(b) and (e). On April 8, 2016, Andrew P. Holman resigned as an officer of Greatbatch, Inc. (the “Company”). The Company expects to enter into a separation agreement with Mr. Holman, who had served as the Company’s President for Corporate Development, under which Mr. Holman will be eligible to receive cash severance totaling $800,000 payable over three years. A portion of this cash severance represents consideration for Mr. Holman’s voluntary relinquishment of his rights under his outstanding performance-based restricted stock unit awards, all of which will be cancelled upon execution of the agreement. The unvested portion of Mr. Holman’s time-vested stock option awards were forfeited upon his resignation. The severance benefit described above is set forth in and is subject to Mr. Holman signing the separation agreement, which contains customary provisions including releases.
