CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD - LOOKING STATEMENTS This document contains forward - looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward - looking statements are typically identified by words or phrases such as “may,” “will,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “expect,” “project,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “target,” “forecast” and other words and terms of similar meaning. Forward - looking statements involve estimates, expectations, projections, goals, forecasts, assumptions, risks and uncertainties. Cascade cautions readers that any forward - looking statement is not a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward - looking statement. Such forward - looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the proposed merger involving Cascade and Home, including future financial and operating results, Cascade’s or Home’s plans, objectives, expectations and intentions, the expected timing of completion of the merger and other statements that are not historical facts. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward - looking statements include risks and uncertainties relating to: (i) the ability to obtain the requisite Cascade and Home shareholder approvals; (ii) the risk that Cascade or Home may be unable to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required governmental and regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could cause the parties to abandon the merger; (iii) the risk that a condition to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (iv) the timing to consummate the proposed merger; (v) the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; (vi) the risk that the cost savings and any other synergies from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (vii) disruption from the transaction making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or vendors; (viii) the diversion of management time on merger - related issues; (ix) general worldwide economic conditions and related uncertainties; (x) liquidity risk affecting Cascade’s ability to meet its obligations when they come due; (xi) excessive loan losses; (xii) the effect of changes in governmental regulations; and (xiii) other factors we discuss or refer to in the “Risk Factors” section of Cascade’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10 - K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on March 29, 2013. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the merger, will be more fully discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus that will be included in the Registration Statement on Form S - 4 that will be filed with the SEC in connection with the merger. Additional risks and uncertainties are identified and discussed in Cascade’s and Home’s reports filed with the SEC and available at the SEC’s web site at www.sec.gov. Each forward - looking statement speaks only as of the date of the particular statement and neither Cascade nor Home undertakes any obligation to update or revise its forward - looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Additional Information about the Proposed Merger and Where to Find It This document does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, or a solicitation of any vote or approval, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. In connection with the proposed merger between Cascade and Home, Cascade will file with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S - 4, which will include a joint proxy statement of Cascade and Home that also constitutes a prospectus. Cascade and Home will deliver the joint proxy statement/prospectus to their respective shareholders. Cascade and Home urge investors and shareholders to read the joint proxy statement/prospectus regarding the proposed merger when it becomes available, as well as other documents filed with the SEC because they will contain important information about the proposed merger. You may obtain copies of all documents filed with the SEC regarding this transaction, free of charge, at the SEC’s website (www.sec.gov). You may also obtain these documents, free of charge, from: (i) Cascade’s website (www.botc.com) under the heading “About Us” and then under the heading “Investor Relations” and then under the heading “Investor Information” and then under the tab “SEC Filings;” (ii) Cascade upon written request to Cascade Bancorp, Attn: Investor Relations, 1100 North West Wall Street, P.O. Box 369, Bend, Oregon 97701; (iii) Home’s website (www.homefederal.com) under the heading “Investor Relations” and then under the heading “SEC Filings;” or (iv) Home upon written request to Home Federal Bancorp, Inc., Attn: Eric Nadeau, 500 12th Avenue South, Nampa, Idaho 83651. Participants in the Solicitation Cascade, Home and their respective directors and executive officers may be soliciting proxies from Cascade and Home shareholders in favor of the proposed merger and related matters. Information regarding the persons who may, under the rules of the SEC, be deemed participants in the solicitation of Cascade and Home shareholders in connection with the proposed merger and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise will be set forth in the joint proxy statement/prospectus when it is filed with the SEC. You can find information about Cascade's directors and executive officers in Cascade's definitive proxy statement filed with the SEC on March 27, 2013 for its 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. You can find information about Home's directors and executive officers in Home's definitive proxy statement filed with the SEC on April 19, 2013. Additional information about Cascade's directors and executive officers and Home's directors and executive officers can also be found in the above - referenced Registration Statement on Form S - 4 when it becomes available. Investors should read the joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully when it becomes available before making any voting or investment decisions. You can obtain free copies of these documents from Cascade and Home using the contact information above. 2
