PART II RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- X (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- X (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report of transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company is filing Form 12b-25 because it needs additional time to file its annual report on Form 10-K, which was due February 10, 2005, due to the ongoing review of the Company's Chilean operation and the resulting inability of the Company's independent auditor, KPMG LLP, to complete the audit of its financial statements.

On January 10, 2005, the Company determined that it was unable to reconcile certain balance sheet accounts relating to its Chilean operations. As a result, and as previously announced on January 11, 2005, the Company postponed its planned fourth quarter and year-end earnings release scheduled for that date. Promptly thereafter, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors commenced an independent investigation into the accounting and financial reporting matters at the Company's Chilean operations. The Audit Committee engaged special counsel, Faegre & Benson LLP, and the independent accounting firm Ernst & Young LLP to assist in its investigation and report on this matter.

The investigation of the Chilean operations continues. The evidence to date indicates that certain members of the local accounting organization knowingly recorded incorrect entries to certain accounts in the Chilean financial statements. Furthermore, the investigation indicates a portion of these accounting irregularities involved the misappropriation of Company assets. The impact of these actions, which the investigation indicates began in fiscal year 1999, resulted in the cumulative overstatement of net income totaling $3.1 million. Because the investigation by the Audit Committee is ongoing and the Company's year end financial statement audit is not complete, there can be no assurance that the financial information included in this filing will not change upon completion of the Audit Committee's internal review and completion of the audit.

Explanation Referred to in Part IV, Item (3) of Form 12b-25

On February 10, 2005, H.B. Fuller Company reported the following operating results for its fourth quarter and fiscal year ended November 27, 2004:

Fourth Quarter Results

Fourth quarter net income as reported was $10.9 million or $0.38 per share (diluted). Last year's fourth quarter net income as reported was $13.3 million or $0.46 per share (diluted). This year's fourth quarter net income includes charges of $2.0 million relating to financial statement discrepancies, for years prior to 2004, uncovered during the Company's investigation of its Chilean operations. This results in an impact to earnings per share of $0.07 (diluted). The Company determined that the amounts relating to periods prior to 2004 were not material to the periods to which they pertain. In addition, as part of this investigation, the Company found overstatements of net income of $0.5 million ($0.02 impact to EPS on a diluted basis) and $0.6 million ($0.02 impact to EPS on a diluted basis) for the second and third quarters of 2004, respectively. As a result, the Company will restate the results for these quarters in its annual report on Form 10-K.

Net revenue for the fourth quarter of 2004 was $378.5 million, a 9.3 percent increase from the fourth quarter of 2003. Improved volumes and higher prices accounted for increases of 3.1 percent and 0.9 percent, respectively. Positive currency effects improved revenues by 2.6 percent, while the acquisition in Portugal announced earlier this year accounted for an increase of 2.7 percent.

Fourth Quarter Segment Results:

Global Adhesives' net revenue increased 10.7 percent compared to last year.

Volume increased 3.0 percent.

Prices increased 0.7 percent.

Currency had a positive impact of 3.1 percent.

Acquisitions had a positive impact of 3.9 percent.

Full-Valu / Specialty Group's net revenue increased 6.1 percent compared to last year.

Volume increased 3.2 percent.

Edgar Filing: FULLER H B CO - Form NT 10-K

Prices increased 1.5 percent.

Currency had a positive impact of 1.4 percent.

Total Year Results

Reported net income for fiscal year 2004 was $35.6 million or $1.23 per share (diluted), which includes $2.0 million of charges related to the financial statement discrepancies in Chile for periods prior to 2004. Last year's reported net income was $38.6 million, or $1.35 per share (diluted), which included $0.17 per share (diluted) of net charges for severance and other costs relating to the restructuring initiative.

Net revenue for fiscal year 2004 was $1,409.6 million, a 9.5 percent increase over fiscal year 2003. For the full year, volume increased 4.4 percent, pricing decreased 0.2 percent, currency had a positive impact of 3.3 percent, and acquisitions had a positive impact of 2.0 percent.

Safe Harbor for Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this filing may be considered forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to the following: political and economic conditions; product demand; competitive products and pricing; costs of and savings from restructuring initiatives; product mix; availability and price of raw materials; the Company's relationships with its major customers and suppliers; changes in tax laws and tariffs; devaluations and other foreign exchange rate fluctuations (particularly with respect to the euro, the British pound, the Japanese yen, the Australian and Canadian dollars, the Argentine peso and the Brazilian real); the effect of new accounting pronouncements and accounting charges and credits; the results of the Company's continuing review of the accuracy of the financial statements of its Chilean operations and completion of the Company's fiscal year 2004 financial statement audit; and similar matters. Further information about the various risks and uncertainties can be found in the Company's SEC 10-K filing of February 25, 2004 and 10-Q filings of April 6, July 2 and October 4, 2004. All forward-looking information represents management's best judgment as of this date based on information currently available that in the future may prove to have been inaccurate. Additionally, the variety of products sold by the Company and the regions where the Company does business makes it difficult to determine with certainty the increases or decreases in sales resulting from changes in the volume of products sold, currency impact, changes in product mix and selling prices. However, management's best estimates of these changes as well as changes in other factors have been included. References to volume changes include volume, product mix, and delivery charges, combined.
