Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 1, 2012, Arthur G. Raymond, Jr., Hooker Furniture Corporation's Senior Vice-President - Casegoods Operations, notified the Company that he will be leaving the Company January 31, 2013, which is the end date of his employment agreement. His responsibilities will be assigned to various other senior managers in the Company, who will report to Paul B. Toms, Jr., Chairman and CEO.

"Hooker has been very fortunate to have someone of Art's caliber in this key role over the last three years," said Toms. "As we had hoped when we brought Art on board, he has successfully groomed the next generation of operations leaders, led our transition to a new sourcing footprint in Asia and greatly improved our forecasting, logistics and supply chain operations. We are forever grateful for his selfless contributions," Toms concluded.

Mr. Raymond is expected to resume a consulting role with the Company on a variety of projects as the Company continues to expand its product line and distribution channels.

A copy of the Company's press release, issued November 5, 2012, announcing Mr. Raymond's departure is filed as an exhibit to this report.
