Agreement in Principle to Settle Securities Class Action Lawsuit

On May 18, 2005 a securities class-action lawsuit, captioned Legion Partners, LLP v. Willbros Group, Inc. et al., was filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas against Willbros Group, Inc. (the Company) and certain of its present and former officers and directors. Thereafter, three nearly identical lawsuits were filed. Plaintiffs purported to represent a class composed of all persons who purchased or otherwise acquired Company common stock and/or other securities between May 6, 2002 and May 16, 2005, inclusive. These complaints generally alleged violations by the defendants of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act), Rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act and Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act and alleged, among other things, that defendants made false or misleading statements of material fact about the Company's financial statements. The plaintiffs sought unspecified monetary damages and other relief. On October 17, 2005, the Court ordered these actions consolidated and appointed ADAR Investments, LLC as Lead Plaintiff and Bernstein, Liebhard & Lifshitz of New York as Lead Plaintiff's counsel. As ordered by the Court, the plaintiff filed a consolidated amended complaint on January 9, 2006. The Consolidated Amended Complaint alleged that the Company and certain of its present and former officers and directors, including Michael Curran, Warren Williams, and J. Kenneth Tillery, violated the Exchange Act through a series of false and misleading statements and a scheme to defraud. The alleged misrepresentations and scheme to defraud related to the activities of Mr. Tillery in Nigeria and Bolivia, certain alleged accounting errors, the restatement of past financial results, and alleged Foreign Corrupt Practices Act violations. The plaintiffs sought to recover damages on behalf of all purchasers of Company common stock during the purported class period.

On August 9, 2006, the Company reached an agreement in principle to settle this consolidated securities class action lawsuit. Under the terms of the agreement in principle, the Company and the plaintiffs will negotiate and seek court approval of the definitive settlement. The settlement will be funded by the Company's insurance carrier, and will include the dismissal of all claims without any liability or wrongdoing attributed to the Company or any other defendant.
