Item 8.01. Other Events.

On February 20, 2009, Cell Therapeutics, Inc. (the Company) exercised its option to sell its 50% ownership interest in the 50/50 owned joint venture with Spectrum Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Spectrum) to commercialize and develop Zevadin (triflutumomab tiuxetan) (Zevalin) in the United States to Spectrum for $18 million, as may be adjusted for amounts owed between the Company and the joint venture as of the closing (the Purchase Price), pursuant to the term of the operating agreement for the joint venture, dated December 15, 2008 (the LLC Agreement). The Company and Spectrum established the joint venture, RIT Oncology, LLC, in December 2008, pursuant to the Purchase and Formation Agreement dated November 26, 2008 (Purchase Agreement), at which time the Company contributed all of the Zevalin related assets to the joint venture and sold to Spectrum a 50% membership interest in the joint venture for $15 million, plus certain milestone payments.

At the closing of the sale of the Company's 50% membership interest in the joint venture to Spectrum, Spectrum shall either pay the Purchase Price in full or at its option the Company will receive one-third of the Purchase Price, with another one-third of the Purchase Price paid 45 days after the closing and the remaining one-third of the Purchase Price paid 90 days after the closing. The consummation of the sale option transaction is contingent upon the satisfaction of certain closing conditions, including the delivery of a legal opinion from counsel to the Company, as specified in the LLC Agreement. Additionally, a $750,000 consent fee is required to be paid to Biogen Idec, Inc. (Biogen) under the terms of a certain security agreement and guarantee in favor of Biogen (which fee shall be shared equally between the Company and Spectrum pursuant to the terms of the pledge agreement dated December 15, 2008).

The Purchase Agreement was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 19, 2008.

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 is a press release relating to the events described herein.
