For more information on the business to be transacted at the Annual Meeting, stockholders are strongly encouraged to read the definitive proxy statement filed by Qualcomm with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on January 5, 2018.

As set forth in the Original Notice, the Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on January 8, 2018 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and at any adjournment or postponement thereof. As a result, the record date remains the same for the adjourned Annual Meeting. If you have already voted, you do not need to vote again, unless you want to change your vote.

This notice is being sent pursuant to an Order issued by the President of the United States of America, dated March 12, 2018 (Presidential Order). The Presidential Order requires that this notice be provided to stockholders as soon as possible and that the Annual Meeting be held no later than 10 days following the date of this notice.

It is important that your shares be represented and voted at the Annual Meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, please vote as soon as possible by telephone or by Internet, or by signing, dating and returning the WHITE proxy card in the postage-paid envelope previously provided. Voting now will not limit your right to change your vote or to attend the Annual Meeting. If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record, you may vote in person at the Annual Meeting only if you obtain a legal proxy from such bank, broker or other holder of record.
