ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

Altera Corporation ("Altera") entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release of Claims (the "Agreement") with Erik Cleage, former Senior Vice President of Marketing, setting forth, among other things, Mr. Cleage's severance arrangements.

Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Cleage's position as Senior Vice President of Marketing was terminated effective as of February 4, 2005. Thereafter, from February 7, 2005 through May 6, 2005 (the "Termination Date"), Mr. Cleage shall be employed by Altera on a part-time basis for which he shall receive an aggregate of $50,000. During the period of part-time employment, Mr. Cleage will receive reduced benefits in accordance with Altera's established benefits policy and vesting of previously granted stock options will cease. Following the Termination Date, Mr. Cleage shall be entitled to receive a severance amount of $400,000 to be paid in accordance with Altera's established payroll practices and he will have thirty days to exercise any vested stock options, in accordance with Altera's standard policies. In addition, Altera agreed to pay Mr. Cleage's annual executive bonus for fiscal year 2004 computed in accordance with Altera's standard practice. Altera also agreed to pay Mr. Cleage's share of COBRA payments for three months beginning on February 5, 2005, provided that such benefits would cease if Mr. Cleage becomes eligible for medical insurance coverage from a new employer. Furthermore, all benefits, including the severance amount, available to Mr. Cleage under the Agreement shall cease if he becomes an employee, officer, director or consultant of certain competitors of Altera prior to May 12, 2005.

In connection with his receipt of the severance amount and other benefits, Mr. Cleage agreed to a general release of claims. Mr. Cleage also continues to be subject to confidentiality obligations with respect to confidential and proprietary information of Altera.
