SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS MERGER PROPOSED □ YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Predictive Systems, Inc. Stockholder:

The board of directors of Predictive Systems, Inc. has unanimously approved a merger pursuant to which Predictive will be acquired by International Network Services, Inc., or INS.

If the merger is completed, holders of Predictive's common stock will receive approximately $0.46 in cash, without interest, for each share of Predictive's common stock they own. The exact amount of cash holders will receive per share of Predictive common stock cannot be determined until the closing of the merger, but will initially be equal to $19,186,700, divided by the number of shares of Predictive common stock and the number of shares of Predictive common stock subject to "in-the-money" options outstanding at the closing. The $19,186,700 aggregate consideration will be increased if and to the extent our net assets at closing exceed our estimates of our net assets at closing set forth in the merger agreement by more than $1,250,000, and will be decreased if and to the extent our net assets at closing are less than our estimates of our net assets at closing set forth in the merger agreement by more than $1,250,000.

Stockholders of Predictive will be asked, at a special meeting of Predictive's stockholders, to adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger. In connection with its evaluation of our strategic alternatives, including the merger, the board engaged Udata Capital, Inc. for the purpose of evaluating the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the holders of the outstanding shares of our common stock. Udata Capital delivered its written opinion to our board of directors to the effect that, as of April 8, 2003, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its written opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view to those holders. In addition, the board of directors of Predictive has unanimously determined that the merger is advisable to, and in the best interests of, Predictive and our stockholders, approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and declared that it is in the best interests of Predictive's stockholders that you adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement. The board of directors of Predictive unanimously recommends that Predictive's stockholders vote FOR adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger.

The date, time and place of the special meeting to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement is as follows:

June 18, 2003
10:00 a.m., local time
19 West 44th Street, 9th Floor
New York, New York 10036

The proxy statement attached to this letter provides you with information about the special meeting of Predictive's stockholders and the proposed merger. We encourage you to read the entire proxy statement carefully.

Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, if you are a holder of Predictive common stock please take the time to vote by completing, signing, dating and mailing the enclosed proxy card to us.

Andrew Zimmerman
Chief Executive Officer

The proxy statement is dated May 19, 2003, and is first being mailed to stockholders of Predictive on or about May 22, 2003.

New York, New York 10036
(212) 659-3400

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON JUNE 18, 2003

To the Stockholders of Predictive Systems, Inc.:

A special meeting of stockholders of Predictive Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation, will be held on June 18, 2003 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at our headquarters located at 19 West 44th Street, 9th Floor, New York, New York, 10036, for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt and approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 8, 2003, among International Network Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation, Mid-West Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of INS, and Predictive, pursuant to which Predictive will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of INS, and to approve the merger of Predictive as contemplated in the merger agreement; and
2. To transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The board of directors of Predictive has fixed the close of business on May 16, 2003 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. Only holders of record of shares of Predictive's common stock at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. At the close of business on the record date, Predictive had outstanding and entitled to vote 33,909,381 shares of common stock. Holders of Predictive's common stock are entitled to appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law in connection with the merger if they meet certain conditions. See "The Merger" Appraisal Rights.

Your vote is important. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Predictive's common stock is required to adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we request that you complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy and thus ensure that your shares will be represented at the special meeting if you are unable to attend. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger. If you fail to return your Predictive proxy card, the effect will be that your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Predictive special meeting but will effectively be counted as a vote against adoption and approval of the merger agreement and against approval of the merger. If you do attend the special meeting and wish to vote in person, you may withdraw your proxy and vote in person.

By order of the Board of Directors

Secretary

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What will happen to Predictive as a result of the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, we will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of International Network Services, Inc., or INS.

Q: What will Predictive's stockholders receive in the merger?

A: As a result of the merger, our stockholders will receive approximately $0.46 in cash, without interest, for each share of our common stock they own. For example, if you own 1,000 shares of our common stock, you will receive approximately $460 in cash in exchange for your Predictive shares. The exact amount of cash that holders will receive per share of Predictive common stock cannot be determined until the closing of the merger, but will initially be equal to $19,186,700, divided by the number of shares of Predictive common stock and the number of shares of Predictive common stock subject to "in-the-money" options outstanding at the closing. As of the close of business on May 16, 2003, there were an aggregate of 41,360,109 shares of Predictive common stock and shares of Predictive common stock subject to "in-the-money" options outstanding. In addition, the $19,186,700 aggregate consideration will be increased if and to the extent our net assets at closing exceed our estimates of our net assets at closing set forth in the merger agreement by more than $1,250,000, and will be decreased if and to the extent our net assets at closing are less than our estimates of our net assets at closing set forth in the merger agreement by more than $1,250,000. We do not currently anticipate that an adjustment will be required, however, several factors, such as our second quarter 2003 results and the timing of the closing, may materially impact the assumptions underlying our estimates, and may cause them to prove incorrect.

We intend to issue a press release no later than three (3) trading days prior to the special meeting informing stockholders of what INS and Predictive believe to be the final per share purchase price determination.

Q: How does the adjustment to the total consideration work?

A: We have estimated in the merger agreement that our net assets at closing will be $15,386,700. The aggregate consideration to be paid of $19,186,700 will be increased if our net assets at closing are greater than $16,636,700 by an amount equal to such excess. The aggregate consideration to be paid of $19,186,700 will be decreased if our net assets at closing are less than $14,136,700 by an amount equal to such shortfall. Our net assets at closing for these purposes will be calculated generally in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, subject to certain significant exceptions and certain agreed upon amounts as set forth on the "Net Asset Determination Schedule" attached as Annex D to this proxy statement. The Net Asset Determination Schedule contains the detailed procedures by which our net assets will be determined at closing. You are encouraged to read the Net Asset Determination Schedule in its entirety.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully, including its annexes, and to consider how the merger affects you. Then please mail your completed, dated and signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares can be voted at the special meeting of our stockholders.

Q: How does Predictive's board of directors recommend I vote?

A: At a meeting held on April 8, 2003, our board of directors unanimously determined that the merger is advisable, and in the best interests of, Predictive and our stockholders, approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and declared that it is in the best interests of Predictive's stockholders that you adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement. The board of directors of Predictive unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger.

Back to Contents

Q: What vote of stockholders is required to approve the merger?

A: For us to complete the merger, stockholders of record as of the close of business on May 16, 2003 holding at least a majority of our shares of outstanding common stock must vote FOR the merger.

Q: What happens if I do not return a proxy card?

A: If you fail to return your proxy card, the effect will be that your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting. In addition, the failure to return your proxy card will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

Q: May I vote in person?

A: Yes. If your shares are not held in street name through a broker or bank, you may attend the special meeting of our stockholders and vote your shares in person, rather than signing and returning your proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, you must get a proxy from your broker or bank in order to attend the special meeting and vote.

Q: Do I need to attend the special meeting in person?

A: No. You do not have to attend the special meeting in order to vote your Predictive shares. Your shares can be voted at the special meeting of our stockholders without attending by mailing your completed, dated and signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope.

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy card is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written, dated notice to the Secretary of Predictive stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete, date, and submit a new proxy card. Third, you can attend the meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change your instructions.

Q: If my broker holds my shares in street name, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will not be able to vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the procedures provided by your broker. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted, which will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

Q: Should I send in my Predictive stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions for exchanging your shares of our common stock for the cash merger consideration, without interest, to be received in the merger in exchange for outstanding shares of our common stock.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible. We expect to complete the merger late in the second calendar quarter of 2003. In addition to obtaining stockholder approval, we must satisfy all other closing conditions.

Q: What if the proposed merger is not completed?

A: It is possible that the proposed merger will not be completed. The proposed merger will not be completed if, for example, the holders of a majority of Predictive common stock do not vote to adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the proposed merger. If the merger is not completed, Predictive will continue its current operations and will remain a publicly-held company.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights?

A: Yes. Holders of our common stock are entitled to appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law, in connection with the merger if they meet certain conditions.

Back to Contents

Q: Will I owe taxes as a result of the merger?

A: The merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes (and also may be taxed under applicable state, local, and other tax laws). In general, for United States federal income tax purposes, you will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (1) the amount of cash you receive in the merger for your shares of Predictive common stock and (2) the tax basis of your shares of Predictive common stock. Refer to the section entitled "The Merger" Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger for a more detailed explanation of the tax consequences of the merger. You should consult your tax advisor on how specific tax consequences of the merger apply to you.

Q: What other matters will be voted on at the special meeting?

A: Predictive does not expect to ask its stockholders to vote on any other matters at the special meeting.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: If you would like additional copies, without charge, of this proxy statement or if you have questions about the merger, including the procedures for voting your shares, you should contact our proxy solicitor, Morrow & Co., Inc., at:

Merger Consideration

If the merger is completed, you will receive approximately $0.46 in cash, without interest, in exchange for each share of our common stock that you own. The exact amount of cash that holders will receive per share of Predictive common stock cannot be determined until the closing of the merger as discussed below and elsewhere in this proxy statement.

The cash to be received per share of Predictive common stock will initially be equal to $19,186,700, divided by the number of shares of Predictive common stock and the number of shares of Predictive common stock subject to "in-the-money" options outstanding at the closing. As of the close of business on May 16, 2003, there were 33,909,381 shares of our common stock outstanding and there were 7,450,728 shares of Predictive common stock subject to "in-the-money" options outstanding.

In addition, the $19,186,700 aggregate consideration will be increased if and to the extent our net assets at closing exceed our estimates of our net assets at closing set forth in the merger agreement by more than $1,250,000, and will be decreased if and to the extent our net assets at closing are less than our estimates of our net assets at closing set forth in the merger agreement by more than $1,250,000. We do not currently anticipate that an adjustment will be required, however, several factors, such as our second quarter 2003 results and the timing of the closing, may materially impact the assumptions underlying our estimates and cause them to prove incorrect.

We intend to issue a press release no later than three (3) trading days prior to the special meeting informing stockholders of what the parties believe to be the final per share purchase price determination.

After the merger is completed, you will have the right to receive the merger consideration but you will no longer have any rights as a Predictive stockholder. You will receive your portion of the merger consideration after exchanging your Predictive stock certificates in accordance with the instructions contained in a letter of transmittal to be sent to you shortly after completion of the merger.

See "The Merger" Merger Consideration.

Adjustment Mechanism

We have estimated in the merger agreement that our net assets at closing will be $15,386,700. The aggregate consideration to be paid will be increased if our net assets at closing are greater than $16,636,700 by the amount of such excess, and will be decreased if our net assets at closing are less than $14,136,700 by the amount of such shortfall. Our net assets at closing for these purposes will be calculated generally in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, subject to certain significant exceptions and certain agreed upon amounts as set forth on the "Net Asset Determination Schedule" attached as Annex D to this proxy statement. The Net Asset Determination Schedule contains the detailed procedures by which our net assets will be determined at closing. You are encouraged to read the Net Asset Determination Schedule in its entirety.

Treatment of Awards Outstanding under Predictive's Stock Plans

Any options that are outstanding immediately prior to the closing and have a per share exercise price that is less than the per share merger consideration are referred to as "in-the-money" options. In-the-money options that have not been exercised prior to the closing shall be amended and automatically exercised pursuant to a board approved net exercise program. As a result of this net exercise, holders of in-the-money options who have not exercised such options prior to the closing will receive at the closing the per share merger consideration, less any applicable exercise price and withholding taxes. Any options outstanding at the effective time of the merger that are not in-the-money will be cancelled. If you exercise options prior to the closing with a per share exercise price greater than the per share price to be received in the merger, you will lose money in this transaction.

Market Price and Dividend Data

Our common stock is listed on The Nasdaq SmallCap Market under the symbol "PRDS." On April 7, 2003, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger, our common stock closed at $0.26. On May 16, 2003, the last practicable trading day prior to the date of this proxy statement, our common stock closed at $0.44. See Market Price and Dividend Data.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The exchange of shares of our common stock for the cash merger consideration will be a taxable transaction to our stockholders for United States federal income tax purposes. See The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Reasons for the Merger

Our board of directors approved the merger based on a number of positive factors, including the following:

- the expected value of the consideration to be received by our stockholders in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement;
- the fact that the approximately $0.46 per share expected to be paid as the consideration in the merger represents:
 - a premium of approximately $0.203, or 79.0%, over the trailing average closing sales prices for our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market for the one month ended April 7, 2003 of $0.257 per share,
 - a premium of approximately $0.196, or 74.2%, over the trailing average closing sales prices for our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market for the one week ended April 7, 2003 of $0.264 per share, and
 - a premium of approximately $0.20, or 76.9%, over the $0.26 closing sale price for our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market on April 7, 2003, the trading day prior to our board's approval of the merger agreement;
- the fact that given the expected closing date and our anticipated net assets, the board of directors does not currently believe the aggregate consideration to be received will be reduced pursuant to the merger consideration adjustment;

Back to Contents

- the financial presentation and written opinion of Udata Capital, Inc. to our board of directors to the effect that, as of April 8, 2003, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the written opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view to those holders (the full text of this opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Udata Capital in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement);
- the likelihood that the proposed acquisition would be consummated in light of the experience, reputation and financial capabilities of INS;
- the overall fairness of the terms of the merger agreement and related documents, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, and the conditions to their respective obligations, in light of the circumstances under which they were negotiated;
- the fact that pursuant to the merger agreement, we are not prohibited from responding (at any time prior to our stockholders' approval and adoption of the merger agreement with INS) in the manner provided in the merger agreement to certain takeover proposals that our board of directors determines in good faith constitute a superior offer, and, upon payment of a predetermined termination fee, we may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances to enter into a superior offer transaction;
- the belief by our board of directors that we obtained the highest price per share that INS is willing to pay;
- the belief by our board of directors that it was unlikely that a third party would offer a higher price than INS in the near future after considering, among other things, that we or our representatives had contacted over 20 other parties concerning the acquisition of Predictive;
- the historically low trading volume of our stock, the volatility of our stock price and the ability of our stockholders to realize liquidity with respect to their shares in light of the level of such trading volume and volatility;
- the fact that the merger consideration is all cash, which provides a certainty of value to our stockholders compared to a transaction in which our stockholders would receive stock;
- management's assessment that INS has the financial capability to complete the merger, in view of the absence of a financing condition in the merger agreement and the representation and warranty to that effect made by INS in the merger agreement;
- the view of our board of directors that the merger with INS presented the best available option for our stockholders when compared to, and in light of, the potential stockholder value that could be expected to be generated from the other strategic alternatives to the merger available to us, including remaining independent and continuing to successfully implement our current growth model, the risks and uncertainties associated with those alternatives and the uncertain timing and likelihood of accomplishing the goals of those alternatives;
- the fact that Predictive would no longer be subject to the substantial compliance, insurance, regulatory and other costs to us of being a public company listed on The Nasdaq SmallCap Market, including the additional costs associated with complying with the recently enacted Sarbanes-Oxley Act upon the closing of the merger;
- the view of our board of directors, based upon the advice of management after consultation with legal counsel, that the regulatory approvals necessary to complete the merger could be obtained;
- the fact that the merger would be subject to the approval of a majority of our stockholders and our stockholders, other than our stockholders who signed voting agreements, would be free to reject the transaction with INS; and

Back to Contents

- the availability of appraisal rights for our stockholders who properly exercise their statutory appraisal rights.

In approving the merger, our board of directors also took into account a number of negative factors, including the following:

- risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the merger, the possibility that the merger will not be consummated and the potential negative effect of public announcement of the merger in that event on our sales, operating results and stock price and our ability to retain key management and personnel;
- the fact that the aggregate merger consideration may be reduced if our estimates of our closing net assets prove to be incorrect by more than $1,250,000;
- that our stockholders would not benefit from any potential future increase in our value;
- that, under the terms of the merger agreement and the voting agreements, (1) neither we nor the stockholders that signed voting agreements can solicit other acquisition proposals, (2) we must pay to INS a termination fee and/or reimburse INS for certain of its transaction costs if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, and (3) the holders of approximately 28.4% of our common stock as of April 8, 2003, the date of our board's approval of the merger agreement, have agreed to vote for the merger, all of which may deter others from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to our stockholders;
- the fact that gains from an all-cash transaction would be taxable to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- that if the merger does not close, our officers and other employees will have expended extensive efforts attempting to complete the transaction and will have experienced significant distractions from their work during the pendency of the transaction and we will have incurred substantial transaction costs in connection with the transaction and such costs will negatively impact our operating results;
- the conditions to INS's obligation to complete the merger and the right of INS to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances; and
- that certain of our directors and executive officers may have had other interests with respect to the merger in addition to their interests as stockholders of Predictive generally, as described in "The Merger - Interests of Predictive's Directors and Management in the Merger."

See "The Merger - Reasons for the Merger and Board of Directors' Recommendation."

Recommendation to Stockholders

Our board of directors has unanimously:

- determined that the merger is advisable, and in the best interests of, Predictive and our stockholders;
- approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- declared that it is in the best interests of Predictive's stockholders that you adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement; and
- recommended that our stockholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger.

See "The Merger - Reasons for the Merger and Board of Directors' Recommendation."

Opinion of our Financial Advisor

Udata Capital, Inc. delivered its opinion to our board of directors that, as of the date of the written fairness opinion and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the written opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view to those holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Udata Capital, dated April 8, 2003, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. Our stockholders should read the opinion in its entirety. Udata Capital provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. The Udata Capital opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of our common stock should vote with respect to the transaction.

Record Date and Voting Power. You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of our common stock at the close of business on May 16, 2003, the record date for the special meeting. Interests of Predictive's Directors and Management in the Merger

When considering the unanimous recommendation by our board of directors in favor of the merger, you should be aware that members of our board of directors and our executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours, including, among others:

- certain indemnification arrangements, including director and officer indemnification insurance in the form of tail coverage, for our directors and officers will be continued if the merger is completed;
- certain of our officers will be entitled to severance payments and bonuses in connection with the merger;
- our directors and officers will have the vesting of options and restricted stock accelerated in connection with the merger; and

Conditions to the Completion of the Merger

Neither party will be obligated to effect the merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or, to the extent legally permitted, waived:

- the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock must have voted in favor of adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger;
- no statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that has the effect of making the merger illegal or otherwise preventing the completion of the merger shall have been enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered by any governmental entity;
- no action, suit, claim or proceeding shall be pending or threatened which seeks to materially delay or prevent the consummation of the merger; and
- no order suspending the use of this proxy statement may be issued and no proceeding to suspend the use of this proxy statement shall have been initiated or threatened in writing by the SEC.

We will not be obligated to effect the merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or waived:

- the representations and warranties of INS and Mid-West Acquisition Corporation must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, subject to certain exceptions; and
- each of INS and Mid-West Acquisition Corporation must have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by the merger agreement at or prior to the closing of the merger.

INS will not be obligated to effect the merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or waived:

- our representations and warranties must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, subject to certain exceptions;
- we must have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by the merger agreement at or prior to the closing of the merger;
- no material adverse effect (as such term is defined in the merger agreement) with respect to us and our subsidiaries shall have occurred since the date of the merger agreement;
- we receive consents to assign a certain real property lease to INS;
- at least 80% of certain specified employees shall have accepted employment with INS; and
- no more than 80% of certain specified customers, and none of a specified subgroup of such customers, shall have given notice or other indication that they wish to:
 - substantially modify in an adverse fashion the terms and conditions under which we perform work for such customers, in the case of customers billed on a time and materials basis, or
 - terminate or modify in an adverse fashion the terms and conditions of a fixed price project to which the customers have previously committed, in the case of customers billed on a fixed price basis.

See The Merger Agreement and Voting Agreements The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Completion of the Merger.

Limitation on Considering other Acquisition Proposals

We have agreed, subject to certain exceptions arising out of the fiduciary duties of our board of directors, that we will not, and will not permit any of our subsidiaries to, nor will we authorize or permit any of our or our subsidiaries[] officers, directors, affiliates or employees or any of our or their investment

bankers, attorneys, accountants or other advisors or representatives retained by us or them, to, directly or indirectly:

- solicit, initiate, knowingly or intentionally encourage, facilitate or induce the making, submission or announcement of any other acquisition proposal;
- participate in any negotiations or discussions regarding, or furnish to any person any non-public information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any other acquisition proposal;
- approve, endorse or recommend any other acquisition proposal; or
- enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract contemplating or otherwise relating to any other acquisition transaction.

The merger agreement does provide that our board of directors may enter into a confidentiality agreement with and provide confidential information to, or enter into negotiations or discussions with, any person or group in response to an acquisition proposal submitted and not withdrawn by such person or group, if:

- neither we nor our subsidiaries nor any of our or their representatives have violated the restrictions set forth above;
- our board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel, that the action is required in order for our board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law;
- at least two (2) business days prior to providing any nonpublic information to, or entering into negotiations or discussions with, such person or group, we give INS written notice of the identity of the person or group and of our intention to furnish nonpublic information to, or enter into negotiations or discussions with, such person or group;
- we receive from such person or group an executed confidentiality agreement containing limitations on the use and disclosure of all nonpublic written and oral information provided by us to such person or group, with limitations which are no less favorable to us than those in the confidentiality agreement entered into with INS; and
- contemporaneously with providing any nonpublic information to such person or group, we provide such nonpublic information to INS.

See The Merger Agreement and Voting Agreements The Merger Agreement No Solicitation.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger under certain circumstances, including:

- by mutual written consent authorized by the boards of directors of INS and us;
- by either INS or us, if the merger has not been completed by September 30, 2003;
- by either INS or us, if any governmental entity issues any final and non-appealable order, decree or ruling or any other action having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger;
- by either INS or us, if our stockholders do not approve the merger agreement at a duly held stockholders meeting;
- by us, upon the approval of our board of directors, if our board of directors concludes in good faith that it is required to terminate the merger agreement by its fiduciary duties to our stockholders in connection with entering into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal which qualifies as a superior offer;

Back to Contents

- by either INS or us, if the other party has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the merger agreement such that any of the conditions to the merger would not be satisfied and such breach cannot be cured within thirty (30) calendar days;
- by INS in the event we materially breach any of the provisions regarding solicitation of an acquisition proposal; or
- by INS if any of the following triggering events occurs:
 - our board of directors or any of its committees for any reason withdraws or withholds, or amends, changes or modifies in a manner adverse to INS, its unanimous recommendation in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger agreement or the approval of the merger, subject to limited exceptions;
 - we fail to include in this proxy statement the unanimous recommendation of our board of directors that stockholders vote in favor of and adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger, subject to limited exceptions;
 - our board of directors or any of its committees approves or recommends any other acquisition proposal;
 - we enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract accepting any other acquisition proposal; or
 - a tender or exchange offer relating to our securities is commenced by a person unaffiliated with INS and we have not sent to our stockholders, within ten (10) business days after such a tender or exchange offer is first published, sent or given, a statement disclosing that our board of directors recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer.

See The Merger Agreement and Voting Agreements The Merger Agreement Termination.

Expenses and Termination Fees

The merger agreement provides that regardless of whether the merger is consummated, all fees and expenses incurred by the parties shall be borne by the party incurring such expenses.

The merger agreement requires, however, that we pay INS a termination fee of $600,000 if, among other things:

- INS terminates the merger agreement as a result of a triggering event, as described above;
- the agreement is terminated by INS or us because our stockholders do not approve the merger at the special meeting, and prior to such vote a director abstains from a board or board committee vote concerning the merger and the director (or any of its affiliates, including Predictive) then makes a public statement adverse to INS or the merger;
- the fiduciary duties of our board of directors require us to terminate the merger agreement in connection with our entering into a definitive agreement related to an acquisition proposal which qualifies as a superior offer;
- INS terminates the merger agreement because either the effective time has not occurred before September 30, 2003 or we failed to obtain the required approval of our stockholders, and any of the following occurs:
 - a third party has announced an acquisition proposal and has not publicly withdrawn the acquisition proposal at least five (5) business days prior to the earlier of September 30, 2003 or the meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger, as may be applicable, and within nine (9) months following the termination of our merger agreement with INS, an acquisition of us is completed; or

- a third party has announced an acquisition proposal and has not publicly withdrawn the acquisition proposal at least five (5) business days prior to the earlier of September 30, 2003 or the meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger, as may be applicable, and within nine (9) months following the termination of our merger agreement with INS, we enter into a letter of intent or similar document or contract that provides for any acquisition of us.

In addition to the termination fees described above, in the event INS terminates the merger agreement in connection with the breach of our representation and warranty that we have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by the merger agreement, and prior to such termination, we have received, or a third party has announced, an acquisition proposal and our breach is intended to or has the effect of facilitating such acquisition proposal or benefiting the person or entity making such acquisition proposal without similarly benefiting INS, we will be required to pay INS an amount equal to the out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by INS and Mid-West Acquisition Corporation in connection with the negotiation, execution and delivery of the merger agreement to which this proxy solicitation relates, provided, however, that we are not required to pay INS expenses in excess of $500,000.

Voting Agreements

All of our executive officers and directors (other than one director who does not individually own any shares of our common stock or options) and certain of our affiliates, who owned approximately 28.4% of our outstanding shares as of April 8, 2003, entered into individual voting agreements with INS. As of the record date, excluding options to purchase shares of our common stock, such persons beneficially owned approximately 32% of the shares entitled to vote at the special meeting. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these stockholders have agreed to vote their shares, and have granted INS an irrevocable proxy to vote their shares, in favor of approval of the merger and adoption and approval of the merger agreement, and against any proposal adverse to the merger.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction by INS for financial accounting purposes. See The Merger Accounting Treatment.

Appraisal Rights

Subject to compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporations Law (DGCL), holders of record of our common stock who do not vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger and otherwise comply with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL are entitled to appraisal rights, in connection with the merger, whereby such stockholders may receive the fair value of their shares in cash, exclusive of any element of value arising from the expectation or accomplishment of the merger. Failure to take any of the steps required under Section 262 of the DGCL, on a timely basis, may result in a loss of those appraisal rights. These procedures are described in this proxy statement. The provisions of Delaware law that grant appraisal rights and govern such procedures are attached as Annex B to this proxy statement.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

We are furnishing this proxy statement to our stockholders as part of the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at the special meeting.

Date, Time and Place

We will hold the special meeting at our headquarters located at 19 West 44th Street, 9th Floor, New York, New York 10036 at 10:00 a.m., local time, on Wednesday, June 18, 2003.

Purpose of Special Meeting

At the special meeting, we will ask holders of our common stock to adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger. Our board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger is advisable and in the best interests of Predictive and our stockholders, approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and declared that it is in the best interests of Predictive's stockholders that you adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement. The board of directors of Predictive unanimously recommends that Predictive's stockholders vote FOR adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger.

Record Date; Stock Entitled to Vote; Quorum

Only holders of record of our common stock at the close of business on May 16, 2003, the record date, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. On the record date, 33,909,381 shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding and held by approximately 138 holders of record. A quorum is present at the special meeting if a majority of the shares of our common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on the record date are represented in person or by proxy. In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies. Holders of record of our common stock on the record date are entitled to one vote per share at the special meeting on the proposal to adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger.

Votes Required

The adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding on the record date. If a holder of our common stock abstains from voting or does not vote, either in person or by proxy, it will effectively count as a vote against the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and against approval of the merger.

Voting by Predictive's Directors, Executive Officers and Certain Stockholders

All of our executive officers and directors (other than one director who does not individually own any shares of our common stock or options) and certain of our affiliates, who owned approximately 28.4% of our outstanding shares as of April 8, 2003, entered into individual voting agreements with INS. As of the record date, excluding options to purchase shares of our common stock, such persons beneficially owned approximately 32% of the shares entitled to vote at the special meeting. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these stockholders have agreed to vote their shares, and have granted INS an irrevocable proxy to vote their shares, in favor of approval of the merger and adoption and approval of the merger agreement, and against any proposal adverse to the merger.

Voting of Proxies

All shares represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the special meeting will be voted at the special meeting in the manner specified by the holders. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted FOR the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger.

Shares of our common stock represented at the special meeting but not voting, including shares of our common stock for which proxies have been received but for which stockholders have abstained, will be treated as present at the special meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of all business.

Only shares affirmatively voted for the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, including properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions, will be counted as favorable votes for that proposal. If a holder of our common stock abstains from voting or does not execute a proxy, it will effectively count as a vote against the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and against approval of the merger. Brokers who hold shares of our common stock in street name for customers who are the beneficial owners of such shares may not give a proxy to vote those customers' shares in the absence of specific instructions from those customers. These non-voted shares will effectively count as votes against the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and against approval of the merger.

The persons named as proxies by a stockholder may propose and vote for one or more adjournments of the special meeting, including adjournments to permit further solicitations of proxies.

We do not expect that any matter other than the proposal to adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger will be brought before the special meeting. If, however, our board of directors properly presents other matters, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their judgment as to matters that they believe to be in the best interests of the stockholders.

Revocability of Proxies

The grant of a proxy on the enclosed form of proxy does not preclude a stockholder from voting in person at the special meeting. A stockholder may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by:

- filing with our Secretary a duly executed revocation of proxy;
- submitting a duly executed proxy to our Secretary bearing a later date; or
- appearing at the special meeting and voting in person; however, attendance at the special meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy.

If you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change these instructions.

Solicitation of Proxies

All costs of solicitation of proxies will be borne by us. We have retained the services of Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies from our stockholders. The fee to be paid to Morrow & Co., Inc. for these services is not expected to exceed $5,000, plus reasonable out of pocket expenses. Additionally, the directors and officers and employees of Predictive may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies for stockholders by mail, telephone, facsimile, or in person. However, you should be aware that certain members of our board of directors and our executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours. See The Merger Interests of Predictives Directors and Management in the Merger.

The extent to which these proxy soliciting efforts will be necessary depends entirely upon how promptly proxies are received. You should send in your proxy by mail without delay. We also reimburse brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses in sending these materials to you and getting your voting instructions.

Stockholders should not send stock certificates with their proxies. A letter of transmittal with instructions for the surrender of our common stock certificates will be mailed to our stockholders as soon as practicable after completion of the merger.

THE MERGER

The following discussion summarizes the material terms of the merger. Stockholders should read the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Background to the Merger

As part of its long-term strategy to increase stockholder value, our board of directors and senior management has, from time to time, considered various strategic transactions with other companies. Similarly, from time to time, our board of directors and senior management has reviewed various strategic alternatives, including remaining an independent public company, ceasing operations, divesting certain operations, consummating acquisitions or mergers with other companies and considering other transactions.

In October 2001, our management became aware that Lucent Technologies was in the process of selling its Enhanced Services and Sales or ESS business unit, which would eventually become INS.

From October 2001 through June 2002, our management negotiated with Lucent for the purchase of the ESS unit, and eventually became a finalist in the auction process conducted by Lucent. During this process, which included both negotiating the transaction and planning for the anticipated integration of the two businesses, our board of directors and senior management became familiar with the operations of INS and with INS's senior management. Ultimately, we could not obtain financing for the purchase of ESS and we ceased discussions.

In June and July 2002, Mission West Venture Capital, an affiliate of Carl Berg, worked with Lucent to negotiate the purchase of ESS. At that time, the officers of ESS and Mr. Berg discussed the possibility that, should ESS be spun out of Lucent with the backing of Mr. Berg's venture company, the growth strategies of that business unit might well be served by the subsequent acquisition of one or more additional consulting or software businesses. In August 2002, INS was incorporated in Delaware and it concluded the purchase of ESS from Lucent.

In July and August 2002, we explored the possibility of selling our European operations and had discussions with INS regarding this possible sale.

On September 25, 2002, Andrew Zimmerman, our CEO, David Butze, CEO of INS, and Montgomery Kersten, Vice President, Business Development of INS met in person to discuss INS's possible purchase of our European operations. During this meeting, the advantages of a combination of our operations and INS's operations were also discussed. On October 4, 2002, we entered into a confidentiality agreement with INS relating to the sale of our European operations.

During October and November 2002, Messrs. Zimmerman, Butze and Kersten, along with Neeraj Sethi, our CFO, and Gary Papilsky, our General Counsel, had various discussions about and provided various information regarding our European operations.

On October 10, 2002 and November 1, 2002, Mr. Zimmerman discussed a possible acquisition of Predictive with a large international competitor. These discussions never materialized into an offer.

On October 31, 2002, at a regularly scheduled meeting of our board of directors, Mr. Zimmerman discussed with the board the possible sale of our European operations to INS. In addition, at this board meeting, Mr. Zimmerman discussed other strategic alternatives with the board, including the sale of the company and the sale of certain divisions. Mr. Zimmerman reviewed potential transaction partners with the board and such potential partners' expressed or expected level of interest.

On November 11, 2002, we received a draft term sheet from INS regarding the sale of our European Operations, and on November 19, 2002, we sent a revised term sheet to INS highlighting certain issues with respect to the initial draft. On November 27, 2002, INS sent a revised term sheet to us regarding the sale of our European Operations, which we subsequently rejected. We then ended discussions with INS regarding the sale of our European operations.

On December 10, 2002, at a regularly scheduled meeting of our board of directors, the board discussed in great detail our strategic alternatives. In particular, the board discussed the acquisition of certain potential targets, the possibility of being acquired by certain likely acquisition candidates and the prospects facing us if we remained an independent company. The board discussed its fiduciary duties with Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, P.C. (Wilson Sonsini), our outside legal counsel, and considered each alternative with the objective of maximizing shareholder value. Mr. Zimmerman also specifically discussed merger candidates with whom he or members of the board had discussions concerning the sale of the company or certain divisions of the company and the status of these discussions. The board considered hiring a financial advisory firm to assist us in the sale of the company or certain divisions.

During January 2003, Messrs. Zimmerman, Butze, Kersten, Sethi and Papilsky had numerous discussions regarding the possible acquisition of us by INS. On January 8, 2003, Mr. Zimmerman flew to California to meet in person with Messrs. Butze and Kersten. Mr. Zimmerman also met with Carl Berg, INS's Chairman of the Board of Directors during this trip.

On January 15, 2003, Predictive received a draft term sheet from INS regarding the acquisition of Predictive. The term sheet contemplated that our security consulting business would be sold for cash to a third party and that INS would then purchase 100% of our outstanding common stock. During the remainder of January, Messrs. Zimmerman, Butze, Kersten, Sethi and Papilsky had numerous negotiations regarding the draft term sheet.

On January 23, 2003, Mr. Zimmerman discussed the possible acquisition of Predictive with the CEO of a private company competitor.

On February 4, 2003, at a regularly scheduled meeting of our board of directors, Wilson Sonsini again discussed the board's fiduciary obligations and the board approved the engagement of Udata Capital as financial advisor to explore the sale of our security consulting business and authorized our officers to negotiate the terms of a potential sale of us to INS.

On February 6, 2003, we entered into a confidentiality agreement with the private company competitor.

On February 10, 2003, we signed an engagement letter with Udata Capital to sell our security consulting business and to provide a fairness opinion in the event of the sale of the entire company.

On February 10, 2003, Messrs. Zimmerman and Sethi discussed with the CEO and CFO of the private company competitor our financial information. The private company competitor never submitted a formal offer thereafter to acquire us, and further discussions did not materialize.

On February 20, 2003, we amended the confidentiality agreement we had in place with INS in order to facilitate exchange of further due diligence regarding the sale of the entire company. In February and March 2003, INS conducted a due diligence review of us, including a review of our material contracts and agreements. On February 23, 2003, we received a revised draft term sheet from INS regarding the acquisition of Predictive.

On February 27, 2003, Messrs. Zimmerman and Sethi had discussions with a public company expressing an interest in acquiring Predictive. On February 28, 2003, the interested party notified Predictive of its intention not to pursue further discussions.

On March 3 and 4, 2003, Messrs. Butze, Kersten, Zimmerman, Berg and Eric Meyer, one of our board members, met to discuss the terms of the proposed acquisition of Predictive.

On March 10, 2003, we received a draft of the Agreement and Plan of Merger from Gray Cary Ware & Freidenrich LLP (Gray Cary), INS's legal counsel, which was also received by Wilson Sonsini. On March 11, 2003, at a special meeting of our board of directors, Mr. Zimmerman discussed the economic terms of INS's offer and Mr. Papilsky discussed the legal terms of the draft Agreement and Plan of Merger that was received on March 10, 2003.

On March 12, 2003, Mr. Sethi sent due diligence information to a private equity fund that was considering making a bid for the acquisition of Predictive. This private equity fund ultimately decided not to submit a proposal.

Back to Contents

From March 12, 2003 through April 8, 2003, Predictive, INS, Wilson Sonsini and Gray Cary exchanged numerous drafts of the Agreement and Plan of Merger and had numerous discussions to negotiate its terms, culminating in lengthy conferences on April 3, 4, 6, 7 and 8, 2003.

During March 2003, Udata Capital contacted 20 companies in an effort to receive a competing bid to the INS proposal. The companies contacted were IT services companies, telecommunications providers and financial sponsors. As a result of such efforts, only one company entered into a confidentiality agreement. Following the execution of a confidentiality agreement and the receipt of due diligence materials, that company notified Udata Capital of its intention not to pursue further discussions.

On March 25, 2003, at a regularly scheduled meeting of our board of directors, our management reviewed the then current economic and legal terms of INS's proposal for the acquisition of the entire company.

On April 8, 2003, our board of directors held a special meeting to consider the proposed merger with INS. Mr. Papilsky and Wilson Sonsini reviewed the board's fiduciary obligations to its stockholders, as well as the material changes in the merger agreement since the draft circulated to the board of directors on April 7, 2003. Udata Capital then presented its financial analysis relating to the proposed transaction and rendered its opinion to the board of directors that, as of April 8, 2003, and subject to the assumptions, factors and limitations set forth in the written opinion, the merger consideration payable to our stockholders in the proposed transaction was fair, from a financial point of view, to our stockholders. Following these presentations, the board of directors further discussed the potential merger, following which, by a unanimous vote of all directors, our board of directors determined that the merger was fair to, and in the best interests of, Predictive and its stockholders, and approved the merger, the merger agreement and related matters.

On April 8, 2003, the parties executed the merger agreement and thereafter issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement and other related matters.

On April 10, 2003, we entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with Science Application International Corporation, or SAIC, whereby we agreed to sell to SAIC our Information Sharing and Analysis Centers (ISAC) and Open Source Intelligence (OSI) services business units in exchange for 4,192,220 shares of our common stock. The merger agreement with INS specifically permitted us to enter into this agreement, subject to the consent of INS with respect to certain sections, which consent has been obtained. The estimated initial consideration of $0.46 per share in the INS merger was based on the successful closing of the SAIC transaction prior to the closing of the merger and the reduction of our common stock outstanding by these 4,192,220 shares.

Prior to the close of business on May 16, 2003, the SAIC transaction was successfully consummated and our common stock outstanding was reduced by 4,192,220 shares.

Reasons for the Merger and Board of Directors' Recommendation

Reasons for the Merger. In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger and to adopt and approve the merger agreement, our board of directors consulted with our senior management, legal counsel and financial advisor, reviewed a significant amount of information and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following factors:

- our current and historical financial condition and our results of operations as a stand-alone company, our prospects and strategic objectives, the risks involved in achieving those prospects and objectives, the network services industry as a whole, and the current and anticipated worldwide economic environment;
- the possible alternatives to the merger (including the possibility of continuing to operate as an independent entity, and the perceived risks thereof), the range of possible benefits to our stockholders of such alternatives and the timing and the likelihood of accomplishing the goal of any of such alternatives, and our board of directors' assessment that the merger with INS presented a superior opportunity to such alternatives;

Back to Contents

- the then current financial market conditions, and historical market prices, volatility and trading information with respect to our common stock;
- other historical information concerning our business, prospects, financial performance and condition, operations, technology, management and competitive position.

In the course of its deliberations, our board of directors also considered, among other things, the following positive factors:

- the expected value of the consideration to be received by our stockholders in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement regardless of the successful closing of the SAIC transaction prior to the merger;
- the fact that the approximately $0.46 per share expected to be paid as the consideration in the merger represents:
 - a premium of approximately $0.203, or 79.0%, over the trailing average closing sales prices for our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market for the one month ended April 7, 2003 of $0.257 per share,
 - a premium of approximately $0.196, or 74.2%, over the trailing average closing sales prices for our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market for the one week ended April 7, 2003 of $0.264 per share, and
 - a premium of approximately $0.20, or 76.9%, over the $0.26 closing sale price for our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market on April 7, 2003, the trading day prior to our board's approval of the merger agreement;
- the fact that given the expected closing date and our anticipated second quarter 2003 revenues and working capital needs, the board of directors does not believe the aggregate consideration to be received will be reduced pursuant to the merger consideration adjustment;
- the financial presentation and written opinion of Udata Capital, Inc. to our board of directors to the effect that, as of April 8, 2003, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the written opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of our common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, regardless of the successful closing of the SAIC transaction prior to the closing of the merger, is fair from a financial point of view to those holders (the full text of this opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Udata Capital in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement);
- the likelihood that the proposed acquisition would be consummated, in light of the experience, reputation and financial capabilities of INS;
- the overall fairness of the terms of the merger agreement and related documents, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, and the conditions to their respective obligations, in light of the circumstances under which they were negotiated;
- the fact that pursuant to the merger agreement, we are not prohibited from responding (at any time prior to our stockholders' approval and adoption of the merger agreement with INS) in the manner provided in the merger agreement to certain takeover proposals that our board of directors determines in good faith constitute a superior offer, and, upon payment of a predetermined termination fee, we may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances to enter into a superior offer transaction;
- the belief by our board of directors that we obtained the highest price per share that INS is willing to pay;
- the belief by our board of directors that it was unlikely that a third party would offer a higher price than INS in the near future after considering, among other things, that we or our representatives had contacted over 20 other parties concerning the acquisition of Predictive;

Back to Contents

- the historically low trading volume of our stock, the volatility of our stock price and the ability of our stockholders to realize liquidity with respect to their shares in light of the level of such trading volume and volatility;
- the fact that the merger consideration is all cash, which provides a certainty of value to our stockholders compared to a transaction in which our stockholders would receive stock;
- management's assessment that INS has the financial capability to complete the merger, in view of the absence of a financing condition in the merger agreement and the representation and warranty to that effect made by INS in the merger agreement;
- the view of our board of directors that the merger with INS presented the best available option for our stockholders when compared to, and in light of, the potential stockholder value that could be expected to be generated from the other strategic alternatives to the merger available to us, including remaining independent and continuing to successfully implement our current growth model, the risks and uncertainties associated with those alternatives and the uncertain timing and likelihood of accomplishing the goals of those alternatives;
- the fact that Predictive would no longer be subject to the substantial compliance, insurance, regulatory and other costs to us of being a public company listed on The Nasdaq SmallCap Market, including the additional costs associated with complying with the recently enacted Sarbanes-Oxley Act upon the closing of the merger;
- the view of our board of directors, based upon the advice of management after consultation with legal counsel, that the regulatory approvals necessary to complete the merger could be obtained;
- the fact that the merger would be subject to the approval of a majority of our stockholders and our stockholders, other than our stockholders who signed voting agreements, would be free to reject the transaction with INS; and
- the availability of appraisal rights for our stockholders who properly exercise their statutory appraisal rights.

In the course of its deliberations, our board of directors also considered, among other things, the following negative factors:

- risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the merger, the possibility that the merger will not be consummated and the potential negative effect of public announcement of the merger in that event on our sales, operating results and stock price and our ability to retain key management and personnel;
- the fact that the aggregate merger consideration may be reduced if our estimates of our closing net assets prove to be incorrect by more than $1,250,000;
- that our stockholders would not benefit from any potential future increase in our value;
- that, under the terms of the merger agreement and the voting agreements, (1) neither we nor the stockholders that signed voting agreements can solicit other acquisition proposals, (2) we must pay to INS a termination fee and/or reimburse INS for certain of its transaction costs if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, and (3) the holders of approximately 28.4% of our common stock as of April 8, 2003, the date of our board's approval of the merger agreement, have agreed to vote for the merger, all of which may deter others from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to our stockholders;
- the fact that gains from an all-cash transaction would be taxable to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- that if the merger does not close, our officers and other employees will have expended extensive efforts attempting to complete the transaction and will have experienced significant distractions from their work during the pendency of the transaction and we will have incurred substantial transactions costs in connection with the transaction and such costs will negatively impact our operating results;

Back to Contents

- the conditions to INS's obligation to complete the merger and the right of INS to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances; and
- that certain of our directors and executive officers may have had other interests with respect to the merger in addition to their interests as stockholders of Predictive generally, as described in "The Merger" "Interests of Predictive's Directors and Management in the Merger."

The preceding discussion of the information and factors considered by our board of directors is not, and is not intended to be, exhaustive. In light of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, our board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise attempt to assign relative weights to the various factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, our board of directors did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to the ultimate determination of our board of directors, but rather, our board of directors conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including discussions with and questioning of our senior management and legal and financial advisors.

Board of Directors Recommendation. After careful consideration, our board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger is advisable and in the best interests of Predictive and our stockholders, approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and declared that it is in the best interests of Predictive's stockholders that you adopt and approve the merger agreement and approve the merger on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement. Accordingly, the board of directors of Predictive unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger.

Opinion of Udata Capital, Inc.

Pursuant to a letter agreement dated as of February 10, 2003, we retained Udata Capital, Inc. to, among other activities, render an opinion to our board of directors regarding the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to our stockholders. We selected Udata Capital to render a fairness opinion in connection with this transaction based on Udata Capital's qualifications, reputation, experience, and expertise in providing investment banking services to its clients in the information technology sector. At the meeting of our board of directors on April 8, 2003, Udata Capital delivered its written opinion that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limits of review as set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to our stockholders.

The full text of Udata Capital's written opinion, which describes the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations of review undertaken by Udata Capital, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. You are urged to, and should, read the Udata Capital opinion carefully and in its entirety. The Udata Capital opinion is directed to our board of directors and addresses only the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to holders of shares of our common stock as of the date of the opinion. The Udata Capital opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger, and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote on the merger. The summary of the Udata Capital opinion set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Udata Capital:

- reviewed the terms of the draft of the merger agreement furnished to Udata Capital on April 7, 2003;
- reviewed certain of our publicly available financial statements and other public information;
- participated in certain discussions with our senior management concerning certain internal business, financial and operational information regarding current and forecasted financial information;
- compared the proposed financial terms of the offer and certain other aspects of our financial performance with other relevant publicly-traded companies;

Back to Contents

- compared the proposed financial terms and share price premiums of the offer with those of other relevant precedent mergers and acquisitions;
- reviewed historical market prices and trading activity for our common stock and compared them with those of publicly-traded companies in our industry;
- considered the state of information technology, or IT, software and services market, including network and security sectors, and the impact of the market on our operations;
- reviewed a liquidation analysis of Predictive provided by our management; and
- considered other financial studies, analyses and investigations as Udata Capital deemed appropriate for purposes of its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Udata Capital relied, without independent verification, on the accuracy and completeness of all the financial and other information, including without limitation the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement, that was publicly available or that we furnished to Udata Capital. With respect to the financial forecasts examined by Udata Capital, Udata Capital assumed that they were reasonably prepared and reflected the best available estimates of our management as to our future performance.

With respect to the liquidation analysis provided by us and examined by Udata Capital, Udata Capital assumed that the liquidation analysis accurately reflected the range of values that would be available to be distributed to stockholders upon liquidation of Predictive. Udata Capital has not made an independent appraisal or valuation of any of our assets nor does it assume responsibility for or express any view as to financial forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. Udata Capital has not reviewed our books and records, nor made a physical inspection of our properties or facilities. Udata Capital assumed that the merger would be consummated on the terms set forth in the merger agreement, without modification or waiver of any material terms.

For purposes of its analyses, Udata Capital assumed the completion of the sale of our ISAC (the Information Sharing and Analysis Center division and Open Source Intelligence division) business to Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) prior to the closing of the merger for approximately 4.2 million shares of our common stock. Notwithstanding, Udata Capital deemed the impact of the sale of the ISAC business to be non-material to the results of the Udata Capital analysis or the Udata Capital opinion and therefore the sale to SAIC had no impact on the conclusions contained in the Udata Capital opinion. The SAIC transaction has since been successfully closed and the number of shares of our common stock outstanding has been reduced by approximately 4.2 million shares.

The Udata Capital opinion is based upon market, economic, financial and other conditions as they existed and could be evaluated as of April 7, 2003. Although developments following the date of the Udata Capital opinion may affect the opinion, Udata Capital assumed no obligation to update, revise or reaffirm the opinion.

The following is a summary description of some of the sources of information and methodologies employed by Udata Capital in rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant method of financial and comparative analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances. Consequently, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. Udata Capital believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that considering any portions of those analyses and factors without considering all of them could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying the opinion. This summary of financial analyses includes information presented in tabular format, and are based upon the assumption that we will consummate the sale of the ISAC business. In order to fully understand the financial analyses used by Udata Capital, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

Implied Transaction Value. Udata Capital calculated an equity value for Predictive of $19.2 million and an enterprise value for Predictive of negative $1.4 million, based on an estimation made on April 7, 2003 as to the amount of consideration payable to the holders of Predictive common stock. Udata Capital assumed that the final net assets at closing would remain within the estimated range specified in the merger agreement, and therefore the adjustment at closing would be zero. The enterprise value was obtained by adding to the equity value of $19.2 million, our capital lease obligations of approximately $60,000, and subtracting the amount of our cash and restricted cash as of December 31, 2003 of $20.6 million, which, for this purpose, included $21.3 million in cash and restricted cash on the balance sheet, $1.8 million in proceeds from the expected exercise of options, less $2.5 million of restructuring reserves. Udata Capital then calculated the implied valuation multiples by dividing both enterprise value and equity value by our revenue for the twelve months ended December 31, 2002, for the last quarter ended December 31, 2002 on an annualized basis, and for the estimated quarter ending March 31, 2003 on an annual ized basis.

	Multiple of Enterprise Value	Multiple of Equity Value
2002 Revenue	(0.0x)	0.4x
Run Rate Revenue for the quarter ending 12/31/02	(0.0x)	0.5x
Run Rate Revenue for the quarter ending 3/31/03	(0.0x)	0.6x

Predictive Stock Performance Analysis. Udata Capital compared our recent stock performance with that of the Nasdaq Composite and an index comprised of certain publicly traded companies in the information technology services industry that Udata Capital deemed relevant. This index consisted of the following companies: Alphanet Solutions, Braun Consulting, Cysive, DiamondCluster International, Edgewater Technology, Inforte, Modem Media, Tanning Technology, and The Management Network Group. Udata Capital noted that none of the companies used in the stock performance analysis is identical to Predictive. Udata Capital also noted that our latest twelve month high and low closing trading prices were $1.54 and $0.17 respectively, and that during the past 9 months, the stock price traded between $0.17 and $0.50, and the average closing price was $0.26 per share.

Comparable Public Company Analysis. Udata Capital compared certain financial information and valuation ratios relating to Predictive with those of certain other publicly traded IT services companies that had public market valuations of less than $100 million, and that had declining revenues during the past 12 months and negative profitability. Udata Capital noted that the selected comparable public companies did not represent the entire universe of potentially relevant IT services companies, and that none of the companies used in the analysis is identical to Predictive. The companies included were: Alphanet Solutions, Braun Consulting, DiamondCluster International, Edgewater Technology, Inforte, Modem Media, Tanning Technology, and The Management Network Group. Financial information reviewed by Udata Capital included each company's:

- market capitalization, or equity value, calculated as the most recent closing price multiplied by the current shares outstanding;
- enterprise value, calculated as the market capitalization of the selected company, plus the company's short term and long term debt obligations, less the company's cash, cash equivalents, and investments;
- latest twelve month, or LTM, revenue as reported as of the date of Udata Capital's fairness opinion; and
- annualized run rate revenue for the most recent quarter, or MRQ, as of the date of Udata Capital's fairness opinion.

Udata Capital also compared the comparable companies' multiples for the quarter ending December 31, 2002, or Q4, with Predictive's expected revenue for the quarter ending March 31, 2003, or Q1E. Udata Capital noted that the multiples implied by the proposed offer were within the reference range of each valuation analysis. The following table presents implied valuation multiples for the Predictive transaction and reference ranges for the public company analysis:

	Reference Range
Predictive	Low	Median	High

Precedent M&A Transactions. Updata Capital reviewed and compared precedent merger and acquisition transactions under $100 million in value involving sellers that shared certain operational and financial characteristics with Predictive. Updata Capital noted that the selected precedent transactions were not intended to be representative of the entire range of precedent transactions in IT consulting. These precedent transactions included: SBI's acquisition of Razorfish, CIBER's acquisition of ECSoft plc, CGI Group's acquisition of Cognicase, Progress Software's acquisition of eXcelon, divine's acquisition of Viant, SBI's acquisition of Lante, Intellimark's acquisition of Technisource, and Seneca Investment's acquisition of Organic. Financial information, regarding these transactions, that were reviewed by Updata Capital included:

- offer value, or equity value, calculated as the offer price multiplied by the current shares outstanding;
- enterprise value, calculated as the offer value of the respective target company, plus the company's short term and long term debt obligations, less the company's cash, cash equivalents, and investments;
- LTM revenue as of the date of the respective acquisition; and
- annualized run rate revenue for the most recent quarter as of the date just prior to the announcement of the acquisition.

Updata Capital also compared the comparable company's multiples for the quarter ending December 31, 2002, or Q4, with our expected revenue for the quarter ending March 31, 2003, or Q1E. Estimated multiples paid in the precedent transactions analysis were based upon information obtained from public filings and public company disclosures. No transaction utilized as a comparison is identical to the INS merger transaction. Updata Capital noted that the multiples implied by the proposed offer were within the reference range of each valuation analysis. The following table presents implied valuation multiples for the INS merger and reference ranges for the precedent M&A analysis:

	Predictive	Reference Range
		Low	Median	High
Enterprise Value / LTM Revenue	(0.0x)	(0.1x)	0.1x	0.7x
Enterprise Value / Q4 Run Rate Revenue	(0.0x)	(0.1x)	0.2x	0.7x

Equity Value / LTM Revenue	0.4x	0.2x	0.6x	1.3x
Equity Value / Q4 Run Rate Revenue	0.5x	0.2x	0.7x	1.6x
Equity Value / Q1E Run Rate Revenue	0.6x	0.2x	0.7x	1.6x

Premiums Paid Analysis. Updata Capital considered and reviewed the premium paid over a company's trading price 1, 5, and 20 trading days prior to the date of an announced acquisition. Updata Capital analyzed such premiums for three groups of companies deemed to be relevant with respect to Predictive's industry sector and financial status including: (i) recent IT software and services acquisitions under $100 million in equity value; (ii) recent IT services acquisitions; and (iii) recent IT software and services acquisitions where the target's net cash balance was at least 80% of the equity value. Updata Capital noted that the premiums implied by the proposed offer were within the reference range of each valuation analysis. The following table presents the implied premium for the merger and reference ranges for the premiums paid analysis:

	Predictive	Reference Range

Liquidation Analysis. Updata Capital reviewed the analysis, prepared by our management, of the per share liquidation value if we were to cease operation and liquidate our assets as of June 30, 2003 and distribute the remaining cash to our stockholders. The analysis yielded an estimated range of value between $0.00 and $0.09 per share. Updata Capital noted that the per share merger consideration of the offer proposal was in excess of the liquidation analysis value.

Conclusion. In connection with the review of the merger by our board of directors, Updata Capital performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses. The summary set forth above does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the analyses and factors considered by Updata Capital. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process that involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and therefore, such an opinion is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Updata Capital considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it. Updata Capital believes that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all analyses, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying its opinion. The conclusions reached by Updata Capital may involve significant elements of subjective judgment and qualitative analysis. In performing its analyses, Updata Capital considered general economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond our control. The analyses supplied by Updata Capital and its opinion were among many factors taken into consideration by our board in making its decision to enter into the Merger Agreement and should not be considered as determinative of such decision.

Pursuant to its engagement letter with us, Updata Capital was paid a retainer fee of $40,000 and will receive a fee for the fairness opinion rendered to our board of directors in the amount of $150,000, plus the reimbursement of its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and fees up to $75,000. Updata Capital also would have been paid an additional fee for the separate sale of our security consulting business, which did not and will not materialize. We have also agreed to indemnify and hold harmless Updata Capital and its affiliates and any controlling person, director, employee or agent acting on behalf of Updata Capital or any of its affiliates for losses, claims, damages and liabilities relating to or arising out of services provided by Updata Capital as our financial advisor. The terms of the fee arrangement with Updata Capital, which we and Updata Capital believe are customary in transactions of this nature, were negotiated at arm's-length.

Interests of Predictive's Directors and Management in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the merger, you should be aware that members of our board of directors and our executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests.

All such additional interests are described below, to the extent material, and except as described below, such persons have, to our knowledge, no material interest in the merger apart from those of stockholders generally. Our board of directors was aware of, and considered the interests of, our directors and executive officers in approving the merger agreement and the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that from and after the effective time of the merger, INS will and will cause the surviving corporation to fulfill and honor the obligations of Predictive pursuant to any indemnification agreements between us and our directors and officers, and any indemnification provisions under our charter documents in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. The

Back to Contents

Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the surviving corporation will contain provisions with respect to exculpation and indemnification that are at least as favorable to our directors and officers as those contained in our charter documents as in effect on the date of the merger agreement, and such provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six (6) years from the effective time of the merger in a manner adverse to such directors and officers unless required by applicable law. The merger agreement further provides that we will purchase prior to the closing of the merger, for a price not to exceed a stated amount set forth in the merger agreement, directors' and officers' liability tail insurance coverage covering those persons who were, as of the date of the merger agreement, covered by our directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, on terms comparable to those in effect on the date of the merger agreement, and covering all periods prior to the effective time of the merger.

Bonus Arrangements. The board considered the assistance of our senior executives integral in entering into the merger agreement and deems the continued service of these senior executives necessary in order to complete the merger. To incentivize such executives, and other members of senior management, to assist us in effecting the merger, the board has established a bonus program whereby our senior executives and senior management will be entitled to certain payments upon the closing of the merger. The following table sets forth the aggregate amount to be set aside and paid pursuant to the bonus program:

Merger Consideration Per Share	Total Set Aside Under Bonus Program
Less than $0.35	$ 150,000
Between $0.35 and $0.374	$ 250,000
Between $0.375 and $0.399	$ 350,000
Equal to or greater than $0.40	$ 450,000

Andrew Zimmerman, our Chief Executive Officer, Neeraj Sethi, our Chief Financial Officer, Gary Papilsky, our General Counsel, Shirley Howell, our Executive Vice President of Operations and Edward Schwartz, our Executive Vice President of Global Integrity Services, are our senior executives eligible to participate in the bonus program. Mr. Zimmerman, subject to board approval, will determine the percentage each eligible senior executive or other member of senior management will receive of the total amount subject to the bonus program.

Employment Offers. Mr. Schwartz and Ms. Howell have been offered employment after the closing with INS. Mr. Schwartz has been offered the position of INS's Vice President, Business Development. His compensation pursuant to this offer letter will be $125,000 per annum, plus an additional $14,666 per month for a three-month period subject to active employment, with the ability to receive a bonus of $125,000 contingent on the achievement of to be determined performance targets. Mr. Schwartz also will receive a non-recoverable draw on bonus/commissions of $4,166 per month for the first six months of employment. Mr. Schwartz will also be entitled, upon commencement of employment with INS, to receive options to purchase 125,000 shares of INS common stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value on the date of grant. The options will vest over a period of four years in even monthly installments, conditioned on Mr. Schwartz's continued employment with INS.

Ms. Howell has been offered the position of INS's Vice President, Southern Region. Her compensation pursuant to this offer letter will be $185,000 per annum, plus an additional $15,417 per month for a six-month period subject to active employment. Ms. Howell will also be entitled, upon commencement of employment with INS, to receive options to purchase 175,000 shares of INS common stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value on the date of grant. The options will vest over a period of four years in even monthly installments, conditioned on Ms. Howell's continued employment with INS. On October 1, 2003, the offer letter provides that Ms. Howell's salary will be reduced to $135,000 per annum, but she will be entitled to a bonus of $125,000 contingent upon the achievement of to be determined performance targets.

In addition, Mr. Papilsky will remain employed by INS after the closing to assist in the transition period for a duration of approximately one month (subject to extension upon mutual consent), on terms substantially similar to those currently in place for Mr. Papilsky.

Back to Contents

Severance Arrangements. We previously entered into employment agreements with the executive officers listed below. In the event that any of such officers are terminated without cause upon a change of control, the employment agreements provide for severance payments, as well as continued health coverage at our expense, to each officer equal to the amount set forth next to the terminated officer's name. Our executive officers who have such arrangements in place are:

Name	Severance Payment	Health Coverage
Andrew Zimmerman	equal to 12 months salary	12 months health coverage
Neeraj Sethi	equal to 12 months salary	6 months health coverage
Shirley Howell	equal to 9 months salary	6 months health coverage
Gary Papilsky	equal to 9 months salary	6 months health coverage
Edward Schwartz	equal to 6 months salary	6 months health coverage

Other than Shirley Howell and Edward Schwartz, we do not expect these executive officers to be retained on a permanent basis by INS after the merger. The termination of the employment of such officers will be deemed a termination without "cause" in connection with a change in control, and as a result these officers will be entitled to receive the aforementioned severance payments and health coverage.

Option and Restricted Sale Acceleration. In connection with the closing of the merger, all unvested options and restricted stock held by our directors and employees, including our executive officers, will accelerate and be exercisable in full at the closing. In addition, in-the-money options will automatically be exercised on behalf of the holders thereof that have not been exercised prior to the closing pursuant to a board approved net exercise program. As a result of this net exercise, holders of in-the-money options, including directors and executive officers, who have not exercised such options prior to the closing of the merger will receive at the closing the per share merger consideration, less any applicable exercise price and withholding taxes.

Appraisal Rights

If the merger is consummated, dissenting holders of our common stock who follow the procedures specified in Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporate Law within the appropriate time periods will be entitled to have their shares of our common stock appraised by a court and to receive the "fair value" of such shares in cash as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery in lieu of the consideration that such stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement.

Stockholders who properly perfect appraisal rights or dissenters' rights and who do not subsequently withdraw such appraisal rights or dissenters' rights (the "Electing Stockholders") will not be entitled to surrender their shares of our common stock for payment in the manner otherwise provided in the merger agreement and described in this proxy statement.

THE FOLLOWING SUMMARY OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS UNDER DELAWARE LAW IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE RELEVANT CODE SECTIONS OF DELAWARE, WHICH IS ATTACHED HERETO AS ANNEX B.

FAILURE TO STRICTLY FOLLOW THE PROCEDURES SET FORTH IN SUCH CODE SECTIONS MAY RESULT IN THE LOSS, TERMINATION OR WAIVER OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS. PREDICTIVE STOCKHOLDERS WHO VOTE TO APPROVE AND ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT WILL NOT HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE THEIR SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK APPRAISED. A STOCKHOLDER WHO DESIRES TO EXERCISE HIS, HER OR ITS APPRAISAL RIGHTS MUST ALSO SUBMIT A WRITTEN DEMAND FOR PAYMENT OF THE FAIR VALUE OF OUR COMMON STOCK HELD BY HIM OR HER TO US PRIOR TO THE SPECIAL MEETING. THIS PROXY STATEMENT CONSTITUTES NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF COMMON STOCK CONCERNING THE AVAILABILITY OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS UNDER SECTION 262.

Predictive stockholders considering seeking appraisal rights under Delaware law should note that they could receive a value for their shares that is more, the same or less than the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they did not seek appraisal. The costs of the appraisal proceeding may be determined by the court and taxed against the parties as the court deems equitable under the circumstances. PREDICTIVE STOCKHOLDERS CONSIDERING EXERCISING APPRAISAL RIGHTS SHOULD

Back to Contents

CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH REGARD TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF SUCH ACTIONS.

At the effective time of the merger, the shares of our common stock held by an Electing Stockholder will be canceled, and such stockholder will be entitled to no further rights except the right to receive payment of the fair value of such holder's shares. However, if a stockholder fails to perfect or withdraws or loses his or her appraisal rights with respect to his or her shares of our common stock, such holder's shares will not be purchased by us as set forth below, and such holder will receive the applicable merger consideration in exchange for his or her our common stock under the terms of the merger agreement.

Holders of our common stock who demand the appraisal of such holders' shares and who do not vote in favor of the merger are entitled to certain appraisal rights under the DGCL in connection with the merger. Such holders who perfect their appraisal rights and follow the procedures in the manner prescribed by the DGCL will be entitled to have their shares converted into the right to receive from us such consideration as may be determined by the Court of Chancery (the "Court") to be due pursuant to the DGCL. Any stockholder who wishes to demand appraisal rights, or who wishes to preserve his or her right to do so, should review this section carefully, since failure to comply with the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will result in the loss of such rights.

REFERENCE IS MADE TO SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL, A COPY OF WHICH IS ATTACHED TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT AS ANNEX B, FOR A COMPLETE STATEMENT OF THE APPRAISAL RIGHTS OF DISSENTING STOCKHOLDERS. THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THAT SECTION.

A demand for appraisal must be executed by or for the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as such stockholder's name appears on the share certificate. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose the fact that, in exercising the demand, he is acting as agent for the record owner. A person having a beneficial interest in our common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below and in a timely manner to perfect whatever appraisal rights the beneficial owners may have.

A written demand for appraisal rights must be filed with us before the special meeting. Each stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights should mail or deliver his, her or its written demand to us at our address c/o Predictive Systems, Inc., 19 West 44th Street, 9th Floor, New York, NY 10036, Attention: Legal. The written demand for appraisal should specify the stockholder's name and mailing address, and that the stockholder is thereby demanding appraisal of his, her or its common stock. Within ten days after the effective time of the merger, we must provide notice of the effective time of the merger to all of our stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and have not voted for the merger.

At any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger, any stockholder who has delivered a written demand to us shall have the right to withdraw such written demand for appraisal and to accept the terms of the merger agreement. After this period, a stockholder may withdraw his, her or its written demand for appraisal and receive payment for his, her or its shares as provided in the merger agreement only with our consent.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger (but not thereafter), any stockholder who has satisfied the requirements of Section 262 may deliver to us a written demand for a statement listing the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. We, as the surviving corporation in the merger, must mail such written statement to the stockholder no later than the later of ten days after the stockholder's request is received by us or ten days after the latest date for delivery of a demand for appraisal under Section 262.

Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, the surviving corporation or any Electing Stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights may file a petition with the Court demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such Electing Stockholders. We have no present intention to file such a petition if demand for appraisal is made. Note that if no petition is filed within the allotted time, then the right of the Electing Stockholder to an appraisal may cease.

Back to Contents

At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who are entitled to an appraisal of their shares and may require the stockholders who have demanded appraisal to submit their certificates to the Register in Chancery. Failure to comply may result in a dismissal of the proceedings as to such stockholder. After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair market value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any. The Court shall direct the payment of the fair market value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto.

To the extent that there are any inconsistencies between the foregoing summary and Section 262 of the DGCL, the DGCL shall control.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a "purchase transaction" by INS for financial accounting purposes.

Form of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, at the effective time of the merger, Mid-West Acquisition Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of INS and a party to the merger agreement, will merge with and into us. We will survive the merger as a wholly-owned Delaware subsidiary of INS.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of our common stock, other than treasury shares, shares held by INS or Mid-West Acquisition Corporation, shares held by any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary belonging to us or INS and those shares held by stockholders who perfected their appraisal rights (as described in "The Merger" Appraisal), will be canceled and automatically converted into the right to receive the merger consideration of approximately $0.46 in cash, without interest. Treasury shares, shares held by INS or Mid-West Acquisition Corporation and shares held by our or INS's wholly-owned subsidiaries will be canceled immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

The exact amount of cash that holders will receive per share of Predictive common stock cannot be determined until the closing of the merger, but will initially be equal to $19,186,700, divided by the number of shares of Predictive common stock and the number of shares of Predictive common stock subject to "in-the-money" options outstanding at the closing. As of the close of business on May 16, 2003, there were 33,909,381 shares of our common stock outstanding, and there were 7,450,728 shares of Predictive common stock subject to "in-the-money" options outstanding. In addition, the $19,186,700 aggregate consideration will be adjusted based on our net assets at closing as described under "The Merger" Adjustment Mechanism" below.

Adjustment Mechanism

We have estimated in the merger agreement that our net assets at closing will be $15,386,700. The initial aggregate consideration of $19,186,700 to be paid will be increased if our net assets at closing are greater than $16,636,700 by an amount equal to such excess. The aggregate initial consideration to be paid will be decreased if our net assets at closing are less than $14,136,700 by an amount equal to such shortfall. Our net assets at closing for these purposes will be calculated generally in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, subject to certain significant exceptions and certain agreed upon amounts as set forth on the "Net Asset Determination Schedule" attached as Annex D to this proxy statement. The Net Asset Determination Schedule contains the detailed procedures by which our net assets will be determined at closing. You are encouraged to read the Net Asset Determination Schedule in its entirety.

We do not currently anticipate that an adjustment will be necessary based on our net assets. However, an adjustment may be necessary, and the expected price per share may be reduced, if our estimates of our net assets prove to be incorrect. Factors that may result in our estimates being incorrect include, but are not limited to, a material delay in the expected closing date, a significant decline in our revenues during the second quarter of 2003, the incurrence of unexpected costs and expenses, and an inability to collect accounts receivable.

We intend to issue a press release no later than three (3) trading days prior to the special meeting informing stockholders of what the parties believe to be the final per share purchase price determination.

As of the effective time of the merger, all shares of our common stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be canceled and will cease to exist and each holder of a certificate representing any shares of our common stock (other than stockholders who have perfected their appraisal rights) will cease to have any rights as a stockholder, except the right to receive the merger consideration. The aggregate price of $19,186,700, as such amount may be increased or decreased pursuant to the merger consideration adjustment, was determined through arm's-length negotiations between INS and us.

Conversion of Shares; Procedures for Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of our common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, U.S. Stock Transfer Corporation, or another paying agent reasonably acceptable to us, will send a letter of transmittal to each former Predictive stockholder. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for obtaining cash in exchange for shares of our common stock. You should not return stock certificates with the enclosed proxy.

Upon surrender of a stock certificate representing shares of our common stock, together with a duly completed and validly executed letter of transmittal, and any other documents that may be reasonably required by the paying agent, the holder of the certificate will be entitled to receive from the paying agent, on behalf of INS, as promptly as practicable in accordance with the paying agent's customary procedures, the per share merger consideration for each share represented by the stock certificate, and the corresponding stock certificate will be cancelled.

In the event of a transfer of ownership of our common stock that is not registered in our stock transfer books, the merger consideration for shares of our common stock may be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the surrendered certificate is registered if:

- the certificate is properly endorsed or otherwise is in proper form for transfer, and
- the person requesting such payment:
 - pays any transfer or other taxes resulting from the payment to a person other than the registered holder of the certificate; or
 - establishes to INS or any of its agents that the tax has been paid or is not applicable.

No interest will be paid or accrue on any cash payable upon the surrender of stock certificates representing shares of our common stock. The cash paid upon conversion of shares of our common stock will be issued in full satisfaction of all rights relating to the shares of our common stock.

Effect on Awards Outstanding under Predictive's Stock Plans

Stock Options. In-the-money options that have not been exercised prior to the closing shall be amended and automatically exercised pursuant to a board approved net exercise program. As a result of this net exercise, holders of in-the-money options who have not exercised such options prior to the closing of the merger will receive at the closing the per share merger consideration, less any applicable exercise price and withholding taxes. As a result of the merger, any options outstanding at the effective time of the merger that are not in-the-money will be cancelled. If you exercise any options with a per share exercise price greater than the merger consideration to be paid in the merger, you will lose money in connection with this transaction.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan. As of April 30, 2003, all offering and purchase periods under way under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan were terminated, and all outstanding purchase rights were immediately exercised by applying the accumulated payroll deductions for each participant to purchase shares of our common stock.

Back to Contents

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Delaware Secretary of State or at such later time as is agreed upon by INS and us and specified in the certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur on the closing date of the merger, which will not be later than the second business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the completion of the merger described in the merger agreement or at such other time as agreed to by INS and us.

Delisting and Deregistration of Predictive's Common Stock

If the merger is completed, our common stock will no longer be traded on The Nasdaq SmallCap Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

General. The following describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger that are generally applicable to U.S. holders of Predictive common stock. However, this discussion does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to particular U.S. holders in light of their particular circumstances or to persons who are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws. This discussion deals only with U.S. holders that hold shares of Predictive common stock as capital assets within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax treatment of special classes of U.S. holders, such as banks, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, financial institutions, broker-dealers, persons, if any, holding Predictive common stock as "qualified small business stock," persons holding Predictive common stock as part of a hedging, "straddle," conversion or other integrated transaction, U.S. expatriates, or persons subject to the alternative minimum tax. This discussion may not be applicable to stockholders who acquired Predictive common stock pursuant to the exercise of options or warrants or otherwise as compensation. Furthermore, this discussion does not address any aspect of state, local or foreign tax considerations. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the merger, including the applicable federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences to you of the merger.

As used in this proxy statement, a "U.S. holder" means a holder of Predictive common stock who is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, partnership, or other entity created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or any state within the United States;
- an estate whose income is includible in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes, regardless of its source; or
- a trust whose administration is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and that has one or more U.S. persons who have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

This discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, applicable Department of Treasury regulations, judicial authority, and administrative rulings and practice, all as of the date of this proxy statement. Future legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations may adversely affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions described in this proxy statement. Any changes or interpretations could be applied retroactively and could affect the tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders.

Consequences of the Merger to Predictive Stockholders. The receipt of cash in exchange for Predictive common stock in the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, a U.S. holder will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. holder's tax basis in the Predictive common stock exchanged in the merger. Gain or loss will be calculated separately for each block of shares, with each block of shares consisting of shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held the Predictive common stock for more than one year as of the effective time of the merger. Certain limitations apply to the deductibility of capital losses by U.S. holders.

Back to Contents

Federal Income Tax Backup Withholding. A stockholder may be subject to backup withholding at the rate of 30% with respect to a payment of cash in the merger unless the stockholder:

- is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories (including financial institutions, tax-exempt organizations and non-U.S. stockholders) and, when required, demonstrates this fact; or
- provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies, under penalties of perjury, that the U.S. stockholder is not subject to backup withholding, and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules.

To prevent backup withholding and possible penalties, U.S. holders should complete and sign the substitute Form W-9 included in the letter of transmittal which will be sent to you if the merger is completed. Foreign stockholders should complete Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 BEN or other applicable form. Any amount withheld under these rules may be credited against the stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

We strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences to you of the merger, including the applicability and effect of U.S. Federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax laws, in view of your particular circumstances.

Regulatory Matters

Notifications and antitrust reviews may be required in one or more jurisdictions. While we do not anticipate any such requirements, the parties are currently evaluating the need for such notifications and reviews. Those material to the completion of the merger will be effected as soon as possible. It is possible that any of the governmental entities with which filings are required may seek, as conditions for granting approval of the merger, various regulatory concessions. There can be no assurance that INS or we will be able to satisfy or comply with these conditions or be able to cause our respective subsidiaries to satisfy or comply with these conditions, or that the required regulatory approvals will be obtained within the time frame contemplated by INS and us or on terms that will be satisfactory to INS and us. See The Merger and Voting Agreements The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Completion of the Merger.

Employee Matters and Continuation of Predictive's Employee Benefits

The merger agreement provides that effective no later than the day immediately preceding the effective time of the merger, Predictive shall terminate all of its group severance, separation or salary continuation plans, programs or arrangements and any and all Section 401(k) plans. However, INS has agreed that as soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, it will provide the employees of Predictive and its subsidiaries who remain employed with INS with substantially the same types and levels of compensation and employment benefits as those provided by us prior to the merger, subject to limited exceptions.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND VOTING AGREEMENTS

The Merger Agreement

The following description summarizes the material provisions of the merger agreement. Stockholders should read carefully the merger agreement in its entirety, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Conditions to the Completion of the Merger. Neither party will be obligated to effect the merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or, to the extent legally permitted, waived:

- the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock must have voted in favor of adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger;
- no statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that has the effect of making the merger illegal or otherwise preventing the completion of the merger shall have been enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered by any governmental entity;
- no action, suit claim or proceeding shall be pending or threatened which seeks to materially delay or prevent the consummation of the merger; and
- no order suspending the use of this proxy statement may be issued and no proceeding to suspend the use of this proxy statement shall have been initiated or threatened in writing by the SEC.

We will not be obligated to effect the merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or waived:

- the representations and warranties of INS and Mid-West Acquisition Corporation must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, subject to certain exceptions; and
- each of INS and Mid-West Acquisition Corporation must have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by the merger agreement at or prior to the closing of the merger.

INS will not be obligated to effect the merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or waived:

- our representations and warranties must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, subject to certain exceptions;
- we must have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by the merger agreement at or prior to the closing of the merger;
- no material adverse effect with respect to us and our subsidiaries shall have occurred since the date of the merger agreement;
- we receive consents to assign a certain real estate lease to INS;
- at least 80% of certain specified employees shall have accepted employment with INS; and
- no more than 80% of certain specified customers, and none of a specified subgroup of such customers, shall have given notice or other indication that they wish to:
 - substantially modify in an adverse fashion the terms and conditions under which we perform work for such customers, in the case of customers billed on a time and materials basis, or
 - terminate or modify in an adverse fashion the terms and conditions of a fixed price project to which the customers have previously committed, in the case of customers billed on a fixed price basis.

Material Adverse Effect. Several of our representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement are qualified by reference to whether the item in question is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on us. In addition, INS will not be required to close the merger if we suffer a material adverse effect[] prior to the closing. The merger agreement provides that a []material adverse effect[] means any change, event, violation, inaccuracy, circumstance or effect, individually or when aggregated with other changes, events, violations, inaccuracies, circumstances or effects, that is materially adverse to the business, assets (including intangible assets), liabilities, properties, financial condition or results of operations of the entity and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or the ability of any entity to perform its obligations under the merger agreement and timely complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. However, none of the following will be deemed, by itself or in combination, to constitute, and none of the following will be taken into account in determining whether there has been or will be a material adverse effect on us:

- any change in the market price or trading volume of our common stock;
- any failure by us to meet internal projections or forecasts or published revenue or earnings predictions for any period ending (or for which revenues or earnings are released) on or after the date of the merger agreement;
- any adverse change, event, violation, inaccuracy, circumstance or effect:
 - that we successfully prove results from, or is attributable to, conditions affecting the industries in which we participate, the United States economy as a whole, or foreign economies where we or any of our subsidiaries have material operations or sales (where such changes do not, in each case, disproportionately affect us or any of our subsidiaries);
 - resulting from our compliance with the terms of, or the taking of any action required by, the merger agreement;
- any voluntary termination of the employment of our employees by such employees; or
- the termination, cancellation, deferral or other adverse modification of any customer contracts.

No Solicitation. We have agreed, subject to certain exceptions arising out of fiduciary duties of our board of directors, that we will not, and will not permit any of our subsidiaries to, nor will we authorize or permit any of our or our subsidiaries[] officers, directors, affiliates or employees or any of our or their investment bankers, attorneys, accountants or other advisors or representatives retained by us or them, to, directly or indirectly:

- solicit, initiate, knowingly or intentionally encourage, facilitate or induce the making, submission or announcement of any other acquisition proposal;
- participate in any negotiations or discussions regarding, or furnish to any person any non-public information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any other acquisition proposal;
- approve, endorse or recommend any other acquisition proposal; or
- enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract contemplating or otherwise relating to any other acquisition transaction.

The merger agreement does provide that our board of directors may enter into a confidentiality agreement with and provide confidential information to, or enter into negotiations or discussions with, any person or group in response to an acquisition proposal submitted and not withdrawn by such person or group, if:

- neither we nor our subsidiaries nor any of our or their representatives have violated the restrictions set forth above;
- our board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel, that the action is required in order for the board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law;
- at least two (2) business days prior to providing any nonpublic information to, or entering into negotiations or discussions with, such person or group, we give INS written notice of the identity of the person or group and of our intention to furnish nonpublic information to, or enter into negotiations or discussions with, such person or group;

- we receive from such person or group an executed confidentiality agreement containing limitations on the use and disclosure of all nonpublic written and oral information provided by us to such person or group, with limitations which are no less favorable to us than those in the confidentiality agreement entered into with INS; and
- contemporaneously with providing any nonpublic information to such person or group, we provide such nonpublic information to INS.

The merger agreement provides that the term acquisition proposal means any offer or proposal (other than an offer or proposal by INS or Mid-West Acquisition Corporation) relating to any transaction or series of related transactions involving:

- any acquisition or purchase from us by any person or group (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) of more than a fifteen percent (15%) interest in our total outstanding voting securities, or that of any of our subsidiaries;
- any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person or group (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) beneficially owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of our total outstanding voting securities, or that of any of our subsidiaries;
- any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction involving us pursuant to which our stockholders immediately preceding such a transaction would hold less than eighty five percent (85%) of the equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity of such a transaction;
- any sale, lease, exchange, transfer, license (other than in the ordinary course of business and consistent with our past practices), acquisition or disposition of more than fifteen percent (15%) of our assets; or
- any liquidation or dissolution of us.

The merger agreement provides that our board of directors may amend, change, withdraw or modify its unanimous recommendation in favor of the merger at any time prior to our stockholders' approval and adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, but only to terminate the merger agreement in accordance with the termination procedures described below under the sub-heading Termination and only if:

- a superior offer (as described below) is made to us and is not withdrawn, and, concurrent with the termination of the merger agreement our board of directors causes us to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such a superior offer;
- neither we nor any of our subsidiaries nor any of our or their representatives have violated any of the restrictions regarding solicitation set forth above in connection with such superior offer; and
- our board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel, that in light of such superior offer, the withdrawal, amendment, change or modification of its recommendation is required in order for it to comply with its fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law.

The merger agreement provides that the term superior offer means any unsolicited, bona fide written offer made by a third party to consummate any acquisition proposal on terms that our board of directors determines, in its reasonable judgment (after consultation with a reputable financial advisor) to be more favorable to our stockholders from a financial point of view than the terms of the merger with INS. However, any such offer will not be deemed to be a superior offer if any financing required to complete the transaction contemplated by such an offer is not committed and is not likely in the reasonable judgment of our board of directors to be obtained by such third party on a timely basis.

Termination. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger under certain circumstances, including:

- by mutual written consent authorized by the boards of directors of INS and us;
- by either INS or us, if the merger has not been completed by September 30, 2003 for any reason, provided, however, that this right to terminate the merger agreement will not be available to a party whose action or failure to act was a principal cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the merger to be completed by September 30, 2003, and such action or failure to act constituted a breach of the merger agreement;
- by either INS or us, if any governmental entity issues any final and nonappealable order, decree or ruling or any other action having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger;
- by either INS or us, if our stockholders do not approve the merger agreement at a duly held stockholders meeting, provided, however, that the right to terminate the merger agreement for the failure to obtain the required approval of our stockholders will not be available to us where such failure was caused by our action or failure to act and our action or failure to act constitutes a breach by us of the merger agreement;
- by us, upon the approval of our board of directors, if our board of directors concludes in good faith that it is required to terminate the merger agreement by its fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law, after consultation with our outside legal counsel, in connection with entering into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal which qualifies as a superior offer;
- by either INS or us, if the other party has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the merger agreement, or if any representation or warranty has become untrue, in either case such that any of the conditions to the merger would not be satisfied as of the time of the breach or as of the time such representation or warranty became untrue and has not been, or is incapable of being, cured within thirty (30) calendar days after written notice of such breach or failure;
- by INS in the event we materially breach any of the provisions regarding solicitation relating to an acquisition proposal; or
- by INS if any of the following triggering events occurs:
 - our board of directors or any of its committees for any reason withdraws or withholds, or amends, changes or modifies in a manner adverse to INS, its unanimous recommendation in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger agreement or the approval of the merger;
 - we fail to include in this proxy statement the unanimous recommendation of our board of directors that stockholders vote in favor of and adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger;
 - our board of directors or any of its committees approves or recommends any other acquisition proposal;
 - we enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract accepting any other acquisition proposal; or
 - a tender or exchange offer relating to our securities is commenced by a person unaffiliated with INS and we have not sent to our stockholders, within ten (10) business days after such a tender or exchange offer is first published, sent or given, a statement disclosing that our board of directors recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer.

For all purposes of the merger agreement, the recommendation of the board shall be deemed to continue to be unanimous despite an abstention by one or more directors subsequent to the date of the merger agreement on any vote by the members of the board if:

- such abstention does not affect the due and valid recommendation of the board with respect to the merger;

Back to Contents

- no abstaining board member (or any affiliate thereof) makes any public statement with respect to the abstention, either explicitly or implicitly, in a manner adverse to INS nor any public statement reasonably likely to have an adverse effect on the stockholder vote; and
- subject to limited exception, no abstention in any way or fashion affects INS's rights and our obligations with respect to the maintenance, and the manner of maintenance, of the board's unanimous recommendation.

Termination Fee. The merger agreement requires that we pay INS a termination fee of $600,000, if, among other things:

- INS terminates the merger agreement as a result of a triggering event, as described above;
- the agreement is terminated by INS or us because our stockholders do not approve the merger at the special meeting, and prior to such vote a director abstains from a board or board committee vote concerning the merger and the director (or any of its affiliates, including Predictive) then makes a public statement adverse to INS or the merger;
- the fiduciary duties of our board of directors requires us to terminate the merger agreement in connection with our entering into a definitive agreement related to an acquisition proposal which qualifies as a superior offer;
- INS terminates the merger agreement because either the effective time has not occurred before September 30, 2003 or we failed to obtain the required approval of our stockholders, and any of the following occurs:
 - a third party has announced an acquisition proposal and has not publicly withdrawn the acquisition proposal at least five (5) business days prior to the earlier of September 30, 2003 or the meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger, as may be applicable, and within nine (9) months following the termination of our merger agreement with INS, an acquisition of us is completed; or
 - a third party has announced an acquisition proposal and has not publicly withdrawn the acquisition proposal at least five (5) business days prior to the earlier of September 30, 2003 or the meeting of our stockholders to vote on the merger, as may be applicable, and within nine (9) months following the termination of our merger agreement with INS, we enter into a letter of intent or similar document or contract that provides for any acquisition of us.

In addition to the termination fees described above, in the event INS terminates the merger agreement in connection with the breach of our representation and warranty that we have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by the merger agreement, and prior to such termination, we have received, or a third party has announced, an acquisition proposal and our breach is intended to or has the effect of facilitating such acquisition proposal or benefiting the person or entity making such acquisition proposal without similarly benefiting INS, we will be required to pay INS an amount equal to the out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by INS and Mid-West Acquisition Corporation in connection with the negotiation, execution and delivery of the merger agreement to which this proxy solicitation statement relates, provided, however, that we are not required to pay INS expenses in excess of $500,000.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger. Under the merger agreement, we have agreed that prior to the earlier of the termination of the merger agreement or the effective time of the merger, subject to certain exceptions, unless we obtain INS's written consent (which consent or refusal to grant consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) we will and will cause each of our subsidiaries to, carry on our and their businesses in the usual, regular and ordinary course in substantially the same manner as conducted up until now and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, pay our liabilities and taxes when due, pay or perform other obligations when due, and use commercially reasonable efforts consistent with past practices to preserve our and their present business organization, keep available the services of our and their present officers and employees and preserve our and their relationships with customers, suppliers, distributors, consultants, licensors, licensees and others having significant business dealings with us and them. In addition, we have agreed that, among other things and subject to certain exceptions, neither we nor any of our subsidiaries may, without INS's written consent (which consent or refusal to grant consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed):

- authorize cash payments in exchange for any options granted under any employee, consultant, director, or other stock plans;
- grant any severance or termination pay to any officer or key employee except pursuant to written agreements outstanding on the date of the merger agreement and as previously disclosed in writing to INS;

- enter into grants to transfer or license to any person future rights to our intellectual property other than non-exclusive licenses granted to end-users and non-exclusive distribution, reseller and similar commercial agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, provided that we may not (i) license, or enter into a distribution, reseller or similar arrangement, on an exclusive basis, or sell, any of our intellectual property; or (ii) enter into any contract (v) providing for any site licenses other than in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, (w) containing pricing or discounting terms or provisions other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (x) requiring us to use our "best efforts" other than in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, or (y) limiting our right to engage in any line of business or to compete with any person;
- enter into any contract (i) requiring us to purchase a minimum amount of products or services with aggregate commitments over the life of all such contracts in excess of $50,000 individually or $200,000 in the aggregate on a monthly basis, or (ii) requiring us to provide a minimum amount of products or services with aggregate commitments over the life of such contract in excess of $200,000;
- declare, set aside or pay any dividends on or make any other distributions in respect of any capital stock or split, combine or reclassify any capital stock or issue or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for any capital stock;
- purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, directly or indirectly, any shares of capital stock, except repurchases of unvested shares at or below cost in connection with the termination of the employment relationship with any employee pursuant to stock option or purchase agreements in effect on the date of the merger agreement, provided that no such repurchase shall be permitted in the event the per share repurchase price is greater than the per share merger consideration;
- issue, deliver, sell, authorize or designate or pledge or otherwise encumber, or propose any of the foregoing with respect to any shares of capital stock or any securities convertible into shares of capital stock, or subscriptions, rights, warrants or options to acquire any shares of capital stock or any securities convertible into shares of capital stock, or enter into other agreements or commitments of any character obligating it to issue any such shares or convertible securities, subject to certain exceptions;
- cause, permit or submit to a vote of our stockholders any amendments to our Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws (or similar governing instruments of any of our subsidiaries);
- acquire or agree to acquire by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing any equity interest in or a portion of the assets of, or by any other manner, any business or any corporation, partnership, association or other business organization or division, or otherwise acquire or agree to enter into any joint ventures or similar alliances;

- waive the benefits of, agree to modify in any manner, terminate, release any person from or knowingly fail to enforce the confidentiality or nondisclosure provisions of any contract to which we or any of our subsidiaries are a party or of which we or any of our subsidiaries are a beneficiary;
- enter into, modify or amend, or terminate certain types of material contracts, or waive, delay the exercise of, release or assign any material rights or claims thereunder, in each case, outside the ordinary course of business;
- except as required by generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP, revalue any of our assets or make any change in accounting methods, principles or practices;
- make any tax election or accounting method change, except as required by GAAP, that, individually or in the aggregate, is reasonably likely to adversely affect in any material respect our tax liability or tax attributes, settle or compromise any material tax liability or consent to any extension or waiver of any limitation period with respect to taxes;
- other than taking any action expressly permitted by the merger agreement, engage in any action with the intent to, directly or indirectly, adversely impact or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

- make any individual or series of related payments outside of the ordinary course of business in excess of $150,000 in the aggregate;
- commence any litigation; or

In addition to the foregoing, during the period between our initial delivery of our closing net assets schedule until the closing, we may not incur:

- any other liabilities except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and
- any liabilities of the kind that would be contained in the closing net assets schedule whatsoever, except for those liabilities consistent with, and not exceeding, the liabilities as set forth in the closing net assets schedule.

Business Promotion Program. The merger agreement provides that, to the extent permitted by law, we will develop a launch plan with INS to promote the benefits and improved capabilities of the combined company to our customers and employees. We are not required to incur any additional expenses in complying with the plan other than ordinary travel expenses.

Reasonable Efforts. Except as otherwise limited by the terms of the merger agreement, we and INS have each agreed to use our commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions and to do and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable to complete the merger, including using reasonable efforts to accomplish the following:

- taking all reasonable actions necessary to satisfy the conditions to the merger;
- obtaining all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents, approvals, orders and authorizations from governmental entities;
- making all necessary registrations, declarations and filings (including registrations, declarations and filings with governmental entities, if any) and taking all reasonable steps as necessary to avoid any suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding by any governmental entities;
- obtaining all consents, approvals or waivers from third parties required as a result of the merger;
- defending any suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding, whether judicial or administrative, challenging the merger and the merger agreement, including seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered by any court or other governmental entity vacated or reversed; and
- executing and delivering any additional documents reasonably necessary to complete the merger and to fully carry out the purposes of the merger agreement.

However, the merger agreement does not require INS or us to:

- agree to divest any shares of capital stock or of any business, assets or property of INS or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or any shares of capital stock or of any business, assets or property of us or any of our subsidiaries or affiliates; or
- agree to the imposition of any material limitation on the ability of INS or us to conduct our businesses or to own or exercise control over our assets, properties and stock.

Amendment; Extension and Waiver. The parties may amend the merger agreement at any time, before or after stockholder approval has been obtained, by the execution of a writing signed by INS and us. However, if the merger agreement is to be amended after stockholder approval has been obtained, no amendment will be allowed that by law requires further approval by stockholders of the parties without the further approval of those stockholders.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the parties may:

- extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party to the merger agreement;
- waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement; or
- waive compliance by the other party with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

However, after stockholder approval has been obtained, no waiver may be made that by law requires further approval of those stockholders without the further approval of those stockholders. Any extensions or waivers must be in writing and any delays in exercising any right under the merger agreement will not constitute a waiver of such right.

Expenses. The merger agreement provides that regardless of whether the merger is consummated, all fees and expenses incurred by the parties shall be borne by the party incurring such expenses.

Representations and Warranties. The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties relating to, among other things:

Predictive Bylaws. As of the effective time of the merger, our bylaws will be amended and restated to read the same as the bylaws of Mid-West Acquisition Corporation.

The Voting Agreements

In order to induce INS to enter into the merger agreement, all of our executive officers and directors (other than one director who does not individually own any shares of our common stock or options) and certain of our affiliates, who beneficially owned approximately 28.4% of our outstanding shares as of April 8, 2003, entered into individual voting agreements with INS. As of the close of business on May 16, 2003, the record date for the special meeting, such persons who executed voting agreements beneficially owned approximately 32% of our outstanding shares. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these stockholders have agreed to vote their shares of our capital stock in favor of adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, and against any proposal adverse to the merger. These stockholders have also agreed to irrevocably appoint the members of the board of directors of INS as their lawful attorneys and proxies. These proxies give INS the limited right to vote the shares of our capital stock beneficially owned by these stockholders, including shares of our capital stock acquired by these stockholders after the date of the voting agreement, in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, and against any proposal adverse to the merger. These stockholders may vote their shares of our capital stock on all other matters.

None of the stockholders who are parties to the voting agreements were paid additional consideration in connection with entering a voting agreement. However, you should be aware that certain of these stockholders are members of our board of directors and/or executive officers, and they may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours. See "The Merger" "Interests of Predictive's Directors and Management in the Merger."

Pursuant to the voting agreements, each stockholder who is a party agreed not to sell shares of our capital stock and options owned, either directly or indirectly, by such stockholder until the earlier of the termination of the merger agreement or the effective time of the merger.

These voting agreements will terminate upon the earlier of the termination of the merger or the effective time of the merger. The substantial form of voting agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex E and you are encouraged to read it in its entirety.

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER is made and entered into as of April 8, 2003 (the "Agreement"), by and among International Network Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), Mid-West Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), and Predictive Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company have each determined that it is advisable and in the best interests of their respective corporations and stockholders for Parent, Merger Sub and Company to consummate the Merger (as defined in Section 1.1 hereof) upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein.

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") has unanimously (i) determined that the Merger is advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, (ii) approved this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including without limitation the transactions contemplated by the Company Voting Agreements (as defined herein) (the "Transactions"), and (iii) determined, subject to the terms of this Agreement, to recommend that the stockholders of the Company adopt and approve this Agreement and approve the Merger.

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, as a condition and inducement to Parent's willingness to enter into this Agreement, certain executive officers and directors of the Company, and certain holders of Shares (as defined in Section 1.6), each in their capacity as stockholders of the Company, are entering into Voting Agreements in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Company Voting Agreements"), pursuant to which each such stockholder has agreed to vote his, her or its shares of common stock of the Company in favor of the Merger, subject to the terms therein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants, promises and representations set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger. At the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.2 hereof) and subject to and upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the applicable provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("Delaware Law"), Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company (the "Merger"), the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation. The closing of the Merger (the "Closing") shall take place at the offices of Gray Cary Ware & Freidenrich LLP, 400 Hamilton Avenue, Palo Alto, CA 94301, at a time and date to be specified by the parties hereto, which shall be no later than the second business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in ARTICLE VI hereof (other than those conditions, which by their terms, are to be satisfied or waived on the Closing Date), or at such other time, date and location as the parties hereto agree in writing (the "Closing Date").

(f) Final Net Assets Determination.

(i) Within ten (10) days preceding the Closing Date (such period, the □Review Period□), the Company agrees to deliver to Parent the Final Net Assets Schedule and to have prepared such Final Net Assets Schedule in accordance with the methods and procedures set forth on the Net Assets Determination Schedule. Parent shall in good faith conduct its review of such Final Net Assets Schedule in determining its approval or disapproval thereof. Assets Schedule whatsoever, except for those liabilities consistent with, and not exceeding, the liabilities as set forth in the Final Net Assets Schedule.

(g) Stock Options.

(i) Immediately following the Effective Time, each outstanding option to purchase Shares (a Company Stock Option) issued pursuant to Company stock plans or other agreements or arrangements, whether vested or unvested, shall be automatically cancelled and terminated and of no further force or effect, and the holder thereof shall receive no consideration in connection with such cancellation and termination.

(ii) Company shall take all necessary actions (including providing all required notices) to ensure that all outstanding Company Stock Options and all Company stock option plans (including without limitation the 1999 Stock Incentive Plan, Synet Service Corporation 1996 Stock Option Plan, and Global Integrity Corporation 1998 Stock Incentive Plan) are terminated immediately following the Effective Time. For each holder of any Company Stock Option, the parties shall take steps to enable the holder thereof to exercise the option (including any portion that first becomes exercisable in connection with the Merger) prior to the Effective Time.

(h) [Intentionally Omitted.]

(i) Employee Stock Purchase Plan. On or before May 1, 2003 (the "ESPP Date") all offering and purchase periods under way under Company's 1999 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "ESPP"), shall be terminated and, as of the date of this Agreement, no new offering or purchase periods shall be commenced. Company shall take all necessary action, including providing all required notices to participants, to ensure that the rights of participants in the ESPP with respect to any such offering or purchase periods shall be determined by treating the ESPP Date as the last day of such offering and purchase periods. Company shall take all actions as may be necessary in order to freeze the rights of the participants in the ESPP, effective as of the date of this Agreement, to existing participants and, to the extent permissible under the ESPP, existing participation levels.

1.7 Dissenting Shares.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Shares that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and that are held by stockholders who shall have not voted in favor of the Merger or consented thereto in writing and who shall have demanded properly in writing appraisal for such Shares in accordance with Section 262 of Delaware Law (collectively, the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into, or represent the right to receive, the Merger Consideration. Such stockholders shall instead be entitled to receive payment of the appraised value of such Shares held by them in accordance with the provisions of such Section 262, except that all Dissenting Shares held by stockholders who shall have failed to perfect or who effectively shall have withdrawn or lost their rights to appraisal of such Shares under such Section 262 shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into, and to have become exchangeable for, as of the Effective Time, the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without any interest thereon, upon surrender, in the manner provided in Section 1.8 hereof, of the certificate or certificates that formerly evidenced such Shares.

(b) The Company shall give Parent (i) prompt notice of any demands for appraisal received by the Company, withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to Delaware Law and received by the Company and (ii) the opportunity to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal under Delaware Law. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal or offer to settle or settle any such demands.

1.8 Surrender of Certificates.

(a) Paying Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall select a bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company to act as agent (the Paying Agent) for the holders of Shares to receive the funds to which holders of Shares shall become entitled pursuant to Section 1.6(c) hereof. Until the Effective Time, such funds shall be invested by the Paying Agent as directed by Parent and in such a way to ensure such funds are sufficient at the Effective Time to satisfy Parent's obligations hereunder with respect to the Total Consideration.

(b) Payment Procedures. Promptly after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each holder of record (as of the Effective Time) of a certificate or certificates (the "Certificates"), which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented the outstanding Shares converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, (i) a letter of transmittal in customary form (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent and shall contain such other provisions as Parent may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of Certificates for cancellation to the Paying Agent or to such other agent or agents as may be appointed by Parent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, the holders of such Certificates formerly representing the Shares shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration and the Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. Until so surrendered, outstanding Certificates shall be deemed from and after the Effective Time, for all corporate purposes, to evidence only the right to receive the respective Merger Consideration. As promptly as practicable following surrender of any such Certificates, the Paying Agent shall deliver to the record holders thereof, without interest, the Merger Consideration.

(c) Payments with respect to Unsurrendered Shares; No Liability. At any time following the 180th day after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to require the Paying Agent to deliver to it any funds which had been made available to the Paying Agent and not disbursed to holders of Shares (including, without limitation, all interest and other income received by the Paying Agent in respect of all funds made available to it), and, thereafter, such holders shall be entitled to look to the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat and other similar laws) only as general creditors thereof with respect to any cash that may be payable upon due surrender of the Certificates held by them. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Parent, the Surviving Corporation nor the Paying Agent shall be liable to any holder of a Share for any cash delivered in respect of such Share to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or other similar law.

(d) Transfers of Ownership. If the payment of the cash is to be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the Certificates surrendered in exchange therefor are registered, it will be a condition of payment that the Certificates so surrendered be properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer (including without limitation, if requested by Parent or the Paying Agent, a medallion guarantee), and that the persons requesting such payment will have paid to Parent or any agent designated by it any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment of the cash to a person other than the registered holder of the Certificates surrendered, or established to the satisfaction of Parent or any agent designated by it that such tax has been paid or is not applicable.

1.9 No Further Ownership Rights in Shares. Payment of the cash pursuant to Section 1.6 shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Shares, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the records of the Surviving Corporation of the Shares which were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this ARTICLE I.

1.10 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event that any Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Paying Agent shall pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, the cash payable under the terms hereunder and with respect thereto; provided, however, that Parent may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to

1.11 Taking of Necessary Action; Further Action. If, at any time after the Effective Time, any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement and to vest the Surviving Corporation with full right, title and possession to all assets, property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company and Merger Sub, the officers and directors of the Company and Merger Sub will take all such lawful and necessary action.

The parties hereby acknowledge that the success of such Program is critical for the combined company to preserve the value of the Transactions and otherwise in maximizing the synergies of the Merger after the Closing, and as such agree to use their respective reasonable best efforts to actively, timely and diligently abide by, and implement, the terms of the Program, it being agreed and understood, however, that (i) with the exception of ordinary travel expenses, the Company shall have no obligation to incur any additional expense in complying with the terms of the Program, and (ii) if the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Program conflict, the terms of the Program shall control and the Company's adherence to such terms shall not be deemed a breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

5.1 Proxy Statement; Board Recommendation.

(a) As promptly as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, the Company shall prepare and file the Proxy Statement with the SEC under the Exchange Act. Parent shall provide promptly to the Company such information concerning itself as, in the reasonable judgment of the Company or its counsel, may be required or appropriate for inclusion in the Proxy Statement, or in any amendments or supplements thereto. The Company shall respond to any comments of the SEC, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to have the Proxy Statement cleared by the SEC as promptly as practicable after such filing, and the Company shall cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to its stockholders at the earliest practicable time after the Proxy Statement is cleared by the SEC. The Company shall notify Parent promptly upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or its staff and of any request by the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement or for additional information and shall supply Parent with copies of all correspondence between the Company or any of its representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC or its staff, on the other hand, with respect to the Proxy Statement or the Merger. The Company shall give Parent and its counsel the opportunity to review the Proxy Statement, including all amendments and supplements thereto, prior to its being filed with the SEC and shall give Parent and its counsel the opportunity to review all responses to requests for additional information and replies to comments prior to their being filed with, or sent to, the SEC. Whenever any event occurs which is required to be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement, the Company shall promptly inform Parent of such occurrence and file with the SEC or its staff and/or mail to stockholders of the Company, such amendment or supplement.

The Proxy Statement shall include the unanimous recommendation of the Board in favor of adoption and approval of this Agreement and approval of the Merger (subject to the terms of Section 5.4(c) hereof).

(b) Solely for the purposes of this Agreement, the parties hereby acknowledge and agree that the recommendation of the Board shall be deemed to continue to be unanimous despite an abstention by one or more directors of the Board or any committee thereof subsequent to the date of this Agreement on a vote by the members of the Board or a committee thereof with respect to any matter pertaining to the recommendation subsequent to the initial unanimous Board approval, and the Board or any committee thereof shall not have been deemed to have withdrawn, withheld, amended, changed or modified in a manner adverse to Parent, nor shall it have been deemed to have failed to include in the Proxy Statement the unanimous recommendation of the Board that holders of Shares vote in favor of, adopt and approve this Agreement and approve the Merger, by virtue of such abstention; provided, however, that the foregoing shall only apply if, and only if, the following conditions and terms (collectively, the "Abstention Terms") are met: (i) such an abstention does not affect the due and valid recommendation of the Board with respect to the Merger under the Company Charter Documents and all applicable Legal Requirements; (ii) no abstaining Board member (or any affiliate thereof, including, without limitation, the Company or any of its subsidiaries) makes any public statement with respect to the abstention, either explicitly or implicitly, in a manner adverse to Parent nor any public statement reasonably likely to have an adverse effect on the adoption and approval of this Agreement and the approval of the Merger at the Stockholders' Meeting (defined in Section 5.2(a) below); and (iii) except pursuant to and in accordance with this Section 5.1(b), no abstention in any way or fashion affects Parent's rights and the Company's obligations with respect to the maintenance, and the manner of maintenance, of the Board's unanimous recommendation hereunder.

5.2 Meeting of Company Stockholders.

(a) Promptly after the date hereof, the Company shall take all action necessary in accordance with Delaware Law and the Company Charter Documents to convene an annual or special meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of considering and taking action on this Agreement and the Merger (the "Stockholders Meeting"), to be held as promptly as practicable, and in any event (to the extent permissible under applicable law) within thirty (30) calendar days after the Proxy Statement is cleared by the SEC. Subject to the terms of Section 5.4(c) hereof, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to solicit from its stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption and approval of this Agreement and the approval of the Merger and shall take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the vote or consent of its stockholders required by the rules of Nasdaq or Delaware Law to obtain such approvals.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company may adjourn or postpone the Stockholders Meeting to the extent necessary to ensure that any necessary supplement or amendment to the Proxy Statement is provided to the Company's stockholders in advance of a vote on the Merger and this Agreement or, if as of the time for which the Stockholders Meeting is originally scheduled (as set forth in the Proxy Statement) there are insufficient shares of Company Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the Stockholders Meeting. The Company shall ensure that the Stockholders Meeting is called, noticed, convened, held and conducted, and that all proxies solicited by the Company in connection with the Stockholders Meeting are solicited, in compliance with Delaware Law, the Company Charter Documents, the rules of Nasdaq and all other applicable legal requirements. The Company's obligation to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Stockholders Meeting in accordance with this Section 5.2 shall not be limited to or otherwise affected by the commencement, disclosure, announcement or submission to the Company of any Acquisition Proposal (it being agreed and understood however, that if this Agreement shall terminate in accordance with Section 7.1, such obligation to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Stockholders Meeting shall terminate).

(b) Subject to the terms of Section 5.4(c) hereof: (i) the Board shall recommend that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of and adopt and approve this Agreement and approve the Merger at the Stockholders' Meeting; (ii) the Proxy Statement shall include (x) the fairness opinion referred to in Section 2.21 hereof and (y) a statement to the effect that the Board has unanimously recommended that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of and adopt and approve this Agreement and approve the Merger at the Stockholders' Meeting; and (iii) neither the Board nor any committee thereof shall withdraw, amend, change or modify, or propose or resolve to withdraw, amend, change or modify in a manner adverse to Parent, the unanimous recommendation of the Board that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of and adopt and approve this Agreement and approve the Merger. For purposes of this Agreement, said recommendation of the Board of Directors shall be deemed to have been modified in a manner adverse to Parent if such recommendation shall no longer be unanimous.

5.3 Confidentiality; Access to Information.

(a) The parties acknowledge that Parent and the Company have previously executed a Confidentiality Agreement, dated as of October 4, 2002, as amended on February 20, 2003 (as amended, the Confidentiality Agreement), which Confidentiality Agreement will continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

(b) The Company shall afford Parent and its accountants, counsel, advisors and other representatives reasonable access during normal business hours, upon reasonable notice, to the properties, books, records and personnel of the Company during the period prior to the Effective Time to obtain all information concerning the businesses, including the status of product development efforts, properties, financial positions, results of operations and personnel of the Company, as Parent may reasonably request.

(c) No information or knowledge obtained by Parent in any investigation pursuant to this Section 5.3 will affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty contained herein or the conditions to the obligations of the parties to consummate the Transactions.

5.4 No Solicitation.

(a) Except to the extent permitted by the terms of this Section 5.4, from the date hereof until the earlier of the approval and adoption of this Agreement and approval of the Merger by the Company's stockholders or the termination of this Agreement, the Company and its subsidiaries shall not, nor will they authorize or permit any of their respective officers, directors, affiliates or employees or any investment banker, attorney, accountant, or other advisor or representative retained by any of them (Representatives) to, directly or indirectly: (i) solicit, initiate, knowingly or intentionally encourage, facilitate or induce the making, submission or announcement of any Acquisition Proposal (as defined in Section 5.4(d) hereof); (ii) participate in any negotiations or discussions regarding, or furnish to any person any non-public information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal; (iii) subject to the terms of Section 5.4(c) hereof, approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal; or (iv) enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any Contract contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Transaction (as defined in Section 5.4(d) hereof); provided, however, that the terms of this Section 5.4 shall not prohibit the Company from furnishing nonpublic information regarding the Company and its subsidiaries to, entering into a confidentiality agreement with or entering into negotiations or discussions with, any person or group in response to an Acquisition Proposal submitted by such person or group (and not withdrawn) if: (1) neither the Company nor its subsidiaries nor any of their respective Representatives shall have violated any of the restrictions set forth in this Section 5.4 in connection with such Acquisition Proposal; (2) the Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that such action is required in order for the Board to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable law; (3) (x) at least two (2) business days prior to furnishing any such nonpublic information to, or entering into negotiations or discussions with, such person or group, the Company gives Parent written notice of the identity of such person or group and of the Company's intention to furnish nonpublic information to, or enter into negotiations or discussions with, such person or group, and (y) the Company receives from such person or group an executed confidentiality agreement containing limitations on the use and disclosure of all nonpublic written and oral information furnished to such person or group by or on behalf of the Company which are no less favorable to the Company than the Confidentiality Agreement; and (4) contemporaneously with furnishing any such nonpublic information to such person or group, the Company furnishes such nonpublic information to Parent (to the extent such nonpublic information has not been previously furnished by the Company to Parent). In addition to the foregoing, the Company shall (i) provide Parent with at least forty-eight (48) hours prior written notice (or such lesser prior notice as provided to the members of the Board, but in no event less than eight hours) of a meeting of the Board at which the Board is reasonably expected to consider a Superior Offer and (ii) provide Parent with at least two (2) business days prior written notice of a meeting of the Board at which the Board is reasonably expected to recommend a Superior Offer to its stockholders and together with such notice a copy of any definitive documentation relating to such Superior Offer and such other documentation reflecting the terms of the Superior Offer as being considered by the Board. The terms of this Section 5.4 shall not prohibit the Company from taking any action necessary in order to comply with Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act, provided that neither the Company nor its Board shall, except as permitted by Section 5.4(c), propose to withdraw, amend, change or modify its unanimous recommendation of this Agreement and the Merger, or to approve or recommend, or propose to publicly approve or recommend, an Acquisition Proposal. The Company and its subsidiaries shall immediately cease any and all existing activities, negotiations or discussions with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood that any violation of the restrictions set forth in the preceding two sentences by any officer or director of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any Representative of the Company or any of its subsidiaries shall be deemed to be a breach of this Section 5.4 by the Company.

(b) In addition to the obligations of the Company set forth in Section 5.4 hereof, the Company as promptly as practicable shall advise Parent orally (within one business day) and in writing (within two business days) of any request received by the Company for nonpublic information which the Company reasonably believes would lead to an Acquisition Proposal or of any Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry received by the Company with respect to or which the Company reasonably believes would lead to any Acquisition Proposal, the material terms and conditions of such request, Acquisition Proposal or inquiry, and the identity of the person or group making any such request, Acquisition Proposal or inquiry. The Company shall keep Parent informed in all material respects of the status and details (including material amendments or proposed amendments) of any such request, Acquisition Proposal or inquiry.

(c) Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Board from withdrawing, amending, changing or modifying its unanimous recommendation in favor of the Transactions at any time prior to the approval and adoption of this Agreement and approval of the Merger by the Company's stockholders, but the Board may do so only to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 7.1(e) hereof and only if (i) a Superior Offer (as defined in Section 5.4(d) hereof) is made to the Company and is not withdrawn, and, concurrent with the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(e) hereof, the Board shall cause the Company to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal, (ii) neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries nor any of their respective Representatives shall have violated any of the restrictions set forth in Section 5.4 hereof in connection with such Superior Offer, and (iii) the Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with its outside counsel, that in light of such Superior Offer the withdrawal, amendment, change or modification of such recommendation is required in order for the Board to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable law.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, (i) Acquisition Proposal shall mean any offer or proposal (other than an offer or proposal by Parent or Merger Sub) relating to any Acquisition Transaction. For the purposes of this Agreement, (ii) Acquisition Transaction shall mean any transaction or series of related transactions other than the Transactions involving: (A) any acquisition or purchase from the Company by any person or group (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) of more than a fifteen percent (15%) interest in the total outstanding voting securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person or group (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) beneficially owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of the total outstanding voting securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction involving the Company (excluding the ISAC Sale) pursuant to which the stockholders of the Company immediately preceding such transaction hold less than eighty five percent (85%) of the equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction; (B) any sale, lease, exchange, transfer, license (other than in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice), acquisition or disposition of more than fifteen percent (15%) of the assets of the Company; or (C) any liquidation or dissolution of the Company, and (iii) Superior Offer shall mean an unsolicited, bona fide written offer made by a third party to consummate any Acquisition Proposal on terms that the Board determines, in its reasonable judgment (after consultation with a reputable financial advisor) to be more favorable to the Company stockholders from a financial point of view than the terms of the Transactions; provided, however, that any such offer shall not be deemed to be a Superior Offer if any financing required to consummate the transaction contemplated by such offer is not committed and is not likely in the reasonable judgment of the Board to be obtained by such third party on a timely basis.

5.5 Public Disclosure.

(a) Parent and the Company shall consult with each other, and to the extent practicable, agree, before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statement with respect to the Transactions, this Agreement or, except for as necessary to effect the Company's rights under Section 5.4(c) hereof, an Acquisition Proposal, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by law or any listing agreement with a national securities exchange or Nasdaq, in which case reasonable efforts to consult with the other party will be made prior to such release or public statement. The parties have agreed to the text of the joint press release announcing the signing of this Agreement.

(b) Company shall consult with Parent before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statement with respect to the Company's earnings or results of operations, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation.

5.6 Reasonable Efforts; Notification.

(a) Other than taking any action permitted by Section 5.4(c) hereof, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement each of the parties agrees to use all commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Transactions, including using reasonable efforts to accomplish the following: (i) the taking of all reasonable acts necessary to cause the conditions precedent set forth in ARTICLE VI to be satisfied, (ii) the obtaining of all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents, approvals, orders and authorizations from Governmental Entities and the making of all necessary registrations, declarations and filings (including registrations, declarations and filings with Governmental Entities, if any) and the taking of all reasonable steps as may be necessary to avoid any suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding by any Governmental Entity, (iii) the obtaining of all consents, approvals or waivers from third parties required as a result of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement, (iv) the defending of any suits, claims, actions, investigations or proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered by any court or other Governmental Entity vacated or reversed and (v) the execution or delivery of any additional instruments reasonably necessary to consummate the Transactions, and to fully carry out the purposes of, this Agreement. In connection with and without limiting the foregoing, the Company and its Board shall, if any state takeover statute or similar statute or regulation is or becomes applicable to the Transactions or this Agreement, use all commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and otherwise to minimize the effect of such statute or regulation on the Transactions and this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to require Parent or any subsidiary or affiliate of Parent to agree to any divestiture by itself or the Company or any of their respective affiliates of shares of capital stock or of any business, assets or property, or the imposition of any material limitation on the ability of any of them to conduct their businesses or to own or exercise control of such assets, properties and stock.

(b) The Company shall give prompt notice to Parent upon becoming aware that any representation or warranty made by it contained in this Agreement has become untrue or inaccurate in any material respect, or of any failure of the Company to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under this Agreement, in each case, such that the conditions set forth in ARTICLE VI hereof would not be satisfied; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

5.7 Third Party Consents. As soon as practicable following the date hereof, Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any consents, waivers and approvals under any of its or its subsidiaries' respective Contracts required to be obtained in connection with the consummation of the Transactions, including those set forth on Section 5.7 of the Company Schedule.

5.8 Directors and Officers Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of the Company pursuant to any indemnification provisions of Company's directors and officers under the Company Charter Documents as in effect on the date hereof (the Indemnified Parties). The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation will contain provisions with respect to exculpation and indemnification that are at least as favorable to the Indemnified Parties as those contained in the Company Charter Documents as in effect on the date hereof which provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six (6) years from the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of individuals who, immediately prior to the Effective Time, were directors, officers, employees or agents of the Company, unless such modification is required by applicable law.

(b) The Company shall purchase, for a price (which shall in no event exceed the Cap Amount regardless of any amounts credited against premium payments previously paid by the Company) not to exceed the amount set forth on Section 5.8(b) of the Company Schedule (the Cap Amount), directors and officers liability tail coverage (for a period of six (6) years following the Effective Time), covering those persons who are currently covered by the Company's directors and officers liability insurance policy, on terms comparable to those applicable to the current directors and officers of the Company, and covering all periods prior to the Effective Time (the Tail Coverage).

(c) This Section 5.8 is intended for the irrevocable benefit of, and to grant third party rights to, the Indemnified Parties and shall be binding on all successors and assigns of Parent, the Company and the Surviving Corporation. Each of the Indemnified Parties shall be entitled to enforce the covenants contained in this Section 5.8.

5.9 Regulatory Filings; Reasonable Efforts. As soon as may be reasonably practicable, the Company and Parent each shall file any appropriate pre-merger notifications under the competition laws or regulations of any jurisdiction, as reasonably agreed by the parties to apply. The Company and Parent each shall promptly (a) supply the other with any information which may be required in order to effectuate such filings and (b) supply any additional information, which reasonably may be required by the competition or merger control authorities of any other jurisdiction and which the parties may reasonably deem appropriate; provided, however, that Parent shall not be required to agree to any divestiture by Parent or the Company or any of Parent's subsidiaries or affiliates of shares of capital stock or of any business, assets or property of Parent or its subsidiaries or affiliates or of the Company, its affiliates, or the imposition of any material limitation on the ability of any of them to conduct their businesses or to own or exercise control of such assets, properties and stock.

5.10 Company Actions with Respect to Employees.

(a) Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts (which, for clarification, shall not obligate the Company to incur any additional expenditures with the exception of individual bonuses to be mutually determined by the parties and expenditures made in the ordinary course of the Company's business in connection with the retention of its employees), to cause each of its current employees set forth in Section 5.10 of the Company Schedule (collectively, the Key Retention Employees) to remain employed with Company or become employed with Parent (as Parent shall designate) upon the consummation of the Merger, the parties acknowledging and agreeing that the list of such individuals in such Section 5.10 of the Company Schedule may be amended, from time to time prior to the Effective Time, pursuant to mutual agreement by the parties. In addition, the Company shall notify the Key Retention Employees under the heading Interim Employees under such Section 5.10 (the Interim Employees) that they will only be employed by Company or Parent, as the case may be, to facilitate the integration of the combined company after the Closing, and for only that period of time after the Closing as Parent deems, in its sole discretion, necessary for such purpose, and will be terminated immediately upon the expiration of such period.

(b) In connection with Parent's efforts to retain the Key Retention Employees prior to the Closing, Parent agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to extend substantially concurrent notification to each such employee his or her terms and status of employment with Parent, and other similar employment-related information which is customarily shared with prospective employees.

(c) At any time prior to the Effective Time (it being acknowledged and agreed that Company shall in its sole discretion determine such time or times prior to the Effective Time as it deems appropriate), Company shall take all necessary action to effect the termination of all Company's employees who are not Key Retention Employees (collectively, the Non-Retention Employees), effective on or prior to the Effective Time; provided, that the Company may delay taking such actions with respect to certain Non-Retention Employees if in its sole discretion the Company determines that terminating such Non-Retention Employees prior to the Effective Time would have an adverse effect on the Company in the event that this Agreement is terminated.

5.11 Termination of Certain Benefit Plans. Effective no later than the day immediately preceding the Effective Time, the Company and its Affiliates, as applicable, shall each terminate any and all group severance, separation or salary continuation plans, programs or arrangements (excluding, in each case, the agreements listed on Section 5.11 of the Company Schedule) and any and all plans intended to include a Code Section 401(k) arrangement (unless Parent provides written notice to the Company that such 401(k) plans shall not be terminated) (collectively, for purposes of this Section 5.11 [Company Employee Plans]). Unless Parent provides such written notice to the Company, no later than five business days prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall provide Parent with evidence that such Company Employee Plan(s) have been terminated (effective no later than the day immediately preceding the Effective Time) pursuant to resolutions of the Board. The form and substance of such resolutions shall be subject to review and approval of Parent. The Company also shall take such other actions in furtherance of terminating such Company Employee Plan(s) as Parent may reasonably require.

5.12 Employee Benefits. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall provide the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries who remain employed after the Effective Time (each, a Transferred Company Employee and collectively, the Transferred Company Employees) with substantially the same types and levels of compensation and employee benefits as provided to such Transferred Company Employees by the Company immediately prior to the Merger (Substantially Matching Employment Terms), provided, however, that a reduction in salary of up to five percent (5%) for Transferred Company Employees who are billable employees of the Company and up ten percent (10%) for Transferred Company Employees for non-billable employees of the Company shall be deemed to be provided Substantially Matching Employment Terms so long as such Transferred Company Employees are allowed to recoup the applicable reduced amount pursuant to Parent's current bonus program. Further, Parent shall treat and cause its applicable benefit plans (with the exception of Parent's sabbatical program) to treat the service of Transferred Company Employees with the Company or any subsidiary of the Company prior to the Effective Time as service rendered to Parent or any affiliate of Parent for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting, including applicability of minimum waiting periods for participation, but not for benefit accrual. Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that no Transferred Company Employee, or any of his or her eligible dependents, who, at the Effective Time, are participating in the Company group health plan shall be excluded from the Parent's group plan, or limited in coverage thereunder, by reason of any waiting period restriction or pre-existing condition limitation; provided that such Transferred Employees are based in the United States and meet applicable actively at work requirements as of the Effective Time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except for its obligation to provide Substantial Matching Employment Terms to each Transferred Company Employee as set forth in this Section 5.12, Parent shall not be required to provide any coverage, benefits, or credit beyond that already promised in accordance with this Section 5.12 to any Transferred Company Employee which would be inconsistent with the terms of Parent benefit plans.

5.13 FIRPTA Certificate. On or prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall deliver to Parent a properly executed statement in a form reasonably acceptable to Parent for purposes of satisfying Parent's obligations under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1445-2(c)(3).

(b) No Order. No Governmental Entity shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) which is in effect and which has the effect of making the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the Merger. All material foreign antitrust approvals required to be obtained prior to the Effective Time in connection with the Merger shall have been obtained.

(c) Proxy Statement. No order suspending the use of the Proxy Statement or any part thereof shall have been issued and no proceeding for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened in writing by the SEC.

The Company shall have received a certificate with respect to the foregoing signed on behalf of Parent by an authorized officer of Parent.

(b) Agreements and Covenants. Parent and Merger Sub shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by them on or prior to the Closing Date, and the Company shall have received a certificate to such effect signed on behalf of Parent by an authorized officer of Parent.

The obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate and effect the Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions, any of which may be waived, in writing, exclusively by Parent:

(a) Representations and Warranties. Each representation and warranty of the Company contained in this Agreement (i) shall have been true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and (ii) shall be true and correct on and as of the Closing Date with the same force and effect as if made on and as of the Closing Date except (A) in each case, or in the aggregate, as does not constitute a Material Adverse Effect on the Company; provided, however, that the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 2.3(a), 2.4, 2.21, 2.22, 2.23 and 2.24 hereof shall be true and correct in all respects other than an inaccuracy, with respect to Section 2.3(a) in the foregoing, in the aggregate amount of no greater than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand (250,000) shares of Company Common Stock from that aggregate amount of shares set forth in the numerical capitalization clauses in such Section 2.3(a), (B) for changes contemplated by this Agreement and (C) for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date (which representations shall have been true and correct (subject to the qualifications as set forth in the preceding clause (A)) as of such particular date) (it being understood that, for purposes of determining the accuracy of such representations and warranties, (i) all [Material Adverse Effect] qualifications and other qualifications based on the word [material] or similar phrases contained in such representations and warranties shall be disregarded (other than with respect to the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 2.3(a), 2.4, 2.21, 2.22, 2.23 and 2.24 hereof), and (ii) any update of or modification to the Company Schedule made or purported to have been made after the date of this Agreement shall be disregarded). Parent shall have received a certificate with respect to the foregoing signed on behalf of the Company by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

(b) Agreements and Covenants. The Company shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it at or prior to the Closing Date, and Parent shall have received a certificate to such effect signed on behalf of the Company by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

(c) Material Adverse Effect. No Material Adverse Effect with respect to the Company and its subsidiaries shall have occurred since the date of this Agreement, and Parent shall have received a certificate to such effect signed on behalf of the Company by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

(d) Consents. The Company shall have obtained, and there shall be in full force and effect, each of the consents, waivers and approvals required in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby under the Contracts set forth in Section 6.3(d) of the Company Schedule in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent.

(e) [Intentionally Omitted].

(f) Employees. At least eighty percent (80%) of the of the Company employees with the exception of the Interim Employees (the [Key Employees]) listed on Section 5.10, shall continue to be employed by the Company at the Closing and shall not have given any notice or other indication that they are not willing to be employed by Parent or a subsidiary of Parent (as Parent shall designate) following the Merger or to execute and deliver to Parent Parent's standard forms of Confidentiality and Invention Assignment Agreement and associated schedules and statements without amendment or modification thereto in any substantive respect; provided, however, that the Company may replace any such employee who terminates his employment with the Company prior to the Closing (a [Former Key Employee]) with a current or newly hired employee possessing substantially the same and comparable qualifications and experience as the terminating Former Key Employee, and who is reasonably approved by Parent. No more than one Key Employee who ceases to be employed by the Company as a result of death or bona fide permanent disability will be excluded from the numerator and the denominator in calculating such percentage.

(g) Customer Retention. No more than eighty percent (80%) of the Material Customers, and none of the Material Customers set forth in Section 6.3(g) of the Company Schedule, shall have given notice, or other indication after the date of the Agreement that it wishes to, (i) in the case of a Material Customer who is being billed on a time and materials basis, substantially modify in an adverse fashion the terms and conditions under which the Company performs work for such Material Customer, or (ii) in the case of a Material Customer who is being billed on a fixed-price basis, terminate or modify in an adverse fashion the terms and conditions of a fixed price project of which the Material Customer had previously committed to Company (any such occurrences set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) in the immediate foregoing, a Substantial Adverse Modification); provided, however, that a Substantial Adverse Modification shall only be deemed to have occurred to the extent that such Substantial Adverse Modification results, or would result, in a material decline in Company's recognition of collective revenues from the Material Customers.

ARTICLE VII
TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

7.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, and the Merger may be abandoned, notwithstanding any requisite approval and adoption of this Agreement and the Transactions by the stockholders of the Company:

(a) by mutual written consent duly authorized by the Boards of Directors of Parent and the Company;
(b) by either the Company or Parent if the Effective Time shall not have occurred on or before September 30, 2003 (the End Date) for any reason; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose action or failure to act has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date and such action or failure to act constitutes a breach of this Agreement;

(c) by either the Company or Parent if a Governmental Entity shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in any case having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger, which order, decree, ruling or other action is final and nonappealable;
(d) by either the Company or Parent if the required approval of the stockholders of the Company contemplated by this Agreement shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the Stockholders Meeting or at any adjournment thereof; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(d) shall not be available to the Company where the failure to obtain the Company stockholder approval shall have been caused by the action or failure to act of the Company and such action or failure to act constitutes a breach by the Company of this Agreement;

(e) by the Company, upon approval of the Board, if the Board concludes in good faith that it is required to do so by its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable law, after consultation with its outside legal counsel in connection with entering into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal, upon three (3) days' prior written notice to Parent, setting forth in reasonable detail the identity of the person making, and the final terms and conditions of, such Superior Proposal; provided, however, that any termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(e) shall not be effective until the Company has made full payment of all amounts provided under Section 7.3 hereof.

(f) by the Company, upon a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of Parent set forth in this Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Parent shall have become untrue, in either case such that the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(a) or Section 6.2(b) hereof would not be satisfied as of the time of such breach or as of the time such representation or warranty shall have become untrue, provided, however, that if such inaccuracy in Parent's representations and warranties or breach by Parent is curable by Parent through the exercise of its commercially reasonable efforts, then the Company may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(f) for thirty (30) calendar days after delivery of written notice from the Company to Parent of such breach, provided Parent continues to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach (it being understood that the Company may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(f) if it shall have materially breached this Agreement or if such breach by Parent is cured during such thirty (30) calendar day period);

(g) by Parent, upon a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the Company set forth in this Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of the Company shall have become untrue, in either case such that the conditions set forth in Section 6.3(a) or Section 6.3(b) hereof would not be satisfied as of the time of such breach or as of the time such representation or warranty shall have become untrue, provided, however, that if such inaccuracy in the Company's representations and warranties or breach by the Company is curable by the Company through the exercise of its commercially reasonable efforts, then Parent may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(g) for thirty (30) calendar days after delivery of written notice from Parent to the Company of such breach, provided the Company continues to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach (it being understood that Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(g) if it shall have materially breached this Agreement or if such breach by the Company is cured during such thirty (30) calendar day period); and provided further, however, that an inaccuracy with respect to the representation and warranty set forth in Section 2.19(c) (Suppliers and Customers) of the Agreement regarding the Material Customers' relationships with the Company shall not be considered a breach of such representation and warranty as long as the condition set forth in Section 6.3(g) hereof remains satisfied.

(h) by Parent, upon a material breach of the provisions of Section 5.4 hereof;

(i) by Parent if a Triggering Event (as defined below) shall have occurred. For the purposes of this Agreement, a Triggering Event shall be deemed to have occurred if: (i) the Board or any committee thereof shall for any reason have withdrawn or withheld, or shall have amended, changed or modified in a manner adverse to Parent its unanimous recommendation in favor of, the adoption and approval of the Agreement or the approval of the Transactions; (ii) the Company shall have failed to include in the Proxy Statement the unanimous recommendation of the Board that holders of Shares vote in favor of and adopt and approve this Agreement and approve the Merger; (iii) the Board or any committee thereof shall have approved or recommended any Acquisition Proposal; (iv) the Company shall have entered into any letter of intent or similar document or any Contract accepting any Acquisition Proposal; or (v) a tender or exchange offer relating to securities of the Company shall have been commenced by a person unaffiliated with Parent and the Company shall not have sent to its securityholders pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Securities Act, within ten (10) business days after such tender or exchange offer is first published sent or given, a statement disclosing that the Board recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer; or

(j) by Parent, upon the occurrence of a breach of any of the Abstention Terms (an "Abstention Breach").

7.2 Notice of Termination; Effect of Termination. Any termination of this Agreement under Section 7.1 hereof will be effective immediately upon (or, if the termination is pursuant to Section 7.1(f) or Section 7.1(g) hereof and the proviso therein is applicable, thirty (30) calendar days after) the delivery of written notice of the terminating party to the other parties hereto. In the event of the termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect and there shall be no liability to any party hereunder in connection with the Agreement or the Transactions, except (i) as set forth in Section 5.3 hereof, this Section 7.2, Section 7.3 hereof and ARTICLE IX hereof, each of which shall survive the termination of this Agreement, and (ii) nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for any intentional or willful breach of, or any intentional misrepresentation made in this Agreement. No termination of this Agreement shall affect the obligations of the parties contained in the Confidentiality Agreement, all of which obligations shall survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

7.3 Fees and Expenses.

(a) General. Except as set forth in this Section 7.3, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Transactions (including fees and expenses of attorneys and accountants) shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses whether or not the Merger is consummated. For the avoidance of doubt, Company shall pay all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the printing and filing with the SEC the Proxy Statement and any amendments or supplements thereto, and any mailing costs with respect to the Proxy Statement.

(b) Company Payments.

(i) The Company shall pay to Parent in immediately available funds, within one (1) business day after demand by Parent, an amount equal to $600,000 (the Termination Fee) if this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(i) hereof.

(ii) The Company shall pay to Parent in immediately available funds, within one (1) business day after demand by Parent, an amount equal to the Termination Fee if (A) this Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d) hereof and (B) an Abstention Breach occurred prior to the failure to obtain the required vote at the Stockholders' Meeting or at any adjournment thereof.

(iii) The Company shall pay to Parent in immediately available funds, concurrent with a termination by Company of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(e) hereof, an amount equal to the Termination

Back to Contents

Fee, and no such termination of this Agreement shall be deemed effected until such time as the Termination Fee shall have been paid to Parent.

(iv) The Company shall pay Parent in immediately available funds, within one (1) business day after demand by Parent, an amount equal to the Termination Fee, if this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(b) or Section 7.1(d) hereof and any of the following shall occur:

(A) if following the date hereof and prior to the termination of this Agreement, a third party has announced an Acquisition Proposal and has not publicly definitively withdrawn such Acquisition Proposal at least five (5) business days prior to the earlier to occur of the End Date or the Stockholders Meeting, as applicable, and within nine (9) months following the termination of this Agreement a Company Acquisition (as defined below) is consummated; or

(B) if following the date hereof and prior to the termination of this Agreement, a third party has announced an Acquisition Proposal and has not publicly definitively withdrawn such Acquisition Proposal at least five (5) business days prior to the earlier to occur of the End Date or the Stockholders Meeting, as applicable, and within nine (9) months following the termination of this Agreement the Company enters into a letter of intent or similar document or any Contract providing for a Company Acquisition.

(v) The Company shall pay to Parent in immediately available funds, within one (1) business day after demand by Parent, if this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(g) based on a failure to satisfy the condition set forth in Section 6.3(b) and, (x) prior to such termination, the Company has received, or a third party has announced, an Acquisition Proposal and (y) such breach is intended to or has the effect of facilitating such Acquisition Proposal or benefiting the person making such acquisition proposal without similarly benefiting Parent, an amount equal to the out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Parent and Merger Sub in connection with the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees and expenses, reasonable advisor fees and expenses, and travel costs) (the Expenses); provided, that the Company shall not be required, pursuant to this Section 7.3(b)(iv), to pay Parent for Expenses in excess of $500,000 in the aggregate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, payment of such Expenses shall not constitute liquidated damages with respect to any claim which Parent or Merger Sub would be entitled to assert against the Company or its assets, or against any of the Company's directors, officers, employees or stockholders, with respect to any such breach, and shall not constitute the sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any such breach.

(vi) The Company hereby acknowledges and agrees that the agreements set forth in this Section 7.3(b) are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Parent would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails to pay in a timely manner the amounts due pursuant to this Section 7.3(b) and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent makes a claim that results in a judgment against the Company for the amounts set forth in this Section 7.3(b), the Company shall pay to Parent its reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amounts set forth in this Section 7.3(b) at the prime rate of The Chase Manhattan Bank in effect on the date such payment was required to be made; provided, however, that if Parent makes a claim for the amounts set forth in this Section 7.3(b) that results in a judgment against Parent, Parent shall pay to the Company its reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit. Payment of the fees described in this Section 7.3(b) shall not be in lieu of damages incurred in the event of any intentional or willful breach of, or any intentional misrepresentation made in, this Agreement.

(vii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, each of the parties hereto hereby expressly acknowledges and hereby agrees that, with respect to any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1 hereof (other than a termination based upon the willful or intentional breach of, or any intentional misrepresentation made in, this Agreement) under circumstances in which the Termination Fee is payable pursuant to this Section 7.3(b), payment of the Termination Fee shall constitute liquidated damages with respect to any claim for damages or any other claim which Parent or

Merger Sub would otherwise be entitled to assert against the Company or its assets, or against any of the Company's directors, officers, employees or stockholders, with respect to any such termination of this Agreement, and shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any such termination of this Agreement. The parties hereto expressly acknowledge and agree that, in light of the difficulty of accurately determining actual damages with respect to the foregoing upon any such termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1 hereof (other than a termination based upon the willful or intentional breach of, or any intentional misrepresentation made in, this Agreement) under circumstances in which the Termination Fee is payable pursuant to this Section 7.3(b), the right to such payment: (A) constitutes a reasonable estimate of the damages that will be suffered by reason of any such termination this Agreement and (B) shall be in full and complete satisfaction of any and all damages arising as a result of any such termination of this Agreement. Except for nonpayment of the Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 7.3(b) the parties hereto hereby agree that, upon any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1 hereof (other than a termination based upon the willful or intentional breach of, or any intentional misrepresentation made in, this Agreement) under circumstances in which the Termination Fee is payable pursuant to this Section 7.3(b), in no event shall Parent or Merger Sub be entitled to seek or to obtain any recovery or judgment against the Company or any subsidiaries of the Company or any of their respective assets, or against any of their respective directors, officers, employees or stockholders for any such termination of this Agreement, and in no event shall Parent or Merger Sub be entitled to seek or obtain any other damages of any kind, including, without limitation, consequential, special, indirect or punitive damages, for any such termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, payment of the Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 7.3(b) shall not constitute liquidated damages with respect to any claim for damages or any other claim which Parent or Merger Sub would be entitled to assert against the Company or its assets, or against any of the Company's directors, officers, employees or stockholders, with respect to any such termination of this Agreement based upon the willful or intentional breach or intentional misrepresentation of any representations, warranties or covenants of the Company in this Agreement, and shall not constitute the sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any such termination of this Agreement based upon the willful or intentional breach or misrepresentation of any of the representations, warranties or covenants of the Company in this Agreement.

(viii) For the purposes of this Agreement, "Company Acquisition" shall mean any of the following transactions (other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement): (i) a merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving the Company pursuant to which the stockholders of the Company immediately preceding such transaction hold less than a majority of the aggregate equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction, (ii) a sale or other disposition by the Company of assets representing in excess of a majority of the aggregate fair market value of the Company's businesses immediately prior to such sale or (iii) the acquisition by any person or group (including by way of a tender offer or an exchange offer or issuance by the Company), directly or indirectly, of beneficial ownership or a right to acquire beneficial ownership of shares representing in excess of a majority of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company.

7.4 Amendment. Subject to applicable law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto at any time by execution of an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of Parent and the Company.

7.5 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party hereto may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to such party contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of such party contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. Delay in exercising any right under this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such right.

Appraisal Rights § Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

- (1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or
- (2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

Back to Contents

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

ANNEX C

Fairness Opinion Letter

April 8, 2003

CONFIDENTIAL

Board of Directors
Predictive Systems, Inc.
19 West 44th Street
9th Floor
New York NY 10036

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Predictive Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), International Network Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), and Mid-West Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub") have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") pursuant to which Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company (the "Merger"), the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (the "Transaction").

The merger consideration per share of common stock of the Company (the "Merger Consideration") at closing ("Closing") shall equal a cash amount equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the Total Consideration of $19.187 million minus any Adjustment Amount (if the Adjustment Amount shall have been calculated pursuant to (a) below) or plus any Adjustment Amount (if the Adjustment Amount shall have been calculated pursuant to (b) below), by (y) the Total Outstanding Shares. Total Outstanding Shares equal the total number of shares of common stock, par value $.001 per share ("Share"), of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement). The Adjustment Amount shall be zero if Final Net Assets is within +/- $1.25 million of the Estimated Net Assets, otherwise the Adjustment Amount shall equal either:

- (a) if the Final Net Assets are less than $14.137 million (represents Estimated Net Assets minus $1.25 million), the amount by which such amount exceeds the Final Net Assets, or
- (b) if the Final Net Assets are greater than $16.637 million (represents Estimated Net Assets plus $1.25 million), the amount by which the Final Net Assets exceeds such amount.

You have requested our opinion as to whether the Merger Consideration to be received by stockholders of the Company in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company and its stockholders.

For purposes of this opinion, we have assumed that Total Outstanding Shares equal 41.854 million, including (a) Shares currently outstanding, (b) Shares resulting from the exercise prior to Closing of stock options or other rights to acquire Shares granted by the Company or any of its subsidiaries; and, (c) Shares cancelled in connection with the sale of the Company's ISAC business (the Information Sharing and Analysis Center division and Open Source Intelligence division) prior to Closing. We have assumed the completion of the sale of the ISAC business prior to Closing. Notwithstanding, we do not consider the impact of the sale of the ISAC business to be material to the results of our analysis or opinion. We have also assumed that the Adjustment Amount, when calculated, equals zero dollars; that is, it neither results in a reduction of nor an increase in Total Consideration. Udata Capital, Inc. ("Udata") focuses on providing merger and acquisition advisory services to information technology ("IT") companies. In this capacity, we are continually engaged in valuing such businesses, and we maintain an extensive database of IT mergers and acquisitions and trading data for comparative purposes.

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated February 10, 2003, the Company engaged Udata to act as its financial advisor in connection with the potential sale of its Global Integrity unit and to provide a fairness opinion in connection with the sale of the Company.

In rendering our opinion, we have, among other things, reviewed:

- 1) the most recent draft of the Agreement, dated as of April 7, 2003, and based our opinion on our understanding that the terms and conditions of the Agreement will not materially change;
- 2) the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K and related publicly available financial information for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2002;
- 3) the Company's, internal and ongoing financial results pertaining to the three months ended March 31, 2003 and financial forecasts for the three month period ending June 30, 2003;
- 4) in discussions with Company senior management certain internal business, financial and operating information including certain forecasts and an analysis prepared by the Company regarding a possible liquidation of the Company's assets following termination of operations;
- 5) the Company's market valuation and financial performance compared to certain publicly traded companies that we deemed to be relevant;
- 6) the financial terms and share price premiums in the Transaction compared to those of certain other public mergers and acquisitions that we deemed to be relevant;
- 7) historical closing share prices and trading volume of the Company's common stock; and
- 8) other public information, and conducted other financial studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate for purposes of this opinion.

In rendering our opinion we have relied, without independent verification, on the accuracy and completeness of all the financial and other information (including without limitation the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement) that was publicly available or furnished to us by the Company. With respect to financial forecasts and other internal business, financial and operating information examined by us, we have assumed that these were reasonably prepared, taking into account information to be included on disclosure schedules to the Merger Agreement, and reflected the best available estimates and good faith judgments of Company management as to the financial performance of and other matters relating to the Company. We have not made an independent appraisal or valuation of any of the Company's assets nor do we assume responsibility for or express any view as to financial forecasts or the assumptions on which they are based.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will be consummated on terms described in the Merger Agreement, without any waiver of any material terms or conditions by the Company and that obtaining any regulatory approvals which may be necessary for the Merger will not have an adverse effect on the Company.

Our opinion is necessarily based upon market, economic, financial and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated as of the date of this opinion. Although any change in such conditions or other developments may impact this opinion, we do not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. This opinion speaks only as of the date hereof. It is understood that this opinion is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and does not constitute a recommendation to any Company stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote on the Transaction. This opinion may not be published or referred to, in whole or part, without our prior written permission.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the Merger Consideration to be received by the Company's stockholders in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's stockholders.

Sincerely,

Updata Capital, Inc.
