State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed period.

Management has worked diligently to complete and file in a timely manner the Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2005 (the Form 10-K). However, recent developments relating to the Registrant's accounting for income taxes may necessitate restatement of the Registrant's unaudited financial statements for one or more of the first three quarters of that fiscal year and have caused corresponding delays in completion of the audit of its annual financial statements for that fiscal year. These restatements will result in changes in the Registrant's originally announced earnings and earnings per share for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2005. The completion of the Registrant's annual audit, and any restatements of the Registrant's first three fiscal quarter financial statements and corresponding amendments to its Forms 10-Q for those periods, will not occur in sufficient time for the Registrant to: (i) complete its financial statements, (ii) assure that the information presented in the Form 10-K complies with the requirements of the form and applicable federal securities laws and regulations, and (iii) file the Form 10-K, within the prescribed period without unreasonable delay and expense.
