Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 6, 2018, Bemis Company, Inc. (Bemis) entered into a Transaction Agreement (the Agreement) with Amcor Limited, an Australian public company limited by shares (Amcor), Arctic Jersey Limited, a limited company incorporated under the Laws of the Bailiwick of Jersey and a subsidiary of Amcor (New Amcor), and Arctic Corp., a Missouri corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of New Amcor (Merger Sub).

The Agreement provides that (a) pursuant to a scheme of arrangement (the Scheme) each issued and outstanding ordinary share, no par value, of Amcor (the Amcor Shares) will be exchanged for one New Amcor CHESSE Depository Instrument (a CDI), with each CDI representing a beneficial ownership interest (but not legal title) in one ordinary share, par value £0.01, of New Amcor (a New Amcor Share) or, at the election of the holder of an Amcor Share, one New Amcor Share (collectively, the Scheme Consideration), and (b) as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter, Merger Sub shall merge with and into Bemis (the Merger), with Bemis surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of New Amcor, pursuant to which each share of common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of Bemis (the Bemis Shares), other than certain excluded shares, shall be converted into the right to receive 5.1 New Amcor Shares (collectively, the Transactions). Following the completion of the Transactions, former Amcor shareholders are expected to hold approximately 71% of New Amcor and former Bemis shareholders are expected to hold approximately 29% of New Amcor.

Completion of the Transactions is subject to customary closing conditions under the Agreement, including, among others: (i) approval by Amcor shareholders of the Scheme by the requisite majority under the Australian Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (the Australian Act), (ii) approval by Bemis shareholders of the Merger by the requisite majority under the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (the Missouri Code), (iii) expiration or earlier termination of any applicable waiting period and receipt of regulatory consents, approvals and clearances, in each case, under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and under relevant antitrust, competition and foreign investment legislation in certain other relevant jurisdictions, (iv) approval of the Federal Court of Australia under the Australian Act, (v) approval from the New York Stock Exchange to the listing of shares of New Amcor to be issued in the Transactions and (vi) no events having occurred that would have a material adverse effect on Bemis or Amcor. The Transactions are currently anticipated to close in the first quarter of 2019 subject to satisfaction of the closing conditions.

The Agreement also contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of both Bemis and Amcor, including, among others, covenants providing for Bemis to conduct its business from the date of the Agreement to the closing of the Transactions in the ordinary course of business.

Both Bemis and Amcor have agreed not to directly or indirectly (i) initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or otherwise knowingly facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a competing proposal, (ii) engage or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations with any third party relating to any competing proposal or any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to a competing proposal, (iii) provide any non-public information or data in connection with, related to or in contemplation of a competing proposal or any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to a competing proposal, (iv) amend, grant any waiver or release under or fail to enforce any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities, unless the board of directors determines after considering advice from outside legal counsel that the failure to amend, waive, release or fail to enforce such provision would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, (v) in the case of Bemis, approve any third party becoming an interested shareholder under Section 351.459 of the Missouri Code, or, in the case of Amcor, consent to or agree that takeover offers and accompanying documents be sent earlier under section 633(6) of the Australian Act; (vi) enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement or other agreement relating to a competing proposal or any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to a competing proposal, or (vii) (A) fail to make, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to the other party, or publicly propose to fail to make, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to the other party, the board recommendation, (B) fail to include the board recommendation in the proxy statement or scheme booklet, as applicable, (C) recommend, adopt or approve or publicly propose to recommend, adopt or approve a competing proposal, or (D) in the case of Bemis, fail to reaffirm the board recommendation in a statement complying with Rule 14e-2(a) under the Securities Exchange Act of

with such action by the close of business on the 10th business day after the commencement of such competing proposal under Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act, or, in the case of Amcor, fail to reaffirm the board recommendation by way of an ASX announcement with regard to a competing proposal or in connection with such action by the close of business on the 10th business day after the commencement of such competing proposal pursuant to a publicly announced takeover bid under Australian law, in each case, subject to certain limited exceptions to allow each party's board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties to its respective shareholders. Notwithstanding these provisions, the Agreement contains provisions allowing the boards of directors of each of Bemis and Amcor, in certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, to (i) change their respective recommendations in response to, among other things, a competing transaction that constitutes a superior proposal or (ii) to terminate the Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement for such superior proposal.

Each party has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the Transactions to be consummated and to obtain required regulatory approvals as promptly as reasonably practicable. However, these efforts do not require Amcor to take any action that would require divesting or subjecting to restrictions any assets, business, products or product lines of Amcor or Bemis that generated, in the aggregate, net sales of more than $400 million during the 2017 calendar year, nor is any party obligated to agree to any such restrictions that would be effective prior to the closing of the Transactions.

The Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Bemis and Amcor, including if the Transactions are not completed on or before August 6, 2019, subject in certain circumstances to extension to February 6, 2020 if necessary to secure certain regulatory approvals. The Agreement provides that Bemis will pay a $130 million termination fee to Amcor if, among other things, Bemis terminates the Agreement to enter into a superior proposal or if the Agreement is terminated following Bemis's board of directors changing its recommendation or failing to publicly affirm the board recommendation after receipt of a competing proposal. The Agreement provides that Amcor will pay a $130 million termination fee to Bemis if, among other things, Amcor terminates the Agreement to enter into a superior proposal or if the Agreement is terminated following Amcor's board of directors changing its recommendation or failing to publicly affirm the board recommendation after receipt of a competing proposal. The termination fee may also become payable by Bemis or Amcor if the Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances and such party enters into an agreement for a competing proposal within twelve months of such termination.

The Agreement also contemplates that the board of directors of New Amcor shall initially consist of eleven directors, eight of whom shall be designated by Amcor from its board of directors and three of whom shall be designated by Bemis from its board of directors (subject to Amcor's prior written approval).

The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, a copy of which is being filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Agreement has been included with this filing to provide investors and shareholders with information regarding the terms of the Transactions. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Bemis or Amcor. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in the Agreement, which were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties (including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts) and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors and shareholders. Investors and shareholders should not rely on the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Bemis, Amcor or New Amcor or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Bemis's public disclosures.
