Acorn International Announces Chief Financial Officer to Step Down

SHANGHAI, China, March 12, 2010 Acorn International, Inc. (NYSE: ATV) ( Acorn or the Company ), a leading integrated multi-platform marketing company in China engaged in developing, promoting and selling consumer products and services through extensive distribution network, today announced that effective April 1, 2010 Gordon Wang will step down as Chief Financial Officer ( CFO ) in order to pursue other professional interests.

Following his departure, Mr. Wang will continue serving as an external consultant to continue contributing his knowledge and expertise to the Company. The Company has initiated a search for a qualified CFO with international management and U.S. capital markets experience. Mr. David He, Vice President of Operations in charge of the Company s financial systems, logistics, and payments systems, will serve as interim CFO until a successor is named.

Mr. Wang has been a valuable member of our team and I would like to personally thank him for his contribution as CFO for the past five years, during which he successfully led our initial public offering and listing on the New York Stock Exchange, said Mr. James Hu, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Acorn. We will continue to benefit from Gordon s industry knowledge as a consultant to the Company. In the mean time, with his background and history with Acorn, we are confident that David He is well-prepared to serve as the interim CFO as we continue our search for a permanent replacement.

It has been a great experience serving as Acorn s CFO for the past five years. I look forward to continue working with the management team in a consulting role, taking the Company to the next level, commented Mr. Wang. I will work closely with Mr. He and the rest of the management team to ensure a smooth transition to the new CFO.
