We are also registering such additional shares of common stock as may be issued as a result of the anti-dilution provisions contained in such securities. The number of shares of common stock registered hereunder represents a good faith estimate by us of the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the debentures and upon exercise of the warrants. For purposes of estimating the number of shares of common stock to be included in this registration statement, we calculated 200% of the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon conversion of the debentures. Should the conversion ratio result in our having insufficient shares, we will not rely upon Rule 416, but will file a new registration statement to cover the resale of such additional shares should that become necessary.

(2) Estimated solely for purposes of calculating the registration fee in accordance with Rule 457(c) and Rule 457(g) under the Securities Act of 1933, using the average of the high and low price as reported on the Over-The-Counter Bulletin Board on December 27, 2002.

(3) Includes 200% of the shares underlying convertible debentures.

(4) Includes shares underlying warrants.

The registrant hereby amends this registration statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this registration statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or until the registration statement shall become effective on such date as the Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

The following summary highlights material information contained in this prospectus. This summary does not contain all the information you should consider before investing in the securities. Before making an investment decision, you should read the entire prospectus carefully, including the "Risk Factors" section, the financial statements and the notes to the financial statements.

American Ammunition, Inc.

We acquired American Ammunition Inc. in September 2001 and since such acquisition are engaged principally in the manufacture and sale of ammunition for wholesale sales. American Ammunition is an established small arms munitions manufacturer with an existing distribution network. The ammunition market is dominated by three major manufacturers, however, we believe we are poised to enter and impact the growing ammunition market with our manufacturing equipment and techniques. We are an approved Department of Defense contractor.

We began in 1983 as an assembler and re-loader of ammunition in several calibers. As we grew, management realized that the only way to break into the industry was to become a vertically integrated manufacturer. Our founders invested heavily in research and development, equipment, and technology and focused on increasing our market share. As a result, we continued manufacturing our initial calibers along with special order ammunition for the Department of Defense. Further streamlining of the operations resulted in the manufacture of the current ammunition product line: 9 millimeter, .45 automatic, .380 automatic, .32 automatic, .40 Smith and Wesson, 38 Special, 30 carbine, 223 Remington, 38 Super, and 32 Smith and Wesson Long. We have identified these products as having the largest share of the market for the next several years.

We have incurred losses and experienced negative operating cash flow since our formation. For our fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, we had a net loss of ($1,883,087) and ($3,216,577), respectively. We expect to continue to incur significant operating expenses as we maintain our current line of ammunitions and continue research and development toward improving projectile quality and performance. Our operating expenses have been and are expected to continue to outpace revenues and result in significant losses in the near term. We may never be able to reduce these losses, which will require us to seek additional debt or equity financing.

Our principal executive offices are located at 3545 NW 71st Street, Miami, Florida 33147 and our telephone number is (305) 835-7400. We are incorporated in the State of California.

RISK FACTORS

This investment has a high degree of risk. We have summarized all of the material risks in this section. Before you invest you should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties described below and the other information in this prospectus. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, operating results and financial condition could be harmed and the value of our stock could go down. This means you could lose all or a part of your investment.

Risks Related To Our Business:

We may never become profitable and continue as a going concern because we have had losses since our inception.

We may never become profitable and continue as a going concern because we have incurred losses and experienced negative operating cash flow since our formation. For our fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, we had a net loss of ($1,883,087) and ($3,216,577), respectively. We expect to continue to incur significant operating expenses as we maintain our current line of ammunitions and continue research and development toward improving projectile quality and performance. Our operating expenses have been and are expected to continue to outpace revenues and result in significant losses in the near term. We may never be able to reduce these losses, which will require us to seek additional debt or equity financing. If such financing is available you may experience significant additional dilution.

There may exist an uncertainty as to our continuation as a going concern.

Our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 reflect an accumulated deficit of approximately ($13,660,718), since our inception, working capital of approximately $56,130, and stockholders' equity of $2,917,774.

Our auditor has not issued a going concern opinion on our financial statements; however, our ultimate survivability is dependent upon our being able to generate sufficient cash flows from operations to support its daily operations as well as provide sufficient resources to retire existing liabilities and obligations on a timely basis.

Short-term assets and investments income will be sufficient to meet our operating expenses and capital expenditures through 2003. If we continue to incur operating losses, we may not be able to fund continuing business operations, which could lead to the limitation or closure of some or all of our operations."

We may have to curtail our business if we cannot find adequate funding.

We currently have no legally binding commitments with any third parties to obtain any material amount of additional equity or debt financing. We need immediate funds and may not be able to obtain any additional financing in the amounts or at the times that we may require the financing or, if we do obtain any financing, that it would be on acceptable terms because of the following:

- we have no assets to pledge as security for the loan
- we are in poor financial condition - we maybe viewed as a high market risk

As a result, we may not have adequate capital to implement future expansions, maintain our current levels of operation or to pursue strategic acquisitions. Our failure to obtain sufficient additional financing could result in the delay or abandonment of some or all of our development, expansion and expenditures, which could harm our business and the value of our common stock.

Our competitive position may be harmed if we fail to respond to rapid changes in the market for small arms ammunitions.

Our competitive position may be harmed if we fail to respond to rapid changes in the market for small arms ammunitions. Our future success will depend significantly on our ability to develop and market new products that keep pace with technological developments and evolving industry standards for hand gun and rifle ammunition. Our delay or failure to develop or acquire technological improvements, adapt our products to technological changes or provide higher quality product lines that appeals to our customers may cause us to lose customers and may prevent us from generating revenue which could ultimately cause us to cease operations.

Our revenues may decrease from production delays due to fire or explosive incidents.

Our revenues may decrease from production delays due to fire or explosive incidents. Our ammunition products, involve the manufacture and/or handling of a variety of explosive and flammable materials. This manufacturing and/or handling has resulted in incidents that have temporarily shut down or otherwise disrupted our manufacturing, causing production delays and resulting in liability for workplace injuries and fatalities. We cannot assure you that we will not experience these types of incidents in the future or that these incidents will not result in production delays, which can decrease lead to a reduction in revenues.

We may incur substantial costs in complying with environmental laws and may be subject to substantial liability resulting from the use of hazardous substances or required cleanup of contaminated sites.

Our operations and use of real property are subject to a number of federal, state and local environmental laws and regulations which, among other things, require us to obtain permits to operate and to install pollution control equipment and regulate the generation, storage, handling, transportation, treatment and disposal of hazardous and solid wastes. Our operations, as well as historical operations at our sites, also subject us to liability for the cleanup of releases of hazardous substances. Environmental laws and regulations change frequently, and it is difficult to predict whether and to what extent we may be subject to liability for compliance with environmental laws and regulations.

Our revenue could decline significantly if we lose Ellet Brothers, Inc., a customer, because it accounted for 42% of our sales in 2002.

Our revenue could decline significantly if we lose Ellet Brothers, Inc., a customer, because it accounted for 42% of our sales in 2002. In addition, Ellet Brothers does not have an ongoing commitment to purchase goods from us because it determines its needs on an annual basis. American Ammunition currently has a domestic sales network of twenty (20) distributors and sales representatives and four (4) foreign distributors. Ellett Brothers, Inc. accounted for 42% and 51% of our total sales for fiscal year 2002 and 2001, respectively. One other customer, M.L. Marketing, Inc., accounted for 22.8% of our sales in 2002. There were no other customers responsible for more than 10% of our sales during 2002. Although, we plan to continue to aggressively pursue new customers through promotions, advertising and trade shows, we may not be successful. If we lose this customer, we will experience a significant reduction in our revenue and may have to curtail or cease our operations.

Our business operations will be harmed if we are unable to obtain additional funding.

Our business operations will be harmed if we are unable to obtain additional funding. We believe that our available short-term assets and investment income will be sufficient to meet our operating expenses and capital expenditures through the end of fiscal year 2003. We do not know if additional financing will be available when needed, or if it is available, if it will be available on acceptable terms. Insufficient funds may prevent us from implementing our business strategy or may require us to delay, scale back or eliminate certain contracts for the provision of our technology and products.

There are risks associated with forward-looking statements made by us and actual results may differ.

Some of the information in this Form SB-2 contains forward-looking statements that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. You can identify these statements by forward-looking words such as "may," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate" and "continue," or similar words. You should read statements that contain these words carefully because they:

- discuss our future expectations;
- contain projections of our future results of operations or of our financial condition; and
- state other "forward-looking" information.

We believe it is important to communicate our expectations. However, there may be events in the future that we are not able to accurately predict or over which we have no control. The risk factors listed in this section, as well as any cautionary language in this prospectus, provide examples of risks, uncertainties and events that may cause our actual results to differ materially from the expectations we describe in our forward-looking statements. You should be aware that the occurrence of the events described in these risk factors could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our competitors may misappropriate our intellectual property because we have only one trademark and one patent pending.

We attempt to protect our limited proprietary property through trademark, trade secret, nondisclosure and confidentiality measures. Such protections, however, may not preclude competitors from developing similar technologies. Any inability to adequately protect our proprietary technology could harm our ability to compete.

Our future success and ability to compete depends in part upon our proprietary technology and our trademark, which we attempt to protect with a combination of trademark and confidentiality procedures and contractual provisions. These legal protections afford only limited protection and are time-consuming and expensive to obtain and/or maintain. Further, despite our efforts, we may be unable to prevent third parties from infringing upon or misappropriating our intellectual property.

Risks Relating To Our Current Financing Agreement:

The market price of our common stock may decline because there are a large number of shares underlying our convertible debentures, and warrants that may be available for future sale and the sale of these shares may depress the market price.

The market price of our common stock may decline because there are a large number of shares underlying our convertible debentures, and warrants that may be available for future sale and the sale of these shares may depress the market price. As of December 27, 2002, we had 54,114,560 shares of common stock issued and outstanding and convertible debentures outstanding that may be converted into an estimated 6,093,750 shares of common stock at current market prices, and outstanding options and warrants to purchase up to 2,500,000 shares of common stock. In addition, the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the outstanding convertible debentures may increase if the market price of our stock declines. All of the shares included in this prospectus may be sold without restriction. The sale of these shares may adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

The continuously adjustable conversion price feature of our convertible debentures could require us to issue a substantially greater number of shares to the selling stockholder, which will cause dilution to our existing stockholders.

Our obligation to issue shares upon conversion of our convertible securities is essentially limitless.

The following is an example of the amount of shares of our common stock that is issuable to the selling stockholder, upon conversion of our convertible debentures, based on market prices 25%, 50% and 75% below the average high and low market price on May 1, 2003 of $0.60.

% Below Market	Price Per Share	With Number of Shares Discount of 20%	Percentage of Issuable	Outstanding Stock
25%	$.45	$.36	5,138,888	8.3%
50%	$.30	$.24	8,958,333	13.6%
75%	$.15	$.12	20,416,666	26.3%

The issuance of shares upon conversion of the convertible debentures and exercise of warrants may result in substantial dilution to the interests of other stockholders since the selling stockholder may ultimately convert and sell the full amount issuable on conversion. Although the selling stockholder may not convert their convertible note and/or exercise their warrants if such conversion or exercise would cause them to own more than 4.99% of our outstanding common stock, this restriction does not prevent the selling stockholder from converting and/or exercising some of their holdings and then converting the rest of their holdings. In this way, the selling stockholder could sell more than this limit while never holding more than this limit. There is no upper limit on the number of shares that may be issued which will have the effect of further diluting the proportionate equity interest and voting power of holders of our common stock, including investors in this offering.

The continuously adjustable conversion price feature of our convertible debentures may encourage investors to make short sales in our common stock, which could have a depressive effect on the price of our common stock.

The convertible debentures are convertible into shares of our common stock at a 20% discount to the trading price of the common stock prior to the conversion. The significant downward pressure on the price of the common stock as the selling stockholder converts and sells material amounts of common stock could encourage short sales by investors. This could place further downward pressure on the price of the common stock. The selling stockholder could sell common stock into the market in anticipation of covering the short sale by converting their securities, which could cause the further downward pressure on the stock price. In addition, not only the sale of shares issued upon conversion or exercise of debentures, warrants and options, but also the mere perception that these sales could occur, may lower the market price of the common stock.

If we are required for any reason to repay our outstanding convertible debentures, we would be required to deplete our working capital, if available, or raise additional funds. Our failure to repay the convertible debentures, if required, could result in legal action against us, which could require the sale of substantial assets.

In October 2002, we entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement for the sale of an aggregate of $250,000 principal amount of convertible debentures. The convertible debentures are due and payable, with 8% interest, two year from the date of issuance, unless sooner converted into shares of our common stock. In addition, any event of default as described in the convertible debentures could require the early repayment of the convertible debentures at a price of 125% of the amount due under the debenture. We anticipate that the full amount of the convertible debentures, together with accrued interest, will be converted into shares of our common stock, in accordance with the terms of the convertible debentures. If we are required to repay the convertible debentures, we would be required to use our limited working capital and raise additional funds. If we were unable to repay the debentures when required, the debenture holder could commence legal action against us to recover the amounts due. Any such action may require us to curtail or cease operations.

Risks Relating To Our Common Stock:

Our directors and executive officers beneficially own approximately 54.21% of our stock; their interests could conflict with yours; significant sales of stock held by them could have a negative effect on our stock price; stockholders may be unable to exercise control.

As of March 31, 2003, our executive officers, directors and affiliated persons beneficially own approximately 54.21% of our common stock. The Fernandez family, which operates our company, beneficially owns an aggregate of approximately 53.77% of our common stock. As a result, our executive officers, directors and affiliated persons will have significant influence to:

- elect or defeat the election of our directors;
- amend or prevent amendment of our articles of incorporation or bylaws;
- effect or prevent a merger, sale of assets or other corporate transaction; and
- control the outcome of any other matter submitted to the stockholders for vote.

As a result of their ownership and positions, our directors and executive officers collectively are able to significantly influence all matters requiring stockholder approval, including the election of directors and approval of significant corporate transactions. In addition, sales of significant amounts of shares held by our directors and executive officers, or the prospect of these sales, could adversely affect the market price of our common stock. Management's stock ownership may discourage a potential acquirer from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of us, which in turn could reduce our stock price or prevent our stockholders from realizing a premium over our stock price.

Our common stock is subject to "penny stock" rules.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted Rule 15c-9 which establishes the definition of a "penny stock," for the purposes relevant to us, as any equity security that has a market price of less than $5.00 per share or with an exercise price of less than $5.00 per share, subject to certain exceptions. For any transaction involving a penny stock, unless exempt, the rules require:

- o that a broker or dealer approve a person's account for transactions in penny stocks; and
- o the broker or dealer receive from the investor a written agreement to the transaction, setting forth the identity and quantity of the penny stock to be purchased.

In order to approve a person's account for transactions in penny stocks, the broker or dealer must:

- o obtain financial information and investment experience objectives of the person; and
- o make a reasonable determination that the transactions in penny stocks are suitable for that person and the person has sufficient knowledge and experience in financial matters to be capable of evaluating the risks of transactions in penny stocks.

The broker or dealer must also deliver, prior to any transaction in a penny stock, a disclosure schedule prepared by the Commission relating to the penny stock market, which, in highlight form:

- o sets forth the basis on which the broker or dealer made the suitability determination; and
- o that the broker or dealer received a signed, written agreement from the investor prior to the transaction.

Disclosure also has to be made about the risks of investing in penny stocks in both public offerings and in secondary trading and about the commissions payable to both the broker-dealer and the registered representative, current quotations for the securities and the rights and remedies available to an investor in cases of fraud in penny stock transactions. Finally, monthly statements have to be sent disclosing recent price information for the penny stock held in the account and information on the limited market in penny stocks.

USE OF PROCEEDS

This prospectus relates to shares of our common stock that may be offered and sold from time to time by the selling stockholders. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of shares of common stock in this offering. We will however receive up to $2,500,000 upon the exercise of warrants by the selling stockholders which proceeds will be used for working capital.

We have never declared or paid any cash dividends on our common stock. We do not anticipate paying any cash dividends to stockholders in the foreseeable future. Overview

We were incorporated on February 1, 2000 in the State of California as FirstTelevision.com. We subsequently changed our corporate name to FBI Fresh Burgers International with a business plan of marketing the concept of a national "fast food" restaurant chain to children and young adults, with a menu of fresh burgers, fries and sandwiches.

On September 29, 2001, FBI Fresh Burgers, F&F Equipment, Inc. and the individual shareholders of F&F entered into an "Agreement For The Exchange Of Common Stock" whereby the shareholders of F&F exchanged 100% of the issued and outstanding stock of F&F for 21,000,000 post-forward split shares of restricted, unregistered common stock of FBI Fresh Burgers. F&F Equipment, Inc. then became a wholly-owned subsidiary of FBI Fresh Burgers.

F&F Equipment, Inc. was incorporated on October 4, 1983 under the laws of the State of Florida. The company was formed to engage principally in the "import, export, retail & wholesale of firearms equipment, ammunition & other devices and for the purpose of transacting any and/or all lawful business." F&F conducts its business operations under the assumed name of "American Ammunition."

The acquisition of F&F Equipment, Inc., on September 29, 2001, by us effected a change in control and was accounted for as a "reverse acquisition" whereby F&F

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

Equipment, Inc. is the accounting acquiror for financial statement purposes. Accordingly, for all periods subsequent to the September 29, 2001 change in control transaction, our financial statements reflect the historical financial statements of F&F Equipment, Inc. from its inception on October 4, 1983 and the operations of FBI Fresh Burgers subsequent to September 29, 2001.

Concurrent with the September 29, 2001 reverse acquisition transaction, we amended our articles of incorporation to change our name to American Ammunition,

Inc. and modified our capital structure to allow for the issuance of up to 320,000,000 total equity shares consisting of 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock and 300,000,000 shares of common stock. Both classes of stock have a par value of $0.001 per share.

On October 9, 2001, we effected a three for one forward stock split. This action caused the then issued and outstanding shares to increase from 2,990,400 to 8,971,200 on the effective date. The effect of this action is reflected in the accompanying financial statements as of the first day of the first period presented.

During the quarter ended March 31, 2002, management elected to focus its efforts, capital resources and energies in streamlining production methods, securing key sources of raw material and exploring the addition of equipment to allow the Company to produce certain components of its manufacturing process which are currently being outsourced to unrelated third parties.

In June 2002, American Ammunition, Inc. formed a wholly owned subsidiary, Industrial Plating Enterprise Co., which started production on June 14, 2002. Industrial Plating is a fully licensed and approved electrochemical metallization facility with significant capacity for processing our line of projectiles as well as other products and services while employing environmentally sound water conservation and proven waste treatment techniques.

During the quarter ended September 30, 2002, the Company expanded its production capability with the addition of a second production shift. Due to the necessary lead times for hiring and training qualified personnel, the Company experienced significant increases in direct labor, payroll taxes and other related expenses during 2002. Management continues to anticipate events occurring in future quarters including increased levels of expenditures for marketing, increased product demand as a result of increased market exposure and the introduction of new products under development.

Results of Operations

During the year ended December 31, 2002, we experienced aggregate net revenues of approximately $1,409,000 as compared to approximately $428,000 for the year ended December 31, 2001. The 2002 levels compare favorably to the 2000 revenue levels of approximately $1,716,000.

We experienced costs of goods sold of approximately $2,457,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002 as compared to approximately $1,385,000 for the year ended December 31, 2001. We experience variable costs in the area of material consumption and direct labor. We have recognized depreciation expense on production equipment of approximately $653,000 and $629,000, respectively, in the above cost of goods expense totals.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

These depreciation levels are anticipated to remain fairly constant for future periods as management does not anticipate any significant capital equipment acquisitions in future periods. Further, the addition of the Industrial Plating Enterprise Co. equipment allows us to produce certain components which were previously outsourced to unrelated third parties.

For the year ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively, we have generated a negative gross profit of approximately $(1,047,000), or (74.31%), and approximately $(957,000), or (223.84%). We cannot determine when or if we will achieve a positive gross profit. Further, based on production cost information developed during the 4th quarter of 2002, management has developed a new model for the pricing of its products to its customers. It is anticipated that this model will allow management to better manage expense levels, control labor costs and maximize revenue opportunities.

We experienced nominal research and development expenses of approximately $3,700 and $4,000, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, principally related to the expansion of our product line to add a .223 caliber round and the evolving development of a new patent-pending projectile for use in ammunition specifically for the public safety and security marketplace, especially in the rapidly expanding U. S. Air Marshall program and other product improvements.

Other general and administrative expenses decreased significantly from approximately $845,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002 as compared to approximately $1,806,433 for the year ended December 31, 2001. The most significant reductions came in interest expense as a result of settling all litigation with the Company's former lending institution, savings in the areas of legal and professional fees and other general and administrative fees.

Included in our results of operations for both 2002 and 2001 are various non-cash expenditure charges. During 2002, we experienced charges to operations of approximately $11,500 for compensation expense related to common stock issuances at less than "fair value". The calculation of these charges result from our issuing common stock for either cash or services at valuations below the closing quoted market price of our common stock (as discounted, as applicable) and either the cash received or the value of the services provided to us by third parties. During 2001, we experienced a charge of approximately $1,208,000 for the amortization of the Beneficial Conversion Feature Discount on our Preferred Stock. This charge results from the difference between the closing quoted market price on our common stock and the equivalent converted price of our Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock which was sold and converted during 2001.

We recognized a net loss of approximately $(1,883,000) and $(3,216,577) for the respective years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively, or $(0.04) and $(0.11) per share.

Year ended December 31, 2001 compared with the year ended December 31, 2000.

Our operations were hampered during 2001 as a result of on-going litigation between us and our financial lending institution. As we were unable to access credit lines for working capital, we were unable to offer selling terms comparable to our competitors and, accordingly, experienced a significant reduction in sales from prior years. This litigation was settled during June 2001 and we negotiated a new working capital note with a different financial institution which provided liquidity for the remainder of 2001.

During the year ended December 31, 2001, we experienced revenues of approximately $428,000 as compared to approximately $1,716,000 for the year ended December 31, 2000.

We experienced costs of goods sold of approximately $1,384,510 and $2,026,000 for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. We experience variable costs in the area of material consumption and direct labor. We recognized depreciation expense on production equipment of approximately $629,000 and $617,000, respectively, in the above cost of goods expense totals. These depreciation levels are anticipated to remain fairly constant for future periods unless we are successful in our plans to expand production.

We have realized a gross profit of approximately ($957,000), or (223.84%) for the year ended December 31, 2001 and approximately ($310,000), or (18.07%). We anticipated that with adequate liquidity, we would have been able to generate a positive gross profit during Calendar 2002. However we did not generate positive gross profit because we did not have the startup capital to achieve the production levels in order to increase our sales. We cannot determine when or if we will achieve a positive gross profit.

We incurred nominal research and development expenses of approximately $4,000 during 2001 related to the development of a new patent-pending projectile for use in ammunition specifically for the public safety and security marketplace, especially in the rapidly expanding U. S. Air Marshall program and Home Defense Market.

Other general and administrative expenses increased from approximately $87,000 during Calendar 2000 to approximately $1,806,000 during Calendar 2001. The majority of this increase was a result of professional and consulting fees related to our reverse acquisition transaction in September 2001, and includes approximately $540,000 for non-cash charges related to fees and services charged to operations which were paid with common stock.

We also experienced non-cash income (charges) to operations resulting from a one-time gain of approximately $755,000 for the settlement of the litigation with our former lending institution and approximately ($1,208,000) in amortization of a beneficial conversion feature discount on preferred stock with an equivalent post-conversion common stock price at an amount less than the quoted closing market price of our common stock as of the sale date of the underlying convertible preferred stock.

We recognized a net loss of approximately $(3,217,000) and $(1,216,000) for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, or $(0.11) and $(0.05) per share.

Liquidity And Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively, we had working capital of approximately $56,000 and $152,000. Our working capital position improved significantly in Calendar 2001 with the settlement of litigation involving its outstanding debt to its-then financial institution and the concurrent restructuring of working capital debt into a long-term instrument.

We have used cash in operating activities of approximately $1,236,000 and $1,100,000 during the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

The most significant use of cash in operations during the year ended December 31, 2002 was the rebuilding of our operations after the problems encountered during 2001 while we were in litigation with our former primary lending institution. We further used cash in building up our inventory in anticipation of Calendar 2003 orders as communicated to us by our customer base.

We experience relatively consistent expenditure levels for executive and administrative compensation, interest expense and depreciation expense. During the third quarter of 2001, we renegotiated our working capital note in the principal amount of $950,000. This note bears interest at the Wall Street Journal published prime rate plus 2.0%. During 2002, we reduced the outstanding principal on five (5) separate occasions to a balance of approximately $450,000. The note payment terms were also modified as follows: payments of interest only through January 28, 2004. Thereafter, starting on January 28, 2004, equal monthly payments of principal and interest shall be due until June 28, 2007 which payments shall represent the amount necessary to fully amortize the remaining principal balance of the note. The monthly payments shall be recalculated at the time of any change in the applicable interest rate. As of December 31, 2002, we owe $450,000 on this note.

The note is secured by virtually all of our real and personal property. A portion of the proceeds from the financing were used to pay the $550,000 required in the Settlement and Compromise Agreement. Accordingly, we anticipate relatively stable interest expense, or declining levels, in future periods depending on expansion and additional equipment financing requirements. We do not anticipate the addition of significant additions to office and administrative personnel.

On February 28 and March 20, 2003, we made additional principal reductions of $100,000 and $350,000, respectively, fully retiring the outstanding debt. We retired the note with proceeds we received from a private placement of our common stock in February and March 2003.

We anticipate that our improved liquidity position will continue to improve as management is of the opinion that the production capacity is in place to support all existing orders and accept existing inquiries which have previously been denied due to the lack of production capacity and liquidity.

During the year ended December 31, 2002, we added approximately $387,000 in new equipment, of which approximately $225,000 was acquired in our new wholly-owned subsidiary, Industrial Plating Enterprise Co. This equipment allows us to replace previously outsourced portions of our manufacturing process with internally managed processes which resulted in cost savings to us and improve turnaround time on this process.

Depending on future demand for our products, we may develop plans to increase our production capability in the foreseeable future by 50% to 100%, as influenced by the availability of manufacturing equipment on the open market and product sales demand. This expansion, when undertaken, will require additional capital which is anticipated to be raised in various combinations of capital leases, bank debt and/or equity offerings. At this time, we have no definitive budgets or timetables for such expansion and this expansion, if any, will be dependent upon market demand for our products. Management is of the opinion that sufficient demand will be present, as supported by new product development and increased product marketing efforts, to justify this expansion. However, we may not be able to obtain additional funding or, that such funding, if available, will not be obtained on terms favorable to or affordable by us.

Convertible Debenture

On October 4, 2002, we signed a Securities Purchase Agreement with La Jolla Cove Investors, Inc. for the sale of a $250,000 8% convertible debenture and a warrant to purchase up to 30,000,000 shares of our common stock. The debenture bears interest at 8%, mature in two years from the date of issuance, and is convertible into our common stock, at the selling stockholder's option, at the lesser of (i) $1.00 or (ii) 80% of the average of the five lowest volume weighted average price days during the 20 trading days before but not including the conversion date. The warrant may only be exercised concurrently with a conversion of the debenture and then only for that number of shares of common stock equal to 10 times the number of shares common stock issued to the debenture holder on that conversion date. The exercise price of the warrant is the lesser of (i) $1.00; or (ii) 80% of the average of the five lowest volume weighted average price during the 20 trading days prior to the holder's election to convert. See the "Selling Stockholders" section for a description of the convertible debenture and warrant issued to the La Jolla Cove Investors, Inc.

We are obligated to file this Registration Statement under the Securities Act of 1933 to register the underlying conversion shares on either Form SB-2 or S-3 and have said Registration Statement effective no later than 120 days after October 4, 2002.

La Jolla Cove Investors, Inc. (La Jolla) has contractually committed to convert not less than 5.0% and not more than 10.0% of the original face value of the Debenture monthly beginning the month after the effective date of the Registration Statement and the Holder is required to concurrently exercise warrants and purchase shares of common stock equal to ten (10) times the number of shares of common stock issued to the Holder upon the respective mandatory conversion of the Debenture.

La Jolla has further contractually agreed to restrict its ability to convert the Debenture or exercise their warrants and receive shares of our common stock such that the number of shares held by the Holder and its affiliates after such conversion or exercise does not exceed 4.99% of the then issued and outstanding shares of our common stock.

In the event an election to convert is made and the volume weighted average price of our common stock is below $0.30 per share, we have the right to prepay any portion of the outstanding Debenture that was elected to be converted, plus any accrued and unpaid interest, at 125.0%.

La Jolla may demand repayment of the Debenture of 125.0% of the face amount outstanding, plus all accrued and unpaid interest, in cash at any time prior to the date that underlying Registration Statement under the Securities Act of 1933 has not been declared effective by the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission within 3 business days of such demand. If the repayment is accelerated, we are also obligated to issue to the Holder 25,000 shares of common stock and $10,000 cash for each 30 day period, or portion thereof, during which the face amount, including interest thereon, remains unpaid with the cash payment to increase to $15,000 for each 30 day period the balance remains unpaid after the initial 90 day period.

If La Jolla does not elect to accelerate the Debenture, the Company shall immediately issue and pay La Jolla 25,000 shares of common stock and $10,000 cash for each 30 day period, or portion thereof, during which the face amount, including interest thereon, remains unpaid with the cash payment to increase to $15,000 for each 30 day period the balance remains unpaid after the initial 90 day period.

Due to the contractually agreed mandatory conversion of this Debenture, we have reflected this transaction in our balance sheet as a "mezzanine" level debt obligation on its balance sheet, between "Total Liabilities" and "Shareholders' Equity". Upon the respective mandatory conversion, we will relieve the respective portion of the Debenture and the any related accrued, but unpaid interest, and credit this amount to the respective "common stock" and "additional paid-in capital" accounts in the shareholder's equity section for the par value and excess amount over the par value of the respective shares issued.

No value was assigned to the warrant issued to La Jolla. Upon exercise of the warrant, we will record the issuance of the underlying shares as a new issuance of common stock on the date of each respective exercise.

Research and Development

We plan on significantly increasing our spending on research and development activities during Calendar 2003. We believe that research and development activities will allow for the development and introduction of new products into the ammunition marketplace. Over the next 12 calendar months, we anticipate completing the design, development and introduction of our new patent-pending projectile for use in ammunition specifically for the public safety and security marketplace, especially in the rapidly expanding U. S. Air Marshall program. Management also believes that this projectile will have wide acceptance in the home security and sport hunting markets.

Further, additional ammunition calibers and/or projectiles may be developed by us depending upon market research, acceptance in the marketplace of existing products and production capabilities. At this time, there are no definitive plans for the further introduction of other new products into the marketplace.

Subsequent Events

On April 8, 2003, we announced that we received a 1,040,000 round export order from our Peruvian distributor, which is our first order from Peru. We will continue to take steps to increase our foreign sales.

On April 14, 2003, we announced that we expanded our product line with the addition of two new calibers, the 38 Super and the 32 Smith and Wesson Long. In addition, we announced that over the past eighteen (18) months we have been pursuing our three (3) point plan to (a) reduce debt, (b) increase our customer base, and (c) diversify our product lines. We have completed phase one (1) and are now debt free except for short-term payables, which are current. We have succeeded in releasing our corporate assets from any and all other liens and encumbrances. We have increased our sales force by completing a U.S. domestic sales network of twenty (20) distributors and sales representatives increasing the number of foreign distributors to four (4), specifically in Argentina, Colombia, Dominican Republic and Peru. We believe that our conservative brick and mortar approach will enable us to continue our growth.

We believe that the financing provided by the selling stockholder will assist in providing us with the financial support we need in order to increase our production lines. In this April 14, 2003 press release, we included a statement from the selling stockholder which stated that we have "all of the right ingredients for success... the manufacture of high quality products in an industry whose demand is greater than supply, a clearly defined growth strategy, and a dynamic, experienced management team. We are very pleased to be part of American's Ammunition's future and look forward to helping the company maximize profitability." The selling stockholder made those statements at the inception of the financing with us in October 2002, rather than on April 14, 2003. Furthermore, the selling stockholder takes no position as to whether our stock is properly valued.

On April 28, 2003, we announced that we signed a sales agreement with Don Hatfield & Associates, Cumberland, Ontario, Canada. Don Hatfield & Associates has agreed to undertake sales and distribution of our products in Canada.

BUSINESS

General

We had minimal operations until September 2001, when we acquired American Ammunition Inc. and since such acquisition are engaged principally in the manufacture and sale of ammunition for retail and wholesale sales. American Ammunition is an established small arms munitions manufacturer with an existing distribution network. The ammunition market is dominated by three major manufacturers, however, we believe we are poised to enter and impact the growing ammunition market with our manufacturing equipment and techniques. In addition, we are an approved Department of Defense contractor.

We began as an assembler and re-loader of ammunition in several calibers. As we grew, management realized that the only way to break into the industry was to become a vertically integrated manufacturer. Our founders invested heavily in research and development, equipment, and technology and focused on increasing our market share. As a result, we continued manufacturing our initial calibers along with special order ammunition for the Department of Defense. Further streamlining of the operations resulted in the manufacture of the current ammunition product line: 9 millimeter, .45 automatic, .380 automatic, .32 automatic, .40 Smith and Wesson, 38 Special, 30 carbine, 223 Remington, 38 Super, and 32 Smith and Wesson Long . We have identified these products as having the largest share of the market for the next several years.

Equipment and Production Line Capabilities

American Ammunition owns all the equipment necessary to take the raw material from cup, lead, primer and powder, to the finished product, a loaded round of ammunition. The process of manufacturing diverse calibers of ammunition is extremely complex and requires tolerances of +/- .0005" to be maintained throughout the process.

Our technology and equipment enable us to produce a large variety of handgun and rifle ammunition. We have a machine shop and maintains our own testing and quality assurance equipment and program. Ammunition is a performance-based product. Therefore, after the manufacturing process is complete, the ammunition must comply with specific protocols such as velocity, accuracy, and pressure. We purchase raw materials in bulk and strive to take advantage of prepayment discounts to produce significant savings in the manufacturing process. There are and have been instances when discounts have been and may be missed due to cash flow restrictions.

We are evaluating the addition of several products to our existing production lines, including the addition of high speed projectile forming machines to supplement the existing casting machines. This addition would effectively double or triple projectile production capacity, while improving projectile quality and performance. We also are making provisions to increase other aspects of production capacity, which would complement long term goals of both production volume and product diversity.

Business Strategy

American Ammunition is an autonomous manufacturer of ammunition, with the technology and equipment to take advantage of the growing market.

The barrier to entry into the ammunition market is extremely high, however, American Ammunition is an established small arms munitions manufacturer, with an existing distribution network. We manufacture our ammunition by creating most of the components ourselves.

In management's opinion, the ammunition market has grown each year and it appears that supply is not keeping up with demand, thus allowing for companies like American Ammunition to make a significant impact in sales through distributors in commercial markets and in addition sales to government agencies, the military and exports. American Ammunition has been seeking additional capital to allow it to enlarge its operations to take advantage of its technological capacities, equipment and the existing marketplace.

Marketing and Sales Distribution

American Ammunition currently has a domestic sales network of twenty (20) distributors and sales representatives and four (4) foreign distributors. Ellet Brothers, Inc. accounted for 51% and 42% of the Company's total sales for fiscal year 2001 and 2002 respectively. Exports accounted for 25% of the Company's total sales for fiscal year 2002. The Company has exported its products to South America, the Caribbean and the Middle East. The Company has also entered into an "Assured Payment Program" with a National Buying Syndicate which represents 200 members with 1200 retail locations, and has begun shipping to them in the first quarter of 2003. The agreement with this National Buying Syndicate guarantees payment to the Company from all of individual members of the syndicate. The Company plans to continue to aggressively pursue new customers through promotions, advertising and trade shows. It intends to solicit original equipment manufacturer subcontract work from the three (3) major manufacturers; seek additional means of commercial distribution; seek further Department of Defense and law enforcement contracts; solicit further export sales and increase its dealings with mass merchandisers/chain stores.

American Ammunition has been certified by the United States Small Business

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

Administration as a "qualified HUBZone small business concern." Under this program, small businesses can qualify for special set-aside contracts, get up to a 10% edge in competitive contract bidding or even be the sole-source bidder in some cases. The program's name signifies the effort to promote businesses in

"historically under-utilized business zones," generally blighted areas and its purpose is to create jobs for those who live in such areas as well.

We are marketing our manufacturing flexibility to numerous Department of Defense and commercial munitions manufacturers as subcontractors allowing prime contractors to reap the benefits of our "HUBZone certification", thereby allowing such prime contractors to comply with Federal Acquisition Requirements for the use of "small and under-utilized minority business" in fulfilling government contracts.

The Small Business Reauthorization Act of 1997 increased the overall government agencies' procurement goals for small business to 23% and calls for HUBZone contracts to increase from 1.5% of these procurements to 3% by 2003.

Pricing and Value

We have been able to price our products competitively at a price lower than any of the "big three" manufacturers, Remington, ATK, and Winchester. We capitalize on the fact that the "big three" have very large corporate infrastructures and, in management's opinion, have to pay much higher labor costs to their plant personnel. This pricing strategy permits the distributor to purchase our product, add significant profit and sell such product at a retail price that is lower than that at which the distributor can purchase the competitors' product.

Advertising & Promotion

American Ammunition intends to gear its advertising towards magazine and print media, focused on the gun and Ammunition, handgun and shooting markets. We believe that such advertising will result in greater name recognition among individual consumers. Currently, our sales are generated with very little advertising and we believe that advertising could significantly improve retail/mass merchandiser sales and increase market share.

Status of Publicly Announced Products and Services

Aircraft Bullet

We were assigned a serial number (60/325,046) from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office for our provisional patent application filed on September 26, 2001 for a bullet that will not pierce an aircraft fuselage but will penetrate human soft tissue. The product has been specifically designed for use inside the cabin of a commercial aircraft; however, it has additional applications for use in nuclear power plants, at hazardous materials storage facilities, and for home defense.

We departed completely from standard ballistics for the design of this projectile to meet what American Ammunition perceives as a growing and unfilled need. Two of the basic design criteria in ballistics are penetration and expansion of the projectile. In this design, these two factors have been controlled to meet the specific requirements of weapons discharged inside an aircraft cabin, while insuring fuselage integrity. This design is a new concept in close quarter ammunition: a bullet capable of incapacitating an assailant without damaging surrounding structure.

Design and material selection allows for the inverted expansion and aft internal collapse of the projectile mass. Upon impact with the aircraft fuselage, the bullet internally collapses; therefore not allowing for the transfer of kinetic energy forward or penetration above that required for soft tissue penetration. Testing has been successful using test sections of various commercial airliner fuselages as well as ballistic testing using both ordinance gelatin and bovine tissue. This performance criterion is accomplished without sacrificing the standard velocity and accuracy of the caliber being used. A video of those tests can be viewed on our website at www.a-merc.com in the New Product Section. We believe that these research and development efforts will provide a new product to the public safety and security marketplace.

Industrial Plating Enterprise Company

Industrial Plating Enterprise Company (IPE), a wholly owned subsidiary, is a high volume "barrel plating" facility currently operating at approximately 30% of its capacity. IPE is meeting all of the parent company's projectile plating needs at this time. As the parent company's projectile plating requirement grows, IPE will increase production to meet that need. IPE's innovative hazardous materials and hazardous waste management and treatment system is fully capable of meeting increased production requirements. IPE's management, intends to explore adding additional metallization and coating processes to diversify its services to the parent company as well as offering its services to other industries with the eventual goal of generating revenue to the parent company.

Competition

The market for small arms ammunition is becoming increasingly competitive. Companies such as Remington, Federal and Winchester are all better equipped, more experienced and better financed than us.

For years, the large manufacturers have supplied the component parts of the manufacturing process to smaller companies to assemble and distribute. A company making its own components, can produce and market a quality lower cost product. This concept, coupled with technology and progressive and environmentally sound manufacturing practices (i.e. cans and recycled plastic packaging), has resulted in a quality, affordable product reaching the marketplace.

We believe it is feasible to increase our production capacity by 50% to 100% over the next 3 years utilizing existing equipment by increasing only labor, material and other incidental costs. Management bases this prediction on the fact that we had reduced sales in fiscal 2001 due to a lack of funding. We have already received significant bank and private placement funding in fiscal 2002 to ramp up operations thereby significantly increasing our presence in the market.

Sources and Availability of Raw Materials

We manufacture our ammunition by creating most of the components ourselves. The materials needed to produce our ammunition products are widely available from numerous third parties. No shortage of materials is expected in the foreseeable future.

Research and Development

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

The Company believes that research and development is an important factor in its future growth. The small arms ammunition industry is closely linked to the latest technological advances. Therefore, the Company must continually invest in the technology to provide the best quality product to the public and to effectively compete with other companies in the industry. No assurance can be made that the Company will have sufficient funds to purchase technological advances as they become available.

Patents, Copyrights and Trademarks

We intend to protect our original intellectual property with patents, copyrights and/or trademarks as appropriate.

Our head stamp "A-MERC " was registered as a trademark on May 10,1994.

We were assigned a serial number (60/325,046) from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office for our provisional patent application filed on September 26, 2001 for a bullet that will not pierce an aircraft fuselage but will penetrate human soft tissue.

Governmental Regulation

In accordance with the provisions of Title 1, Gun Control Act of 1968, we are required to be licensed to import firearms and manufacture ammunition for firearms. Such licensing is subject to limitations in Chapter 44, Title 18, United States Code. In the event such licenses are not renewed for any reason, we would have to cease our operations

In accordance with these requirements, we carry two licenses issued by the Department of Treasury, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms:

License No. 1-59-025-06-3D 69152 for "06 - Manufacturer of Ammunition for Firearms", which license expires on May 2, 2003; and License No. 1-59-025-08-3D-69454 for "08-Importer of Firearm other than Destructive Devices", which license expires on May 2, 2003.

In the event such licenses were not renewed for any reason, we would be precluded from continuing our operations.

We are not aware of any other license requirements or government regulation at a state or federal level specific to their business and believes that it in full compliance with its existing licenses.

Effect of Probable Governmental Regulation on the Business

We are not aware of any pending legislation at either the state or federal level that would change the requirements under which it is licensed and is not aware of any reason why the existing licenses cannot be renewed at their expiration dates. There can be no assurance that legislation will not be proposed and enacted at some time in the future that would preclude us from continuing our operations. Should such legislation be enacted, and should the we be precluded from continuing our operations, it would have a materially adverse effect upon our business and future.

Cost and Effects of Compliance with Environmental Laws

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

As a manufacturer, we are subject to general local, state and federal regulations governing environmental concerns. We believe that we have always been and continue to be in compliance with all such laws.

Special precautions have been taken us to ensure that adequate ventilation exists for the portion of our operations that utilize lead and/or brass. Additionally, our gunpowder supply is humidity and temperature controlled in a secure facility.

Employees

At May 1, 2003, we employed 45 persons. None of these employees are represented by a labor union for purposes of collective bargaining. We consider our relations with our employees to be excellent. We may employ additional personnel, as necessary, to accommodate future sales and production requirements.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTIES

We lease 24,000 square feet of warehouse space, owned by the family of one of our officers and directors, Andres Fernandez, at a rate of $3,931 per month plus applicable sales taxes. This equates to a rate per square foot of $2.71 per year. We believe comparable rentals in the area average about $4.50 per square foot. We are operating under a five-year lease agreement expiring on October 31, 2003 that contains a clause that the lease may be renewed for an additional 10 year period upon written notification to the lessor no later than 120 days prior to the scheduled expiration date at a rental rate based upon the fair market value for similar space in a similar location at the time of renewal. This facility is used as our production facility and headquarters.

The wholly owned subsidiary, Industrial Plating Enterprise Company (IPE), is fully operational and filling the immediate needs of projectile plating for the parent company. IPE is located in a 5,000 square foot facility operating under a 5 year lease agreement expiring in March 2007 that contains a clause that the lease may be extended for an additional 5 years upon written notification to the lessor no later than 120 days prior to the scheduled expiration date at a rental rate based upon the fair market value for similar space in a similar location at the time of renewal. The monthly cost varies between $1,700 and $1913.36 throughout the lease. IPE is in full compliance with all Local, State and Federal regulations in its operations.

We believe that our facilities are adequate for our needs for the foreseeable future.

INDEMNIFICATION FOR SECURITIES ACT LIABILITIES

CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF CALIFORNIA LAW AND OF THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

The California Corporations Code provides for the indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents under the circumstances as set forth in Section 317 thereof. Section 317 permits a corporation to indemnify its agents, typically directors and officers, for expenses incurred or settlements or judgments paid in connection with certain legal proceedings. Only those legal proceedings arising out of such persons' actions as agents of the corporation may be grounds for indemnification.

Whether indemnification may be paid in a particular case depends on whether the agent wins, loses or settles the suit and upon whether a third party or the corporation itself is the plaintiff. Section 317 provides for mandatory indemnification, no matter who the plaintiff is, when an agent is successful on the merits of a suit. In all other cases, indemnification is permissive and sometimes requires approval of the court in which the suit is or was pending.

If the agent loses or settles a suit with a plaintiff other than the Company or someone who did not threaten or bring suit on our behalf, the agent may be indemnified for expenses incurred and settlements or judgments paid. That indemnification may be authorized upon a finding that the agent acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in our best interests, and, in a criminal proceeding, only where the agent had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. If the agent loses or settles a suit with us or a plaintiff who threatened or brought suit on our behalf, the agent may be indemnified for expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of the action. Such indemnification may be authorized upon a finding that the agent acted in good faith and in a manner he or she believed to be in our best interests and the best interests of our shareholders. No indemnification is permitted where the agent breached his or her duty to us, however, unless the court in which the proceeding is or was pending determines that the agent is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for certain expenses. No indemnification is permitted where a settlement is reached without court approval.

Where permissive indemnification provisions control, indemnification may be authorized by a majority vote of the disinterested directors, by an independent legal counsel's written opinion, by our shareholders (the person to be indemnified is excluded from voting his or her shares) or by the court in which the proceeding is or was pending.

Any provision in a California corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws or shareholder or director resolution that indemnifies its officers or directors may prohibit permissive, but not mandatory, indemnification as described above. Such a provision must otherwise be consistent with Section 317. Nonetheless, a corporation has the power to purchase indemnity insurance for its agents even for situations in which it could not indemnify them.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, we have been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholder and any of their respective pledgees, donees, assignees and other successors-in-interest may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions. These sales may be at fixed or negotiated prices. The selling stockholder may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits the purchaser;
- block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- privately-negotiated transactions;
- short sales;
- broker-dealers may agree with the selling stockholder to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share; -- through the writing of options on the shares -- a combination of any such methods of sale; and -- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholder may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus. The selling stockholder shall have the sole and absolute discretion not to accept any purchase offer or make any sale of shares if they deem the purchase price to be unsatisfactory at any particular time.

The selling stockholder may pledge their shares to their brokers under the margin provisions of customer agreements. If a selling stockholder defaults on a margin loan, the broker may, from time to time, offer and sell the pledged shares.

The selling stockholder may also engage in short sales against the box, puts and calls and other transactions in our securities or derivatives of our securities and may sell or deliver shares in connection with these trades.

The selling stockholder or their respective pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest, may also sell the shares directly to market makers acting as principals and/or broker-dealers acting as agents for themselves or their customers. Such broker-dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholder and/or the purchasers of shares for whom such broker-dealers may act as agents or to whom they sell as principal or both, which compensation as to a particular broker-dealer might be in excess of customary commissions. Market makers and block purchasers purchasing the shares will do so for their own account and at their own risk. It is possible that a selling stockholder will attempt to sell shares of common stock in block transactions to market makers or other purchasers at a price per share which may be below the then market price. The selling stockholder cannot assure that all or any of the shares offered in this prospectus will be issued to, or sold by, the selling stockholder. The selling stockholder and any brokers, dealers or agents, upon effecting the sale of any of the shares offered in this prospectus, may be deemed an "underwriter" as that term is defined under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the rules and regulations under such acts. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

We are required to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares, including fees and disbursements of counsel to the selling stockholder, but excluding brokerage commissions or underwriter discounts.

The selling stockholder, alternatively, may sell all or any part of the shares offered in this prospectus through an underwriter. No selling stockholder has entered into any agreement with a prospective underwriter and there is no assurance that any such agreement will be entered into.

The selling stockholder and any other persons participating in the sale or distribution of the shares will be subject to applicable provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations under such act, including, without limitation, Regulation M. These provisions may restrict certain activities of, and limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares by, the selling stockholder or any other such person. Furthermore, under Regulation M, persons engaged in a distribution of securities are prohibited from simultaneously engaging in market making and certain other activities with respect to such securities for a specified period of time prior to the commencement of such distributions, subject to specified exceptions or exemptions. All of these limitations may affect the marketability of the shares.

We have agreed to indemnify the selling stockholder, or their transferees or assignees, against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or to contribute to payments the selling stockholder or their respective pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest, may be required to make in respect of such liabilities. The selling stockholder have agreed to indemnify us against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

If the selling stockholder notifies us that they have a material arrangement with a broker-dealer for the resale of the common stock, then we would be required to amend the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, and file a prospectus supplement to describe the agreements between the selling stockholder and the broker-dealer.

Penny Stock

The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted Rule 15c-9 which establishes the definition of a "penny stock," for the purposes relevant to us, as any equity security that has a market price of less than $5.00 per share or with an exercise price of less than $5.00 per share, subject to certain exceptions. For any transaction involving a penny stock, unless exempt, the rules require:

- o that a broker or dealer approve a person's account for transactions in penny stocks; and
- o the broker or dealer receive from the investor a written agreement to the transaction, setting forth the identity and quantity of the penny stock to be purchased.

In order to approve a person's account for transactions in penny stocks, the broker or dealer must

- o obtain financial information and investment experience objectives of the person; and
- o make a reasonable determination that the transactions in penny stocks are suitable for that person and the person has sufficient knowledge and experience in financial matters to be capable of evaluating the risks of transactions in penny stocks.

The broker or dealer must also deliver, prior to any transaction in a penny stock, a disclosure schedule prepared by the Commission relating to the penny stock market, which, in highlight form:

- o sets forth the basis on which the broker or dealer made the suitability determination; and
- o that the broker or dealer received a signed, written agreement from the investor prior to the transaction.

Disclosure also has to be made about the risks of investing in penny stocks in both public offerings and in secondary trading and about the commissions payable to both the broker-dealer and the registered representative, current quotations for the securities and the rights and remedies available to an investor in cases of fraud in penny stock transactions. Finally, monthly statements have to be sent disclosing recent price information for the penny stock held in the account and information on the limited market in penny stocks

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

The table below sets forth information concerning the resale of the shares of common stock by the selling stockholder. We will not receive any proceeds from the resale of the common stock by the selling stockholder. We will receive proceeds from the exercise of the warrants. Assuming all the shares registered below are sold by the selling stockholder, none of the selling stockholder will continue to own any shares of our common stock.

The following table also sets forth the name of each person who is offering the resale of shares of common stock by this prospectus, the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned by each person, the number of shares of common stock that may be sold in this offering and the number of shares of common stock each person will own after the offering, assuming they sell all of the shares offered.

Name	Total Shares of Common Stock Issuable Upon Conversion of Debentures and/or Warrants	Total Percentage of Common Stock, Assuming Full Conversion	Shares of Common Stock Included in Prospectus (1)	Beneficial Ownership Before the Offering	Percentage of Common Stock Owned Before Offering
La Jolla Cove (2)	8,593,750(3)	13.70%	Up to 14,687,500 shares of common stock	2,842,139	4.99%

The number and percentage of shares beneficially owned is determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under such rule, beneficial ownership includes any shares as to which the selling stockholder has sole or shared voting power or investment power and also any shares, which the selling stockholder has the right to acquire within 60 days. The actual number of shares of common stock issuable upon the conversion of the convertible preferred stock is subject to adjustment depending on, among other factors, the future market price of the common stock, and could be materially less or more than the number estimated in the table.

(1) Includes 200% of the shares issuable upon conversion of the convertible debentures and shares issuable upon exercise of warrants, based on current market prices. Because the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the convertible note is dependent in part upon the market price of the common stock prior to a conversion, the actual number of shares of common stock that will be issued upon conversion will fluctuate daily and cannot be determined at this time. However the selling stockholder have contractually agreed to restrict their ability to convert or exercise their warrants and receive shares of our common stock such that the number of shares of common stock held by them and their affiliates after such conversion or exercise does not exceed 4.99% of the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock.

(2) The selling stockholder is an unaffiliated third party that does not hold any short positions in our securities. In accordance with rule 13d-3 under the securities exchange act of 1934, Norman Litz may be deemed a control person of the shares owned by such entities.

(3) Includes i) 6,093,750 shares underlying our $250,000 convertible debenture and ii) 2,500,000 shares of common stock underlying warrants issued to La Jolla Cove on October 4, 2002.

(4) Assumes that all securities registered will be sold.

Terms of Convertible Debenture and Warrant

To obtain funding for our ongoing operations, we entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with the selling stockholder on October 4, 2002 for the sale of (i) a $250,000 convertible debenture and (ii) a warrant to buy up to 2,500,000 shares of our common stock.

Convertible Debentures

The debenture bears interest at 8%, matures two years from the date of issuance and is convertible into shares of our common stock. The number of common shares into which this debenture may be converted is equal to the dollar amount of the debenture being converted multiplied by eleven, minus the product of the conversion price, multiplied by ten times the dollar amount of the debenture being converted, divided by the conversion price. The conversion price is equal to the lesser of (i) $1.00; or (ii) 80% of the average of the five lowest volume weighted average price days during the 20 trading days before but not including the conversion date. The full principal amount of the convertible debentures are due upon default under the terms of convertible debentures. See the Sample Debenture Conversion Calculation below.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

The warrants expire on October 4, 2004 and are exercisable at $1.00 per share. The warrant holder is obligated to exercise the warrant concurrently with the conversion of the debenture for a number of shares equal to ten times the dollar amount of the debenture being converted. See the Sample Warrant Exercise Calculation below.

The selling stockholders has agreed to convert at least 5% but no more than 10% of the face value of the debenture and warrant each month after this prospectus is declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The conversion price of the debentures and the exercise price of the warrants may be adjusted in certain circumstances such as if we pay a stock dividend, subdivide or combine outstanding shares of common stock into a greater or lesser number of shares, or take such other actions as would otherwise result in dilution of the selling stockholder's position.

The selling stockholder has contractually agreed to restrict its ability to convert or exercise their warrants and receive shares of our common stock such that the number of shares of common stock held by it and its affiliates after such conversion or exercise does not exceed 4.99% of the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock.

A complete copy of the Securities Purchase Agreement and related documents was filed with the SEC as exhibits to our Form SB-2 relating to this prospectus.

Sample Debenture Conversion Calculation

The number of common shares into which this debenture may be converted is equal to the dollar amount of the debenture being converted multiplied by eleven, minus the product of the conversion price multiplied by ten times the dollar amount of the debenture being converted, divided by the conversion price. For example, assuming conversion of a $250,000 debenture on March 28, 2003, a conversion price of $0.576 per share, the number of shares issuable upon conversion would be:

$$($250,000 \times 11) - ($0.576 \times (10 \times $250,000)) = 2,274,305 \text{ shares of common stock}$$

Sample Warrant Exercise Calculation

The warrant holder is obligated to exercise the warrant concurrently with the conversion of the debenture for a number of shares equal to ten times the dollar amount of the debenture being converted. Based on the above Sample Debenture Conversion Calculation, the selling stockholder converted $250,000 of the debenture. Accordingly, the selling stockholder is obligated to exercise the warrant into the following number of common shares for an aggregate exercise price equal to $2,500,000:

$$$250,000 \times 10 = 2,500,000 \text{ shares of common stock}$$

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the shares of common stock being offered hereby will be passed upon for us by Sichenzia Ross Friedman Ference LLP, New York, New York.

Our financial statements at December 31, 2002 and 2001 and for the years then ended, appearing in this prospectus and registration statement have been audited by S. W. Hatfield, CPA, independent auditors, as set forth on their report thereon appearing elsewhere in this prospectus, and are included in reliance upon such report given upon the authority of such firm as experts in accounting and auditing.

CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANT ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

On January 29, 2002, we notified our accountants, Roger G. Castro, CPA that they were being dismissed as our independent auditors. The stated reasons were that we wanted to retain the auditor of our wholly-owned subsidiary, needed to consolidate the audits of the parent and subsidiary to comply with SEC requirements and did not want to engage the services of more than one (1) auditor. Our Board of Directors made the decision to change accountants.

During our past two (2) fiscal years and during any subsequent interim period preceding the date of dismissal, we had no disagreements with Roger G. Castro, CPA on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure.

The report of Roger G. Castro, CPA on the financial statements for the past two (2) fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion nor a disclaimer of opinion nor was the report qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

On January 29, 2002, we provided Roger G. Castro, CPA with a copy of this disclosure and requested that it furnish a letter to us, addressed to the SEC, stating that it agreed with the statements made herein or the reasons why it disagreed. On January 29, 2002, we received a letter from Roger G. Castro, CPA that it agreed with the statements contained herein.

On January 29, 2002, we engaged the firm of S.W. Hatfield, CPA, P.O. Box 820392, Dallas, TX 75382 as our independent auditors. Such appointment was accepted by S.W. Hatfield, President of the firm. Prior to such engagement, we had not consulted S.W. Hatfield, CPA on any prior matters, including any matters relative to the application of accounting principles or any subject of disagreement with Roger G. Castro, CPA.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Board of Directors and Stockholders
American Ammunition, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of American Ammunition, Inc. (a California corporation) and Subsidiaries (Florida corporations) as of December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001 (as restated) and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2002 and for the year ended December 31, 2001 (as restated), respectively. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall consolidated financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of American Ammunition, Inc. as of December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001 (as restated) and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2002 and for the year ended December 31, 2001 (as restated), respectively, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As noted in Note D, the Company detected errors in the inventory valuation calculations for the recorded carrying cost of inventory on the balance sheet as of December 31, 2001 whereby the inventory valuation had not been properly calculated using the "lower of cost or market" method by recognizing a targeted gross profit percentage based on Management's best estimate. This error created an overstatement in the inventory carrying value at December 31, 2001 and an understatement in cost of goods sold for the year ended December 31, 2001. Additionally, the Company determined that it's interpretation for the most appropriate method of accounting for the amortization of the Beneficial Conversion Discount Feature related to the 2001 issuance of Convertible Preferred Stock was incorrect. This error created an understatement in the amortization expense and calculation of additional paid-in capital for the year ended December 31, 2001. The effect of these errors has been restated in the accompanying consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2001.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note A - Organization and Description of Business

American Ammunition, Inc. (AAI or Company) was incorporated on February 1, 2000 in the State of California as FirstTelevision.com. AAI subsequently changed its corporate name to FBI Fresh Burgers International with a business plan of marketing the concept of a national "fast food" restaurant chain to children and young adults, with a menu of fresh burgers, fries and sandwiches. However, there was no assurance that this business concept would be successful.

On September 29, 2001, the Company, F&F Equipment, Inc. (F&F) and the individual shareholders of F&F entered into an "Agreement For The Exchange Of Common Stock" (Exchange Agreement) whereby the shareholders of F&F exchanged 100.0% of the issued and outstanding stock of F&F for 21,000,000 post-forward split shares of restricted, unregistered common stock of the Company. F&F Equipment, Inc. then became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

Concurrent with the September 29, 2001 reverse acquisition transaction, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to change the Company's name to American Ammunition, Inc. and modified the Company's capital structure to allow for the issuance of up to 320,000,000 total equity shares consisting of 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock and 300,000,000 shares of common stock. Both classes of stock have a par value of $0.001 per share.

On October 9, 2001, the Company effected a three (3) for one (1) forward stock split. The effect of this action is reflected in the accompanying financial statements as of the first day of the first period presented.

F&F Equipment, Inc. (Company) was incorporated on October 4, 1983 under the laws of the State of Florida. The Company was formed to engage principally in the "import, export, retail & wholesale of firearms equipment, ammunition & other devices and for the purpose of transacting any and/or all lawful business." The Company conducts its business operations under the assumed name of "American Ammunition".

In June 2002, American Ammunition, Inc. formed a wholly owned subsidiary, Industrial Plating Enterprise Co. (IPE), which started production on June 14, 2002. IPE is a fully licensed and approved state of the art electrochemical metallization facility with enormous capacity for processing the Company's line of projectiles as well as other products and services while employing environmentally sound water conservation and proven waste treatment techniques.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

The facility meets or exceeds all current environmental requirements and enjoys the "conditionally exempt small quantity generator" status for State and Federal regulations.

Note B - Preparation of Financial Statements

The acquisition of F&F Equipment, Inc., on September 29, 2001, by the Company effected a change in control and was accounted for as a "reverse acquisition" whereby F&F Equipment, Inc. is the accounting acquiror for financial statement purposes. Accordingly, the historical financial statements of the Company are those of F&F Equipment, Inc. from its inception and those of the consolidated entity subsequent to the September 29, 2001 transaction date.

The Company and its subsidiaries follow the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and have adopted a year-end of December 31 for all entities.

AMERICAN AMMUNITION, INC.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Management further acknowledges that it is solely responsible for adopting sound accounting practices, establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and preventing and detecting fraud. The Company's system of internal accounting control is designed to assure, among other items, that 1) recorded transactions are valid; 2) valid transactions are recorded; and 3) transactions are recorded in the proper period in a timely manner to produce financial statements which present fairly the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the Company for the respective periods being presented

For segment reporting purposes, the Company operated in only one industry segment during the periods represented in the accompanying financial statements and makes all operating decisions and allocates resources based on the best benefit to the Company as a whole.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements contain the accounts of American Ammunition, Inc. (formerly FBI Fresh Burgers International) and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, F&F Equipment, Inc. and Industrial Plating Enterprise Co. All significant intercompany transactions have been eliminated. The consolidated entities are collectively referred to as "Company".

Note C - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

1. Cash and cash equivalents

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

For Statement of Cash Flows purposes, the Company considers all cash on hand and in banks, including accounts in book overdraft positions, certificates of deposit and other highly-liquid investments with maturities of three months or less, when purchased, to be cash and cash equivalents.

Cash overdraft positions may occur from time to time due to the timing of making bank deposits and releasing checks, in accordance with the Company's cash management policies.

2. Accounts receivable and Revenue Recognition

In the normal course of business, the Company extends unsecured credit to virtually all of its customers which are located throughout the United States. Because of the credit risk involved, management has provided an allowance for doubtful accounts which reflects its opinion of amounts which will eventually become uncollectible. In the event of complete non-performance, the maximum exposure to the Company is the recorded amount of trade accounts receivable shown on the balance sheet at the date of non-performance.

The Company ships all product on an FOB-Plant basis. Accordingly, revenue is recognized by the Company at the point at which an order is shipped at a fixed price, collection is reasonably assured, the Company has no remaining performance obligations and no right of return by the purchaser exists.

AMERICAN AMMUNITION, INC.

Note C - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

3. Inventory

Inventory consists of raw materials, work-in-process and finished goods related to the production and sale of small arms ammunition. Inventory is valued at the lower of cost or market using the first-in, first-out method.

4. Property, plant and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at historical cost. These costs are depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the individual assets using the straight-line method, generally three to ten years.

Gains and losses from disposition of property and equipment are recognized as incurred and are included in operations.

5. Income Taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. At December 31, 2002 and 2001, the deferred tax asset and deferred tax liability accounts, as recorded when material to the financial statements, are entirely the result of temporary differences. Temporary differences represent differences in the recognition of assets and liabilities for tax and financial reporting purposes, primarily accumulated depreciation and amortization, allowance for doubtful accounts and vacation

accruals.

As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, the deferred tax asset related to the Company's net operating loss carryforward is fully reserved. If these carryforwards are not utilized, they will begin to expire in 2005.

6. Earnings (loss) per share

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net income (loss) by the weighted-average number of shares of common stock and common stock equivalents (primarily outstanding options and warrants). Common stock equivalents represent the dilutive effect of the assumed exercise of the outstanding stock options and warrants, using the treasury stock method. The calculation of fully diluted earnings (loss) per share assumes the dilutive effect of the exercise of outstanding options and warrants at either the beginning of the respective period presented or the date of issuance, whichever is later. As of September 30, 2002 and 2001, and subsequent thereto, the Company had no warrants and/or options outstanding.

7. Advertising costs

The Company does not conduct any direct response advertising activities. For non-direct response advertising, the Company charges the costs of these efforts to operations at the first time the related advertising is published.

8. Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the accompanying financial statements for the quarter ended September 30, 2001 have been reclassified to conform to the Fiscal 2002 presentations.

Note D - Correction of an Error

During Management's review of the Company's internal control structure, it was noted that the Company continues to realize a negative gross profit and that the inventory valuation calculations for the recorded carrying cost of inventory on the balance sheet as of December 31, 2001 had not been properly calculated using the "lower of cost or market" method by recognizing a targeted gross profit percentage based on Management's best estimate. This error created an overstatement in the inventory carrying value at December 31, 2001 and an understatement in cost of goods sold for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Additionally, during 2002, Management determined that it's interpretation for the most appropriate method of accounting for the amortization of the Beneficial Conversion Discount Feature related to the 2001 issuance of Convertible Preferred Stock was incorrect. This error created an understatement in the amortization expense and in the calculation of additional paid-in capital for the year ended December 31, 2001.

The effect of any and all changes are reflected in the accompanying financial statements as of the respective date of each transaction and the effect of the

Note J - Long-Term Debt Payable to a Bank

On June 28, 2001, in anticipation of the settlement of litigation with a financial institution, the Company executed a $950,000 note payable to another financial institution. This note bears interest at the Wall Street Journal published prime rate plus 2.0%.

During Calendar 2002, the Company made five (5) lump-sum principal reductions of $100,000 each (or an aggregate of $500,000) to the outstanding balance on this note. As of December 31, 2002, the Company owes $450,000 on this note. Upon each lump-sum payment, the Company executed a modification to the payment terms on the note.

At December 31, 2002, the note payment terms are as follows: payments of interest only beginning July 28, 2003 through January 28, 2004. Thereafter, starting on January 28, 2004, equal monthly payments of principal and interest shall be due until June 28, 2007 which payments shall represent the amount necessary to fully amortize the remaining principal balance of the note. The monthly payments shall be recalculated at the time of any change in the applicable interest rate. The note is secured by virtually all of the Company's real and personal property. A portion of the proceeds from the financing were used to pay the $550,000 required in the Settlement and Compromise Agreement.

On February 28 and March 20, 2003, respectively, the Company made additional principal reductions of $100,000 and $350,000 fully retiring the outstanding debt.

Note K - Convertible Debenture

On October 4, 2002, the Company issued an 8.0% Convertible Debenture (Debenture) in the face amount of $250,000 and a Warrant which requires the Holder to purchase shares of common stock equal to ten (10) times the number of shares of common stock issued to the Holder on conversion of the Debenture. In no event shall the number of shares issued under the Warrant exceed 30,000,000.

The Debenture bears interest at 8.0% and matures two years from the date of issuance.

In December 2002, the Company and the Debenture Holder amended the above-referenced debenture and warrants as follows:

The number of common shares into which the debenture may be converted is equal to the dollar amount of the debenture being converted multiplied by eleven, minus the product of the conversion price, multiplied by ten times the dollar amount of the debenture being converted, divided by the conversion price. The conversion price is obtained by multiplying the average of the five (5) lowest Volume Weighted Average Prices (VWAP) during the 20 trading days prior to the date of conversion by the Discount Multiplier of 80%.

The warrants are exercisable at $1.00 per share for up to 2,500,000 shares.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

The warrant holder is obligated to exercise the warrant concurrently with the conversion of the debenture for a number of shares equal to ten times the dollar amount of the debenture being converted.

The full principal amount of the Debenture is due upon default, as defined in the Debenture agreement. The Debenture interest is payable monthly in arrears commencing on November 15, 2002.

The Company is obligated to file a Registration Statement under the Securities Act of 1933 to register the underlying conversion shares on either Form SB-2 or S-3 and have said Registration Statement effective no later than 120 days after October 4, 2002.

The Debenture Holder has contractually committed to convert not less than 5.0% and not more than 10.0% of the original face value of the Debenture monthly beginning the month after the effective date of the Registration Statement and the Holder is required to concurrently exercise warrants and purchase shares of common stock equal to ten (10) times the number of shares of common stock issued to the Holder upon the respective mandatory conversion of the Debenture.

The Holder has further contractually agreed to restrict its ability to convert the Debenture or exercise their warrants and receive shares of the Company's common stock such that the number of shares held by the Holder and its affiliates after such conversion or exercise does not exceed 4.99% of the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Company.

In the event an election to convert is made and the volume weighted average price of the Company's common stock is below $0.30 per share, the Company shall have the right to prepay any portion of the outstanding Debenture that was elected to be converted, plus any accrued and unpaid interest, at 125.0%.

The Holder may demand repayment of the Debenture of 125.0% of the face amount outstanding, plus all accrued and unpaid interest, in cash at any time prior to the date that underlying Registration Statement under the Securities Act of 1933 has not been declared effective by the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission within 3 business days of such demand. If the repayment is accelerated, the Company is also obligated to issue to the Holder 25,000 shares of common stock and $10,000 cash for each 30 day period, or portion thereof, during which the face amount, including interest thereon, remains unpaid with the cash payment to increase to $15,000 for each 30 day period the balance remains unpaid after the initial 90 day period.

If the Holder does not elect to accelerate the Debenture, the Company shall immediately issue and pay to the Holder 25,000 shares of common stock and $10,000 cash for each 30 day period, or portion thereof, during which the face amount, including interest thereon, remains unpaid with the cash payment to increase to $15,000 for each 30 day period the balance remains unpaid after the initial 90 day period.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

Due to the contractually agreed mandatory conversion of this Debenture, the Company has reflected this transaction in its balance sheet as a "mezzanine" level debt obligation on its balance sheet, between "Total Liabilities" and "Shareholders' Equity". Upon the respective mandatory conversion, the Company will relieve the respective portion of the Debenture and the any related accrued, but unpaid interest, and credit this amount to the respective "common stock" and "additional paid-in capital" accounts in the shareholder's equity section for the par value and excess amount over the par value of the respective shares issued.

As the warrant is non-detachable from the Debenture and requires simultaneous exercise upon conversion of the Debenture, no value was assigned to the issued warrant. Upon exercise of the warrant, the Company will record the issuance of the underlying shares as a new issuance of common stock on the date of each respective exercise.

Concurrent with the execution of the Debenture agreement, the Company executed an engagement letter with the Holder's counsel for legal representation with regard to the preparation of the aforementioned Registration Statement under the Securities Act of 1933.

Note L - Preferred Stock Transactions

In September, October and November 2001, the Company sold an aggregate 222,600 shares of $5.00 Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (Series A Preferred Stock) for total proceeds of approximately $1,113,000 through an ongoing private placement. The Series A Convertible Preferred Stock provides for cumulative dividends at a rate of 8.0% per year, payable quarterly, in cash or shares of the Company's common stock at the Company's election. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock is convertible into 11 shares of the Company's common stock initially at any time after 6 months of the date of issue and prior to the notice of redemption at the option of the holder, subject to adjustments for customary anti-dilution events. In December 2001, at the request of the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Company and the individual holders modified the holding period for conversion to allow for conversion in December 2001.

In September 2001, the Company's principal shareholder converted approximately $4,007,327 of unsecured debt and approximately $3,546,273 of cumulative and unpaid accrued interest into 1,510,710 shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

In September 2001, a creditor of the Company agreed to convert approximately $10,000 of trade accounts payable into 2,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

In December 2001, concurrent with a modification in the holding period prior to conversion, certain holders of the Series A Preferred Stock orally notified the Company of their intent to exercise the conversion features on 1,749,720 issued and outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock into 19,246,920 shares of common stock prior to December 31, 2001. Due to the timing of the requisite documentation, the clerical activities related to this conversion were not completed until February 2002.

In conjunction with the Series A Preferred Stock, certain shares were sold after the Company's common stock was approved for trading by the National Association of Securities Dealers on the OTC Bulletin Board in October 2001. The shares of Series A Preferred Stock sold subsequent to this date had an equivalent per share value of common stock below the ending quoted market price of the Company's common stock on their respective issue dates. This difference created a Beneficial Conversion Feature Discount of approximately $1,207,993. This discount was then amortized over the unexpired time period between the date of issue of the eligible shares and the eligible conversion date, as amended. All of the shares sold subsequent to the initial trading date were converted in December 2001 and, accordingly, the approximate $1,207,993 in Beneficial Conversion Feature Discount was fully amortized to operations.

In December 2002, a holder of 5,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock exercised his conversion rights and converted these shares of Series A Preferred Stock into 55,000 shares of restricted, unregistered common stock.

Note M - Common Stock Transactions

Concurrent with the September 29, 2001 reverse acquisition transaction, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to change the Company's name to American Ammunition, Inc. and modified the Company's capital structure to allow for the issuance of up to 320,000,000 total equity shares consisting of 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock and 300,000,000 shares of common stock. Both classes of stock have a par value of $0.001 per share.

On October 9, 2001, the Company effected a three (3) for one (1) forward stock split. The effect of this action is reflected in the accompanying financial statements as of the first day of the first period presented.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 24. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF CALIFORNIA LAW AND OF THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

Under California law, a corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding if that person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of the person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

Further under California law, corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if the person acted in good faith, in a manner the person believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders.

However, no indemnification shall be made for any of the following:

(1) In respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation in the performance of that person's duty to the corporation and its shareholders, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for expenses and then only to the extent that the court shall determine;

(2) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a pending action without court approval; or

(3) Of expenses incurred in defending a pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval.

To the extent that an agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to above or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

II-1

However, any indemnification shall be made by the corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set out in the statute by any of the following:

(1) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such proceeding;

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN AMMUNITION INC /CA - Form SB-2/A

(2) If such a quorum of directors is not obtainable, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion;

(3) Approval of the shareholders (Section 153), with the shares owned by the person to be indemnified not being entitled to vote thereon; or

(4) The court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not the application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the corporation.

Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the corporation prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay that amount if it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this section. The provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 315 do not apply to advances made pursuant to this subdivision.

The indemnification authorized by this section is not exclusive of any additional rights to indemnification for breach of duty to the corporation and its shareholders while acting in the capacity of a director or officer of the corporation to the extent the additional rights to indemnification are authorized in an article provision adopted pursuant to paragraph (11) of subdivision (a) of Section 204. The indemnification provided by this section for acts, omissions, or transactions while acting in the capacity of, or while serving as, a director or officer of the corporation but not involving breach of duty to the corporation and its shareholders is not exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, to the extent the additional rights to indemnification are authorized in the articles of the corporation. An article provision authorizing indemnification "in excess of that otherwise permitted by Section 317" or "to the fullest extent permissible under California law" or the substantial equivalent thereof shall be construed to be both a provision for additional indemnification for breach of duty to the corporation and its shareholders as referred to in, and with the limitations required by, paragraph (11) of subdivision (a) of Section 204 and a provision for additional indemnification as referred to in the second sentence of this subdivision. The rights to indemnity hereunder shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of the person. Nothing contained in this section shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than the directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

No indemnification or advance shall be made under this section in any circumstance where it appears:

(1) That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the articles, bylaws, a resolution of the shareholders, or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification.

(2) That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in that capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against that liability under this section. The fact that a corporation owns all or a portion of the shares of the company issuing a policy of insurance shall not render this subdivision inapplicable if either of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) if the articles authorize indemnification in excess of that authorized in this section and the insurance provided by this subdivision is limited as indemnification is required to be limited by paragraph (11) of subdivision (a) of Section 204; or

(2) (A) the company issuing the insurance policy is organized, licensed, and operated in a manner that complies with the insurance laws and regulations applicable to its jurisdiction of organization,

(B) the company issuing the policy provides procedures for processing claims that do not permit that company to be subject to the direct control of the corporation that purchased that policy, and

(C) the policy issued provides for some manner of risk sharing between the issuer and purchaser of the policy, on one hand, and some unaffiliated person or persons, on the other, such as by providing for more than one unaffiliated owner of the company issuing the policy or by providing that a portion of the coverage furnished will be obtained from some unaffiliated insurer or reinsurer.

This section does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in that person's capacity as such, even though the person may also be an agent as defined in subdivision (a) of the employer corporation. A corporation shall have power to indemnify such a trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary to the extent permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 207.

The Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws require the Company to indemnify its directors to the fullest extent permitted by California law. The specific provisions of the Articles of Incorporation of the Registrant with respect to the indemnification of directors and officers are as follows:

"FOURTH: The liability of the directors of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under California law."

The specific provisions of the Bylaws of the Registrant with respect to the indemnification of directors and officers are as follows:

II-3

ARTICLE XI INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Corporation shall indemnify each of its directors and officers who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Except as provided hereinbelow, any such indemnification shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth above. Such determination shall be made: (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum of directors; or (b) by the shareholders.

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding if authorized by the Board of Directors and upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation.

To the extent that a director or officer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith without any further determination that he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth above."

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act" or "Securities Act") may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling American Ammunition pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

On September 26, 2002, the Company sold 277,778 shares of restricted, unregistered common stock to Access Investments, Inc., an existing shareholder, for cash proceeds of approximately $100,000. This sale was made at a price of $0.26 per share, which approximates the discounted "fair value" of the Company's common stock based on the quoted closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of the respective transaction. The proceeds were used to provide working capital liquidity for future periods. This offering and sale was deemed to be exempt under Rule 506 of Regulation D and Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. No advertising or general solicitation was employed in offering the securities. The offerings and sales were made to a limited number of persons, all of whom were accredited investors and transfer was restricted by American Ammunition in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933.

In October 2002, we signed a Securities Purchase Agreement with La Jolla Cove Investors, Inc. for the sale of a $250,000 8% convertible debenture and a warrant to purchase up to 30,000,000 shares of our common stock. The debenture bears interest at 8%, mature on two years from the date of issuance, and is convertible into our common stock, at the selling stockholder's option, at the lesser of (i) $1.00 or (ii) 80% of the average of the five lowest volume weighted average price days during the 20 trading days before but not including the conversion date. The warrant may only be exercised concurrently with a conversion of the debenture and then only for that number of shares of common stock equal to ten (10) times the number of shares common stock issued to the debenture holder on that conversion date. The exercise price of the warrant is the lesser of (i) $1.00; or (ii) 80% of the average of the five lowest volume weighted average price during the twenty (20) trading days prior to the holder's election to convert. See the "Selling Stockholders" section for a description of the convertible debenture and warrant issued to the La Jolla Cove Investors, Inc.

In December 2002, we amended the above-referenced debenture and warrants as follows: The number of common shares into which the debenture may be converted is equal to the dollar amount of the debenture being converted multiplied by eleven, minus the product of the conversion price, multiplied by ten times the dollar amount of the debenture being converted, divided by the conversion price. The warrants are exercisable at $1.00 per share for up to 2,500,000 shares. The warrant holder is obligated to exercise the warrant concurrently with the conversion of the debenture for a number of shares equal to ten times the dollar amount of the debenture being converted.

In November 2002, the Company sold 384,615 shares of restricted, unregistered common stock to an existing shareholder for cash proceeds of approximately $100,000. Item 28. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to:

(1) File, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to:

(i) Include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act");

(ii) Reflect in the prospectus any facts or events which, individually or together, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of the securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement, and

(iii) Include any additional or changed material information on the plan of distribution.

(2) For determining liability under the Securities Act, treat each post-effective amendment as a new registration statement of the securities offered, and the offering of the securities at that time to be the initial bona fide offering.

(3) File a post-effective amendment to remove from registration any of the securities that remain unsold at the end of the offering.

(4) Intentionally omitted.

(5) For determining any liability under the Securities Act, treat each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus as a new registration statement for the securities offered in the registration statement, and that offering of the securities at that time as the initial bona fide offering of those securities.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
