ITEM 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES.

Not applicable.

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL.

Not applicable.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Our Articles of Incorporation provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by Texas law, directors and former directors of the Company shall not be liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages occurring in their capacity as a director. Texas law does not currently authorize the elimination or limitation of the liability of a director to the extent the director is found liable (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith that constitute a breach of duty of the director of the Company or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for transactions from which the director received an improper benefit, whether the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's office or (iv) for acts or omissions for which the liability of a director is expressly provided by law.

Our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws grant mandatory indemnification to our directors and officers to the fullest extent authorized under the Texas Business Corporation Act. In general, a Texas corporation may indemnify a director or officer who was, is or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding by virtue of his position in the corporation if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, in the case of criminal proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A Texas corporation may indemnify an officer or director in an action brought by or in the right of the corporation only if such director or officer was not found liable to the corporation, unless or only to the extent that a court finds him to be fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

We have insurance on behalf of the Company and its directors and officers individually against certain liabilities. By reason of this coverage, the Company and its directors and officers will be insured against most lawsuits and claims arising from unintentional acts or omissions, including such lawsuits and claims brought under the federal securities laws (other than under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934).

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

(a) We, the undersigned Registrant, hereby undertake:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the new offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange

Edgar Filing: GULFWEST ENERGY INC - Form S-8

Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
