DIAMOND HILL INVESTMENT GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

PART I

ITEM 1: Description of Business

General

Diamond Hill Investment Group, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated as a Florida corporation in April 1990 and reincorporated as an Ohio corporation in May 2002. The Company has one operating subsidiary company.

Diamond Hill Capital Management, Inc. (DHCM), an Ohio corporation, is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and a registered investment adviser. DHCM is the investment adviser to the Diamond Hill Funds, a series of open-end mutual funds, Diamond Hill Investment Partners, L.P. (DHIP), a private investment partnership, and also offers advisory services to institutional and individual investors.

The Company operates primarily as a holding company with investment advisory services provided by DHCM. The Company maintains an investment portfolio, composed of Diamond Hill Funds and DHIP, which are managed by DHCM. References to the Company also include references to DHCM.

In May of 2000, with the change in executive management, the Company shifted its emphasis from its traditional brokerage related activities to its investment advisory services. Staffing, other costs associated with this shift and various marketing initiatives have negatively impacted the Company since the change. Management believes that this process was necessary in order to achieve a critical threshold of assets under management to support operations in the future. The Company has made substantial progress; however, there can be no assurance the Company will be able to achieve and maintain the critical threshold of assets under management to support future operations.

During 2004, the Company transitioned the services of its broker-dealer subsidiary, Diamond Hill Securities (DHS) to third party broker-dealers and to DHCM. During the fourth quarter of 2004 DHS de-registered with the NASD and SEC as a broker-dealer and investment adviser. This transition had no material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Assets Under Management

As of December 31, 2004, assets under management totaled $523,793,479, a 109% increase from December 31, 2003. The table below provides a summary of assets under management as of December 31, 2004 and 2003:

Investment Advisory Activities

Diamond Hill Capital Management

DHCM executes its investment strategies through fundamental research. Analysts evaluate a company's prospects based upon its current business and financial position, future growth opportunities, and management capability and strategy. The intended result is a good estimate of intrinsic value. Intrinsic value is the present value of all future cash flows, which we estimate the investment will generate, discounted at a rate that reflects the required return for the investment given the estimated level of risk. In other words, it is the estimated price a minority shareholder should pay in order to achieve a satisfactory or fair return on the investment. The estimate of intrinsic value is then compared to current market prices to evaluate whether, in the opinion of DHCM, an attractive investment opportunity exists. A proprietary valuation model, which forecasts cash flows for five years including a terminal value (the expected stock price in five years), assists in many of these intrinsic value estimations. The adviser believes that although securities markets are competitive, pricing inefficiencies often exist allowing for attractive investment opportunities. Furthermore, DHCM believes that investing in securities whose market prices are significantly below DHCM's estimate of intrinsic value (or selling short securities whose market prices are above intrinsic value) is a reliable method to achieve above average returns as well as mitigate risk.

Currently available portfolio strategies managed by DHCM include All Cap Concentrated Equity, Small Cap Equity, Large Cap Equity, Long-Short Equity, Short-Term Fixed Income, and Strategic Income. These strategies are available on a separately managed basis and/or through a mutual fund.

The Company also offers a private investment partnership, DHIP, a limited partnership that invests in equity securities. DHCM is the managing member of the DHIP general partner and offers interests in the partnership to certain institutions and high net worth clients who typically invest at least $500,000 in the partnership.

Business Development

The Company develops investment advisory business with clients through direct contact or through financial intermediaries. The primary geographic areas are Ohio and Georgia, with current efforts outside these areas on an opportunistic basis.

As of December 31, 2004, the Company managed approximately $134 million in assets for multiple clients of Synovus Securities, Inc. (Synovus), a broker-dealer located in Columbus, Georgia. The Company has a Sub-Advisory Agreement with Synovus. These assets, which are in the Company's separately managed accounts, private investment partnership, and mutual fund products, make up approximately 25% of the Company's assets under management, down from 30% at December 31, 2003.

In addition, the Company has an Investment Advisory Agreement with the Diamond Hill Focus Long-Short Fund for which it derived 13% of its revenue from for 2004. This is the only client which represented more than 10% of its 2004 revenues.

For direct investment advisory business, the Company currently relies upon existing relationships with former clients and contacts of DHCM associates. The Company has also developed numerous relationships with financial intermediaries primarily for distribution of its mutual fund products to the retail market. During 2004, the Company hired a senior business development associate to focus on the institutional marketplace.

Competition

Edgar Filing: DIAMOND HILL INVESTMENT GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

Competition in the area of investment management services and mutual funds is intense and the Company's competitors include investment management firms, broker-dealers, banks and insurance companies. Many competitors are better known than the Company, are better capitalized, offer a broader range of investment products and have more offices, employees and sales representatives. The Company competes primarily on the basis of investment philosophy, performance and customer service.

Investment Portfolio

DHCM holds positions in the Company's fixed income mutual funds and DHIP.

In addition, due to the relatively thin market in the Company's Common Stock, quoted prices cannot be considered indicative of any viable market for such stock. During the year ended December 31, 2004, approximately 420,700 shares of the Company's Common Stock were traded.

ITEM 6: Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

Forward-looking Statements

Throughout this discussion, the Company may make forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 relating to such matters as anticipated operating results, prospects for achieving the critical threshold of assets under management, technological developments, economic trends (including interest rates and market volatility), expected transactions and acquisitions and similar matters. The words believe, expect, anticipate, estimate, project, should, and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date thereof. While the Company believes that the assumptions underlying its forward-looking statements are reasonable, investors are cautioned that any of the assumptions could prove to be inaccurate and, accordingly, the actual results and experiences of the Company could differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed by the Company in its forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause such actual results or experiences to differ from results discussed in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: the adverse effect from a decline in the securities markets; a decline in the performance of the Company's products; a general downturn in the economy; changes in government policy and regulation; changes in the Company's ability to attract or retain key employees; unforeseen costs and other effects related to legal proceedings or investigations of governmental and self-regulatory organizations; and other risks identified from time-to-time in the Company's other public documents on file with the SEC.

General

With the change in executive management in May of 2000, the Company shifted its emphasis from brokerage related activities, to the investment advisory services of its DHCM subsidiary. DHCM manages portfolios of equity and fixed income securities representing various economic sectors. Staffing and costs associated with this shift and the various marketing initiatives at DHCM negatively impacted the Company since the change. Management believes that this process was necessary in order to achieve a critical threshold of assets under management to support operations in the future. The Company has made substantial progress, however, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to achieve and maintain the critical threshold of assets under management to support future operations.

Business Prospects Going Forward

The Company's mutual funds, private investment partnership and separately managed accounts, have experienced strong relative three to five year investment returns that compare very favorably to competitors. For example, the six Diamond Hill mutual funds all were ranked in the top quartile of their respective categories at December 31, 2004 based on the rankings from Lipper Analytical, Inc., a top independent ranking firm. The investment returns have been a key driver in the success the company has achieved in growing assets under management at a rate in excess of 100% annually in 2004 and 2003. The company believes that it is appropriate to increase marketing and sales efforts to continue to grow assets under management which in turn generates advisory fee revenue.

As a result, the company expects to invest in marketing and development efforts throughout 2005 in an effort to expand distribution of its services and accelerate growth, such expenditures may include:

Registering the mutual funds in additional states

Offering I (a.k.a. Institutional) shares which should be attractive to fee-only intermediaries

Set-up and ongoing fees required to add the mutual funds and I share classes to several key brokerage platforms

Table of Contents

Attending and sponsoring booths at key industry conferences

Adding additional sales staff and support

Creating additional marketing material for the funds and separately managed accounts, and

Additional costs related to ongoing public relations, promotion and advertising

These efforts in total could cost in a range of $250,000 - $350,000 during 2005 and future years. There can be no assurance that these efforts will prove successful; however, given the investment results of the company's funds and separately managed accounts, the additional resources devoted to marketing seems warranted.

Year ended December 31, 2004 compared to Year ended December 31, 2003

Investment management revenues for the year ended December 31, 2004 increased to $2,468,490 compared to $1,160,584 for the year ended December 31, 2003, a 113% increase. This increase resulted primarily from new investment advisory business which increased assets under management from which the Company derives its revenues.

The Company increased its investment management revenue from all three of its investment products: mutual funds, managed accounts and its private investment partnership, DHIP. Revenues from mutual funds were up 119%, for the year ended December 31, 2004, from $465,549 to $1,020,238. Revenues from managed accounts were up 91%, for the year ended December 31, 2004, from $606,169 to $1,160,674. Investment management revenue collected from the DHIP, which include a performance incentive fee of approximately $194,524, grew 224%, increasing from $88,866 to $287,578. Assets under management, which is a key driver of revenue growth, increased to $523,793,479 as of December 31, 2004, a 109% increase since December 31, 2003. During 2004, the Company made significant progress toward achieving the critical threshold of assets under management to support future operations.

Operating expenses for the year ended December 31, 2004 increased to $2,968,173 from $2,184,801 for the year ended December 31, 2003, an increase of 36%. This increase is primarily related to staff additions to support the significant growth in assets under management, and incentive compensation earned related to the outstanding performance of the Company's investment products. Non-salary operating expenses were relatively flat year over year.

Mutual fund administration, which is administrative services fees collected in connection with the Company's mutual fund products net of all mutual fund administrative expenses paid by the Company, decreased from a net expense of $258,226 for the year ended December 31, 2003 to $75,007 for the year ended December 31, 2004, a 70% improvement. This improvement is primarily due to the increase in assets under management in the Company's mutual fund products. DHCM has an administrative, fund accounting and transfer agency services agreement with the Diamond Hill Funds, where DHCM performs certain services for each series of the trust. These services include mutual fund administration, accounting, transfer agency and other related functions. For performing these administrative services, each series of the trust compensates DHCM a fee at an annual rate of 0.45% times each series' average daily net assets. DHCM collected $619,835 and $268,164 for mutual fund administration revenue for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively. In fulfilling its role under this agreement, DHCM has engaged several third-party providers and the cost for their services are paid by DHCM. Mutual fund administration expense for the year ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 was $694,842 and $526,390, respectively. As assets under management grow in the mutual fund products, the Company expects the net mutual fund administration expense to continue to decrease.

Mutual fund distribution, which includes distribution fees collected in connection with sales of the Company's mutual funds net of all mutual fund distribution expenses paid by the Company, decreased slightly to a net expense of $91,940 for the year ended December 31, 2004 from $93,689 for the year ended December 31, 2003, a 2% decrease. For performing these distribution functions, DHS collected front-end and back-end sales loads, underwriting fees, and 12b-1 fees on fund investments. Mutual fund distribution revenue for the year ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 were $278,262 and $164,732, respectively. This increase in fees is primarily due to the increase in assets under management in the Company's mutual fund products. Prior to April 30, 2004 DHS was the principal underwriter for Diamond Hill Funds, an Ohio business trust, and paid third-party financial institutions a fee for distribution or for performing certain servicing functions for mutual fund shareholders. DHS and DHCM also pay for the production of marketing materials used in the distribution of the Diamond Hill Funds. Mutual fund distribution expense for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 were $370,202 and $258,421, respectively. This increase is the result of increased sales of the mutual fund shares in 2004 versus 2003.

Broker-dealer activity, which is revenue from security transactions and market-making activity net of broker-dealer expenses which are comprised principally of clearing costs and regulatory fees, decreased to a net income of $2,843 for the year ended December 31, 2004 from a net expense of $18,062 for the year ended December 31, 2003. Prior to transitioning its services and de-registering as a broker-dealer, DHS transacted security trades through its clearing broker under a correspondent agreement. For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, broker-dealer activity expenses were $7,814 and $44,449, respectively. DHS earned commissions and service fees related to business transacted through its clearing broker, along with gains and losses from market-making activities. Broker-dealer activity revenue for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 was $10,657 and $26,387, respectively. The decrease in both revenue and expenses is due to the planned transition of broker-dealer activities to third-party broker-dealers. This transition was completed during 2004 and the Company is not expected to have any further broker-dealer activity.

The Company's net operating loss decreased to $663,787 for the year ended December 31, 2004 from $1,394,194 for the year ended December 31, 2003, a 52% improvement.

Investment return, net of interest expense, increased to $487,287 for the year ended December 31, 2004 from $400,660 for the year ended December 31, 2003. Management is unable to predict how future fluctuations in market values will impact the performance of the Company's investment portfolios. As a result of positive company portfolio investment performance, the Company's net operating loss was reduced further, causing the net loss to decrease to $176,500 for the year ended December 31, 2004 compared $993,534 for the year ended December 31, 2003, an 82% improvement.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's entire investment portfolio is in readily marketable securities, which, provide for cash liquidity, if needed, within three business days. Investments in mutual funds are valued at their current net asset value. Investments in DHIP are valued based on readily available market quotations.

On July 22, 2003, the Company sold 110,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock, from Treasury Stock, to certain directors, officers and employees through a private placement at a price of $4.50 per share, thereby increasing the liquidity and capital resources by approximately $495,000. On July 21, 2004, the Company sold 60,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock, from Treasury Stock through a private placement at a price of $7.00, thereby increasing the liquidity and capital resources by approximately $420,000.

As of December 31, 2004, the Company had working capital of approximately $3.2 million compared to $2.8 million at December 31, 2003. The increase during the year ended December 31, 2004 is primarily due to the private placement offset by the net loss as part of operating activities. Working capital includes cash, securities owned and accounts and notes receivable, net of all liabilities. The Company has no long-term debt.

Edgar Filing: DIAMOND HILL INVESTMENT GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

The Company's net cash balance increased by $51,581 during the year ended December 31, 2004. Net cash used by operating activities was $472,112. The primary use of cash flow was the net loss of $176,500. Investing activities used $24,138 for property and equipment purchased during the year ended December 31, 2004. Financing activities provided $547,831 of cash during the year ended December 31, 2004, mostly from the $420,000 private placement on July 21, 2004.

Table of Contents

The Company's net cash balance decreased by $638,190 during the year ended December 31, 2003. Net cash used by operating activities was $1,154,250. The primary use of cash flow was the net loss of $993,534. Investing activities used $3,582 for property and equipment purchased during the year ended December 31, 2003, mostly from the $495,000 private placement on July 22, 2003.

Investment management revenue primarily fund the operations of the Company. Management believes that the Company's existing resources, including available cash and cash provided by operating activities, will be sufficient to satisfy its working capital requirements in the foreseeable future. However, no assurance can be given that additional funds will not be required. To the extent that returns on investments are less than anticipated, or expenses are greater than anticipated, the Company may be required to reduce its activities, liquidate the investment portfolio or seek additional financing. Further, this additional financing may not be available on acceptable terms, if at all. No significant capital expenditures are expected in the foreseeable future.

Impact of Inflation and Other Factors

The Company's operations have not been significantly affected by inflation. The Company's investment portfolios of equity and fixed income securities are carried at current market values. Therefore, the Company's profitability is affected by general economic and market conditions, the volume of securities trading and fluctuations in interest rates. The Company's business is also subject to government regulation and changes in legal, accounting, tax and other compliance requirements. Changes in these regulations may have a significant effect on the Company's operations.

DHS, under a correspondent agreement with its clearing broker, has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker from damages or losses resulting from customers' transactions. The Company is, therefore, exposed to off-balance sheet risk of loss in the event that customers are unable to fulfill contractual obligations. The Company manages this risk by requiring customers to have sufficient cash in their account before a buy order is executed and to have the subject securities in their account before a sell order is executed. The Company has not incurred any losses from customers being unable to fulfill contractual obligations.

Except as otherwise disclosed herein, we have no off-balance sheet arrangements with any obligation under a guarantee contract, or a retained or contingent interest in assets or similar arrangement that serves as credit, liquidity or market risk support for such assets, or any other obligation, including a contingent obligation, under a contract that would be accounted for as a derivative instrument.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2004 and 2003

Note 1 ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Diamond Hill Investment Group, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated as a Florida corporation in April 1990 and reincorporated as an Ohio corporation in May 2002. The Company has one operating subsidiary company.

Diamond Hill Capital Management, Inc. (DHCM), an Ohio corporation, is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and a registered investment adviser. DHCM is the investment adviser to the Diamond Hill Funds, a series of open-end mutual funds, and Diamond Hill Investment Partners, L.P. (DHIP), a private investment partnership, and also offers advisory services to institutional and individual investors.

During 2004, the Company transitioned the services of its broker-dealer subsidiary, Diamond Hill Securities (DHS) to third party broker-dealers and to DHCM. During the fourth quarter of 2004 DHS de-registered with the NASD and SEC as a broker-dealer and investment adviser. This transition had no material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Note 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of the Company's significant accounting policies:

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the operations of the Company, DHCM and DHS. All material inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Cash

Edgar Filing: DIAMOND HILL INVESTMENT GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

The Company has defined cash as demand deposits, certificate of deposits and money market accounts. The Company maintains its cash in three accounts with two financial institutions.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded when they are due and are presented in the statement of financial condition, net of any allowance for doubtful accounts. Accounts receivable are written off when they are determined to be uncollectible. Any allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated on the Company's historical losses, existing conditions in the industry, and the financial stability of those individuals that owe the receivable. No allowance for doubtful accounts was deemed necessary at December 31, 2004.

Valuation of Investment Portfolio

Investments in mutual funds are valued at their current net asset value. Investments in DHIP are valued based on readily available market quotations. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are included in investment profits and losses.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Continued)

December 31, 2004 and 2003

Limited Partnership Interests

DHCM is the managing member of Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC, the General Partner of Diamond Hill Investment Partners, L.P. (DHIP), a limited partnership whose underlying assets consist of marketable securities. DHCM's investment in DHIP is accounted for using the equity method, under which DHCM's share of the net earnings or losses of the partnership is reflected in income as earned and distributions received are reflected as a reduction of the investment. The Company is actively seeking additional unaffiliated investors for DHIP. Several board members, officers and employees of the Company are members in Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC. The capital of Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC is not subject to a management fee or an incentive fee.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment, consisting of computer equipment, furniture, and fixtures, is carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over estimated lives of three to seven years.

Revenues

Securities transactions are accounted for on the trade date basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date and interest income is accrued as earned. Realized gains and losses from sales of securities are determined utilizing the specific identification method.

Earnings Per Share

Basic and diluted earnings per common share are computed in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128, Earnings per Share. A reconciliation of the numerators and denominators used in these calculations is shown below:

For the year ended December 31, 2004:

Edgar Filing: DIAMOND HILL INVESTMENT GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

	Numerator	Denominator	Amount
Basic Earnings	$ (176,500)	1,566,385	$ (0.11)
Diluted Earnings	$ (176,500)	1,566,385	$ (0.11)

For the year ended December 31, 2003:

	Numerator	Denominator	Amount
Basic Earnings	$ (993,534)	1,458,264	$ (0.68)
Diluted Earnings	$ (993,534)	1,458,264	$ (0.68)

Stock options and warrants have not been included in the denominator of the diluted per-share computations because the effect of their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

Note 8 MUTUAL FUND ADMINISTRATION

DHCM has an administrative, fund accounting and transfer agency services agreement with Diamond Hill Funds, an Ohio business trust, under which DHCM performs certain services for each series of the trust. These services include mutual fund administration, accounting, transfer agency and other related functions. For performing these services, each series of the trust compensates DHCM a fee at an annual rate of 0.45% times each series' average daily net assets. DHCM collected $619,835 and $268,164 for mutual fund administration revenue for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively. In fulfilling its role under this agreement, DHCM has engaged several third-party providers, and the cost for their services is paid by DHCM. Mutual fund administration expense for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 was $694,842 and $526,390, respectively.

Note 9 MUTUAL FUND DISTRIBUTION

On April 30, 2004, DHS discontinued providing mutual fund distribution services as the principal underwriter for Diamond Hill Funds. As a result, DHS no longer receives distribution-related revenue; however, DHCM does get reimbursed from the current principal underwriter for certain distribution-related expenses. In addition, DHCM finances the up-front commissions paid to brokers who sell C Shares of the Diamond Hill Funds. As financier, DHCM pays the commission to the selling broker at the time of sale. This commission payment is capitalized and expensed over the trailing 12 months to correspond with the matching revenues DHCM receives from the principal underwriter to recoup this commission payment. Mutual fund distribution revenue for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 was $278,262 and $164,732, respectively. Note 11 EMPLOYEE INCENTIVE PLANS

Equity Compensation Grants

On May 13, 2004 the Company's shareholders approved terms and conditions of certain equity compensation grants to three key employees. Under the terms approved a total of 75,000 shares of restricted stock and restricted stock units were issued to key employees on May 31, 2004. The restricted stock and restricted stock units are restricted from sale and do not vest until May 31, 2009.

Stock Option Plan

The Company had a Non-Qualified and Incentive Stock Option Plan that authorized the grant of options to purchase an aggregate of 500,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The Plan provided that the Board of Directors, or a committee appointed by the Board, may grant options and otherwise administer the Option Plan. The exercise price of each incentive stock option or non-qualified stock option must be at least 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock at the date of grant, and no such option may be exercisable for more than ten years after the date of grant. However, the exercise price of each incentive stock option granted to any shareholder possessing more than 10% of the combined voting power of all classes of capital stock of the Company on the date of grant must not be less than 110% of the fair market value on that date. This Plan was adopted in 1993 and expired by its terms in November 2003. Options issued under this Plan are not affected by the Plan's expiration.

The Company applies Accounting Principles Board Opinion 25 and related Interpretations (APB 25) in accounting for stock options and warrants issued to employees and Directors. Accordingly, compensation cost is recognized, when appropriate, based on the intrinsic value of the stock options or warrants.

Had compensation cost for all of the Company's stock-based awards been determined in accordance with FAS 123, the Company's net income and earnings per share would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

Year Ended	Year Ended
December 31, 2004	December 31, 2003

Edgar Filing: DIAMOND HILL INVESTMENT GROUP INC - Form 10KSB

Net income (loss), as reported	$	(176,500)	$	(993,534)

Diluted pro forma	$	(0.18)	$	(0.83)

To make the computations of pro forma results under FAS 123, the fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions: no dividend yield for all years and expected lives of ten years. The options and warrants granted under these plans are not registered and, accordingly, there is no quoted market price.
