Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 29, 2011, J. C. Penney Company, Inc. (the “Company”) and its direct wholly-owned subsidiary J. C. Penney Corporation, Inc. (“Corporation”) and indirect wholly-owned subsidiary J. C. Penney Purchasing Corporation (“Purchasing”) (Company, Corporation and Purchasing collectively referred to as the “Loan Parties”) entered into a five-year amended and restated Credit Agreement among the Loan Parties, the lenders party thereto and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N. A., as Administrative Agent and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as LC Agent (the “Credit Agreement”).

The Credit Agreement provides for a $1.25 billion secured revolving line of credit, with a $500 million letter of credit sublimit and a $50 million swingline advance sublimit. The Credit Agreement further provides that the Corporation may request at any time, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, that the aggregate size of the facility be increased by a total amount not to exceed $250 million. Revolving loans under the Credit Agreement will generally accrue interest at a rate, at the election of the Corporation, equal to (i) a base rate plus an applicable margin or (ii) adjusted LIBOR plus an applicable margin. The applicable margin is based on a pricing grid tied to the credit ratings of the Company assigned by Moody’s Investors Service, Inc. and Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services. Swingline advances will accrue interest at a rate equal to a base rate plus the applicable margin. Stand-by letters of credit under the Credit Agreement accrue fees at a rate equal to the applicable margin on loans having a reference rate of adjusted LIBOR and trade letters of credit accrue fees at a rate equal to 50% of the applicable margin on loans having a reference rate of adjusted LIBOR. Commitment fees, which are assessed on the unused portion of the Credit Agreement maximum amount, accrue at a rate ranging from 0.25% to 0.50% (determined pursuant to the pricing grid, currently at a rate of 0.325%). The Company may prepay loans and terminate the commitments at any time without premium or penalty and is required to prepay loans in the event that the Company is not in compliance with the Asset Coverage Ratio (as defined in the Credit Agreement).

The obligations of the Loan Parties under the Credit Agreement are guaranteed by the Company, Corporation, Purchasing and certain of the Company’s indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries that are not borrowers under the Credit Agreement. The obligations are secured by a lien on all of the inventory, except for consignment inventory, of the Company, Corporation, Purchasing and the subsidiary guarantors pursuant to a Guarantee and Collateral Agreement dated as of April 29, 2011 among the Company, Corporation, Purchasing, the subsidiaries of Company identified therein, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N. A., as Administrative Agent (the “Guarantee and Collateral Agreement”).

The Credit Agreement contains financial covenants relating to the Company’s Leverage Ratio and Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (each as defined in the Credit Agreement), which are to be measured at the end of each of the Company’s fiscal quarters, and an Asset Coverage Ratio. Additionally, the Credit Agreement contains affirmative covenants, including covenants regarding the payment of taxes, maintenance of insurance, reporting requirements, compliance with applicable laws, inspection rights and the right to conduct collateral appraisals and field exams. The Credit Agreement also contains various restrictive covenants limiting the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to incur debt, grant liens, make acquisitions, sell assets, enter into sale and leaseback transactions, and make certain restricted payments.

The Credit Agreement generally contains customary events of default for credit facilities of this type. Upon an event of default that is not cured or waived within any applicable cure periods, in addition to other remedies that may be available to the lenders, the obligations under the Credit Agreement may be accelerated, outstanding letters of credit may be required to be cash collateralized and remedies may be exercised against the collateral. In connection with entering into the Credit Agreement, each lender who was a party to the prior agreement has waived any default under the prior agreement arising from the failure of the Loan Parties to comply with the restrictive covenant on restricted payments.

No borrowings, other than the issuance of trade and stand-by letters of credit, which totaled approximately $197.1 million at closing, have been made under the Credit Agreement. The proceeds of borrowings under the Credit Agreement, if any, are available for working capital and other general corporate purposes. The Credit Agreement has a maturity date of April 29, 2016; however, the Corporation, with the consent of lenders constituting more than 50% of the total commitments under the Credit Agreement, may extend the maturity date for up to two additional one-year terms. Certain of the lenders who are parties to the Credit Agreement provide commercial banking, investment banking, trustee and custodial services to the Company.

Copies of the Credit Agreement and Guarantee and Collateral Agreement are filed herewith as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively. The foregoing descriptions of the Credit Agreement and Guarantee and Collateral Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement and Guarantee and Collateral Agreement which are incorporated herein by reference.
