Item 8.01. Other Events

On May 31, 2016, Chimera Investment Corporation (the “Company”, “we”, “us”), through a wholly-owned subsidiary, acquired and simultaneously securitized seasoned residential mortgage loans with an unpaid principal balance of approximately $3.5 billion. The mortgage loans were acquired from an unaffiliated financial institution and have similar credit characteristics to the mortgage loans underlying the CIM 2016-1 securitization completed on April 29, 2016.

The mortgage loans were securitized in two identical transactions: CIM 2016-2 and CIM 2016-3. Securities with an aggregate balance of approximately $3.0 billion were sold in a private placement to institutional investors. The senior securities issued by the securitizations represented approximately 70% of the respective capital structures and had an initial coupon of 2.94%. We retained subordinate interests in securities issued in the securitizations, including the eligible horizontal residual interests, with an aggregate balance of approximately $537 million. Chimera also retained an option, with respect to each securitization, to call the related outstanding notes of such securitization at any time beginning in May 2020. We funded the purchase of the retained interests with available cash, the proceeds from the sale of approximately $1.9 billion, by principal balance, of Agency mortgage-backed securities, and recourse financing. As a result of these transactions and the previously announced CIM 2016-1 securitization, we expect our total leverage to increase from 4.0:1 as of March 31, 2016 to 5.2:1 and our total recourse leverage to decrease from 2.6:1 as of March 31, 2016 to 2.3:1. Substantially all of the retained interests in the securities in CIM 2016-1, CIM 2016-2, and CIM 2016-3 are subject to the holding requirements under the credit risk retention rules. In addition, we expect to realize aggregate expenses in the second quarter related to these three transactions of approximately $13 million. We also expect our total GAAP assets to increase by a net of approximately $3 billion, after the sale of the Agency mortgage-backed securities, as the mortgage loans underlying these three securitizations will be consolidated on our balance sheet.

On May 31, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing the two securitizations. A copy of the press release is being furnished hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
