SUMMARY OF THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE MERGER

The parties to the merger are Rhapsody Acquisition Corp. (Rhapsody), Primoris Corporation (Primoris) and certain of the stockholders of Primoris. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Primoris will be merged into Rhapsody, with Rhapsody being the surviving entity and thereafter operating under the name Primoris Corporation. See the section entitled The Merger Proposal.

Primoris is a holding company of various subsidiaries which cumulatively form a diversified engineering and construction company providing a wide range of construction, fabrication, maintenance and replacement services, as well as engineering services to major public utilities, petrochemical companies, energy companies, municipalities and other customers. See the section entitled Business of Primoris.

The Primoris stockholders and its foreign managers pursuant to certain termination agreements (collectively, the Primoris Holders) will receive in the aggregate (i) 24,094,800 shares of Rhapsody common stock upon the closing of the merger (subject to reduction in the event of exercise of dissenter s rights by any of the Primoris stockholders) plus (ii) the right to receive 2,500,000 shares of Rhapsody common stock for each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2008 and 2009 during which Rhapsody achieves specified EBITDA (as defined in the merger agreement) milestones. See the section entitled The Merger Proposal Structure of the Merger.

To provide a fund for payment to Rhapsody with respect to its post-closing rights to indemnification under the merger agreement for breaches of representations and warranties and covenants by Primoris and its stockholders, there will be placed in escrow (with an independent escrow agent) 1,807,110 of the shares issuable to the Primoris Holders at closing. See the section entitled The Merger Proposal Indemnification of Rhapsody.

The merger agreement provides that either Rhapsody or the representative of the Primoris Holders may terminate the agreement if the business combination is not consummated by October 3, 2008. The merger agreement may also be terminated, among other reasons, upon material breach of a party. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement Termination.

In addition to voting on the merger, the stockholders of Rhapsody will vote on proposals to amend its certificate of incorporation to (i) change its name to Primoris Corporation, (ii) increase the authorized number of its shares of common stock to 60 million (iii) make its corporate existence perpetual; (iv) incorporate the classification of directors that would result from the election of directors in accordance with the proposal relating to such election to be presented to the special meeting, (v) delete certain provisions that will no longer be applicable after the merger or are not required by Delaware law, and (vi) to make certain other changes in tense, gender and number that our board of directors believes are immaterial. The stockholders of Rhapsody will also vote on proposals to approve the incentive compensation plan, to elect seven directors to Rhapsody s board of directors and, if necessary, to approve an adjournment of the meeting. See the sections entitled The Charter Amendment Proposals, The Adjournment Proposal, The Incentive Compensation Plan Proposal and The Director Election Proposal.

After the merger, if management s nominees are elected, the directors of Rhapsody will be Brian Pratt, Chairman, Peter J. Moerbeek, John P. Schauerman, Stephen C. Cook and Thomas E. Tucker, who are designees of certain of the Primoris stockholders, and Eric S. Rosenfeld and David D. Sgro, who are designees of Mr. Rosenfeld. Mr. Pratt and Mr. Schauerman are the current chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Primoris, respectively. Mr. Rosenfeld is the chairman of the board, chief executive officer, president and a current director of Rhapsody and Mr. Sgro is Rhapsody s chief financial officer. Messrs. Moerbeek, Cook and Tucker will be considered independent directors under applicable regulatory rules. Certain of the Primoris stockholders who are parties to the merger agreement and Mr. Rosenfeld will enter into a voting agreement at the time of closing of the merger that will provide that they will each vote their shares of Rhapsody common stock in favor of the election of such persons as directors of Rhapsody in specified classes in all elections prior to the annual meeting that will be held in 2011.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Upon completion of the merger, certain officers of Primoris will become officers of Rhapsody holding positions similar to the positions such officers held with Primoris. These officers are Brian Pratt, who will become chief executive officer of Rhapsody, John M. Perisich, who will become senior vice president and general counsel of Rhapsody, John P. Schauerman, who will become chief financial officer of Rhapsody, and Alfons Theeuwes, who will become senior vice president of accounting and finance of Rhapsody. Each of these persons is currently an executive officer of Primoris and has entered into an employment agreement with Primoris, effective upon the merger, which will be assumed by Rhapsody as a result of the merger. See the section entitled The Director Election Proposal Employment Agreements.

The Primoris Holders will not be able to sell any of the shares of Rhapsody common stock that they receive as a result of the merger during the twelve month period after the closing date of the merger and those Primoris stockholders who are parties to the merger agreement will enter into lock-up agreements to such effect at the closing. Rhapsody has agreed to register for resale (effective after such 12-month period) under the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) the Rhapsody shares received by those Primoris Holders who may be deemed affiliates of Rhapsody. See the section entitled The Merger Proposal Sale Restriction; Registration of Shares.

Prior to the consummation of the merger, Primoris may make cash distributions to its stockholders in amount equal to 50% of Primoris s estimated income for the period beginning on January 1, 2008 and ending on the closing date of the merger. It may also make a distribution to its stockholders in an amount not to exceed $48,946,661, of which $4,895,381 will be withheld to provide for adjustment if the amount of Primoris s actual income for the period from January 1, 2008 to the closing date of the merger is less than the amount initially estimated. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement Primoris Cash Distributions.

The merger agreement provides that, following the closing, Rhapsody s board of directors shall initially declare and pay annual dividends on its common stock at a rate of not less than $0.10 per share; provided, however, that the board of directors shall not declare any such dividend unless, at the time of declaration, there is adequate surplus for such declaration under the DGCL or if the board of directors, in the exercise of their business judgment, believes that it would be prudent to cancel or modify the dividend payment.

After the merger, we anticipate having approximately $39.5 million in cash available from our trust account, from which payment for conversions of our Public Shares into cash would be made. If the maximum number of Public Shares are converted that would still allow us to consummate the merger (1,034,999 shares), such payments would total $8,186,842 based on a conversion price of $7.91 per share.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FOR RHAPSODY STOCKHOLDERS ABOUT THE PROPOSALS

Q.

Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A.

Rhapsody and Primoris have agreed to a business combination under the terms of the merger agreement that is described in this proxy statement/prospectus. This agreement is referred to as the merger agreement. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, restated as amended, which we encourage you to read.

You are being asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement, which, among other things, provides for the merger of Primoris into Rhapsody. You are also being requested to vote to approve (i) separate amendments to Rhapsody's certificate of incorporation to (A) change the name of Rhapsody from Rhapsody Acquisition Corp. to Primoris Corporation; (B) increase the number of authorized shares of Rhapsody's common stock from 15 million to 60 million; (C) change Rhapsody's corporate existence to perpetual; (D) incorporate the classification of directors that would result from the election of directors in the manner described in the director election proposal; (E) delete the present Article Fifth, which relates to Rhapsody's incorporator and is not required in a restated certificate of incorporation, and the preamble and sections A through D, inclusive, of Article Seventh and to redesignate section E of Article Seventh as Article Sixth, as such provisions will no longer be applicable to Rhapsody after the merger, and to renumber succeeding Articles accordingly; and (F) make certain other changes in tense, gender and number that our board of directors believes are immaterial; and (ii) the incentive compensation plan. The approval of the merger proposal and each of the charter amendment proposals is a condition to the consummation of the merger. If the merger proposal is not approved, the other proposals will not be presented to the stockholders for a vote. If the charter amendment proposals are all not approved, the other proposals will not be presented to the stockholders for a vote and the merger will not be consummated. Rhapsody's amended and restated certificate of incorporation, as it will appear if all of the charter amendment proposals are approved, is annexed as Annex B hereto. The incentive compensation plan is annexed as Annex C hereto. In addition to the foregoing proposals, the stockholders will also be asked to consider and vote upon the election of seven directors of Rhapsody, which proposal will not be presented for a vote if either the merger proposal or the charter amendment proposal is not approved. The stockholders will also be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the meeting to a later date or dates to permit further solicitation and vote of proxies if, based upon the tabulated vote at the time of the special meeting, Rhapsody would not have been authorized to consummate the merger. Rhapsody will hold the special meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote upon these proposals. Rhapsody was organized to effect an acquisition, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination with an operating business.

Rhapsody completed its IPO on October 10, 2006, raising net proceeds of $38,833,559, including proceeds from the exercise of the underwriters over allotment option and $414,000 of deferred underwriting compensation. Of these net proceeds, $38,028,250, together with $1,250,000 raised from the private sale of warrants, for a total of $39,278,250, were placed in a trust account immediately following the IPO and, in accordance with Rhapsody's certificate of incorporation, will be released upon the consummation of a business combination. As of February 29, 2008, approximately $40,955,000 was held in deposit in the trust account, including $414,000 of deferred underwriting compensation. Rhapsody intends to use funds held in the trust account to pay stockholders of Rhapsody who exercise conversion rights, expenses of the business combination with Primoris, deferred underwriting compensation and investment banker's fees and for working capital and general corporate purposes.

Primoris is a holding company of various subsidiaries which cumulatively form a diversified engineering and construction company providing a wide range of construction, fabrication, maintenance and replacement services, as well as engineering services to major public utilities, petrochemical companies, energy companies, municipalities and other customers. Based on its due diligence investigations of Primoris and the industry in which it operates, including the financial and other information provided by Primoris in the course of their negotiations, Rhapsody believes that Primoris's management has successful experience in Primoris's business and that Primoris has in place the infrastructure for strong business operations and to achieve growth both organically and through accretive strategic acquisitions. As a result, Rhapsody also believes that a business combination with Primoris will provide Rhapsody stockholders with an opportunity to participate in a company with significant growth potential. See the section entitled The Merger Proposal - Factors Considered by Rhapsody's Board of Directors.

In accordance with Rhapsody's certificate of incorporation, if Rhapsody is unable to complete the business combination with Primoris by October 3, 2008, its corporate existence will terminate and it will be required to liquidate.

Q.

Do I have conversion rights?

A.

If you are a holder of Public Shares, you have the right to vote against the merger proposal and demand that Rhapsody convert such shares into a pro rata portion of the trust account in which a substantial portion of the net proceeds of Rhapsody's IPO are held. We sometimes refer to these rights to vote against the merger and demand conversion of the Public Shares into a pro rata portion of the trust account as conversion rights.

A.

If you are a holder of Public Shares and wish to exercise your conversion rights, you must (i) vote against the merger proposal, (ii) demand that Rhapsody convert your shares into cash, (iii) continue to hold your shares through the closing of the merger and (iv) then deliver your stock to our transfer agent physically or electronically using Depository Trust Company's DWAC (Deposit Withdrawal at Custodian) System within the period specified in a notice you will receive from or on behalf of Rhapsody, which period will be not less than 20 days.

Q.

How do I exercise my conversion rights?

Any action that does not include an affirmative vote against the merger will prevent you from exercising your conversion rights. Your vote on any proposal other than the merger proposal will have no impact on your right to seek conversion.

You may exercise your conversion rights either by checking the box on the proxy card or by submitting your request in writing to Arnaud Ajdler, our secretary, at the address listed at the end of this section. If you (i) initially vote for the merger proposal but then wish to vote against it and exercise your conversion rights or (ii) initially vote against the merger proposal and wish to exercise your conversion rights but do not check the box on the proxy card providing for the exercise of your conversion rights or do not send a written request to Rhapsody to exercise your conversion rights, or (iii) initially vote against the merger but later wish to vote for it, you may request Rhapsody to send you another proxy card on which you may indicate your intended vote. You may make such request by contacting Rhapsody at the phone number or address listed at the end of this section.

Any corrected or changed proxy card or written demand of conversion rights must be received by Rhapsody's secretary prior to the special meeting. No demand for conversion will be honored unless the holder's stock has been delivered (either physically or electronically) to the transfer agent after the meeting within the time period (at least 20 days) specified in a letter that will be sent to all Rhapsody stockholders who have voted against the merger proposal and demanded to convert their Public Shares into cash promptly after the meeting.

If, notwithstanding your negative vote, the merger is completed, then, if you have also properly exercised your conversion rights, you will be entitled to receive a pro rata portion of the trust account, including any interest earned thereon, calculated as of two business days prior to the date of the consummation of the merger. As of May 31, 2008, there was approximately $41,191,000 in the trust account, which would amount to approximately $7.91 per Public Share upon conversion. If you exercise your conversion rights, then you will be exchanging your shares of Rhapsody common stock for cash and will no longer own these shares.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Exercise of your conversion rights does not result in either the exercise or loss of any Rhapsody warrants that you may hold. Your warrants will continue to be outstanding following a conversion of your common stock and will become exercisable upon consummation of the merger. A registration statement must be in effect to allow you to exercise any warrants you may hold or to allow Rhapsody to call the warrants for redemption if the redemption conditions are satisfied. If the merger is not consummated, the warrants will not become exercisable and will be worthless.

Q.

A.

Do I have appraisal rights if I object to the proposed acquisition?

No. Rhapsody stockholders do not have appraisal rights in connection with the merger under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (DGCL).

A.

Q.

What happens to the funds deposited in the trust account after consummation of the merger?

After consummation of the merger, the funds in the trust account will be released to Rhapsody and used by Rhapsody to pay stockholders who properly exercise their conversion rights, for expenses it incurred in pursuing its business combination and for working capital and general corporate purposes. Such expenses include $414,000 that will be paid to the underwriters of Rhapsody's IPO for deferred underwriting compensation. The representative of the underwriters of the IPO will also receive a fee of $360,000 for acting as Rhapsody's investment banker in connection with the business combination.

A.

What happens if the merger is not consummated?

Rhapsody must liquidate if it does not consummate the merger by October 3, 2008. In any liquidation of Rhapsody, the funds deposited in the trust account, plus any interest earned thereon, less claims requiring payment from the trust account by creditors who have not waived their rights against the trust account, if any, will be distributed pro rata to the holders of Rhapsody's Public Shares. Holders of Rhapsody common stock issued prior to the IPO, including all of Rhapsody's officers and directors, have waived any right to any liquidation distribution with respect to those shares. Eric S. Rosenfeld, our chairman, chief executive officer and president, will be personally liable under certain circumstances to ensure that the proceeds in the trust account are not reduced by the claims of prospective target businesses and vendors or other entities that are owed money by us for services rendered or products sold to us. We cannot assure you that Mr. Rosenfeld will be able to satisfy those obligations. See the section entitled Other Information Related to Rhapsody Liquidation If No Business Combination for additional information.

Q.

A.

When do you expect the merger to be completed?

It is currently anticipated that the merger will be consummated on July 31, 2008, two days after the Rhapsody special meeting on July 29, 2008.

For a description of the conditions for the completion of the merger, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Closing of the Merger.

Q.

A.

Edgar Filing: Rhapsody Acquisition Corp. - Form S-4/A

A.

Q.

What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement/prospectus and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
FOR PRIMORIS STOCKHOLDERS ABOUT THE PROPOSALS

Q.

Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A.

Rhapsody and Primoris have agreed to a business combination under the terms of the merger agreement that is described in this proxy statement/prospectus. This agreement is referred to as the merger agreement. A copy of the merger agreement, restated as amended, is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, which we encourage you to read.

You are being asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement, which, among other things, provides for the merger of Primoris into Rhapsody. The approval of the merger proposal is a condition to the consummation of the merger.

Primoris will hold the special meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote upon the proposal. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the proposed acquisition and the other matters to be acted upon at the special meeting. You should read it carefully.

The stockholders of Primoris who are parties to the merger agreement and who own or have proxies to vote an aggregate of 80.7% of the outstanding shares of Primoris common stock have agreed in the merger agreement to vote such shares in favor of the merger proposal.

Your vote is important. We encourage you to attend and vote at the special meeting.

A.

Q.

Why is Primoris proposing the merger?

Primoris is a holding company of various subsidiaries which cumulatively form a diversified engineering and construction company providing a wide range of construction, fabrication, maintenance and replacement services, as well as engineering services to major public utilities, petrochemical companies, energy companies, municipalities and other customers.

Rhapsody was organized to effect an acquisition, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination.

Rhapsody completed its IPO on October 10, 2006, raising net proceeds, including proceeds from the exercise of the underwriters over allotment option, of approximately $38,833,559. Of these net proceeds, $38,028,250, together with $1,250,000 raised from the private sale of warrants, for a total of $39,278,250 (including $414,000 of deferred underwriting compensation to be payable upon a successful business combination), were placed in a trust account immediately following the IPO and, in accordance with Rhapsody's certificate of incorporation, will be released upon the consummation of a business combination. As of May 31, 2008, approximately $41,191,000 was held in deposit in the trust account. Rhapsody intends to use funds held in the trust account to pay stockholders of Rhapsody who exercise conversion rights, expenses of the business combination with Primoris, deferred underwriting compensation and investment banker's fees and for working capital and general corporate purposes.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Based on its due diligence investigations of Rhapsody, including the financial and other information provided by Rhapsody in the course of their negotiations, Primoris believes that Rhapsody's management will provide key financial and public market management experience to the Primoris board and would provide important financial resources to Primoris. Additionally, Primoris believes that a business combination with Rhapsody will provide Primoris stockholders with an opportunity to provide certain liquidity to their investment in Primoris and will provide a further opportunity to participate in a company with expanded growth potential.

In accordance with Rhapsody's certificate of incorporation, Rhapsody must liquidate if it has not consummated a business combination by October 3, 2008. If Rhapsody is unable to complete the business combination with Primoris by such date, it will be forced to liquidate.
A.

Q.

Will I be able to sell my Rhapsody shares immediately after the merger?

No. The merger agreement provides that no public sales of Rhapsody shares may be made during the first 12 months following the closing of the merger. You will be required to agree to this restriction as a condition to being issued Rhapsody shares. The shares will contain a legend to such effect.
A.

Q.

Do I have dissenter's rights?

If you are a holder of common stock of Primoris, you have the right under the Nevada Revised Statutes to vote against the merger proposal and demand that Primoris pay you the fair value of such shares. We sometimes refer to these rights to vote against the merger and demand the payment for the fair value of shares as dissenter's rights. Pursuant to the merger agreement, if the holders of more than 5% of the outstanding common stock of Primoris exercise their dissenter's rights, Rhapsody may elect not to proceed with the merger.
A.

Q.

How do I exercise my dissenter's rights?

If you are a stockholder of Primoris common stock and wish to exercise your dissenter's rights, you must (i) deliver a written notice to Primoris of your intent to demand payment for the Primoris common stock before the vote on the merger is taken and (ii) vote against the merger proposal. If you fail to satisfy these two requirements, you will not satisfy the requirements to exercise your dissenter's rights.

Within 10 days after the completion of the merger, the merged company will then send a written dissenter's notice to those who satisfied the two requirements noted above. The dissenter's notice will contain: (i) a statement of where demand for payment and certificates of Primoris common stock are to be sent, (ii) a statement informing holders of non-certificated shares of Primoris common stock of certain restrictions on transfers, (iii) a form for demanding payment, (iv) a date by when the demand for payment must be received, and (v) a copy of certain provisions of the Nevada Revised Statutes.

After receipt of such dissenter's notice, the dissenting stockholders must then (i) demand payment, (ii) make certain certifications regarding their ownership of the Primoris common stock and (iii) deposit their certificates in accordance with the dissenter's notice.

The merged company will then be required to pay each dissenting Primoris stockholder the amount that the merged company estimates to be the fair value of each dissenter's shares of Primoris common stock, plus accrued interest. The payment by the merged company will be accompanied by: (i) a copy of certain financial statements for the merged company, (ii) a statement of the merged company's estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares of Primoris common stock, (iii) an explanation as to how interest was calculated, (iv) a statement stating how a dissenter may demand payment under Nevada law of their estimate of the value of the Primoris common stock, and (v) a copy of certain provisions of the Nevada Revised Statutes.

You may exercise your dissenter's rights by submitting your request in writing to John P. Schauerman of Primoris, at the address listed at the end of this section.

See the section entitled Appraisal and Dissenter's Rights for more specific procedures to be followed if you wish to exercise your dissenter's rights.

Q.

A.

What happens if the merger is not consummated?

If the merger is not consummated, you will continue to own the same shares of common stock of Primoris that you owned prior to the vote at the special meeting. Primoris will continue to operate in its ordinary course as previously operated.

Q.

A.

When do you expect the merger to be completed?

It is currently anticipated that the merger will be consummated as soon as practicable following the Rhapsody special meeting on July 29, 2008.

For a description of the conditions for the completion of the merger, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Closing of the Merger.

A.

Q. What do I need to do now?
Primoris urges you to read carefully and consider the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes, and to consider how the merger will affect you as a stockholder of Primoris. You should then attend and vote at the special meeting of Primoris stockholders.

Q. A.

How do I vote?
If you are a holder of record of Primoris common stock, you may vote in person at the special meeting.

A.

Q. What should I do with my stock certificates?
Promptly following the completion of the merger, Rhapsody's transfer agent will mail to you a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering your Primoris stock certificates in exchange for certificates representing Rhapsody common stock. Do not send your Primoris stock certificates until you receive a letter of transmittal from Rhapsody's transfer agent, with instructions for the surrender of the Primoris stock certificates.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If you decide to exercise your dissenter's rights, you will need to surrender your certificates as instructed in the dissenter's notice, discussed above.

See the section entitled Appraisal and Dissenter's Rights for more specific procedures to be followed if you wish to exercise your dissenter's rights.

SUMMARY OF THE PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus and does not contain all of the information that is important to you. To better understand the merger, you should read this entire document carefully, including the merger agreement, restated as amended, attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. The merger agreement is the legal document that governs the merger and the other transactions that will be undertaken in connection with the merger. It is also described in detail elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The Parties

Rhapsody

Rhapsody Acquisition Corp. is a blank check company formed on April 24, 2006 as a vehicle to effect a merger, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination with an operating business.

On October 10, 2006, Rhapsody closed its initial public offering of 5,175,000 units (including 675,000 units subject to the underwriters' over-allotment option), with each unit consisting of one share of its common stock and one warrant, each to purchase one share of its common stock at an exercise price of $5.00 per share. The units from the initial public offering (including the over-allotment option) were sold at an offering price of $8.00 per unit, generating total gross proceeds of $41,400,000. Simultaneously with the consummation of the IPO, Rhapsody consummated the private sale of 1,136,364 warrants at $1.10 per warrant to certain of its initial stockholders and affiliates for an aggregate purchase price of $1,250,000. Net proceeds from the offering, including proceeds from the exercise of the underwriters' over-allotment option, were $38,833,559, including $414,000 of deferred underwriting compensation. Of these net proceeds, $38,028,250, together with $1,250,000 raised from the private sale of warrants, for a total of $39,278,250, were deposited into the trust account and the remaining proceeds of approximately $1,030,000 became available to be used to provide for business, legal and accounting due diligence on prospective business combinations and continuing general and administrative expenses. In addition, as provided for in the prospectus for Rhapsody's IPO, subsequent to October 3, 2007, Rhapsody withdrew an additional $200,000 from interest earned on funds in the trust account to fund such expenses. Through December 31, 2007, Rhapsody had used approximately $1,028,000 of the net proceeds that were not deposited into the trust account to pay for remaining expenses of the offering, taxes and general and administrative expenses and at that date had not used the additional $200,000 withdrawn by it for such purposes. The net proceeds deposited into the trust account remain on deposit in the trust account earning interest. As of May 31, 2008, there was approximately $41,191,000 held in the trust account.

The funds deposited in the trust account, with the interest earned thereon, will be released to Rhapsody upon consummation of the merger, and used to pay any amounts payable to Rhapsody stockholders who vote against the merger and exercise their conversion rights and expenses incurred in connection with the business combination, including deferred underwriting compensation of $414,000 and a fee to the representative of the underwriters of the IPO of $360,000 for acting as Rhapsody's investment banker in connection with the business combination. Remaining proceeds will be used for working capital, including funding for organic growth and acquisitions.

If Rhapsody does not complete the merger by October 3, 2008, its corporate existence will terminate and it will liquidate and promptly distribute to its public stockholders the amount in its trust account plus any remaining non-trust account funds after payment of its liabilities.

The Rhapsody common stock, warrants to purchase common stock and units (each unit consisting of one share of common stock and one warrant to purchase common stock) are quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbols RPSD for the common stock, RPSDW for the warrants and RPSDU for the units.

The mailing address of Rhapsody's principal executive office is 825 Third Avenue, 4th Floor, New York, New York 10022. Its telephone number is (212) 319-7676. After the consummation of the merger, its principal executive office will be located at 26000 Commercentre Drive, Lake Forest, CA 92630 and its telephone number will be (949) 598-9242.

The Merger

The merger agreement provides for a business combination transaction by means of the merger of Primoris into Rhapsody, with Rhapsody being the surviving entity and operating under the name Primoris Corporation. At the closing, the Primoris Holders will receive in the aggregate (i) 24,094,800 shares of Rhapsody common stock (subject to reduction in the event of exercise of dissenter's rights by any of the Primoris stockholders) plus (ii) the right to receive 2,500,000 shares of Rhapsody common stock for each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2008 and 2009 during which the surviving corporation achieves specified EBITDA (as defined in the merger agreement) milestones.

Such milestones are $39,300,000 for the 2008 fiscal year and $46,000,000 for the 2009 fiscal year. See the section entitled The Merger Proposal Structure of the Merger for the manner in which EBITDA is defined for this purpose.

To provide a fund for payment to Rhapsody with respect to its post-closing rights to indemnification under the merger agreement for breaches of representations and warranties and covenants by Primoris and its stockholders, there will be placed in escrow (with an independent escrow agent) 1,807,110 of the shares issuable to the Primoris Holders at closing. Other than with respect to certain specified matters, the escrow will be the sole remedy for Rhapsody for its rights to indemnification under the merger agreement. See the section entitled The Merger Proposal Indemnification.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Rhapsody and Primoris plan to complete the merger promptly after the Rhapsody special meeting, provided that:

Rhapsody's stockholders have approved the merger proposal; holders of fewer than 20% of Rhapsody's Public Shares have voted against the merger proposal and demanded conversion of their shares into cash; and the other conditions specified in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived.

After consideration of the factors identified and discussed in the section entitled The Merger Proposal Factors Considered by Rhapsody's Board of Directors, Rhapsody's board of directors concluded that the merger met all of the requirements disclosed in Rhapsody's Registration Statement on Form S-1 (Reg. No. 333-134694), that became effective on October 3, 2006, including that such business has a fair market value of at least 80% of the trust account balance at the time of the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, assuming that none of the holders of the Public Shares elects to convert such shares into cash, the Primoris Holders will own approximately 79.3% of the shares of Rhapsody common stock outstanding immediately after the closing of the merger and the other Rhapsody stockholders will own approximately 20.7% of Rhapsody's outstanding common stock. If 19.99% of the holders of Public Shares elect to convert their shares into cash, such percentages would be 82.1% and 17.9%, respectively. The foregoing does not take into account shares that would be issued to Primoris Holders upon achievement of the EBITDA milestones or the exercise of warrants that are presently outstanding or shares that would be issued under the incentive compensation option plan proposed to be adopted in connection with the merger. However, if 19.99% of the Public Shares are converted and thereafter the full EBITDA consideration is earned, the current Rhapsody stockholders would own 15.3% of the total outstanding stock and the Primoris Holders would own 84.7%, assuming that no other shares are issued. All of these percentages assume that none of the Primoris stockholders exercises his or her dissenter's rights. To the extent dissenter's rights are exercised, the percentage owned by the Primoris Holders would decrease and that owned by the Rhapsody stockholders would increase.

Fairness Opinion

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated January 28, 2008, we engaged Ladenburg Thalmann & Co. Inc. (Ladenburg) to render an opinion that the consideration to be paid by us in connection with our merger with Primoris on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement is fair to our stockholders from a financial point of view and that the fair market value of Primoris is at least equal to 80% of the balance in the trust account at the time of the merger.

Ladenburg is an investment banking firm that regularly is engaged in the evaluation of businesses and their securities in connection with acquisitions, corporate restructuring, private placements and for other purposes. Our board of directors decided to use the services of Ladenburg because it is a recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in similar matters. The engagement letter provides that we will pay Ladenburg a fee of $75,000 (which has been paid) and will reimburse Ladenburg for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including attorneys fees. We have also agreed to indemnify Ladenburg against certain liabilities that may arise out of the opinion.

Ladenburg delivered its written opinion to our board of directors on February 17, 2008, which opinion stated that, as of such date, and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on its review as set forth in the opinion, (i) the consideration then agreed to be paid by us in the merger was fair to our stockholders from a financial point of view, and (ii) the fair market value of Primoris was at least equal to 80% of the balance in the trust account at the time of the merger. Unless Rhapsody management believes there has been a material adverse change in Primoris's business or its fair market value since the date of such opinion, such opinion will not be updated.

The amount of the consideration to be paid by us to Primoris's stockholders was determined pursuant to negotiations between us and Primoris and not pursuant to recommendations of Ladenburg. The Charter Amendment Proposals

The proposed amendments to Rhapsody's certificate of incorporation addressed by the charter amendment proposals would, upon consummation of the merger, (i) change Rhapsody's name to Primoris Corporation, (ii) increase the authorized number of shares of its common stock from 15 million to 60 million, (iii) make its corporate existence perpetual, (iv) incorporate the classification of directors that would result from the election of directors in the manner described in the director election proposal; (v) delete the present Article Fifth, which relates to Rhapsody's incorporator and is not required in a restated certificate of incorporation, and the preamble and sections A through D, inclusive, of Article Seventh and to redesignate section E of Article Seventh as Article Sixth, as such provisions will no longer be applicable to Rhapsody after the merger, and to renumber succeeding Articles accordingly; and (vi) make certain other changes that our board of directors believes are immaterial. See the section entitled The Charter Amendment Proposals.

The Incentive Compensation Plan Proposal

The proposed incentive compensation plan reserves 1,520,000 shares of Rhapsody common stock for issuance to executive officers (including executive officers who are also directors), employees, directors and consultants in accordance with the plan's terms. The purpose of the plan is to provide Rhapsody's directors, executive officers and other employees as well as consultants who, by their position, ability and diligence are able to make important contributions to Rhapsody's growth and profitability, with an incentive to assist Rhapsody in achieving its long-term corporate objectives, to attract and retain executive officers and other employees of outstanding competence and to provide such persons with an opportunity to acquire an equity interest in Rhapsody. The plan is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the plan in its entirety.

The Director Election Proposal; Management of Rhapsody

At the special meeting, seven directors will be elected to Rhapsody's board of directors, of whom two will serve until the special meeting to be held in 2009, three will serve until the special meeting to be held in 2010 and two will serve until the special meeting to be held in 2011 and, in each case, until their successors are elected and qualified.

Upon consummation of the merger, if management's nominees are elected, the directors of Rhapsody will be classified as follows:

in the class to stand for reelection in 2009: Brian Pratt and Thomas E. Tucker; in the class to stand for reelection in 2010: John P. Schauerman, Stephen C. Cook and Peter J. Moerbeek; and in the class to stand for reelection in 2011: Eric S. Rosenfeld and David D. Sgro.

Upon the consummation of the merger, the executive officers of Rhapsody will be Brian Pratt, chief executive officer, John M. Perisich, senior vice president and general counsel, John P. Schauerman, chief financial officer, and Alfons Theeuwes, senior vice president of accounting and finance. Each of such persons is currently an executive officer of Primoris.

If either the merger proposal or the charter amendment proposal is not approved by Rhapsody's stockholders at the special meeting, the director election proposal and the other proposals (except an adjournment proposal, as discussed below) will not be presented to the meeting for a vote and Rhapsody's current directors and executive officers will continue in office until Rhapsody is liquidated.

The Adjournment Proposal

If, based on the tabulated vote, there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to authorize Rhapsody to consummate the merger (because either the merger proposal or the charter amendment proposal is not approved or
