Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

The information provided in Item 2.03 is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

As of May 16, 2008, Smithfield Foods, Inc. (the Company) and The Smithfield Packing Company, Incorporated (Smithfield Packing and collectively with the Company, the Borrowers) executed a secured uncommitted line of credit agreement (the Short-Term Credit Agreement) with Citibank, N.A. (Citibank). In connection with the Short-Term Credit Agreement, Smithfield Packing entered into a Security Agreement in favor of Citibank and a Deed of Trust, Assignment of Leases and Security Agreement (the Deed of Trust) as grantor for the benefit of Citibank.

Under the Short-Term Credit Agreement, Citibank may from time to time make advances to the Borrowers through November 18, 2008 up to $150 million. The proceeds of any advances under the Short-Term Credit Agreement are to be used solely for general corporate purposes.

Pursuant to the Security Agreement and the Deed of Trust, the Short-Term Credit Agreement is secured by liens of the real property, and the equipment related thereto, known as Smithfield Packing s Tar Heel facility in Bladen County, North Carolina.

Under the Short-Term Credit Agreement, Citibank will consider the following two types of requests for advances by the Borrowers:

Eurodollar Rate Advances, which have an interest rate derived from a LIBOR based formula; and Quoted Rate Advances, which have an interest rate quoted by the lender and agreed to by the Borrowers.

The Short-Term Credit Agreement terminates on the earlier of:

November 18, 2008; or the date either party thereto provides written notice of termination (collectively, such date is referred to as the Termination Date).

The Company is required to repay principal amounts borrowed under the Short-Term Credit Agreement on the earliest to occur of:

demand;

the Termination Date; and the last day of the interest period of such advance.

The Borrowers may elect to prepay principal at any time.

The Short-Term Credit Agreement also contains standard representations and warranties and indemnification obligations by the Company.

On May 20, 2008, the Company borrowed $100 million under the Short-Term Credit Agreement under a Quoted Rate Advance at an approximate interest rate of 6.57%. The Company used the borrowings from the Short-Term Credit Agreement to pay down the Company s U.S. revolving credit facility.

The Short-Term Credit Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report, the Security Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this report and the Deed of Trust is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this report.

The foregoing summary description of such agreements and the transactions contemplated by them are qualified in their entirety by reference to the complete text of such agreements.
