Converium Holding Ltd, Zug

Zug, Switzerland - February 24, 2005 - Converium today informs on the appointment of Terry G. Clarke as Chief Executive Officer

Edgar Filing: CONVERIUM HOLDING AG - Form 6-K

The Board of Directors of Converium announces the appointment of Terry G. Clarke as Chief Executive Officer of the Group. His appointment is made with immediate effect. In making the announcement the Chairman of the Board of Directors, Peter C. Colombo, says that "the Board believes that a management change is necessary to bring about a long-term cultural transformation and restore stakeholder confidence in the Company".

Terry G. Clarke has been a member of the Board of Directors of Converium since 2002 and was appointed Managing Director in September 2004, as from which date he actively assisted his predecessor Dirk Lohmann and the members of the Global Executive Committee to improve the communication to the Board and the decision-making process. Going forward, according to Terry G. Clarke, "the focus is on rebuilding the long-term value of Converium's franchise and the creation of a leaner structure".

Mr. Clarke will continue to be a member of the Board of Directors of Converium. His presence in both the supervisory and management boards is expected to continue to improve the lines of communication with operational management and assure effective corporate governance going forward.

Terry G. Clarke has extensive management and actuarial experience in the insurance industry. Prior to joining Converium he was the Managing Principal for the North American practice of Tillinghast-Towers Perrin, an actuarial consulting firm, where he consulted to the insurance industry. Prior to joining Tillinghast he was a member of senior management of the Norwich Winterthur Group in the United Kingdom. Mr. Clarke is a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries.
