Security Valuation

Securities owned by the Funds for which market quotations are readily available are valued at current market value. Current market value means the last sale price of the day or, in the absence of any such sales, the bid price obtained from quotation reporting systems, pricing services or other approved methods. Other assets and securities for which no quotations are readily available are valued at fair value pursuant to procedures adopted by the Board of Trustees. The factors considered in making such valuations are subject to change over time and reviewed periodically. The values assigned to fair valued investments are based on future developments inherent in long-term investments. Further, because of the inherent uncertainty of valuation, those estimated values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market of the investments existed, and the differences could be material.

Options, Futures and Swap Agreements

The current market value of an exchange traded option is the last sale price or, in the absence of a sale, the price obtained by reference to broker-dealer quotations. Futures contracts are valued daily at the settlement price established by the board of trade or exchange on which they are traded. Futures contracts are marked-to-market on a daily basis. As the contract's value fluctuates, payments known as variation margin are made or received by the Fund each day, depending on the daily fluctuation in the value of the contract. The daily changes in contract value are recorded as unrealized gains or losses, and the Fund recognizes a gain or loss when the contract is closed. Swap agreements are generally priced daily based upon quotations from brokers and the change, if any, is recorded as unrealized appreciation or depreciation.

The following is a summary of open credit default swap contracts outstanding at September 30, 2005:

Agreement With:	Termination Date	The Fund Agrees to Pay	The Fund will Receive	Contract Notional Amount	Unrealized Appreciation/ (Depreciation)
Deutsche Bank AG (General Motors Acceptance Corporation, 6.75%, due 12/1/14)	December 20, 2005	Specified amount upon credit event notice ^A	1.75% Quarterly	$ 7,500.00	$ (4)

^A Upon bankruptcy or failure to make a scheduled interest payment, the Fund will pay $1,000.
