers of the Bridge Facility), entered into an amendment of the commitment letter for the Bridge Facility which reduces the Bridge Facility commitment by approximately $2.1 billion.

After giving effect to these reductions and the previously announced reduction of approximately $0.5 billion, the Bridge Facility commitment has been reduced from the original amount of approximately $10.7 billion to approximately $6.6 billion. The Bridge Facility commitment of each lender has been reduced pro-rata.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains forward-looking statements (including within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) concerning IGT, GTECH, Georgia Worldwide PLC (NewCo), the proposed transactions and other matters. These statements may discuss goals, intentions and expectations as to future plans, trends, events, results of operations or financial condition, or otherwise, based on current beliefs of the management of NewCo, IGT and GTECH as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to, such management. Forward-looking statements may be accompanied by words such as aim, anticipate, believe, plan, could, would, should, , continue , estimate, expect, forecast, future, guidance, intend, may, will, possible, potential, predict, project or the ne, them. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should any of the underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may differ materially from those predicted in GTECH s forward-looking statements and from past results, performance or achievements. These forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties, many of which are outside the parties control. Therefore, you should not place undue reliance on such statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include (but are not limited to) failure to obtain applicable regulatory or shareholder approvals in a timely manner or otherwise; failure to satisfy other closing conditions to the proposed transactions; risks that the new businesses will not be integrated successfully or that the combined companies will not realize estimated cost savings, value of certain tax assets, synergies and growth or that such benefits may take longer to realize than expected; failure to realize anticipated benefits of the combined operations; risks relating to unanticipated costs of integration; reductions in customer spending, a slowdown in customer payments and changes in customer demand for products and services; unanticipated changes relating to competitive factors in the industries in which the companies operate; ability to hire and retain key personnel; the potential impact of announcement or consummation of the proposed transactions on relationships with third parties, including customers, employees and competitors; ability to attract new customers and retain existing customers in the manner anticipated; reliance on and integration of information technology systems; changes in legislation or governmental regulations affecting the companies; international, national or local economic, social or political conditions that could adversely affect the companies or their customers; conditions in the credit markets; risks associated with assumptions the parties make in connection with the parties' critical accounting estimates and legal proceedings; and the parties' international operations, which are subject to the risks of currency fluctuations and foreign exchange controls. The foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. You should carefully consider the foregoing factors and the other risks and uncertainties that affect the parties' businesses, including those described in NewCo's Form F-4 and other documents filed from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and those described in GTECH's annual reports, registration documents and other documents filed from time to time with the Italian financial market regulator (CONSOB), as well as those included in IGT's Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. Except as required under applicable law, the parties do not assume any obligation to update these forward-looking statements. Nothing in this announcement is intended, or is to be construed, as a profit forecast or to be interpreted to mean that earnings per GTECH share or IGT share for the current or any future financial years or those of the combined group, will necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings per GTECH share or IGT share, as applicable. All forward-looking statements contained in this communication are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. All subsequent written or oral forward-looking statements attributable to GTECH, or persons acting on its behalf, are expressly qualified in its entirety by the cautionary statements contained throughout this communication. As a result of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements.
