Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) 2007 and 2008 Compensation Information. Most employees of Strategic Hotels & Resorts, Inc. (the “Company”) participate in the Company’s annual incentive compensation program (the “Program”) pursuant to which restricted stock units (“RSUs”) and bonuses may be awarded depending on specific performance objectives and the weights assigned to them as established by the Compensation Committee of the board of directors (the “Compensation Committee”). The compensation terms of our chief executive officer and chief financial officer are governed by their respective employment agreements, subject to the discretion of the Compensation Committee to award additional compensation. On March 3, 2008, the Compensation Committee approved the 2007 annual awards of restricted stock units (the “2007 RSU Bonus Awards”) and annual cash bonuses (the “2007 Cash Bonus Awards”) pursuant to the Company’s annual incentive program and, as applicable, the employment agreements with the executive officers. In addition, on March 3, 2008, the Compensation Committee also approved the 2008 base salaries for the Company’s “named executive officers” (as defined in Item 402(a)(3) of Regulation S-K).

The 2007 Cash Bonus Awards awarded under the Program are based on the achievement of company performance objectives and personal performance objectives, which vary according to each executive officer’s function, and range in target value from 40% of old base salary, in the case of vice presidents, 60% of old base salary, in the case of senior vice presidents, and 75% of old base salary, in the case of executive vice presidents. The relative weight of company performance and personal performance depends on the level of the executive officer’s position within the Company, with vice presidents earning such bonuses based on 50% company performance and 50% personal performance and senior vice presidents and executive vice presidents earning such bonuses based on 80% company performance and 20% personal performance, except for Mr. Mead, whose percentage is governed by his employment agreement.

The 2007 RSU Bonus Awards awarded under the Program and the number of options, RSUs and performance shares awarded under the terms of our chief financial officer’s employment agreement are based on the achievement of personal performance objectives and can range in target value from 50% of new base salary, in the case of vice presidents, and 100% of new base salary, in the case of senior vice presidents and executive vice presidents.

With respect to the 2007 Cash Bonus Awards payable under the Program to executive officers and in the case of our chief executive officer, under the terms of his employment agreement, performance is measured against achievement of specified levels of budgeted funds from operations (“FFO”) per share as the primary Company performance objective.

Based on the calculation of the Company's results of operations, the compensation awarded is set forth below:

| Name and Title  | 2007 Cash Bonus  | 2007 Equity Award | 2008 Salary |
|---|------------------|-------------------|-------------|
| Laurence Geller, President and Chief Executive Officer              | $ 1,500,000 (1) | — (2)             | $ 750,000  |
| James Mead, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer(3) | 450,000          | $ 650,000 (3)    | 420,000     |
| Richard Moreau, Executive Vice President—Asset Management           | 295,900          | 487,500 (4)       | 325,000     |
| Paula Maggio, Senior Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel  | 195,360          | 350,000 (4)       | 250,000     |
| Jayson Cyr, Senior Vice President, Internal Audit                   | 184,800          | 220,000 (4)       | 220,000     |

(1) Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Geller's employment agreement, he is entitled to a maximum bonus of $1,500,000 based on the achievement of specified levels of budgeted FFO per share.

(2) Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Geller's employment agreement, Mr. Geller was previously issued a long-term award valued at $6,000,000.

(3) Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Mead's employment agreement, Mr. Mead was entitled to a long-term incentive award with a value of $588,000. However, based on Mr. Mead's superior performance against company objectives, the Compensation Committee used its discretion to grant Mr. Mead a long-term incentive award with a value of $650,000, consisting of $260,000 of performance-based RSUs providing a right to earn 19,346 (at target) shares of common stock, $260,000 of options to purchase 148,805 shares of common stock and $130,000 of time-vested RSUs providing a right to obtain 9,673 shares of common stock.

(4) Consists of three-year, time-vested RSUs, providing a right to obtain 36,273, 26,042, and 16,370 shares of common stock in the case of Mr. Moreau, Ms. Maggio and Mr. Cyr, respectively.
