Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On November 5, 2002, Eisner, LLP ("Eisner") was dismissed as independent accountant for Laidlaw Global Corporation ("Registrant" or "Laidlaw"). On November 4, 2002, Registrant engaged Weinick Sanders Leventhal & Co., LLP as its new independent accountant for fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. Laidlaw's decision to replace the Eisner firm is in line with management's overall efforts to reduce operating expenses.

The report prepared and issued by Eisner on Laidlaw's financial statements for fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the report did raise the issue about Laidlaw's ability to continue as a going concern.

During Registrant's fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, there were no disagreements between Laidlaw and Eisner on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Eisner, would have caused them to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with their reports on the financial statement for such year.

The registrant has requested that Eisner furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements. A copy of the Eisner letter to the Securities and Exchange Commission dated November 14, 2002 is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K/A.
