EXPLANATORY NOTE

Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc. (Phoenix Footwear), filed a Current Report on Form 8-K dated April 29, 2009 (the April 2009 Form 8-K) in which Phoenix Footwear furnished information under Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities with respect to the execution of an Asset Purchase Agreement dated April 23, 2009 (the Original Purchase Agreement) between Phoenix Footwear's wholly-owned subsidiary, Chambers Belt Company (Chambers) and Tandy Brands Accessories, Inc. (Tandy). The Original Purchase Agreement provided for Tandy's purchase of Chambers private label business through an asset sale and the subsequent planned shut-down of Chambers upon the completion of the Wrangler Apparel, Inc. (Wrangler) licenses referred to below. Phoenix Footwear is now filing an amendment to the April 2009 Form 8-K in order to update and provide further detail on the restructuring plans under Item 2.05. Accordingly, the information in Item 2.05 below amends and restates in its entirety Item 2.05 of the April 2009 Form 8-K.

INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Section 1-Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amended and Restated Asset Purchase Agreement

On July 9, 2009, Chambers and Tandy entered into an Amended and Restated Asset Purchase Agreement (the Amended Purchase Agreement) which amended and restated the Original Purchase Agreement. The Amended Purchase Agreement provided for the additional sale of Chambers Wrangler brand business together with the private label business. Chambers conducted the Wrangler business under a License Agreement dated January 1, 2007 between Chambers and Wrangler pursuant to which Chambers had the right to sell Wrangler branded products to the mass market (the Mass License) and a License Agreement dated January 1, 2008 between Chambers and Wrangler pursuant to which Chambers had the right to sell to the western store market (the Western License).

On July 9, 2009, the transactions contemplated by the Amended Purchase Agreement were closed and in accordance therewith Chambers sold to Tandy substantially all of its assets (excluding, among other assets, accounts receivable, cash and cash equivalents). Also Tandy assumed all of Chambers obligations arising after the closing under vendor and customer purchase orders, Chambers Maquiladora Agreement and certain leases.

Pursuant to the Amended Purchase Agreement, in partial payment of the purchase price, Tandy paid to Chambers at the closing approximately $3.5 million in immediately available funds, including approximately $2.6 million for inventory. During the first 30 days after closing, Tandy has the right to audit the cost component of the inventory payment. As additional purchase price consideration, during the first 12 months after the closing Tandy is obligated to pay Chambers on a monthly basis 21.5% of the net revenue that Tandy recognizes from sales during this period of Chambers former products. These generally include private label products previously sold by Chambers, Chambers trademark branded products and Wrangler branded products to the mass merchandise market and the western market. Tandy is obligated to pay Chambers minimum earn-out payments that in the aggregate are not less than $2.0 million.

Concurrently with the closing of the Chambers asset sale, Chambers, Tandy and Wrangler entered into an Amendment, Assignment and Assumption of License Agreement pursuant to which Chambers assigned to Tandy all of its rights and Tandy assumed all of Chambers remaining obligations (other than the remaining quarterly royalty obligations due Wrangler which continues to be Chambers' responsibility except in the case of a default on the license by Tandy) under the Mass License (which was amended to extend through and including June 30, 2010). Also, the same parties entered into an Amendment, Assignment and Assumption of License Agreement pursuant to which Chambers assigned to Tandy all of its rights and Tandy assumed all of Chambers remaining obligations under the Western License.

The Amended Purchase Agreement contains limited representations and warranties, covenants and indemnification. At the closing, Phoenix Footwear executed and delivered its Guaranty dated July 9, 2008 guaranteeing Chambers post-closing obligations under the Amended Purchase Agreement.

Forbearance Agreement and First Amendment to Credit and Security Agreement

Effective July 9, 2009, Phoenix Footwear and its subsidiaries together with Wells Fargo National Bank Association (Wells Fargo), entered into an Amendment and Forbearance Agreement (the Amendment). The Amendment amends and modifies certain terms of the Credit and Security Agreement dated June 10, 2008 (the Credit Agreement) among Phoenix Footwear and its subsidiaries and Wells Fargo. In connection with the Amendment, Wells Fargo provided its consent to the Chambers asset sale and released its security interest and lien on the transferred Chambers assets.

Under the terms of the Amendment, the following changes were made to the Credit Agreement:

the maximum availability under the line of credit was reduced to $6.5 million (subject to a borrowing base limit), the borrowing base was revised to reflect the Chambers asset sale and certain other requirements, the interest rate applicable to outstanding advances was changed to a daily three month LIBOR rate plus 5.50%, a new affirmative covenant was added that requires Phoenix Footwear to provide Wells Fargo with certain budgets and projections on a weekly basis and to participate in weekly teleconference calls, new financial covenants were added that require weekly minimum net sales and net cash flow, additional collateral was required in the form of a mortgage for the real property owned by Phoenix Footwear's wholly-owned subsidiary, Penobscot Shoe Company, which is located in Penobscot, Maine, and there was eliminated a $340,000 exit fee that was payable if the Credit Agreement is repaid in full and the line of credit terminated under certain circumstances.

Under the Amendment, Wells Fargo agreed, during a forbearance period, to refrain from exercising any rights and remedies which it is or may become entitled to as a result of the existing past financial covenant defaults (the Specified Events of Default). Also, the Amendment provides for Wells Fargo to continue making advances under the line of credit, subject to the conditions of the Credit Agreement excluding, however, the Specified Events of Default. The forbearance period began on July 9, 2009 and ends on July 31, 2009, subject to earlier termination at the election of Wells Fargo in the event of an occurrence of any event of default under the Credit Agreement other than the Specified Events of Default, and subject to automatic termination in the event of the occurrence of certain insolvency proceedings involving Phoenix Footwear or its subsidiaries.

The Amendment provides that the continuing forbearance by Wells Fargo is conditioned upon Phoenix Footwear's continuing engagement of a financial turnaround consulting firm (which has occurred) to provide specified financial consulting services and the repayment in full of all indebtedness owed to Wells Fargo before July 31, 2009. The Amendment requires Phoenix Footwear to pay a $340,000 forbearance fee, including $170,000 concurrent with the closing of the Chambers asset sale and $170,000 on the termination of the forbearance period.

The proceeds from the Chambers asset sale were used to pay down the outstanding indebtedness owed by Phoenix Footwear and its subsidiaries under the Credit Agreement. Following this application of proceeds, Phoenix Footwear had $4.5 million outstanding under the Credit Agreement with remaining availability of $2.0 million. Chambers plans to collect its accounts receivable and the earn-out payments owed by Tandy to repay this indebtedness. In addition, Phoenix Footwear is in active discussions with several replacement lenders and has received proposals to refinance its Wells Fargo indebtedness. There can be no assurance that such refinancing will be obtained or that it will be on favorable terms and conditions.

Prior to July 31, 2009, Phoenix Footwear plans to seek an extension of the forbearance period so that it may complete a refinancing of its remaining indebtedness and repay Wells Fargo in full. Based on the remaining collateral and Phoenix Footwear's restructured operations, Phoenix Footwear expects such a request to be granted. However, there is no assurance that it will be granted or the terms and conditions thereof. If such a request is not granted, Wells Fargo may accelerate Phoenix Footwear's indebtedness and/or foreclose on its assets.

As reported under Section 1 Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement above, with the Chambers asset sale completed, Chambers plans to wind-down its business by collecting its accounts receivable and Tandy earn-out payments and settling its accounts payable. In connection with this discontinuance, the Phoenix Footwear estimates that it will incur a pre-tax charge of between $2.1 million and $2.5 million which will be recorded and reported in the second and third quarters of the 2009 fiscal year. The charge is expected to be comprised of approximately $500,000 to $600,000 of cash restructuring charges (related to severance payments and other costs associated with exiting the business) to be paid during the third and fourth quarters of the 2009 fiscal year and approximately $1.6 million to $1.8 million of non-cash restructuring charges (including write-offs of fixed assets, net of gain, and inventory).
