Item 7.01. Other Events.

Motive, Inc (the Company) will not file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2005 within the time period prescribed for such report.

The Audit Committee of the Company s Board of Directors is conducting a review of the Company s revenue recognition related to certain reseller transactions, and intends to engage external counsel and other advisors to assist in such review. The Company anticipates that it will file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2005, and the previously announced amendments to its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005, upon the completion of the Audit Committee s review. Additionally, the Company has filed a notice on Form 12b-25 with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The total amount of revenue recognized by the Company from reseller arrangements was $4.2 million in the 2004 calendar year, and $2.4 million in the nine-month period ended September 30, 2005 (after application of the Company s previously announced decision to eliminate revenue previously recognized from a reseller arrangement entered into in the quarter ended March 31, 2005).

In addition, the Company has been informed that the Division of Enforcement of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission is conducting an informal inquiry into Motive. The Company believes that the inquiry relates to the recent restatement of its financial results and certain executive stock sales. The Company is cooperating with the inquiry. The SEC has advised the Company that the inquiry should not be construed as either an indication by the SEC that any violations of law have occurred, or as an adverse reflection upon any person, entity or security.
