Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 1, 2005, Greatbatch, Inc. (the "Company") amended its Senior Secured Credit Facility, which includes changes to the underlying covenants. The amended three-year facility replaces the old $20.0 million revolving credit facility with a new $50.0 million Revolving Credit Facility ("new revolver"), which contains a $10.0 million sub-limit for the issuance of commercial or standby letters of credit. The new revolver is secured by the Company's non-realty assets including cash, accounts and notes receivable, and inventories. The new revolver requires the Company to comply with two quarterly financial covenants, as defined. The first relates to the ratio of consolidated net earnings or loss before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization ("EBITDA") to Fixed Charges. The second is a Leverage ratio, which is calculated based on the ratio of Consolidated Funded Debt less Cash, Cash Equivalent Investments and Short-Term Investments to Consolidated EBITDA. Interest rates under the new Facility vary with the Company's leverage. The Company is required to pay a commitment fee of between .125% and .250% per annum on the unused portion of the revolving line of credit based on the Company's leverage.

Upon an event of default, the lenders may terminate the new revolver and declare amounts then outstanding immediately due and payable in whole or in part. These events of default include, among others: the failure to pay any principal or interest when due and payable under the new revolver; any representation or warranty made under the new revolver proves to have been incorrect when made or deemed made; the failure to observe certain covenants, conditions or agreements under the new revolver; a petition seeking liquidation, reorganization or other relief is filed; an event or condition occurs which at the time results in indebtedness of one million dollars or more becoming due and payable prior to its scheduled maturity; one or more judgments for the payment of money in an aggregate amount in excess of applicable insurance coverage of one million dollars or more is rendered; the failure of any guarantor to observe or perform any applicable covenant, condition or agreement under the new revolver; and, a change of control occurs.

The Company intends to file a copy of the Agreement with its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended July 1, 2005.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

The information provided under Item 1.01 above is hereby incorporated by reference into this item.
