Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 4, 2008, R&G Financial Corporation (the "Company") announced by press release that it had received regulatory permission from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Federal Reserve"), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, to make dividend payments on its preferred stock and distributions on its trust preferred securities that are due to be paid in April 2008. The permission granted by the Federal Reserve was conditioned upon the financial support provided by Mr. Victor Galán, a director and former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, through his purchase of a small portfolio of delinquent loans, which will assist the Company in the partial funding of the Company's April dividend payments. The Company continues to believe it is very uncertain that future dividends and distributions will be approved absent material improvements to the Company's liquidity, capital and cash flows. While it is possible that approval may be obtained and the Company is taking steps to apply for further approvals, the Company currently expects that the payment of dividends and distributions on its outstanding preferred stock or its trust preferred securities is unlikely in the foreseeable future.

The information furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibit 99.1, shall not be deemed filed for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be incorporated by reference into any of the Company's filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, unless otherwise expressly stated in such filing.
