If there is a disagreement between the Trustee and anyone as to any act or transaction reported in an accounting, the Trustee shall have the right to have its account settled by a court of competent jurisdiction.

16.6 RECORD RETENTION

The Trustee shall retain its records relating to the Fund as long as necessary for the proper administration thereof and at least for any period required by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or other applicable law.

16.7 RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL OF TRUSTEE

- (a) The Trustee may resign by giving the Employer thirty (30) days' (or such shorter period as the Employer may approve in writing) written notice of its resignation, such notice period to commence upon the mailing thereof. The Employer shall thereupon appoint a successor Trustee to assume the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee and shall promptly give the Trustee written notice of the appointment of such successor Trustee. The Trustee shall forthwith deliver to the successor Trustee and as soon as possible thereafter account to the successor Trustee for each and every Fund asset and any and all records of the Fund that are in its possession or control.
- (b) The Employer may remove the Trustee by giving the Trustee thirty (30) days' (or such shorter period as the Trustee may approve in writing) written notice of its removal, such notice period to commence upon the receipt thereof by the Trustee, and which written notice shall identify the successor Trustee appointed by the Employer to assume the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee. The Trustee shall forthwith deliver to the successor Trustee and as soon as possible thereafter account to the successor Trustee for each and every Fund asset and all records of the Fund that are in its possession or control.

- (c) A Custodian may serve as the successor to the Trustee hereunder if, with respect to the Plan and the Custodian, the requirements of Article XVII are satisfied.

16.8 DEALINGS OF OTHERS WITH TRUSTEE

No person (corporate or individual) dealing with the Trustee shall be required to see the application of any money paid or property delivered to the Trustee or to determine whether the Trustee is acting pursuant to any authority granted to it under the Plan.

16.9 TRUSTEE'S POWER TO PROTECT ITSELF ON ACCOUNT OF TAXES

The Trustee, as a condition to making a distribution of a Participant's Account, may require the person or persons entitled to receive a distribution in such event to furnish the Trustee with proof of payment of all income, inheritance, estate, transfer, legacy and/or succession taxes, and all other taxes of any different type or kind that may be imposed under or by virtue of any state or federal statute or law upon the payment, transfer, descent, or distribution of such Account and for the payment of which the Trustee may, in its judgement, be directly or indirectly liable. In lieu of the foregoing, the Trustee unless prevented by law, may deduct, withhold and transmit to the proper taxing authorities any such tax which it may be permitted or required to deduct and withhold and the Account to be distributed in such case shall be correspondingly reduced. In the event any distribution is subject to Federal or State withholding requirements the Trustee may require evidence that such withholding requirements have been met or that a waiver thereof is available and the conditions of the waiver have been satisfied.

16.10 OTHER POWERS OF TRUSTEE

In extension, but not in limitation of the rights, powers and discretions conferred upon the Trustee herein, the Trustee shall have and may exercise from time to time in the management and custody of the assets of the Fund and, for the purpose of distribution after the termination thereof, and, for the purpose of distribution of Participant's Accounts, without order or license of any court, any one or more or all of the following rights, powers and discretions:

- (a) To invest and reinvest the assets of the Fund with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of like character and the like aims (and to the extent possible consistently with the most recent funding policy method adopted by the Employer and communicated to the Trustee) without limitation by any statute, rule or law, or regulation of any governmental body prescribing or limiting the investment of trust assets by corporate or individual Trustees, in or to certain kinds, types, or classes of investments or prescribing the portion of the Fund which may be invested in any one property or kind, type, or class of investment. Specifically and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee may invest and reinvest principal and accumulated income of the Fund in preferred and common stocks of any kind or class of any corporation, including but not limited to investment and small business investment companies of all types; voting trust certificates; interest in investment trusts; shares of mutual funds; interest in a common trust, variable demand note or other type of pooled or collective fund operated by the Trustee; bonds, notes and debentures, secured or unsecured; mortgages on real or personal property; covered call options; deposits in a commercial or savings bank or a savings and loan association including savings accounts or time deposits in the Trustee if the Trustee (or a Co-Trustee) is a bank or other Financial Institution; conditional sales contracts; real estate and leases. The Plan may acquire and hold up to 10% of the market value of its assets in securities issued by an Employer. Investment of the entire Fund in common stocks shall be deemed appropriate at any phase of the economic business cycle, but is not, however, the purpose hereof to direct that the Fund shall be invested either entirely or to any extent whatsoever in such common stocks. The Trustee shall be entitled to commingle the accounts of Participants and invest, reinvest, control and manage each of the same in a common Fund, except to the extent the Employer permits Participants to direct their own investments and such Participants elect to do so.

- (b) To sell, exchange or to otherwise dispose of any asset of whatsoever character at any time held by the Trustee in trust hereunder.
- (c) To segregate any part or portion of the Fund for the purpose of administration or distribution thereof and, in its sole discretion, to hold the Fund uninvested whenever and for so long as, in the Trustee's discretion, the same is likely to be required for payment in cash of Participants'

Accounts normally expected to be distributed in the near future, or whenever, and for as long as market conditions are uncertain, or for any other reason which, in the Trustee's discretion, requires such action or makes such action advisable.

- (d) To retain and employ such attorneys, agents and servants as may be necessary or desirable, in the opinion of the Trustee, in the administration of the Fund, and to pay them such reasonable Compensation for their services as may be agreed upon as an expense of administration of the Fund, including power to employ and retain counsel upon any matter of doubt as to the meaning of or interpretation to be placed upon this Plan or any provisions thereof with reference to any question arising in the administration of the Fund or pertaining to the distribution thereof or pertaining to the rights and liabilities of the Trustee hereunder or to the rights and claims of Participants and Beneficiaries, and the Trustee, in any such event, may act in reliance upon the advice, opinions, records, statements, and computations of any attorneys and agents and on the records, statements and computations of any servants so selected by it in good faith and shall be released and exonerated of and from all liability to anyone in so doing (except to the extent liability is imposed under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974).

- (e) To institute, prosecute, and maintain, or to defend, any proceeding at law or in equity concerning the Plan or Fund or the assets thereof or any claims thereof or any claims thereto, or the interests of Participants and Beneficiaries hereunder at the sole cost and expense of the Fund and/or at the sole cost and expense of the Participant's Account that may be concerned therein or that may be affected thereby as, in the Trustee's option, shall be fair and equitable in each case, and to compromise, settle and adjust all claims and liabilities asserted by or against the Trustee, on such terms as the Trustee, in each such case, shall deem reasonable and proper, but the Trustee shall be under no duty or obligation to institute, prosecute, maintain or defend any suit, action or other legal proceeding unless it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against all expenses and liabilities which it may sustain or anticipate by reason thereof.
- (f) To institute, participate, and join in any plan of reorganization, readjustment, merger, or consolidation with respect to the issuer of any securities held by the Trustee hereunder and to use any other means of protecting and dealing with any of the assets of the Fund which it believes reasonably necessary or proper and, in general, to exercise each and every other power or right with respect to each asset or investment held by it hereunder as individuals generally have and enjoy with respect to their own assets and investments, including power to vote upon any securities or other assets having voting power which it may hold from time to time, and to give proxies with respect thereto, with or without power of substitution or revocation, and to deposit assets or investments with any protective committee, or with Trustees or depositories designated by any such committee or by any such Trustees or any court.

- (g) In any matter of doubt affecting the meaning, purpose or intent of any provision of this Plan, to determine such meaning, purpose or intent; and the determination of the Trustee in any such respect shall be binding and conclusive upon all persons interested who may become interested in the Plan or the Fund.
- (h) To require, as a condition to distribution of any Participant's Account, proof of identity or of authority of the person entitled to receive the same, including power to require reasonable indemnification on that account as a condition precedent to its obligation to make distributions hereunder.
- (i) To collect, receive, receipt and give quittance for all payments that may be or become due and payable on account of any asset in trust hereunder which has not, by act of the Trustee taken pursuant thereto, been made payable to others, and payment thereof by the company issuing the same, or by the party obligated thereon, as the case may be, when made to the Trustee hereunder or to any person or persons designated by the Trustee, shall acquit, release and discharge such company or obligated party from any and all liability on account thereof.

- (j) To determine from time to time, as required for the purpose of distribution or for the purpose of allocating trust income or for any other purposes of the Plan, the then value of the Fund and of the Participant's Account of each Participant in the Fund, the Trustee, in each such case, using and employing for that purpose the fair market value of each of the assets constituting the Fund. Each such determination so made by the Trustee in good faith shall be binding and conclusive upon all persons interested or becoming interested in the Plan or the Fund.
- (k) To carry all investments of the Fund, or any part thereof, in its own name or in the name of any nominee selected by it, without designation of the trust capacity in which the same is held, but with the same liability for any act or default of any such nominee as for its own act or default; and to commingle and deposit cash of the Fund in its own commercial department or savings department, or both.

- (l) To grant an option or options for the sale or other disposition of a trust asset, including the issuance of options for the purchase of common stock held by the trust in return for the receipt of a premium from the optionee (it being expressly intended that said options may be in a form and in terms to permit their being freely traded on an option exchange) and including the repurchase of any such option granted, or in lieu thereof, the repurchase of an option identical in terms to be the one issued.
- (m) To have and to exercise such other and additional powers as may be advisable or proper in its opinion for the effective, economical and equitable administration of the Fund.
- (n) The Trustee may cause all or any part of the Fund, without limitation as to amount, to be commingled with the money of trusts created by the Trustee or by others by causing such money to be invested as a part of any or all of the funds created by said declarations of trust and the Fund so added to any of said funds shall be subject to all of the provisions of said declarations of trust as the same may be amended from time to time so long as the terms of said trust are not inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Plan.

In the event the Employer elects to direct the Trustee as to the acquisition or disposal of the assets of the trust Fund, the Trustee shall exercise the rights, powers and discretions conferred upon the Trustee in this Section only as directed by the Employer. In the event the Employer has appointed an Investment Manager to manage, acquire or dispose of any assets of the trust Fund, then, notwithstanding the rights, powers and discretions conferred upon the Trustee in this Section, the Trustee shall be subject to the direction of the Investment Manager with respect to the assets under management by the Investment Manager and shall have no responsibility to determine whether any such directions are proper, in accordance with the terms of the Plan or are permitted under applicable law.

16.11 PURCHASE OF LIFE INSURANCE

Without limiting the generality of Section 16.10, the Trustee may invest the assets of the Fund in life insurance purchased from a legal reserve life insurance company qualified to do business in the state where the trust is located. Any purchase of life insurance shall be only as directed by the Participant and shall be treated as a Participant-directed investment described in Section 16.12. In the event ordinary life insurance contracts are purchased, less than 50% of the aggregate contributions by the Employer and Affiliates allocated to the Participant may be used to pay premiums attributable to such contracts. No more than 25% of the aggregate Employer and Affiliate contributions allocated to the Participant may be used to pay premiums on term life insurance contracts, universal life contracts or any other life insurance contract, which is not ordinary life. If a combination of ordinary life and other insurance contracts are purchased on a Participant's life, the sum of 50% of the ordinary life insurance premiums plus the premiums on all other life insurance on the Participant's life purchased by the Trustee shall not exceed 25% of the aggregate Employer and Affiliate contributions allocated to the Participant's Account. For purposes of this Section, an "ordinary life" insurance contract shall mean a contract with both nondecreasing death benefits and nonincreasing premiums. Any dividends or credits earned on insurance contracts will be allocated to the Participant's account derived from Employer contributions for whose benefit the contract is held.

In the event insurance contracts are purchased by the Trustee pursuant to this Section, a distribution payable for a reason other than the Participant's death shall be made by converting the contract to cash by surrendering it to the issuer or distributing the contract to the Participant in satisfaction of that portion of the Participant's Account which represents the value of the insurance contract, as the Participant shall elect, subject, however, to the provisions of Article X, if applicable. Any insurance contract so distributed shall be endorsed as nontransferable. No life insurance contract shall be converted into an annuity which provides payments measured by an individual life, except as may be required by Article X.

The Beneficiary designation and the settlement option selected under any insurance contract shall be subject to the requirements of Articles X and XII to the extent such provisions are applicable to the Participant. As owner of the life insurance contract, the Trustee shall name a Beneficiary and designate a method of distribution only in a manner which meets the requirements of Articles X and XII to the extent such Sections apply to the Participant. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Plan and the terms of any life insurance contract, the terms of this Plan shall control.

16.12 PARTICIPANT DIRECTION OF INVESTMENT

The Employer may elect in the Adoption Agreement to permit Participants to direct the investment of their Participant's Accounts. In the event the Employer elects to permit Participants to choose the investments in which the assets of their accounts should be invested, the Trustee shall be subject to the direction of such Participant. No Participant shall thereby be considered a fiduciary and no person who is otherwise a fiduciary shall be liable for any loss, which results from such Participant's exercise of control. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Participant may direct that the assets in his account be invested in any collectible, as that term is defined in Section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations, so long as such Section treats an investment in a collectible through a Participant-directed account as a distribution from the Plan. A Participant shall direct an investment in writing, which direction must be signed, shall describe the investment sufficiently so that the Trustee may properly execute the transaction and conform to such other conditions as the Trustee may reasonably require. Upon the direction of an investment, the Participant agrees to have any transaction costs charged to his account. "Transaction costs" shall mean any fee or charge attributable to the Participant's directed investment including, but not limited to commissions, custodial fees or fees for professional services. The purchase of a life insurance contract shall be treated as a Participant-directed investment.

16.13 PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS

Except as may be expressly permitted by law or allowed in a Prohibited Transaction Exemption issued by the Department of Labor, no Trustee or other fiduciary hereunder shall permit the Plan to engage, directly or indirectly, in any of the following transactions with a disqualified person (as defined in Section 4975 of the Code):

- (a) A sale or exchange, or leasing, of any property between the Plan and a disqualified person;
- (b) The lending of money or other extension of credit between the Plan and a disqualified person;
- (c) The furnishing of goods, services or facilities between the Plan and a disqualified person;
- (d) A transfer to, or use by or for the benefit of, a disqualified person of the income or assets of the Plan;
- (e) An act by a disqualified person who is a fiduciary whereby he deals with the income or assets of the Plan in his own interest or for his own account; or
- (f) The receipt of any consideration for his own personal account by any disqualified person who is a fiduciary from any party dealing with the Plan in connection with a transaction involving the income or assets of the Plan.
