- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

[X] Yes [] No

Edgar Filing: Patient Safety Technologies, Inc - Form NT 10-Q

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Patient Safety Technologies, Inc. anticipates that its revenue for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008 will increase to approximately $880 thousand and $1.9 million, respectively as compared to $213 thousand and $834 thousand for the respective three and nine months ending September 30, 2007. The increase in revenue is the result of an increase in sales of the Company's Safety-Sponge™ system during the 2008 period. The Company anticipates that its operating expenses will increase to approximately $1.7 million and $5.6 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively as compared to $1.2 million and $4.0 million for the respective three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, primarily as a result of increases in salary and marketing expenses. The net loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008 is anticipated to be approximately $842 thousand and $4.8 million, respectively, as compared to $1.9 million and $5.1 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, respectively.

Results for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2008 remain subject to further adjustment, and actual results may differ from the foregoing estimates.
