Vale informs disbursement from its revolving credit lines

Rio de Janeiro, January 12, 2016 – Vale S.A. (Vale) informs a disbursement of US$ 3 billion from its US$ 5 billion revolving credit lines to increase liquidity and bridge potential cash flow needs until the conclusion of its divestment program, particularly the conclusion of the Coal transaction comprising Moatize and the Nacala Logistics Corridor. Some of the amount raised will cover the funds used to amortize bonds due in January 2016.

Vale is also working on long-term debt transactions to reduce the use of the Revolving Credit Lines while the Divestment Program is carried out. These transactions are expected to preserve Vale's average cost of debt.

This strategy is consistent with Vale's focus on liquidity management and cost of capital reduction.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future and not on historical facts, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
