Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 10, 2013, iParty Corp. (“we,” “us,” “iParty” or the “Company”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) a definitive proxy statement (the “Definitive Proxy Statement”), dated April 11, 2013, with respect to the special meeting of iParty stockholders scheduled to be held on May 9, 2013 (the “Special Meeting”). As previously disclosed, on March 1, 2013, iParty entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among the iParty, Party City Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Party City”), and Confetti Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Party City (“Merger Sub”), which provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into iParty (the “Merger”), with iParty surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Party City.

As previously disclosed in the Definitive Proxy Statement, on March 8, 2013, a putative shareholder class action lawsuit was filed against the Company, members of the Company's Board of Directors, Party City and Merger Sub in the Massachusetts Superior Court (Suffolk County) (Vincent Sean Halstead, individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated vs. iParty Corp. et al, B.L.S. 13-0842) (the "Halstead Complaint"), which complaint was amended on April 9, 2013.

On May 1, 2013, the Company, Party City, Merger Sub, and plaintiff in the Halstead Complaint reached an agreement-in-principle providing for the settlement of the outstanding litigation on the terms and conditions set forth in a memorandum of understanding (the “MOU”). Pursuant to the terms of the MOU, without agreeing that any of the claims in the Halstead Complaint have merit or that any supplemental disclosure was required under any applicable statute, rule, regulation or law, the Company agreed to make certain supplemental and amended disclosures in this Current Report on Form 8-K. The MOU further provides that, among other things, (a) the parties to the MOU will enter into a definitive settlement agreement (the “Agreement”) and will submit the Agreement to the Suffolk County Superior Court (the “Court”) for review and approval; (b) the Agreement will provide for dismissal of the Halstead Complaint with prejudice; (c) the Agreement will include a general release of defendants of claims relating to the transaction; and (d) the proposed settlement is conditioned on final approval by the Court. There can be no assurance that the settlement will be finalized or that the Court will approve the settlement.

The settlement will not affect the timing of the Special Meeting or the amount of merger consideration to be paid to stockholders of iParty in connection with the proposed Merger.

Pursuant to the proposed settlement, we have agreed to make the amended and supplemental disclosures set forth below. Important information concerning the proposed Merger is set forth in the Definitive Proxy Statement. The Definitive Proxy Statement is amended and supplemented by, and should be read as part of, and in conjunction with, the information set forth in this Current Report on Form 8-K. Capitalized terms used in this Current Report on Form 8-K but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to those terms in the Definitive Proxy Statement.

The Company and the other defendants have vigorously denied, and continue vigorously to deny, that they have committed or aided and abetted in the commission of any violation of law or engaged in any of the wrongful acts that were or could have been alleged in the referenced lawsuits, and expressly maintain that, to the extent applicable, they diligently and scrupulously complied with any applicable fiduciary and other legal duties. The Company and the other defendants are entering into the contemplated settlement solely to eliminate the burden and expense of further litigation, to put the claims that were or could have been asserted to rest, and to avoid any adverse effects due to any possible delay to the closing of the Merger that might arise from further litigation. Nothing in this Current Report on Form 8-K, the MOU or any stipulation of settlement shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the disclosures set forth herein or any of the allegations in the Halstead Complaint.

Edgar Filing: IPARTY CORP - Form DEFA14A

In the settlement of the referenced lawsuit as set forth in this Current Report on Form 8-K, the Company agreed to make these amended and supplemental disclosures to the Definitive Proxy Statement. Without admitting in any way that the disclosures below are material or otherwise required by law, the Company makes the following amended and supplemental disclosures:

1. The section of the Definitive Proxy Statement entitled “The Merger – Background of the Merger” is amended and supplemented as follows:

The following disclosure supplements the discussion in the section of the Definitive Proxy Statement captioned “The Merger—Background of the Merger” by revising the second sentence of the third paragraph on page 23 as follows:

At the Company's request, on November 2, 2012 representatives of Raymond James also provided certain information from the Company to Party City, including forecasted 2012 results of operations, which reflected the Company's actual 2012 Halloween performance. [Revisions in Italic]

The following disclosure supplements the discussion in the section of the Definitive Proxy Statement captioned “The Merger-Background of the Merger” by adding a new sentence after the third sentence and revising the existing fourth sentence of the fourth paragraph on page 26 as follows:

The two other financial buyers, Parties C1 and C2, are both investment funds that were initially contacted by Raymond James on behalf of the Company. A representative of Raymond James then reported that it had further discussions with Party Z and that Party Z had decided not to submit an offer as Party Z believed that, after its review of the Company's business and certain financial and business information, an acquisition of the Company did not fit within its corporate strategy. [Revisions in Italic]

The following disclosure supplements the discussion in the section of the Definitive Proxy Statement captioned “The Merger-Background of the Merger” by revising the third and fourth sentences of the fourth paragraph on page 30 as follows:

From and after the date that the definitive Merger Agreement was announced, representatives of Raymond James contacted 40 other parties that it identified as potential acquirers of our Company, including once again Party X, Party Y, Party Z, as well as Party C1 and Party C2. The parties were selected by the Board, in consultation with management and representatives of Raymond James, or, with respect to Party Y and Party Z, had contacted Raymond James following the announcement of the Merger Agreement, and included 9 potential strategic acquirers and 31 potential financial acquirers. [Revisions in Italic]

2. The section of the Definitive Proxy Statement entitled “The Merger—Opinion of Raymond James” is amended and supplemented as follows:

The following disclosure supplements the discussion in the section of the Definitive Proxy Statement captioned “The Merger—Opinion of Raymond James” by revising the lead-in to the third paragraph on page 35 with the following:

Selected Public Companies Analysis. Raymond James analyzed the relative valuation multiples of 9 publicly-traded U.S. specialty hardline retail companies with enterprise values under $1 billion and for which future financial estimates were publicly available, including: [Revisions in Italic]

1. Total Enterprise Value equals Equity Market Value plus total Debt, Preferred Stock Liquidation, less Cash and Cash Equivalents.

2. “ ” denotes outliers greater than two positive or negative standard deviations from the median, which were excluded from the summary statistics below.

following:

The discount rates were selected by Raymond James based on the weighted average cost of capital for the public companies used in the Selected Public Companies Analysis described above. Raymond James calculated the Company's cost of equity by adding (i) the risk-free rate based on Capital IQ as of February 28, 2012, (ii) the product of the market risk premium reported by Ibbotson Associates, an international consulting firm ("Ibbotson"), as of 2012, and the Company's levered beta (derived from the median of selected public companies), and (iii) a size premium as reported by Ibbotson as of 2012. Raymond James calculated the Company's range of weighted average cost of capital of 11.9% to 15.9% by adding (i) the product of the cost of debt (based on Capital IQ as of February 28, 2012), one less the assumed tax rate and the Company's debt-to-capital ratio and (ii) the product of the cost of equity and the Company's equity-to-capital ratio.

3. The section of the Definitive Proxy Statement entitled "Company Forecasts" is amended and supplemented as follows:

($000's)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31
