Table of Contents<< Comment from Masao Nakamura, President and CEO >>

In the third quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2005, we released the latest model in the FOMA handset lineup, the 901i series, and launched various initiatives aimed at enhancing our competitiveness, including the provision of free-of-charge e-mail between family members registered in our Family Discount service, offering free videophone minutes, and, from February 2005, will allow members of our Family Discount service to share unused free communication allowances for up to two months. Operating revenues and operating income for the nine months ended December 31, 2004 were ¥3,643.1 billion and ¥751.4 billion, respectively, indicating favorable progress vis-à-vis our full-year projections.

We made certain progress in our cellular services operation, including a steadfast expansion of FOMA's subscriber base to 8.5 million as of December 31, 2004 (which subsequently exceeded 9 million on January 20, 2005), and an improvement in our cellular phone churn rate to below 1% for the third quarter.

In July 2004, we commenced our i-mode FeliCa Mobile Wallet service in an effort to pioneer new business fields. The total user base of FeliCa-enabled handsets expand to approximately 1.3 million and the number of retail shops supporting this service grew to approximately 13,000 as of December 31, 2004, providing subscribers with new usage opportunities. In the area of global business, we stepped into new domains beyond conventional voice roaming services through the introduction of i-mode roaming, videophone roaming and short message roaming services in December 2004, and the release of Model N900iG, the first roaming-enabled handset in the FOMA lineup.

While our business climate is expected to become harsher in the future in view of the scheduled introduction of mobile number portability in 2006, we will continuously work to achieve further growth by reviewing every aspect of our business from a customer-oriented perspective, and managing the company with a challenge embracing spirit and an emphasis on speedy decision making.

Table of Contents*1. Business Overview

- (1) Operating revenues totaled ¥3,643.1 billion (down 4.8% compared to the same period of the prior year).

Cellular (FOMA+mova) services revenues decreased to ¥3,120.8 billion (down 4.5% compared to the same period of the prior year). Despite a positive impact on revenues from subscriber growth driven by enriched tariff plans and introduction of new products such as FOMA 901i series handsets and mova series handsets with unique product concepts and distinctive features, cellular (FOMA+mova) services revenues decreased due to a decline in ARPU reflecting reductions in rates. These reductions in tariffs included enriching the Family Discount service, such as by introducing free i-mode mail among Family Discount group members.

Voice revenues from FOMA services increased to ¥331.9 billion (up 500.7% compared to the same period of the prior year) and packet communications revenues from FOMA services increased to ¥167.0 billion (up 524.6% compared to the same period of the prior year) due to a significant increase in the number of FOMA services subscribers which resulted from the steady migration of subscribers from mova services. This migration was driven by the release of the FOMA 901i series handsets and promotion of pake-hodai, a flat-rate FOMA i-mode service.

Notes:

- (i) In past reports, cellular services revenues were broken down into cellular (mova) services revenues, cellular (FOMA) services revenues and packet communications services revenues. For the nine months ended December 31, 2004, cellular services revenues were aggregated and represented as cellular (FOMA+mova) services revenues.
- (ii) Voice revenues include data communications revenues through circuit switching system.

- (2) Operating expenses were ¥2,891.7 billion (down 3.1% compared to the same period of the prior year).

Personnel expenses were ¥187.0 billion, which were approximately the same as the same period of the prior year. The number of employees as of December 31, 2004 was 22,308.

Non-personnel expenses decreased to ¥1,834.9 billion (down 4.4% compared to the same period of the prior year) mainly due to a decrease in revenue-linked variable expenses by 3.1% compared to the same period of the prior year, reflecting a decrease in equipment sales including replacements.

Depreciation and amortization expenses were ¥528.8 billion, which were approximately the same as the same period of the prior year. While the amount of new assets being added to the cost base was higher due to an increase in capital expenditure, its effect was offset by a decrease in the net book value of our network equipment such as switching equipment at the beginning of the fiscal period compared to the beginning of the same period of the prior year.

2. Segment Information

- (1) Mobile phone business

Operating revenues were ¥3,567.2 billion and operating income was ¥766.2 billion.

Cellular (FOMA) services

- We reduced our tariffs, including a reduction in the monthly charges for Packet Pack, a discount service for per-packet rates, and the introduction of pake-hodai, a flat-rate i-mode service. In addition, we strengthened our lineup of FOMA 900i series handsets by releasing the FOMA F900iC handset in August 2004, which is compatible with i-mode FeliCa service; the FOMA N900iL handset in November 2004, a dual-network handset that runs on both the FOMA network and wireless LANs; and the FOMA N900iG handset in December 2004, which is the first FOMA handset that is capable of international roaming-out service. Furthermore, we started releasing the FOMA 901i series handsets in December 2004. As a result, the number of subscribers increased steadily and reached 8.50 million at December 31, 2004.

Edgar Filing: NTT DOCOMO INC - Form 6-K

Voice ARPU, packet ARPU and aggregate ARPU of cellular (FOMA) services were ¥6,540, ¥3,320 and ¥9,860, respectively.

Cellular (mova) services

- We started releasing the mova 506i series handsets in May 2004, and released the mova 506iC series handsets which are compatible with i-mode FeliCa service in July 2004. We also started releasing the mova 253i series handsets, which are targeted for entry users, in October 2004. Furthermore, we released handsets with unique product concepts and distinctive features such as the premini and premini-S handsets featuring compact bodies, simple functions and unique design; the prosolid handset, which is the thinnest folding handset in our product lineup; and the Music PORTER handset, which is equipped with a music player and a FM radio tuner. Despite continuous high demand for the newest mova series handsets, the number of cellular (mova) services subscribers as of December 31, 2004, decreased to 39.42 million due to the continuous migration of subscribers from mova services to FOMA services.
- Voice ARPU, i-mode ARPU and aggregate ARPU of cellular (mova) services were ¥5,260, ¥1,690 and ¥6,950, respectively.

Table of Contents

- In addition, in both FOMA and mova services, we enriched the Family Discount by raising the discount rates applied to base monthly charges and dialing charges on calls among the subscribers in each family in April 2004; making charges free for sending and receiving i-mode mail among the subscribers in each Family Discount group in October 2004; and enabling the unused allowances (free minutes and/or packets) which are included in the base monthly charges in and after December 2004 that have been carried over for two months under a billing arrangement named Nikagetsu Kurikoshi (two-month carry over) to be automatically used to cover the airtime and/or packet fees exceeding the allowances of the other lines in the Family Discount group. Furthermore, we reinforced our point loyalty program in April 2004, and raised the discount rates applied to base monthly charges for the subscribers to our Business Discount service in July 2004. Aggregate number of cellular (FOMA+mova) services subscribers as of December 31, 2004 increased to 47.91 million
- Voice ARPU, packet ARPU and aggregate ARPU of cellular (FOMA+mova) services were ¥5,410, ¥1,890 and ¥7,300, respectively.
- Churn rates for cellular (FOMA+mova) services for the three months and nine months ended December 31, 2004 were 0.95% and 1.03%, decreases of 0.16 points and 0.13 points compared to the same periods of the prior year, respectively.

i-mode services

- We launched the Mobile Wallet i-mode FeliCa Service in July 2004. Six models of the i-mode FeliCa service compatible handsets were released and sales of the handsets reached approximately 1.3 million by the end of December 2004. The number of shops at which the i-mode FeliCa service is available increased to approximately 13,000 (also available at approximately 3,100 of vending machines) at the end of December 2004. Furthermore, we implemented various tariff plans to let our i-mode subscribers enjoy rich contents and applications of i-mode services more comfortably and with less worry about their charges. As a result, the number of i-mode services subscribers increased to 43.03 million at December 31, 2004.
- In terms of our global development, i-mode services were launched in Greece in June 2004 and in Australia in November 2004, and furthermore, we entered into new i-mode license agreements with Cellcom Israel LTD., an Israeli company, in November 2004, mmO2 plc, a UK-based company, in November 2004, and Mobile TeleSystems OJSC, a Russian company, in December 2004. Our strategic partnership through licensing of i-mode has shown progress and the aggregate number of cellular service subscribers of all carriers (including DoCoMo) that provide i-mode services exceeded 170 million.

Note:

ARPU: Average monthly revenue per unit

Average monthly revenue per unit, or ARPU, is used to measure average monthly operating revenues attributable to designated services on a per user basis. ARPU is calculated by dividing various revenue items included in operating revenues from our Wireless services, such as monthly charges, voice transmission charges and packet transmission charges, from designated services which are incurred consistently each month, by number of active subscribers to the relevant services. We believe that our ARPU figures provide useful information regarding the average usage of our subscribers. The revenue items included in the numerators of our ARPU figures are based on our U.S. GAAP results of operations. This definition applies to all ARPU figures hereinafter.

See page 15 for the details of the calculation methods.

Notes:

- (i) Number of DoPa single service subscribers has been included in the number of cellular (mova) services subscribers beginning with the result for the six months ended September 30, 2004 in order to conform the definition of subscribers with other mobile operators in Japan. The number of DoPa single service subscribers as of December 31, 2004 and March 31, 2004 was 516 thousand and 401 thousand, respectively.
- (ii) Number of i-mode subscribers as of December 31, 2004 = Cellular (FOMA) i-mode subscribers (8,403 thousand) + Cellular (mova) i-mode subscribers (34,624 thousand)

- (2) PHS business

Operating revenues were ¥48.5 billion and operating loss was ¥17.0 billion.

We saw a net increase in the number of subscribers for fixed fee service for data communications mainly as a result of sales promotion of @FreeD, a fixed fee service for data-communications subscribers. However, the aggregate number of PHS subscribers as of December 31, 2004, decreased to 1.39 million due to a decrease in the number of voice services subscribers.

— ARPUs was ¥3,360.

(4) Miscellaneous businesses

Operating revenues were ¥23.9 billion and operating income was ¥3.0 billion.

To enrich our international services, we took measures as follows: We launched the FOMA international roaming-in service in May 2004. We added Singapore in November 2004 and Australia in December to the regions to which FOMA subscribers can make international video calls. We launched the international roaming-out services for packet communications, video calling and short messaging service in December 2004 in addition to the existing international roaming-out service for voice calls.

We improved usability of our public wireless LAN service, Mzone. Overseas, we launched an international roaming service in September 2004, and we also launched a roaming service in aircraft on certain international flights in October 2004. In Japan, we started providing the service in subway stations of Tokyo Metro in October 2004 and expanded the service to all the stations by December 2004.

3. Capital Expenditures

Total capital expenditures* were ¥633.1 billion.

We made our capital expenditures more efficient and less costly by reducing the acquisition costs of equipment and improving the design and construction process. However, total capital expenditures increased because we expanded both the indoor and outdoor coverage areas of our FOMA services, reinforced FOMA networks to meet the expanding number of subscribers, constructed network facilities to improve i-mode network's reliability, and promoted the construction of IP networks with IP router architecture.

Table of Contents*4. Cash Flow Conditions

Net cash provided by operating activities was ¥576.0 billion (down 37.9% compared to the same period of the prior year). Net cash provided by operating activities decreased primarily because the payment of income taxes, which was ¥259.9 billion in the same period of the prior year, increased to ¥540.2 billion, while collection of tax refunds receivable, which was ¥107.2 billion in the same period of the prior year, decreased. Because December 31 is a bank holiday in Japan, cash transactions, mainly receipt of cellular bills, that would normally be settled on the last day of each month are actually settled at the beginning of January. This had a net negative impact of approximately ¥236.0 billion on cash flows from operating activities for the period.

Net cash used in investing activities was ¥327.9 billion (down 45.8% compared to the same period of the prior year). Despite an increase in payment for purchase of property, plant and equipment and purchase of intangible and other assets, which was ¥567.8 billion in the same period of the prior year, to ¥702.2 billion, cash used in investing activities decreased compared to the same period of the prior year mainly due to a sale of AT&T Wireless shares that amounted to ¥699.5 billion, and a collection of shareholders loan to Hutchison H3G UK Holdings Limited based on the sale and purchase agreement with Hutchison Whampoa Limited that amounted to ¥39.8 billion. Changes of investments for cash management purpose, which were made to manage a part of our cash efficiently, increased net cash used in investing activities by ¥361.3 billion.

Net cash used in financing activities was ¥617.8 billion (up 36.8% compared to the same period of the prior year). We reduced outstanding debt and increased stock buybacks and dividend payments. During the nine months ended December 31, 2004, we repurchased our own stock for ¥53.5 billion in the stock market and ¥332.2 billion through a tender offer.

Free cash flows were ¥248.1 billion (down 23.1% compared to the same period of the prior year). Adjusted free cash flows* excluding the effect of bank holidays (approximately ¥ (236.0) billion) and the changes of investments for cash management purpose (¥ (361.3) billion) were ¥845.4 billion.

Equity ratio and debt ratio improved compared to the same period of the prior year due to an increase in shareholders' equity and a decrease in interest bearing liabilities.

Notes:

Free cash flows = Cash flows from operating activities + Cash flows from investing activities

In past reports, we excluded net payments for short-term loans and deposits from Cash flows from investing activities in determining our free cash flows. In the table above, approximately ¥0.01 billion has been subtracted from the amount of Free cash flows previously reported for the nine months ended December 31, 2003 to reflect the inclusion of payments for short-term loans and deposits.

Equity ratio = Shareholders' equity / Total assets

Debt ratio = Interest bearing liabilities / (Shareholders' equity + Interest bearing liabilities)

Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity

Effective April 1, 2004, DoCoMo adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ( SFAS ) No.150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. SFAS No.150 requires that certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity, which under previous guidance could be classified as equity, be classified as liabilities (or assets in some circumstances) in the statement of financial position. Further, SFAS No.150 requires disclosure regarding the terms of those instruments and settlement alternatives. The adoption of SFAS No.150 did not have any impact on DoCoMo s results of operations and financial position.

* No. of DoPa Single Service subscribers has been included in the number of mova subscribers beginning with the results for the first six months of the fiscal year ending Mar. 31, 2005 in order to conform the definition of subscribers with other mobile operators in Japan.

[Notes associated with the above-mentioned change]

Market share, net increase from previous period and churn rate data are all calculated inclusive of DoPa Single Service subscribers.

Edgar Filing: NTT DOCOMO INC - Form 6-K

Relevant items in the full-year results for the fiscal year ended Mar. 31, 2004 and the first quarter results for the fiscal year ending Mar. 31, 2005 have been modified by adding DoPa Single Service Subscribers to the numbers announced in the earnings release for the first quarter of the fiscal year ending Mar. 31, 2005.

ARPU and MOU data are calculated without including DoPa Single Service subscribers and DoPa Single Service-related revenues.

Please refer to the attached sheet (P.15 APPENDIX 2) for an explanation of the methods used to calculate ARPU, and the number of active subscribers used in calculating ARPU, MOU and Churn Rate.

- (1) Source for other cellular telecommunications operators: Data announced by Telecommunications Carriers Association
  - (2) DoPa Single Service subscribers are included in the calculation.
  - (3) Calculation does not include DoPa Single Service-related revenues and DoPa Single Service Subscribers.
  - (4) Inclusive of circuit-switched data communications
  - (5) MOU (Minutes of Usage) : Average communication time per one month per one user
  - (6) Sum of FOMA handsets and mova handsets
  - (7) Data on independent sites are from OH!NEW? by Digital Street inc.
  - (8) Not inclusive of data communication time via @FreeD service
  - (9) Percentage of data traffic to total outbound call time
  - (10) Included in total cellular subscribers

- *1 DoPa single service subscribers and the revenues thereof are not included in the ARPU and MOU calculations.
- *2 The denominator used in calculating i-mode ARPU (FOMA+mova, FOMA, mova) is the aggregate number of cellular subscribers to each service (FOMA+mova, FOMA, mova, respectively), regardless of whether i-mode service is activated or not.
- *3 ARPU generated purely from i-mode (FOMA+mova, FOMA, mova) is calculated using only the number of active i-mode subscribers as a denominator.
- \*4  $\text{active subscribers} = (\text{No. of subscribers at the end of previous month} + \text{No. of subscribers at the end of current month}) / 2$

Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Earnings Release contains forward-looking statements such as forecasts of results of operations, policies, management strategies, objectives, plans, recognition and evaluation of facts, expected number of subscribers, financial results and prospects of dividend payments. All forward-looking statements that are not historical facts are based on management's current expectations, assumptions, estimates, projections, plans, recognition and evaluations based on the information currently available. The projected numbers in this report were derived using certain assumptions that are indispensable for making projections in addition to historical facts that have been acknowledged accurately. These forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties. Known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors could cause the actual results to differ materially from those contained in or suggested by any forward-looking statement. DoCoMo cannot promise that its assumptions, expectations, projections, anticipated estimates or other information expressed in these forward-looking statements will turn out to be correct. Potential risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, the following:

Measures intended for the creation of new services, usage patterns and third-generation (3G) mobile communications services may not be as successfully implemented as planned.

The introduction or change of various laws or regulations that affect us or our competitive environment could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

The introduction of number portability in Japan may increase our expenses, and may lead to a decrease in our number of subscribers if our subscribers choose to switch to other cellular service providers.

Increasing competition from other cellular services providers or other technologies, or rapid changes in market trends, could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Our acquisition of new subscribers, retention of existing subscribers and revenue per unit may not be as high as we expect.

Subscribers may experience reduced quality of services because we have only a limited amount of spectrum and facilities available for our services.

The W-CDMA technology that we use for our 3G system and/or mobile multimedia services may not be introduced by other overseas operators, which could limit our ability to offer international services to our subscribers.

Our international investments, alliances and collaborations may not produce the returns or provide the opportunities we expect.

As electronic payment capability and many other new features are built into our cellular phones, and services of parties other than those belonging to our corporate group are provided through our cellular handsets, potential problems resulting from malfunctions, defects, or missing of handsets or imperfection of services provided by such other parties may arise, which could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Our future strategy for our PHS business, which operates at a loss, could further adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Edgar Filing: NTT DOCOMO INC - Form 6-K

Social problems that could be caused by misuse or misunderstanding of our products and services may adversely affect our credibility or corporate image.

Inadequate handling of subscriber information by our corporate group or contractors may adversely affect our credibility or corporate image.

Our parent, NTT, could exercise influence that may not be in the interests of our other shareholders.

Concerns about wireless telecommunications health risks may adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

System failures caused by earthquakes, power shortages or software and hardware malfunctions may adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Computer viruses and cyber attacks may harm our network systems and other communication systems using cellular phones.

Volatility and changes in the economic conditions and securities market in Japan and other countries may have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

FOMA ARPU/MOU

n FY2004 3rd quarter track record

FOMA ARPU dropped by 620 yen year-on-year to 9,650 yen, but FOMA MOU increased by 7 minutes to 234 minutes.

n MOU(Minutes of usage) : Average communication time per one month per one user.

n Average monthly revenue per unit, or ARPU, is used to measure average monthly revenues attributable to designated services on a per user basis. ARPU is calculated by dividing various revenue items included in operating revenues, such as monthly charges, voice transmission charges and packet transmission charges from designated services, by the number of active subscribers to the relevant services. Accordingly, the calculation of ARPU excludes revenues that are not representative of monthly average usage such as activation fees. We believe that our ARPU figures calculated in the above way provide useful information regarding the monthly average usage of our subscribers. The revenue items included in the numerators of our ARPU figures are based on our US GAAP results of operations. This definition applies to all ARPU figures hereinafter.

n Aggregate ARPU (FOMA) = Voice ARPU (FOMA) + Packet ARPU (FOMA)

n Voice ARPU (FOMA): Voice ARPU (FOMA) Related Revenues (monthly charges and voice transmission charges) / No. of active cellular phone subscribers (FOMA)

n Packet ARPU (FOMA): Packet ARPU (FOMA) Related Revenues (monthly charges and packet transmission charges) / No. of active cellular phone subscribers (FOMA)

n i-mode ARPU (FOMA): i-mode ARPU (FOMA) Related Revenues (monthly charges and packet transmission charges) / No. of active cellular phone subscribers (FOMA)

◆ No. of active subscribers used in ARPU (FOMA) and MOU (FOMA) calculations are as follows;

n FOMA quarterly: sum of No. of active subs. in each month of the current quarter n FOMA full year: sum of No. of active subs. in each month of current fiscal year.

* No. of active subs. in each month : (No. of subs. at end of previous month + no. of subs. at end of current month) / 2

◆ No. of active subscribers used in ARPU (FOMA+mova) and MOU (FOMA+mova) calculations are as follows;

n Cellular Phone quarterly: sum of No. of active subs. in each month of the current quarter n Cellular Phone full year: sum of No. of active subs. in each month of current fiscal year.

* No. of active subs. in each month : (No. of subs. at end of previous month + no. of subs. at end of current month) / 2

Table of Contents

Operating Expenses (US GAAP)

n Track record for the first 9 months of FY2004

Operating expenses dropped 3.1% year-on-year to 2,891.7 billion yen due to decline in revenue-linked expenses resulting from smaller replacement demand.

n Progress to full-year forecast

Spent 72.5% of the annual operating expenses budget of 3,990 billion yen.

* Revenue-linked expenses = cost of equipment sold + distributor commissions + cost of DoCoMo Point Service

Table of Contents

Capital Expenditures***

n Track record in the first 9 months of FY2004

Increased 21.3% compared to the same period of last fiscal year due to expansion of FOMA coverage and capacity build-up to accommodate growth in demand.

n Progress to full-year forecast

Spent 74% of the full-year CAPEX forecast of 855 billion yen.

n No. of DoPa Single Service subscribers, which had not been included in previous reports, has been included in no. of mova subscribers from the results for the first half of the year ending Mar. 31, 2005.

[Notes associated with the above-mentioned change]

Market share, no. of handsets sold and churn rate are calculated inclusive of DoPa Single Service subscribers.

Relevant items in third quarter results for the year ended Mar. 31, 2004 and full-year forecast for the year ending Mar. 31, 2005 have been modified by adding DoPa Single Service subs. to previously announced numbers.

n MOU(Minutes of usage): Average communication time per one month per one user.

n For an explanation of Average Revenue Per Unit (ARPU), see footnote on page 27 of the presentation.

◆ No. of active subscribers used in cellular phone/PHS churn rates, aggregate ARPU (PHS) and MOU (PHS) calculations are as follows;

n FY2003 third quarter and FY2004 third quarter Data: Sum of No. of active subscribers in each month  $\{(\text{No. of active subs. at end of previous month} + \text{No. of active subs at end of current month}) \div 2\}$  from October to December.

n 2005/3(E) Data: Sum of No. of active subs in each month  $\{(\text{No. of active subs at end of previous month} + \text{No. of active subs at end of current month}) \div 2\}$  from April to March.

◆ Calculation methods for No. of active subscribers used in ARPU (PHS), MOU (PHS) and Churn Rate were changed to made the subscriber figures more precise. In accordance with this change, 3Q results of 2003 are retroactively restated based on the new calculation method.
